ADDRESS OF RETIRING MODERATOR.

Dr. Reid, the retiring Moderator, addressed the Assembly, acknowledging again the honour conferred upon him by his election to the Moderatorship, and the support accorded to him in the discharge of the duties of the Chair,—recounting some of the changes which had taken place since last Assembly, in the removal by death of many beloved brethren, and closing with the intimation that the time had come for making choice of a new Moderator.

ELECTION OF MODERATOR.

Nominations to the office of Moderator, sent up by Presbyteries, were produced and read. These were: in favour of Mr. Donald McRae, M.A., of St. John, by the Presbyteries of Victoria and Richmond, Wallace, Lunenburg and Yarmouth, St. John, Miramichi, Prince Edward Island, Newfoundland, Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa, Lanark and Renfrew, Bröckville, Saugeen, Guelph, Manitoba; in favour of Dr. Bell, by the Presbytery of Hamilton; in favour of Professor McLaren, by the Presbytery of Huron; in favour of Professor Gregg, by the Presbytery of Bruce; in favour of Principal McKnight, by the Presbyteries of Pictou, Truro, and Halifax; in favour of Dr. Proudfoot, by the Presbytery of Sydney; in favour of Dr. Cochrane, by the Presbytery of Stratford. Twelve Presbyteries, namely, those of Paris, London, Chatham, Maitland, Glengarry, Kingston, Peterboro', Whitby, Lindsay, Toronto, Barrie, Owen Sound, made no nominations.

It was moved by Dr. Cook, seconded by Principal McKnight, That Mr. Donald McRae be chosen as Moderator of this General Assembly. Mr. McRae was unanimously elected, and being present was conducted to the Chair by Drs. Cook and McKnight, and addressed the House at length.

REPLIES TO ADDRESSES.

Dr. Reid presented and laid on the table a despatch from the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, Sir M. E. Hicks-Beach, to the Governor-General, intimating that the address of last Assembly to the Queen had been presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive it very graciously, and to express much gratification with the sentiments of loyalty and sympathy contained therein. There was presented, also, and read a despatch from the Governor-General of this Dominion heartily thanking the Assembly for their Address to him, and expressing regret that it had not been in his power to receive the Assembly in person at Ottawa last year.

THANKS TO THE RETIRING MODERATOR.

It was moved by Dr. Jenkins, seconded by Principal Caven, and carried unanimously, That the thanks of the General Assembly be tendered to Dr. Reid for the able and efficient manner in which he had discharged the duties of the Moderatorship during the year, and for the excellent sermon preached by him this evening. The Moderator, in suitable terms, conveyed to Dr. Reid the thanks of the House.

REQUEST OF FOREIGN MISSION COMMITTEE.

Professor McLaren, on behalf of the Foreign Mission Committee, asked that they be allowed to sit to-morrow morning, in order to complete their business. The leave craved was granted.

REPORT OF BUSINESS COMMITTEE.

The Committee to prepare business for the First Sederunt of the Assembly handed in a Report which was read by Mr. R. Torrance, the Clerk of said Committee. It was moved by Dr. McVicar, duly seconded, and agreed to, That the report be received and its several recommendations considered.

THE CLERKSHIP OF ASSEMBLY.

The first recommendation of the Report was in terms following:—"That in view of the vacancy caused by the lamented death of Prof. J. H. Mackerras, M.A., Dr. Fraser, the other Clerk of the Assembly, supply his place." It was moved by Dr. Jenkins, duly seconded and agreed to, That this recommendation be not now adopted, and that the consideration of the question of the Clerkship of the Assembly be the first order of business for to-morrow afternoon.

The remaining recommendations of the Report were adopted, and, in accordance therewith, the following appointments were made:—

HOURS OF MEETING.

I. That the hours of meeting for the present Session of Assembly be from ten o'clock in the morning till one in the afternoon, from three till half-past five, and from half-past seven till ten in the evening. It was also resolved that this order be so far departed from that, to-morrow morning, the Assembly shall meet at eleven o'clock, and spend the first hour in devotional exercises.

COMMITTEE ON BILLS AND OVERTURES.

II. That the following members, in addition to the officials mentioned in Standing Order Number Two, constitute the Committee on Bills and Overtures and also on Business for the ensuing Session, viz.:—Dr. Waters, Messrs. A. McLean Sinclair, R. H. Warden, D. M. Gordon, B.D., Principal Grant, J. M. King, M.A., John Thompson (of Sarnia), Dr. James, Prof. Bryce, Ministers; Messrs. G. W. Underwood, J. K. Munnis, A. C. Hutchison, Dr. Christie, W. Adamson, Charles Davidson, W. T. Root, Archibald Matheson, James Croil, Elders. The Committee were instructed to meet at nine o'clock to-morrow morning, and thereafter on their own adjournments.

COMMITTEE ON COMMISSIONS.

III. That the following be a Committee on Commissions:—Dr. Bell, Convener, Messrs. J. C. Smith, and Robert Campbell, Ministers; with Messrs. Robert Murray, and J. K. Blair, Elders.

RECORDS, COMMITTEES ON.

IV. That the following be the Committees to revise the Records of the General Assembly, of the several Synods, and of the Presbytery of Manitoba, namely:—

1. On the Record of the General Assembly, Messrs. James Middlemiss, and J. Scrimger, with the Hon. Samuel Creelman.
2. On the Record of the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, Messrs. J. Ballantyne, F. W. Farries, and Mr. George Hay.
3. On the Record of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, Dr. Jardine, Mr. John McMillan (Truro), and Mr. John Montgomery, from the Presbytery of Paris.
4. On the Record of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston, Dr. Proudfoot, Mr. A. D. McDonald, and Mr. John Charlton, M.P.

5. On the Record of the Synod of Hamilton and London, Messrs. G. M. Milligan, James Hastie, and William Wilson.

6. On the Record of the Presbytery of Manitoba, Messrs. G. L. McNeill, St. John's, J. Leiper, and John Stirling.

REMITTS, COMMITTEE ON RETURNS TO.

V. That the following be a Committee to examine and classify the Returns to Remits sent down last year to the several Presbyteries, namely:—Mr. D. J. Macdonell, Convener, Dr. William Moore, Messrs. J. S. Black, Hector McQuarrie, George Bruce, Dr. P. G. McGregor, Prof. Weir, and Mr. W. B. McMurrich.

TELEGRAM FROM DR. MACKAY.

There was read from the table a telegram from Dr. G. L. Mackay, of Formosa, dated this day, at Edinburgh, Scotland, and addressed to Prof. McLaren, Convener of the Foreign Mission Committee, Western Section, saying in effect, that he, Dr. Mackay, had been delayed in his journey hitherto by severe illness, but was now better, and expressing regret for his unavoidable absence from this meeting of Assembly.

The Assembly adjourned to meet in this place at eleven o'clock to-morrow morning, intimation of which was publicly given, and this Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

SECOND SEDERUNT.

At Montreal, and within Crescent Street Church there, Thursday, the tenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty years, at eleven o'clock, a.m.:—

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada met pursuant to adjournment, and was constituted with praise and prayer by the Moderator.

The Minutes of the First Sederunt were read and sustained.

SPECIAL DEVOTIONAL SERVICES.

Devotional services of a special character were engaged in, prayer being offered, successively, by Dr. Gregg, Mr. Thomas Duncan, Mr. John Thompson, of Sarnia, and Dr. McVicar, with the reading of portions of Scripture and the singing of Psalms, in the intervals.

REPORT ON BUSINESS.

Dr. Waters, the Clerk of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, presented and read a report recommending the order of business for this day. The report was received and its recommendations adopted.

BROOKSDALE APPEAL.

The Assembly proceeded to take up an appeal of the Presbytery of Stratford, from action of the Synod of Hamilton and London, in the case of the congregation of Brooksdale. Parties were called, and compared.

The Assembly agreed to refer this appeal, with all the papers in the case, to a Committee, consisting of the following members, namely:—Mr. John Gray, of Orillia, Principal Caven, Mr. W. B. McMurrich, Hon. S. Creelman, Dr. McVicar, Messrs. James McLennan, Q.C., George Hay, Principal McKnight—Principal Caven, Convener.

APPLICATIONS FOR RECEPTION OF MINISTERS.

There were read extract minutes of the Presbytery of Truro, embodying an application from Mr. James Christie to renew his relations to the Church as a minister of the Gospel, and transmitting said application to the General Assembly without special action thereanent. There were read, also, extract minutes of the same Presbytery, making application on behalf of Mr. F. W. Archibald, a Licentiate of the Presbytery of Baltimore, United States, to be received as a Licentiate of this Church. Similar applications were presented by the Presbytery of Toronto in favour of Mr. Christopher Smith, a minister of the Free Church of Scotland; and by the Presbytery of London on behalf of Mr. Reese, a minister of the Baptist Church. There was read and received further, a memorial from Dr. Proudfoot and others, praying that the application of Mr. William Doak, to have his relations to the Church renewed—adversely disposed of at the Assembly of last year—be now favourably re-considered.

It was agreed to remit the foregoing applications to a Committee, consisting of the following members, that is to say:—Messrs. John McMillan (Truro), E. A. McCurdy, Hon. D. McCurdy, R. Campbell, J. Crombie, Hon. G. Bryson, Dr. Gregg, J. C. Smith, Hon. John McMurrich, Thos. Yellowlees, Dr. James, Dr. Proudfoot, J. Ballantyne, Hon. Alex. Morris—Dr. Gregg, Convener.

The Assembly appointed the following Committee to nominate members for the Standing Committees of the Church during the year, viz.:—Messrs. A. McLean Sinclair, S. Houston, J. K. Blair, G. W. Underwood, J. Scrimger, D. M. Gordon, George Hay, R. H. Warden, T. G. Smith, J. M. King, W. Adamson, Walter McKenzie, J. Laing, Dr. Bell, W. T. Root, S. G. McCaughey, Prof. Bryce, James Croil—Mr. J. Laing, Convener.

LOYAL ADDRESSES, COMMITTEE ON.

The following Committee was appointed to draft an address to Her Majesty the Queen, and also an address to the Governor-General of this Dominion, viz.:—Dr. Jenkins, Convener, Mr. Thomas Talloch, Dr. McDonald, and Dr. Kemp.

APPLICATIONS FOR LEAVE TO RETIRE FROM THE MINISTRY.

The Assembly took up applications on behalf of certain ministers for leave to retire from the active duties of the ministry, and to be placed upon the Fund for Aged and Infirm Ministers; as also applications, on behalf of some ministers already retired, for an interest in said fund. There were read extract Minutes of the Presbytery of Lunenburg and Yarmouth making application on behalf of Mr. Wm. Duff. Similar applications were presented by the Presbytery of Toronto on behalf of Mr. W. C. Young; by the same Presbytery on behalf of Mr. George Lawrence; by the Presbytery of Barrie, in favour of Mr. Walter Wright; by the Presbytery of Huron, on behalf of Mr. Matthew Barr; and by the Presbytery of Quebec, in favour of Mr. James Hanran.

The Assembly agreed to refer the applications foregoing to a Committee to consider the same and report. The Committee was appointed as follows:—Mr. T. Sedgwick, Convener, Messrs. J. Middlemiss, J. Burgess, A. D. McDonald, J. Somerville, D. McDonald (Creemore), John Smith (Toronto), Robert Bell, James Barr, Archibald Campbell, David McLellan, Wm. Wilson (Ottawa), R. Fraser.

BOUNDARIES OF PRESBYTERIES.

There were presented applications for the transference of congregations, and for the change of boundaries of Presbyteries, as follows:—From the Presbytery of Kingston, for the transference of the Congregation of Blairton; from the Presbytery of Toronto, anent the boundaries of the Presbyteries of Toronto and Saugeen; from the Presbytery of Barrie, transmitted by the Synod of Toronto and Kingston, for the transference of the Congregation of Honeywood from said Presbytery to that of Toronto; from the Synod of Toronto and Kingston, for the transference of Burns' Church, Rocky Saugeen; from the Presbytery of Kingston, for the transference of the Congregation of Moreton to the Presbytery of Brockville; from the Presbytery of London, for the division of said Presbytery.

The Assembly appointed the following Committee, to whom it was agreed to refer the applications foregoing, to consider the same and report at a subsequent Sederunt, viz.:—Messrs. John Gray (Orillia), George Bruce, A. T. Colter, J. M. King, John McMillan, John Thompson, P. McF. McLeod, Wm. McKibbin, Thos. Sedgwick, Dr. Jardine, T. S. Chambers, George Spence, W. Russell, John Charlton, M.P., J. M. Muir, Peter Christie, A. G. Bowes, Captain Gibson—Mr. John Gray, Convener.

REPORT ON COMMISSIONS.

There was handed in and read by Mr. Robert Campbell, on behalf of the Committee on Commissions, a first report, recommending certain changes in the Roll of the Assembly. The report was received and adopted, and the Assembly decreed in terms thereof.

LETTER FROM PRINCIPAL DAWSON.

There was read from the table a letter from Dr. Dawson, Principal of McGill University, inviting the members of the Assembly to visit the library and museum of the University, during their stay in the City of Montreal.

PREACHING BEFORE THE ASSEMBLY.

The Assembly agreed to leave it with the Moderator and Dr. Reid to make such provision for preaching before the Assembly as they may judge proper.

The hour of adjournment having arrived, the Assembly adjourned to meet again at three o'clock, of which public intimation was made, and this Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

THIRD SEDERUNT.

On the same day and at the same place, at three o'clock in the afternoon:—

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada met, pursuant to adjournment, and was constituted with prayer by the Moderator.

The Minutes of the Second Sederunt were read and sustained.

THE CLERKSHIP.

The Assembly took up for consideration the question of the Clerkship of the Assembly, in relation to the vacancy caused by the death of the late lamented Prof. J. H. Mackerras, appointed as the first business for this afternoon. It was moved by Principal Grant, seconded by Dr. Waters, and unanimously agreed to, That the Rev. Dr. Fraser be invited to undertake for the present Session of the General Assembly the duties heretofore discharged in the Assembly by the late Professor Mackerras. The request was conveyed by the Moderator to Dr. Fraser, who acknowledged the consideration of the Assembly, with thanks.

CHANGES IN ROLLS.

Reports as to the changes which had occurred in the Rolls of the several Synods and the Roll of the Presbytery of Manitoba during the year were given in. These reports were held as read and Minutes.

COMMISSION OF DR. BRUCE.

There was read from the table, a commission from the Colonial Committee of the Free Church of Scotland, appointing the Rev. Alexander Balmain Bruce, D.D., Professor of Apologetics and New Testament Exegesis, to appear as their Deputy before the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, to meet at Montreal on the ninth day of June. Dr. Bruce being present was, by the Moderator, invited to the platform, and introduced to the House.

COMMITTEE ON OBITUARY NOTICES.

The Assembly appointed a Committee to draft Obituary Notices of the several Ministers of this Church, who, during the past year, have been removed by death, consisting of the following members, viz.:—Mr. Kenneth McLennan, Convener, Dr. Reid, Mr. R. Torrance, Prin. McKnight, Mr. James Croil, Hon. J. McMurrich.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Assembly called for the report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance. The Convener of said Committee not being present, no report was forthcoming. The names of the members of the Committee were read from the printed minutes of last year, and the Committee were summoned from the chair to meet and prepare a report.

OVERTURE ON TRAVELLING EXPENSES.

The Assembly took up an Overture from the Presbytery of Paris, transmitted by the Synod of Hamilton and London, containing a scheme, in detail, for providing means to meet the travelling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. The Overture was read, and it was agreed to hear the Commissioners appointed to support the same before the Assembly. Mr. W. T. Root, and Mr. J. Laing were heard in support of the Overture. A portion of the report of the Assembly's Finance Committee, to whom the Overture was, last year, remitted for consideration, was read.

It was moved by Mr. Carmichael of Markham, seconded by Mr. Neil McKay, that the subject of the expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly be left to the consideration of the various Presbyteries, and that each devise and adopt such a plan as may seem best for indemnifying its Commissioners to the General Assembly. It was moved in amendment, by Mr. A. McLean Sinclair, seconded by Mr. W. Adamson, that a Standing Committee on Mileage be appointed by the Assembly. It was moved in further amendment by the Hon. Mr. Morris, seconded by Mr. W. B. McMurrich, That the Overture, together with the Report of the Finance Committee, be remitted to a Committee to be appointed, to report at a future diet of the Assembly. Votes were taken in due order, when the main motion was carried by a large majority over both the amendments, and became the judgment of the House.

DEPUTATION FROM THE CONGREGATIONAL UNION.

There were introduced to the General Assembly the Rev. Dr. Duff of Sherbrooke, and the Rev. Mr. Black, Delegates to the Assembly from the Congregational Union of Ontario and Quebec, now meeting in this City. Dr. Duff and Mr. Black, severally, addressed the House, conveying the fraternal salutations of the Body with which they are connected. The Moderator, in appropriate terms, responded to the addresses of the Delegates.

The hour of adjournment having arrived, the Assembly adjourned to meet again at half-past seven o'clock, of which public intimation was made, and this Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

FOURTH SEDERUNT.

At the same place and on the same day, at half-past seven o'clock in the evening:—

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada met pursuant to adjournment, and was constituted with devotional exercises, Mr. Thomas McPherson, at the request of of the Moderator, offering prayer.

The minutes of the Third Sederunt were read and sustained.

DEPUTATION TO CONGREGATIONAL UNION.

On motion of Mr. Thomas Lowry, seconded by Mr. McLean Sinclair, it was agreed to appoint a deputation to wait upon the Congregational Union of Ontario and Quebec, now assembled in this city, to convey to that body the fraternal greetings of this Assembly. Mr. John Laing and Mr. Thomas McPherson were charged with the duty indicated in the foregoing resolution.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF RELIGION.

The Assembly called for the report on the State of Religion. The report was presented and read by Mr. Thomas Duncan, the Convener of the Committee on this subject. It was moved by Dr. Waters, seconded by Dr. James—That the Assembly receive the report, adopt its recommendations, thank the Committee, and especially the Convener, for their services, and express gratitude to Almighty God for the many marks of His favour which the Church has enjoyed during the past year. The Assembly would again urge upon Presbyteries the necessity of procuring full returns from the congregations under their care. In reference to the evils complained of, as intemperance, engrossing worldliness, especially the neglect; by not a few, of family training, the Assembly enjoins upon Sessions the duty of using all the means within their power in order that "pure and undefiled religion" may flourish in the families under their care. The recommendations were considered seriatim. The first recommendation was, on motion made and duly seconded, adopted. The second recommendation was read, whereupon it was moved by Mr. J. Laing, seconded by Mr. T. S. Chambers, that the second clause of this recommendation be not adopted. On a vote being taken the motion was lost, and the recommendation was adopted as written in the report. The third recommendation was read and adopted. Several members of the Assembly addressed the House on the subject of the report at large, and the recommendations annexed to the same. The motion of Dr. Waters was then put to the House and was unanimously agreed to. The recommendations of the report are as follows:—

I. That the attention of parents and Sessions be again earnestly and affectionately called to the important subject of religious training in the family.

II. That Sessions be enjoined to send full and prompt replies to the Clerks of the various Presbyteries, and that the schedules be sent to the Clerks of the separate Presbyteries, to be distributed by them to Sessions.

III. That each Presbytery be requested to hold a conference during the year on the state of religion within its bounds.

At the close of the discussion on the subject presented in the report on the State of Religion, Mr. J. M. King, at the request of the Moderator, led the Assembly in prayer.

REPORT ON SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

The Assembly called for the Report on Sabbath-schools. The report was presented and read by Mr. John McEwen, the Convener of the Standing Committee on this subject. It was moved by Dr. Cochrane, seconded by Dr. Waters, and agreed, That the report be received, the thanks of the Assembly given to the Committee and especially to the Convener, and that the further consideration of the report be deferred to a future Sederunt.

LETTER FROM MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.

There was read, from the table, a letter addressed to the Moderator, from the Corporation of the Mechanics' Institute, Montreal, inviting the members of the Assembly to visit the reading-room and library of the Institute.

ADJOURNMENT.

The hour of ten o'clock having arrived, the Assembly adjourned to meet in this place to-morrow forenoon, at ten o'clock, and this Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

FIFTH SEDERUNT.

At the City of Montreal, and within Crescent Street Church there; Friday, the eleventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty years, at ten o'clock in the forenoon:—

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada met and was constituted with devotional exercises, Mr. John Laing, at the request of the Moderator, offering prayer.

The Minutes of the Fourth Sederunt were read and sustained.

REPORT ON BUSINESS.

Dr. Waters, the Clerk of the Committee on Business, read a report recommending the order in which the various subjects to come before the Assembly should be taken up during the day. The report was received and its recommendations sanctioned.

JUDICIAL COMMITTEE.

The Assembly proceeded, on the recommendation of the Committee on Business, to consider the expediency of appointing a Judicial Committee, to consider causes of a judicial character which may be by the Assembly referred to such Committee, with the same instructions as those given to the Judicial Committee of last year (See printed Minutes, 1879, p. 18). The names proposed as members of the Judicial Committee were read:

It was moved by Dr. Grant, seconded by Mr. Laing, That a Judicial Committee be now appointed, and that the members recommended by the Committee of Bills and Overtures compose said Committee; and that such Committee be amalgamated with the Committee on the Brooksdale Case to form one Judicial Committee—Principal Caven, Convener.

It was moved in amendment by Dr. Kemp, seconded by Mr. Archibald Matheson, That the Judicial Committee be not appointed, and that judicial business be considered according to the constitution and usages of the Church as heretofore. A vote being taken, the motion of Dr. Grant was carried against the amendment of Dr. Kemp by a large majority, and the motion became the judgment of the House.

DISSENT.

Dr. Kemp craved that his dissent from this decision be marked in the Minutes.

JUDICIAL COMMITTEE.

The Judicial Committee, as recommended by the Committee on Business, is as follows:—Dr. Bennett, Dr. McKnight, J. F. Blanchard, Hon. D. McCurdy, John McMillan (Truro), Dr. Mathews, David Morrice, John Durie, John M. King, James Middlemiss, D. J. Macdonell, Alex. Beith, W. B. McMurrich, Dr. Bell, Dr. Proudfoot, Mr. Aull, Dr. Dunsmore, C. E. Hamilton, Hon. A. Morris, Joseph McKay, Wm. Robb. The Committee on the Brooksdale Case, with which the foregoing is amalgamated, is as follows:—Mr. John Gray (Orillia), Principal Caven, W. B. McMurrich, Hon. S. Creelman, Dr. McVicar, James McLennan, Q.C., George Hay, Principal McKnight,—Principal Caven, Convener.

ELECTION OF MODERATOR, OVERTURE ON MODE OF.

There was taken up and read an overture from the Presbytery of Kingston, proposing that the present regulation anent the election of a Moderator of the General Assembly be so amended as that it shall be without nomination on the part of any Presbytery. Mr. Henry Gracey, under appointment of the Kingston Presbytery, was heard in support of the overture. It was moved by Mr. James Croil, seconded by Mr. Donald Fraser, That the overture be adopted. It was moved in amendment by Dr. Gregg, seconded by Dr. Proudfoot, That the overture be not adopted, but that the mode at present in use be continued. A vote being taken the amendment was carried by a large majority, and the Assembly decided in terms of said amendment.

TELLERS.

On motion made and duly seconded, Dr. Cochrane and Mr. J. Laing were appointed Tellers for the remaining part of this Session of the Assembly.

SCHEMES OF THE CHURCH, OVERTURE ON.

There was read an Overture from the Presbytery of Toronto, transmitted by the Synod of Toronto and Kingston, anent the Schemes of the Church, setting forth the desirableness of all the congregations contributing, according to their ability, to the various schemes of the Church, and the expediency of a careful and vigilant Presbyterial oversight of the congregations in this matter, and praying the General Assembly to instruct the Presbyteries to call for returns at stated periods from all the congregations of their contributions for the various schemes, and recommending that in every Presbytery one member thereof for each particular scheme, should be appointed, to take especial charge of the same, and the returns thereto, and that all proper means be used by missionary associations or otherwise to increase the interest of congregations and to elicit their liberality. It was moved by Principal Caven, seconded by L. G. McNeill, and unanimously agreed to as follows:—the General Assembly receive and adopt the overture, express their sense of the great importance of the subject to which it refers, and earnestly recommend the Presbyteries of the Church to act in accordance with its suggestions.

OVERTURE ON STANDING COMMITTEES.

There was presented and read an overture from the Presbytery of Stratford, transmitted by the Synod of Hamilton and London, proposing the adoption of certain regulations for the appointing of the Standing Committees to manage the several schemes of the western section of the Church. Mr. P. McF. McLeod and Mr. R. N. Grant, under appointment of the Synod, were heard in support of the overture. It was then moved by Mr. McLeod, seconded by Mr. Grant, as follows:—Receive the overture, and remit the same and the whole question of the appointment of Standing Committees, and the method of disposing of their reports, to Presbyteries, with instructions to report to next Assembly.

During the discussion on this motion, the hour of one o'clock arrived, and the Assembly adjourned to meet in this place at three o'clock, which was so intimated, and this Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

SIXTH SEDERUNT.

On the same day and at the same place, at three o'clock in the afternoon:—

The Assembly met and was constituted with devotional exercises, Dr. Sedgwick, at the Moderator's request, offering prayer.

The minutes of the Fifth Sederunt were read and sustained.

COLLEGES, REPORTS ON.

The Assembly called for the Reports of the Boards of Management of the several Colleges of the Church.

PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, HALIFAX.

The Report of the Board of Superintendence of the Presbyterian College, Halifax, was presented in printed form, by Principal McKnight, who, at the same time, gave a statement at length of the condition and work and prospects of the institution under his direction.

MORRIN COLLEGE.

The Report of Morrin College, Quebec, was presented and read by Professor Weir.

PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, MONTREAL.

The Report of the Board of Management of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, was presented and read by Mr. David Morrice, Chairman of the Board.

QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY AND COLLEGE.

The Report of the Trustees of Queen's University and College, Kingston, was presented in printed form by Principal Grant, who at the same time, gave brief explanations of the condition and prospects of the University under his direction.

KNOX COLLEGE.

Dr. Proudfoot, the Chairman of the Board of Management of Knox College, Toronto, stated that the Report of that College was in the printer's hands, but was not yet ready. The Assembly agreed to delay calling for the Report in accordance with Dr. Proudfoot's request.

On motion of Dr. Waters the reports now read were received, and it was agreed to proceed to the next order of business.

COMMISSIONS.

A second Report on Commissions was handed in and read by Dr. Bell, Convener of the Committee, bearing that Commissions had been received from the Presbytery of Halifax, in favour of Thomas Graham, of Montreal, in the room of Mr. W. H. Blanchard, and of William Reid, of Montreal, in the room of Mr. W. Pender. The Report was received, and the changes in the roll of the Presbytery of Halifax, stated therein, sanctioned.

ROLL CALLED.

The hour of four o'clock having arrived, the Clerk proceeded, as arranged in the morning, on the recommendation of the Business Committee, to call the roll of the Assembly. It was here agreed that in order to save time, the names of those only not answering at the opening of the Assembly should now be called. The portion of the roll thus indicated was called and marked.

NEXT ASSEMBLY.

The Assembly now proceeded, as agreed upon in the morning, on the same recommendation as the foregoing, to fix the time and place for the meeting of the next General Assembly. It was moved by Principal Grant, and duly seconded, that the next General Assembly meet in the City of Kingston, and within the building of Queen's University there. The motion was unanimously agreed to, with the exception that the opening services of the Assembly be held in St. Andrew's Church. The time of meeting was fixed for the second Wednesday of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one years, at half-past seven o'clock in the evening.

OVERTURE ON STANDING COMMITTEES.

The Assembly resumed consideration of the Overture on Standing Committees, under consideration at the hour of adjournment in the morning, Mr. McLean Sinclair being in possession of the floor.

Mr. J. M. King moved, seconded by Dr. Jenkins, in amendment to the motion of Mr. McLeod, recorded at the close of the forenoon Sederunt, That a Committee be appointed to frame an overture on the subject of the appointment of the Standing Committees of the Church, and to submit it to this Assembly; and that the overture from the Synod of Hamilton and London be remitted to this Committee; that the overture, on approval, be sent down to the Presbyteries with a view to receive their consideration, to be by them reported on to the next Assembly.

It was moved in further amendment by Mr. D. J. Macdonnell, seconded by Dr. Kemp, That the overture be dismissed. Votes being taken in due form, between the amendments and the main motion, the motion was amended by the adoption of the amendment moved by Mr. King, the said amendment thus becoming the judgment of the House.

PRÆCHING BEFORE THE ASSEMBLY.

The Moderator intimated, on his own behalf and on that of Dr. Reid—to whom it had been remitted to provide for the supply of the pulpit of this church next Lord's day—that divine service would be conducted therein, in the forenoon, by Dr. Bruce, the Delegate from the Free Church of Scotland, and in the evening by Dr. Cairns, the Delegate from the United Presbyterian Church in Scotland.

The hour of adjournment having arrived, the Assembly adjourned to meet in this place at half-past seven o'clock, of which public intimation was made, and this Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

SEVENTH SEDERUNT.

On the same day and at the same place, at half-past seven o'clock in the evening:—

M'LEOD, MR. A., APPLICATION FOR.

There was produced and read an application by the Presbytery of Lindsay, assisted by Assessors from the Synod of Toronto and Kingston, on behalf of Mr. Angus McLeod, requesting the General Assembly to grant leave to the Presbytery to take him on trials for license after he shall have completed a second session in the Theological Classes. The application was supported by Principal Caven. The application was then, on motion of Principal Caven, seconded by Mr. T. G. Smith, unanimously granted.

The Moderator, in appropriate terms, responded to the address of Dr. Steel. The Assembly then united in singing the hundredth Psalm.

STANDING COMMITTEES—COMMITTEE TO DRAFT OVERTURE.

The Moderator appointed the Committee agreed upon in the afternoon to draft an overture on the subject of appointing the Standing Committees of the Church, as follows:—Mr. John M. King, Dr. Jenkins, Dr. Caven, Messrs. P. McF. McLeod, R. N. Grant, A. McL. Sinclair, S. Houston, Ministers, and Mr. A. Matheson, Elder,—Mr. McLeod, Convener.

HOME MISSION REPORTS.

The General Assembly called for the Reports of the Committees on Home Missions. The Report for the Western Section was presented by Dr. Cochrane, Convener. Dr. Cochrane gave, at the same time, explanations of the state of the missions under the charge of the Western Committee. Mr. J. M. King read a series of resolutions proposed as the deliverance of the Assembly on the report of the Committee, and spoke in support of these resolutions till the hour of adjournment. The Assembly then agreed to resume consideration of the Home Mission Report as the first order of the day on Monday afternoon.

HON. A. MORRIS—OFF RECEPTION COMMITTEE. MR. R. BELL APPOINTED.

At the request of the Hon. Mr. Morris, whose name stands on both the Judicial Committee and on that for the Reception of Ministers, he was relieved from attendance on the latter, and Mr. Robert Bell was appointed in his stead.

The Assembly adjourned to meet in this place to-morrow morning, at ten o'clock, public intimation of which was given, and this Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

EIGHTH SEDERUNT.

At Montreal, and within Crescent Street Church, there; Saturday, the twelfth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty years, at ten o'clock in the forenoon:—

Which time and place the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada met, pursuant to adjournment, and was constituted with devotional exercises, Mr. Kenneth McLennan, at the request of the Moderator, offering prayer.

The Minutes of the Seventh Sederunt were read and sustained.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BILLS.

Dr. Waters, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, read a report, recommending the order in which the various items of business should be taken up during this day and also on Monday. The report was received and adopted.

JUDICIAL COMMITTEE—LEAVE TO SIT.

Dr. Bell asked leave, on behalf of the Judicial Committee, in view of the amount of business before them, to sit during this Sederunt of the Assembly. The leave craved was granted.

AGED AND INFIRM MINISTERS' FUNDS, REPORTS ON.

The Assembly called for the Reports of the Committees on the Aged and Infirm

Ministers' Funds for the respective sections of the Church. Mr. James Middlemiss read the report of the Committee on the Fund for the Western Section.

FRENCH EVANGELIZATION COMMITTEE TO SIT.

Dr. McVicar asked the leave of Assembly, on behalf of the Board of French Evangelization, to sit during this Sederunt. The leave craved was granted.

AGED AND INFIRM MINISTERS' FUND—EASTERN SECTION.

The Report of the Committee on the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund for the Eastern Section of the Church, was read by the Convener of the Committee, Mr. A. McLean Sinclair.

It was moved by Dr. Gregg, seconded by Mr. Neil McKay, and unanimously agreed, That the General Assembly, having heard the Report of the Committee on the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund of the Western Section of the Church, receive and adopt the same, thank the Committee, and especially the Convener, for their diligence and efficiency in the matter entrusted to them; express their gratification at finding that, while there has been a slight decrease in the receipts, the increase of the income available for current expenditure has been such as to warrant the Committee to pay all the annuities in full, though insufficient to pay the reduction of last year; urge upon ministers the prompt and regular payment of the rate, whose non-payment involves, according to the present regulations, total forfeiture of claim to benefit from the fund; recommend, as last year, that congregations, in contributing to the two beneficiary schemes, have a due regard to the fact that the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund has a very small capital, about one twentieth that of the Widows' Fund, and in accordance with the suggestions of the report, appoint a Committee to confer with the Conveners of the Committees of the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Funds of the two sections of the Church, to report to this Assembly, at a future Sederunt, recommendations, the adoption of which may secure uniformity in the administration of the funds and improve their capabilities.

In reference to the Report on the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund for the Eastern Section of the Church, the following resolution, moved by Mr. C. B. Pitblado, seconded by Mr. J. K. Blair, was unanimously adopted, viz.:—That the General Assembly receive and adopt the report, thank the Committee, and especially the Convener, for their diligence in attending to the management of the fund; record their satisfaction with the prosperous condition of the fund, and recommend that all ministers pay their percentage in order to place themselves in the position to get the benefit of the fund.

It was moved by Dr. Waters, seconded by Dr. McVicar, and agreed to, That it be an instruction to the Committees to be appointed on the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Funds, to take into consideration the propriety of framing a rule which may provide for a certain diminution of the amount to be paid to ministers who may have failed in contributing to the fund, instead of withholding all help from them.

The Assembly adjourned to meet at this place on Monday morning at ten o'clock, of which intimation was made, and this Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BUSINESS.

Dr. Waters, from the Committee on Business, read a report recommending the order in which the various matters to come before the Assembly should be taken up to-morrow, Tuesday, and recommending particularly, that the application of the Presbytery of Manitoba, on behalf of Mr. Dugald McGregor, with all the papers relating thereto, be remitted to the Committee on the reception of ministers from other Churches. On motion the Report on Business, with its special recommendation, was received and adopted.

KNOX COLLEGE REPORT.

The Assembly called for the Report of the Board of Management of Knox College. The Report in printed form was submitted by Dr. Proudfoot, who at the same time gave explanations respecting the condition of the College, financially and otherwise.

MANITOBA COLLEGE REPORTS.

The Reports of the Board of Management, and of the Senate of Manitoba College, as also a statement of the finances of the College, were submitted and read by Professor Bryce. Dr. Reid, from the Committee on the Ordinary Fund of Manitoba College, to whom it was remitted to consider the whole question of the condition of the Institution and its future maintenance to report to this Assembly, gave in and read a report.

COLLEGES, DELIVERANCES ON REPORTS.

It was moved by Dr. McGregor, seconded by Dr. Waters, and resolved, That the Report of the Board of Superintendence of the Presbyterian College at Halifax, be received and adopted.

MORRIN COLLEGE.

The Assembly agreed, on motion made and duly seconded, that the Report on Morrin College, Quebec, be received and adopted.

MONTREAL COLLEGE.

On motion made and duly seconded, it was agreed that the Report of the Board of Management of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, received at a former Sederunt, be again taken up, and its recommendations considered.

COMMISSION OF DR. CAIRNS.

There was read a communication to the Moderator from the Convener of the Foreign Correspondence Committee of the United Presbyterian Church in Scotland, accrediting the Rev. Principal Cairns, D.D., of Edinburgh, as a deputy from said Church, to convey to this Church continued fraternal regards. Dr. Cairns being present, was invited to the platform, and welcomed by the Moderator.

MONTREAL COLLEGE.

The Assembly returned to the consideration of the Report on the Montreal College. The adoption of the first recommendation was moved by Mr. J. Scrimger, seconded by Mr. George Hay, and unanimously carried. On motion of Dr. McVicar seconded by Mr. J. Laing, the second recommendation was adopted. Dr. McVicar, seconded by Dr. Waters then moved the adoption of the third recommendation as follows:—That the Rev. Daniel Coussirat, M.A., B.D., formerly engaged in the Montreal College, be appointed French Professor of Theology in accordance with the second recommendation. This motion was carried with much cordiality. The fourth recommendation was adopted: The General Assembly then decreed in terms of these several recommendations as follows:—

1. That the powers hitherto exercised by the Board of Examiners be henceforth vested in the Senate.

2. That in accordance with the recommendation of the Senate, approved of by the Board of French Evangelization, a French Professor of Theology be appointed, and that his salary be two thousand dollars ($2000), to be paid as heretofore by the Board of French Evangelization.

3. That the Rev. Daniel Coussirat, M.A., B.D., of the National Presbyterian Church of France, be, as he is hereby, appointed French Professor of Theology in the Montreal Presbyterian College, at the salary named in the foregoing resolution.

4. That the Rev. John Springer, M.A., be, as he is hereby, reappointed Lecturer in Greek and Hebrew Exegesis, at a salary of five hundred dollars ($500).

QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY.

On motion of Dr. Kemp, seconded by Mr. J. Laing the Assembly adopted the following resolution in relation to the Report of the Trustees of Queen's University, Kingston:—Receive and adopt the Report of the Board of the University of Queen's College; express satisfaction at the erection of the new buildings, at the success of the Endowment Fund, and at the progress and efficiency of the various departments, as reported.

KNOX COLLEGE.

The following resolutions, disposing of the Report of the Board of Management of Knox College, were, on motion of Principal Caven, seconded by Mr. James Carmichael, unanimously adopted:—

1. Receive and adopt the Report.

2. The General Assembly are gratified to find that the revenue of the College, arising from congregational contributions, has increased during the past year, and that the expenditure has been nearly met; and would exhort congregations to continue and increase their liberality, so that revenue and expenditure may be equalized.

3. Instruct the Board to complete as speedily as possible the measures adopted for removing the debt still remaining on the Ordinary Fund, and on the College Buildings.

4. Remit to the Board of Management, for their careful consideration, the revision of the by-laws which govern the procedure of the Board, with the view of reporting to the next General Assembly any important amendments in their rules which the experience of the Board may have suggested, to be adopted by the Assembly in the event of their being approved.

MANITOBA COLLEGE.

It was moved by Professor Bryce, seconded by Principal Grant, and agreed to, That the Reports of Manitoba College be received; that the Assembly express its satisfaction at the opening being offered for the efforts of this Church in the North-West, and that the Reports and kindred papers be referred to a Committee to report at a future Sederunt. The Moderator appointed the Committee as follows:—Principal Grant, Convener; Dr. Reid, Messrs. J. M. King, D. J. Macdonnell, A. McLeah Sinclair, J. Laing, Dr. Bell, G. Bruce, Professor Bryce, and J. S. Black, Ministers; Hon. A. Morris, Hon. J. McMurich, Geo. Hay, R. Murray, Joseph McKay, Jas. Croil, Warden King, F. Blanchard, Hon. S. Creelman.

COLLEGES, OVERTURE ON TIME OF OPENING AND CLOSING.

The overture was supported, under appointment of the Presbytery, by Messrs. J. Gray and J. Leiper. It was moved by Principal Caven, seconded by Mr. J. M. King, and resolved, That the overture be received, and sent to the Boards of Management of Knox College and Montreal College and to the Home Mission Committee, with instructions to consider carefully the subject therein brought before the Church, and to report to the next General Assembly.

PREPARATORY EDUCATION, OVERTURE ON.

There was read an overture from the Presbytery of Ottawa, setting forth, in substance, that it was desirable that students looking forward to the Gospel ministry should pass a regular course in Arts in some university before entering the Theological Hall, and praying the Assembly to repeal the authorization given in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, and any other, and every authorization previously in force for instituting preparatory courses of instruction for students aspiring to the ministry, and that in time coming no students—excepting such as are now in such preparatory course—shall be received into the Theological course of the Colleges unless having first passed through a university course. Dr. Moore and Mr. D. M. Gordon, under appointment of the Presbytery of Ottawa, were heard in support of the overture.

It was moved by Dr. Waters, seconded by Principal Grant, That the overture be received and remitted to the Boards of the several Colleges for consideration, and to report to next General Assembly.

While this motion was still before the House the hour of adjournment arrived, and the discussion thereon was deferred to another Sederunt.

ANNIVERSARY OF UNION, 1875.

The Moderator called attention to the fact that to-morrow would be the Anniversary of the Union, in 1875, of the Churches forming the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and that, though no special arrangement had been made for commemorating the event, it would be marked, in some degree, in the opening devotions of the day, which would be conducted respectively in the morning by Dr. Cook, in the afternoon by Dr. McGregor, and in the evening by Dr. Caven.

AGED AND INFIRM MINISTERS' FUND—COMMITTEE TO CONFER WITH CONVENERS.

The Moderator here appointed the Committee agreed upon at last Sederunt to confer with the Conveners of the Committees on the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Funds, as follows:—Dr. James, Convener, Dr. Gregg, Dr. Grant, Dr. McVicar, Messrs. T. Lowry, T. Sedgwick, C. B. Pitblado, Joseph Hogg, Mr. McDonald, Mr. Root, J. K. Blair.

The Assembly adjourned to meet in this place at three o'clock, of which public intimation was made, and the Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

TENTH SEDERUNT.

On the same day and at the same place, at three o'clock in the afternoon:—

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada met and was constituted, Mr. Thomas Lowry, at the Moderator's request, offering prayer.

JUDICIAL COMMITTEE TO SIT.

Principal Caven asked the leave of the Assembly for the Judicial Committee to sit, for the transaction of business, during this Sederunt. The leave asked for was granted.

HOME MISSIONS.

The Assembly resumed consideration of the Report on Home Missions, interrupted by the adjournment at the Seventh Sederunt on Friday evening. Mr. John M. King now submitted the resolutions then read by him for the disposal of the Report of the Committee for the Western Section, seconded by Mr. D. M. Gordon. The resolutions were then considered seriatim, and being adopted severally, were then adopted as a whole, and are as follows:—

1. That the Report of the Home Mission Committee of the Western Section be received and adopted, and the thanks of the Assembly tendered to the Committee, and especially to the Convener, for the attention given to this important part of the Church's work.
2. That the General Assembly acknowledges, with deep thankfulness to God, the success which has attended the effort to raise the amount of money sufficient to meet the requirements of the work throughout the year, and also to remove the large debt resting on the Fund at the date of last meeting of Assembly.
3. That the Assembly regards with much satisfaction the great extension which our Church is receiving, through the Committee's efforts, in Manitoba and the North-West, and the consolidation of the Church in Ontario and Quebec. That it views, also, with much satisfaction, the work of the Students' Missionary Societies in Montreal, Kingston and Toronto as contributing to this result.
4. That the thanks of the Assembly be given to the Church of Scotland, the Free Church of Scotland; and the Presbyterian Church of Ireland, for their continued interest in our Home Mission work, and for their liberal donations on its behalf.
5. That the approval of the Assembly be given to placing on the roll of supplemented congregations, those numbered on page xxii. of the Report, notwithstanding that they do not reach the minimum contribution per member required by the Assembly.
6. That the sanction of the Assembly be given to the reduction of the amount to be paid by the Home Mission Fund of the Western Section to Manitoba College, to the extent of the two hundred and fifty pounds (£250) granted to the College by the Free Church of Scotland and the Presbyterian Church of Ireland.
7. That the Assembly express its regret at the inability of the Rev. Donald Ross to proceed to the important field in the North-West to which he had been appointed, and its sympathy with him in the illness which disqualified him for work there.
8. That in the obligations which it contracts for the current year, the Home Mission Committee, to be appointed, be instructed to keep its expenditure within the amount which the fund may reasonably be expected to reach.

It was moved by Mr. D. M. Gordon, seconded by Mr. J. M. King, That the Committee be authorized to send one or more special commissioners to examine, as far as possible, the chief centres of population in the North-West territories where no mission stations of the Church have yet been opened, with the view of securing the amplest information regarding the direction that may best be given to the mission efforts of the Church in the North-West. A division was taken on this motion, when it was negatived.

A motion was submitted by Mr. J. Becket, seconded by Mr. R. Hall, on the subject of the distribution of the Home Mission Fund. An amendment to the motion was proposed by Mr. King, seconded by Dr. Cochrane.

Before either of these motions was disposed of the hour of adjournment arrived, and the Assembly adjourned to meet in this place at half-past seven o'clock this evening, of which intimation was given, and this Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

ELEVENTH SEDERUNT.

On the same day and at the same place, at half-past seven o'clock in the evening:—

The General Assembly met and was constituted with devotional exercises, at the request of the Moderator, Mr. John Thompson, of Sarnia, offering prayer.

The minutes of the Tenth Sederunt were read and sustained.

FOREIGN MISSION REPORT, EASTERN SECTION.

Dr. McGregor, the Secretary of the Foreign Mission Committee of the Eastern Section of the Church, submitted the Report of that Committee, and at the same time gave explanations of the condition and prospects of the Missions under their direction.

FOREIGN MISSION REPORT, WESTERN SECTION.

Professor McLaren, Convener of the Committee on Foreign Missions for the Western Section of the Church, presented the Report of that Committee, giving at the same time explanations of several matters relating to the Missions under their care.

It was moved by Principal Grant, seconded by Mr. L. G. McNeill, and agreed to, as follows:—Receive the Reports; express gratitude to God for the manifestations and proofs of progress in the work of preaching the Gospel to the heathen in our five foreign mission fields, indicated therein; and agree that the Reports be now laid on the table, and their fuller consideration be made the order of the day for Wednesday forenoon.

It was moved by the Hon. Mr. Morris, seconded by Professor Gregg, and agreed, That as the regular hour of adjournment is fixed for ten o'clock, in order to give ample time and utmost freedom to the honoured delegates from the Free Church and the United Presbyterian Church in Scotland, in addressing the General Assembly, the time of adjournment this evening be left to the judgment of the Moderator.

PROFESSOR BRUCE'S ADDRESS.

The Rev. Professor Bruce, delegate of the Colonial Committee of the Free Church of Scotland, who was introduced to the Assembly on Thursday last, now addressed the House, speaking of the interest taken in the mission operations of this Church, by the Free Church, and of the condition and operations of that Church, and conveying their earnest brotherly greetings.

ADDRESS BY PRINCIPAL CAIRNS.

The Rev. Dr. Cairns, Principal of the United Presbyterian Theological Hall, Edinburgh, introduced to the Assembly in the morning to-day, addressed the House, conveying the earnest fraternal regards of the United Presbyterian Church to this Church, and speaking of the condition and work of the Church represented by him.

The Moderator, in a few choice words, responded to the addresses of the delegates.

The Assembly adjourned to meet in this place to-morrow morning at ten o'clock, of which public intimation was given, and the Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

TWELFTH SEDERUNT.

At the City of Montreal, and within Crescent Street Church there; Tuesday, the fifteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty years, at ten o'clock in the forenoon:—

Which time and place the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada met, pursuant to adjournment, and was constituted with devotional exercises; Dr. Cook, the Moderator of the First General Assembly of this Church, at the request of the Moderator, offering prayer, and referring therein especially to the union of Churches in this Church, of which this day is the fifth anniversary.

REPORT OF JUDICIAL COMMITTEE.

Dr. Caven submitted and read a report from the Judicial Committee on the Brooksdale Case, representing that the case came before the Committee in the form of an appeal of the Presbytery of Stratford against a finding of the Synod of Hamilton and London, anent the Brooksdale Station, and containing certain recommendations for adoption by the Assembly. The report was received and considered, and the recommendations contained therein were adopted, as follows:—

1. Sustain the decision of the Synod of Hamilton and London, in finding that the motion offered by Mr. Gordon, in the Presbytery of Stratford, was not incompetent.
2. With a view of determining the whole question as to how the Presbytery shall deal with the parties claiming to belong to the Presbyterian Church of Zorra, formerly in connection with the Church of Scotland, the Assembly, by request of appellant and respondent, and also of the appellant to the Synod, appoint a Commission, consisting of Principal Caven, Convener, Dr. Proudfoot, Dr. Wardrope, Mr. Torrance, Mr. James C. Smith, Mr. D. J. Macdonnell, Mr. Charles Davidson, and Mr. W. B. McMurrich, with full power to determine the matter; the Committee to meet at Knox Church, Stratford, on Wednesday, the seventh day of July next, at half-past one o'clock in the afternoon, and instruct the Clerk of the Presbytery of Stratford to notify all parties who were notified to attend the Commission of Assembly in 1878.

APPEAL—PRESBYTERY OF SYDNEY—CASE OF MR. SUTHERLAND.

Dr. Caven read, also, another report from the Judicial Committee, in a case of appeal of the Presbytery of Sydney against a decision of the Synod of the Maritime Provinces in the matter of a reference from said Presbytery to said Synod in the case of Mr. Sutherland, of Gabarus, and containing a resolution for adoption by the Assembly. On such recommendation of the Committee the Assembly resolved as follows:—That the action of the Synod be not reviewed, and that the decision appealed against be allowed to stand.

LETTER FROM DR. CAIRNS.

The Moderator here read a letter from Principal Cairns, of this day's date, stating in substance that he wished to supply what he had omitted in his address last night, and to say that, as the supply of students and preachers in the United Presbyterian Church in Scotland was likely, for some time, to exceed the necessities of the Church, they would be very willing to enter into arrangements with this Church for the finding of a sphere for the profitable employment of such students and preachers, and saying that this matter might be referred to the Home Mission Committee, or considered in any other way that might seem best.

of Ministers and Licentiates of other Churches. The report was held as read, and was considered clause by clause, and in terms of its recommendations the Assembly resolved as follows:—

1. That the application on behalf of Mr. James Christie be remitted to the Presbytery of Truro, with instructions to restore Mr. Christie to the ministry should all the circumstances in his case seem to them to justify such action.
2. That the Presbytery of Truro have leave to receive Mr. F. W. Archibald as a Licentiate of this Church.
3. That the application of Mr. Rees be not granted.
4. That the Presbytery of London have leave to recognize the full status of Mr. William Doak as a minister of this Church.
5. That, in the case of Mr. Christopher Smith, in its present state and in the absence of all the necessary information, the case be not now issued.
6. That the Presbytery of Manitoba have leave to receive Mr. Dugald McGregor as a minister of this Church.

RETIRING MINISTERS, REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

The report of the Committee charged with the consideration of the applications of ministers for leave to retire from the active duties of the ministry and to be placed on the Fund for Aged and Infirm Ministers, was handed in by Mr. T. Sedgwick, the Convener. The report was held as read, and its several clauses were taken up and disposed of seriatim. The Assembly, in accordance with the recommendations of the report, agreed:—

1. To grant leave to the Rev. W. Duff, in the Presbytery of Lunenburg and Yarmouth, to retire from the active duties of the ministry, and refer the matter of an allowance from the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund to the Committee on that Fund for the Maritime Provinces, to be dealt with in accordance with their regulations on this subject.
2. To grant leave to retire, and be placed as annuitants on the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund, to the following ministers, in terms of their several applications, namely: Messrs. W. C. Young and George Lawrence, in the Presbytery of Toronto; Mr. Matthew Barr, in the Presbytery of Huron; and Mr. James Hanran, in the Presbytery of Quebec.
3. The application of the Presbytery of Barrie on behalf of Mr. Walter Wright was read, the Committee recommending that the application be not granted. It was moved and seconded that this recommendation be adopted. It was moved in amendment by Dr. Waters, seconded by Mr. L. G. McNeill as follows:—Remit the matter regarding Mr. Wright to the Committee on the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund Western Section for consideration, empowering the said Committee, should they see fit, to place his name on the list of beneficiaries and to report to the next Assembly. A vote being taken, the amendment of Dr. Waters was carried, and the Assembly ordered in accordance therewith.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

Dr. Waters from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, read a report recommending the order in which the various matters to come before the Assembly should be taken up on Wednesday. On motion, the report was received and the order recommended therein sanctioned.

JUDICIAL COMMITTEE, LEAVE TO RETIRE.

Dr. Caven asked and obtained leave for the Judicial Committee to retire during this Sederunt, in order to consider a reference from the Synod of Toronto and Kingston, in the matter of Mrs. Phillips.

NOMINATION COMMITTEE.

Mr. John Laing submitted the Report of the Committee for nominating Standing Committees, and craved the leave of the Assembly to have the Report printed before it were read. The leave asked was granted.

REPORTS ON WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUNDS.

The Assembly called for the Reports of the several Committees of the different branches of the Church, on the funds for the widows and orphans of deceased ministers.

The Report of the Committee for the late Canada Presbyterian Church was presented and read by Dr. Reid.

Mr. Robert Campbell read the Report of the Committee for the branch of the Church, formerly the Presbyterian Church of Canada in connection with the Church of Scotland.

The Report of the Committee for the late Presbyterian Church of the Lower Provinces was read by Dr. McGregor.

Mr. J. J. Bremner read the Report of the branch of the Church, late the Presbyterian Church of the Maritime Provinces in connection with the Church of Scotland.

REPORT WESTERN SECTION, DISPOSED OF.

It was moved by Dr. Gregg, seconded by Dr. Moore, and agreed, That the Assembly receive and adopt the Report of the Committee on the Widow's Fund for the Western Section; thank the Committee, and especially the Conveners, for their valuable services in the work intrusted to them.

It was moved by Mr. J. S. Black, seconded by Dr. McDonald, That it be remitted to the Standing Committee to prepare such a scale of payments to widows and orphans as shall recognize the prior and superior claims of those on whose behalf personal dues have been paid. This motion on being put to the House was negatived by a large majority.

FUND, CHURCH OF SCOTLAND IN CANADA.

It was moved by Mr. Robert Campbell, duly seconded and agreed to, That the report read by him on behalf of the Committee on the Fund for Widows and Orphans of Ministers of the Church of Scotland in Canada, be received and adopted.

FUNDS—CHURCHES LOWER PROVINCES, AND CHURCH OF SCOTLAND, MARITIME PROVINCES.

On motion of Mr. E. A. McCurdy, seconded by Mr. J. Laing, the Assembly resolved as follows:—Receive and adopt the Reports of the Committees of the Widows' and Orphans' Funds of the late Presbyterian Church of the Lower Provinces, and of the late Synod of the Maritime Provinces, in connection with the Church of Scotland, and in view of the fact that there is no immediate prospect of an amalgamation of the Funds of this Church, the Assembly agree to comply with the request made by their Committees to authorize them to negotiate for an amalgamation of the funds under their control.

SUB-COMMITTEE ON FUNDS.

The Assembly resolved, on motion of Mr. James Croil, seconded by Dr. McGregor, as follows:—That at their first meeting, after the rising of the General Assembly, each of the Boards of Management for the respective Widows' and Orphans' Funds appoint two of their number who shall form a Committee to consider the question of an amalgamation of the said Funds as soon as may be possible. Dr. Reid, Convenor.

SABBATH SCHOOLS.

The Assembly returned to the consideration of the Report on Sabbath Schools, interrupted by the adjournment at the close of the Fourth Sederunt,—whereupon it was moved by Mr. James Gordon, seconded by Mr. James Croil, and resolved, That the report be received; and that this Assembly, while regretting that so many congregations have failed to make returns, yet rejoice in the growing interest and increased efficiency, indicated by the report, in the work of the Sabbath Schools, commend its recommendations to the careful consideration of Sunday School workers, and enjoin congregations to furnish the information asked, and use every legitimate means to promote the religious nurture of the

The hour of one o'clock having arrived, the Assembly adjourned, to meet in this place at three o'clock, and this Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

THIRTEENTH SEDERUNT.

At the same place and on the same day, at three o'clock in the afternoon:—

The General Assembly met, pursuant to adjournment, and was constituted with devotional exercises—Dr. McGregor, at the request of the Moderator, offering prayer.

The minutes of the Twelfth Sederunt were read and sustained.

REPORT ON BOUNDARIES OF PRESBYTERIES AND TRANSFERENCE OF CONGREGATIONS.

Mr. John Gray, from the Committee on the Boundaries of Presbyteries and the Transference of Congregations, appointed at the Second Sederunt, handed in and read a report. The several clauses of the report were considered seriatim, and being severally adopted, the report was adopted as a whole, and on its recommendations the Assembly resolved as follows:

1. To transfer the Mission Stations of Moreton and Seeley's Bay from the Presbytery of Kingston to that of Brockville.
2. To re-transfer the Mission Station of Blairton from the Presbytery of Kingston to that of Peterborough.
3. To sanction the transference of Honeywood from the Presbytery of Barrie to that of Toronto, with a view to its union with Horning's Mills in the latter Presbytery.
4. To implement the recommendation of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston, by transferring Burns' Church, Rocky Saugeen, from the Presbytery of Saugeen to that of Owen Sound, for the purpose of uniting it with the congregation of Latona, and forming them into a pastoral charge, under the jurisdiction of the Presbytery of Owen Sound.
5. In reference to the boundaries of Presbyteries, to annex the township of Amaranth to the Presbytery of Saugeen, except the portion of the said township in the north-east corner thereof, belonging to the congregation of Shelburn, and such part of the south-east corner of the township as belongs to the congregation of Orangeville; and that both of these charges continue, as heretofore, under the jurisdiction of the Presbytery of Toronto.
6. To defer for a year the resolution of the Presbytery of London, praying that said Presbytery be divided, and a new Presbytery be formed within its present bounds.
7. To assign all matters affecting the boundaries of Presbyteries already existing, and the transference of congregations from one Presbytery to another, within the bounds of the several Synods, to the said Synods, respectively, as part of their work.

REPORT ON HYMN BOOK.

The Assembly called for the Report of the Committee on Compiling a Book of Hymns. A full report was produced and read, on behalf of the Committee, by Dr. Jenkins, one of the joint Conveners; whereupon the General Assembly, on the motion of Dr. Jenkins, seconded by Mr. Pitblado, adopted the following finding:

1. Receive the report; approve generally of the Hymn Book submitted by the Committee, and commend it to "such congregations as desire the use of a Hymn Book in the service of praise."

2. Cordially thank authors and proprietors for their generous response to the application of the Committee for permission to insert copyright hymns.

3. Ratify the arrangements provisionally made by the Committee with Messrs. James Campbell & Son for the publication of the Hymn Book.

4. Re-appoint the Committee and authorize them to arrange for the publication of editions of the book in various sizes; also, to prepare, with as little delay as possible, an edition with suitable music; and, further, to receive royalty from the publishers, in order to the repayment, to the Treasurer of the Assembly Fund, of the sums requisite for the preparation of the book; furnishing a complete statement of receipts and expenditure to the next General Assembly.

DISSENT.

Dr. Cook craved that his dissent from this decision be marked in the Minutes of the Assembly.

COMMITTEE ON HYMNOLOGY.

The Committee on the Hymn Book as reappointed by the foregoing resolution is as follows:—Dr. Jenkins and Dr. Gregg, Joint Conveners; Professor Mowat, Dr. James, Messrs. Donald Macrae, John Thomson (Ayr), D. J. Macdonnell, J. S. Black, Robert Murray, W. B. McMurrich.

OVERTURE ON PREPARATORY STUDIES.

The Assembly took up again the overture from the Presbytery of Ottawa on the preparatory studies of candidates for the ministry, consideration of which was interrupted by the adjournment of the morning Sederunt on Monday,—the motion then submitted by Dr. Waters, for the disposal of the overture, being before the House in terms following: That the Overture be received and remitted to the Boards of the several Colleges for consideration, and that they report to the next General Assembly. Mr. John Laing moved, seconded by Dr. Kemp, That the Overture be received and remitted to the several Presbyteries for consideration, to report to next Assembly.

The hour of adjournment having arrived, a motion was made and seconded that the Assembly continue in session till the vote is taken on the motions before the House. Another motion was made that the Assembly do now adjourn. A vote being taken the first motion was carried, and the Assembly continued in session. A motion was then made and seconded, that the vote be now taken, which on a division was carried in the affirmative. The vote was then taken, when the motion of Dr. Waters was carried by a majority and became the judgment of the House.

DISSENTS.

The following ministers entered their dissent from the decision, namely: Dr. McVicar, Messrs. James Hastie, John Ferguson, William McKibbin.

The Assembly adjourned, to meet in this place at half-past seven o'clock, and the Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

FOURTEENTH SEDERUNT.

At the same place and on the same day, at half-past seven o'clock in the evening:—

The General Assembly met, pursuant to adjournment, and was constituted with devotional exercises,—prayer being offered, at the request of the Moderator, by Mr. John Bennett.

The minutes of the Thirteenth Sederunt were read and sustained.

THANKS TO COMMITTEE ON HYMN BOOK.

On motion of Mr. A. McLean Sinclair, seconded by Mr. Thomas Duncan, The General Assembly tendered thanks to the Committee on the Hymn Book, especially to the Conveners, for the faithfulness and diligence with which they have attended to the matter intrusted to them.

REPORT ON FRENCH EVANGELIZATION.

The Assembly called for the Report of the Board of French Evangelization. The report was presented, in printed form, by Dr. McVicar, the Chairman of the Board, who at the same time gave explanations of the state of the scheme under their direction, and stating, especially, that negotiations had been completed with the French Canadian Missionary Society for the transfer to the Board of the mission schools at Pointe aux Trembles, and for handing over to this Church, by that Society, the whole of the work in which it had hitherto been engaged.

It was then moved by Dr. McVicar, seconded by Dr. Waters, and unanimously resolved, That the report be received and its recommendations adopted. In accordance with these recommendations the General Assembly resolved as follows:—

1. To sanction the agreement between the Board of French Evangelization and the French Canadian Missionary Society as to the transfer of the mission schools at Pointe aux Trembles, and the whole work of that Society.

2. To empower the Board to secure the services of the Rev. C. A. Tanner, to canvass for a time in America and Great Britain, with a view to convey information as to the work of the Board, and especially as to the new arrangements, and to raise contributions for the purchase and maintenance of the schools at Point aux Trembles.

MR. CHINIQUEY.

Mr. Charles Chiniquy, lately returned from Australia, and New Zealand, at the suggestion of Dr. McVicar, and on the invitation of the Assembly, addressed the House.

OVERTURE—EMPLOYMENT OF STUDENTS AS CATECHISTS.

There was taken up and read, an Overture from the Presbytery of Kingston on the employment of students as Catechists, praying that order be taken that no student shall be employed as a missionary except under the authority of some Presbytery, and that the various College Authorities see to it that no student shall, during the sessions of the Colleges, engage in missionary work so often or at such distances as to interfere with his attendance on classes, or proper attention to his studies. A motion was read by Mr. Laing, seconded by Mr. Gracey, as follows:—

Receive the Overture and declare,—

1. That Students' Missionary Societies may not occupy any mission field without the consent of the Presbytery of the bounds within which the mission field lies, in terms of the Acts of Assembly of 1876.

2. That no student may be employed by any of the Students' Missionary Societies, who has not been approved for the work by some Presbytery of the Church.

3. That students who may be employed, during the session, in supplying congregations or mission stations are subject to the direction of the Professors' Court, who regulate all matters in this respect.

The arrival of the hour of adjournment stayed further action in the matter before the House. The Assembly then adjourned to meet in this place to-morrow morning at ten o'clock, of which public intimation was made, and this Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

FIFTEENTH SEDERUNT.

At the City of Montreal, and within Crescent Street Church there; Wednesday, the sixteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty years, at ten o'clock in the forenoon.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada met, pursuant to adjournment, and was constituted with devotional exercises—Mr. R. Torrance, at the request of the Moderator, offering prayer.

The minutes of the Fourteenth Sederunt were read and sustained.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

Dr. Waters reported from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, the order of business for to-morrow—Thursday—with a recommendation that the report of the Committee for nominating Standing Committees be the first order of the day for the afternoon. The report was received and the recommendations, generally, as to the order of business for to-morrow, sanctioned. The recommendation as to the report of the Nomination Committee was not adopted, but it was agreed that such report be taken up at twelve o'clock during this Sederunt.

REPORT ON OVERTURE ON STANDING COMMITTEES.

Mr. P. McF. McLeod read a report from the Committee appointed to draft an Overture anent the method of appointing Standing Committees, recommending that, in view of the difficulty of framing an Overture to be sent down to Presbyteries, during the Session of the Assembly, a small Committee be appointed to take the whole subject into consideration, and present to the next Assembly a scheme which may secure, at once, efficiency in the General Committees of the Church, and an equitable representation of the Presbyteries therein. The report was received and adopted, and the Committee on this subject was re-appointed as follows:—Mr. P. McF. McLeod, Convener; Mr. John M. King, Dr. Jenkins, Dr. Caven, Messrs. R. N. Grant, A. McLean Sinclair, S. Houston, Ministers; and Mr. A. Matheson, Elder.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The Assembly resumed consideration of the reports on Foreign Missions, deferred from the Eleventh Sederunt, on Monday.

EASTERN SECTION.

The Report of the Foreign Mission Board of the Eastern Section of the Church was handed in and explained and supported by Dr. McGregor, the Secretary of the Board. On motion of Dr. McGregor, duly seconded, the following resolutions were adopted in regard to this report:—

1. The General Assembly records, with profound gratitude to God, the progress of the Missions in the New Hebrides and in Trinidad during the year past—noticing, more especially in the New Hebrides, the publication of the entire Bible in the language of the Aneiteumese, at their own expense; and of the Acts of the Apostles in the language of the Erromangans and of the Fateans; and in Trinidad, the increase of schools, the opening up of a new field for a fourth missionary, the praiseworthy liberality of the proprietors, and the gratifying development of self-support among the coolie converts.
2. Approve of the training of a native ministry in Trinidad. Sanction the Syllabus prepared by the Presbytery of Trinidad, and authorize the Presbytery to proceed to license and to ordain, if they are satisfied with the qualifications of the candidates.
3. Authorize the sending of a fourth missionary to Trinidad so soon as the finances of the Eastern Section will, in the judgment of the Eastern Committee, warrant that step,

WESTERN SECTION.

On motion of Prof. McLaren, Convener of the Foreign Mission Committee—Western Section—duly seconded, the Assembly adopted the recommendation of the Committee's report, as follows :—The General Assembly call upon congregations to make a special effort to double their contributions to Foreign Missions for the present year, and enjoin upon Presbyteries to use all diligence to secure this end.

PETITION—PRESBYTERY OF LANARK AND RENFREW.

The Assembly took up a petition from the Presbytery of Lanark and Renfrew, setting forth in substance that difficulties had arisen in the congregation of Knox Church, Perth, which they—the Presbytery—found it beyond their power to remove, and praying the General Assembly to appoint a Commission to proceed to Perth, to meet the congregation of Knox Church, and endeavour to ascertain the causes of the strifes and troubles referred to, and discern—giving to all parties such counsels and instructions as to their wisdom may seem proper. The petition was supported under appointment of Presbytery, by Mr. W. D. Ballantyne and Mr. R. Bell. On motion of Mr. Ballantyne, seconded by Mr. Bell, the Assembly agreed to grant the prayer of the petition and appoint the Commission, with Assembly powers, in terms thereof. The Commission appointed at the Eighteenth Sederunt is as follows :—Professor McLaren, Convener; Messrs. H. Gracey, T. S. Chambers, W. McWilliam, James Cleland, T. G. Smith, George Davidson, Walter McKenzie. Added at the Twenty-third Sederunt, Dr. Reid, and Mr. Alexander Young of Napanee.

OVERTURE ON STUDENT CATECHISTS.

The Assembly resumed consideration of the Overture from the Presbytery of Kingston on Student Catechists, interrupted by the adjournment last night—the motion of Mr. Laing being then before the House. It was moved in amendment by Principal Grant, and duly seconded, That the Overture lie on the table till next year. It was moved in further amendment by Mr. George Bruce, duly seconded, That the Assembly proceed, now, to dispose finally of the Overture. Votes being taken, the amendment of Dr. Grant was carried, and the Assembly decided to lay the Overture on the table till next year.

REPORT ON SUPPORT OF COLLEGES.

The Assembly called for the report of the Committee appointed last year to consider the whole subject of the support of Theological Colleges in the Western Section of the Church. The report was produced and read by Dr. Reid. The report was received, and its recommendations being considered one by one and adopted severally, were adopted as a whole as follows :—

1. That, in the belief that the financial support of Theological Education will not rest upon an adequate foundation until the several Colleges have been endowed, the General Assembly contemplate a general endowment of the Colleges at the earliest period possible, and, in the meantime, recommend the Presbyteries of the Church to seek to develop and strengthen throughout the Church the sentiment in favour of endowment.
2. That, in the meantime, the principle for some time adopted of supporting the Colleges by a division of territory, be continued.

HOME MISSIONS—EASTERN SECTION.

The Assembly returned to the consideration of the Reports on Home Missions, interrupted by the adjournment of the First Sederunt on Monday, and called for the report on the Home Missions of the Eastern Section of the Church. The report, in printed form, was submitted by Dr. Waters, who at the same time gave full explanations of the work of the Church in this department in the Maritime Provinces. The report of the scheme for the supplementing of stipend was submitted at the same time. On motion of Mr. T. Sedgwick, seconded by Mr. S. Houston, the following Deliverance was adopted:—

1. The Assembly adopt the reports, and in doing so would gratefully acknowledge the divine goodness as shown by the reports submitted on the work done during the past year in the Maritime Provinces.

2. The Assembly notices with approval the continuance of missionary efforts in new fields in Newfoundland, and in New Brunswick, in Little Bay and New Kincardine, and would again gratefully record the liberality of the Established and Free Churches of Scotland, and the Presbyterian Church of Ireland, by whose kind assistance the work of augmenting the salaries of ministers in many weak charges has been accomplished, general Home Mission work aided, and debt reduced from $2,391 to $1,516.

3. The General Assembly, in renewing instructions to keep expenditure within what may reasonably be expected as income, would again authorize a temporary loan by the Supplementing Committee, to meet promptly the first of July semi-annual payments, subject to the same conditions as last year.

4. The General Assembly notices with approval the resolution of the Committee on Supplements, in the disbursement of the Funds intrusted to them, to be guided by the Rules contained in the Assembly's Minutes, and commends the whole work to the prayerful support of all the congregations in the Maritime Provinces.

REDUCTIONS—PAYMENT OF.

The motion of Mr. Becket, read at the close of the afternoon Sederunt on Monday, and the amendment thereto by Mr. J. M. King, were here taken up, of the following tenor:—

Moved by Mr. J. Becket, seconded by Mr. R. Hall, That it be an instruction to the Home Mission Committee—Western Section—to pay the twenty-five per cent. deducted from the payments to supplemented ministers, where this has not been done. Moved in amendment by Mr. J. M. King, seconded by Dr. Cochrane, That the Home Mission Committee be directed to inquire into the cases in which the twenty-five per cent. reduction on the payments to ministers on the Supplementing Fund has not been paid, with a view of redressing any grievance that may be found to exist.

Before these motions were disposed of the hour of twelve o'clock arrived, and the Assembly passed to the order of the day for that hour, and called for the report of the

NOMINATION COMMITTEE.

The report was handed in by Mr. Laing, the Convener, was held as read, was received, and it was agreed to proceed with the consideration of its several nominations, seriatim. The Assembly proceeded with such consideration down to the nominations for the Foreign Mission Committee, when the hour of adjournment arrived.

The Assembly adjourned to meet in this place at three o'clock in the afternoon, of which public intimation was given, and this Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

SIXTEENTH SEDERUNT.

At the same place and on the same day, at three o'clock in the afternoon:—

The General Assembly met pursuant to adjournment, and was constituted with devotional exercises, Dr. Jardine, at the request of the Moderator, offering prayer.

The minutes of the Fifteenth Sederunt were read and sustained.

BRANTFORD LADIES' COLLEGE.

The Assembly called for the Report of the Directors of the Ladies' College at Brantford. The Report was read, and explanations thereof were given by Dr. Cochrane, President of the Advisory Council of the College. The following resolution, moved by Mr. D. D. McLeod, seconded by Mr. John Thompson, of Sarnia, was unanimously adopted:—Receive and adopt the Report. Further, the General Assembly desires to express its satisfaction at the continued prosperity of the College, and the efforts of the Directors and Faculty to raise the standard of education to the highest degree of efficiency. The Assembly is pleased to find that the College is taking advantage of the University local examinations for women; and commend it cordially to the constituency of our Church, as an institution providing, at once, a Christian home and thorough training for the daughters of our Church. In terms of the application made in the Report, the Assembly nominates the following shareholders as Directors for the ensuing year, namely:—Messrs. Alex. Robertson, Wm. Watt, Thomas McLean, Robert Henry, Adam Spence, Wm. Grant, C. B. Heyd, John Sutherland, Robert Russell, James Ker, Dr. Wm. Nichol, and Dr. Cochrane.

The Assembly appointed the Rev. Dr. McVicar and the Rev. D. H. Fletcher, as Visitors of the Ladies' College, Brantford, for the current year.

OTTAWA LADIES' COLLEGE.

The Assembly called for the Report of the Board of Directors of the Ladies' College, Ottawa. The Report was presented and read by Dr. Moore. On motion of Professor McLaren, seconded by Mr. J. K. Blair, the Assembly agreed unanimously as follows:—Receive and adopt the Report of the Ottawa Ladies' College; express gratification at its efficient condition; extend to it the recognition of the Assembly; cordially commend the College to the confidence and patronage of the families of the Church; and appoint the Rev. Principal Grant, of Kingston, and the Rev. A. B. McKay, of Montreal, Visitors for the current year.

NOMINATION COMMITTEE REPORT.

The Assembly resumed consideration of the Report of the Committee to nominate Standing Committees, interrupted by the adjournment at the morning Sederunt, which consideration was continued to the end of the Report. The several Committees as nominated, and amendments thereto, were agreed to, seriatim. On motion of Mr. Laing, duly seconded, the Report, as amended, was adopted as a whole, and in terms thereof the following boards and committees were appointed.

The Rev. Dr. Wilkes, long the honoured President of the French Canadian Missionary Society, was introduced to the Assembly by Dr. McVicar, and was welcomed to the House by the Moderator.

A. AND I. MINISTERS' FUND—REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE WITH CONVENERS.

Mr. Thomas Lowry, from the Committee appointed at the Eighth Sederunt to confer with the Conveners of the Committees on the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Funds, both for the Eastern and Western Sections of the Church, with a view to the framing of rules to secure uniformity in the administration of the two Funds and increase their capabilities gave in and read a report. The report was received, and it was agreed to consider its several recommendations seriatim. The first recommendation was adopted; and while the Assembly was proceeding with the consideration of the second, the hour of adjournment arrived. It was then agreed that the further consideration of the report be the first order of the day for the next Sederunt. It was also agreed that the hearing of the report on the Presbyterian Record be the first order of the day for to-morrow morning.

The Assembly adjourned, to meet in this place at half-past seven o'clock in the evening, and this Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

SEVENTEENTH SEDERUNT.

At the same place and on the same day, at half-past seven o'clock in the evening:—
The Assembly met, pursuant to adjournment and was constituted—prayer being offered, at the request of the Moderator, by Mr. John Crombie.
The Minutes of the Sixteenth Sederunt were read and sustained.

A. AND I. M. FUNDS REPORT ON CONFERENCE.

The Assembly, as agreed upon, resumed consideration of the Report on Conference with the Conveners of the Committees on the Funds for Aged and Infirm Ministers, and took up again the second recommendation in the report. After reasoning for some time the Assembly agreed to proceed no further now, with the consideration of the Report on Conference with the Conveners; and remit the whole subject of the regulations on the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Funds to the Committees on these Funds, for the Eastern and Western Sections of the Church, respectively, with instructions to mature a scheme on the subject, and report the same to the next General Assembly.

REPORT ON SUSTENTATION FUND.

Mr. P. McF. McLeod, from the Committee appointed at last Assembly to frame a scheme for a Sustentation Fund, presented and read a report, and at the same time explained and supported its provisions at length. The report is as follows:—

Your Committee beg to submit to the Assembly the following scheme for the working of a Sustentation Fund, with the recommendation that it be sent down to Presbyteries, with instructions to consider it and report to next General Assembly.

The object of this fund is to secure to all our ministers in settled charges a minimum stipend of $750 per annum, under the following regulations:—

I. As to aid-receiving congregations.

1. No congregation shall be entitled to receive a minimum stipend agreed upon unless it remits to the fund the sum of not less than $500.

2. Every congregation receiving aid from the fund shall be required to send into the fund its whole revenue, after paying the usual congregational expenses, such as the salary of precentor and caretaker, fuel, lighting, etc.

N.B.—All cases in which there are debts on buildings requiring a yearly outlay for interest, shall be specially dealt with by the Committee.

3. In every aid-receiving congregation opportunity shall be given to all members and adherents to contribute regularly to the fund, if possible monthly.

4. It shall not be lawful for any aid-receiving congregation to pay their minister a supplement.

5. A re-arrangement shall be made with every congregation on its becoming vacant, and no step shall be taken towards filling up the vacancy till this is done.

6. In the event of any congregation failing to fulfil its engagement towards the fund, the Committee will communicate with that congregation directly, and through the Presbytery, and, if necessary, bring the case before the Assembly, which may, if it see cause, remove it from the minimum stipend platform.

7. All congregations at present on the supplemented list, not able to reach the amount necessary to place them on the minimum stipend platform, shall be dealt with so as most effectually to develop their resources by means of direct grants on a given basis, to make up a certain amount, all the revenue of such congregations being sent to the fund, and arrangements made in them for regular contributions to the fund as in those on the minimum stipend platform.

8. That in the event of a vacancy in an aid-receiving congregation, situated in the immediate neighbourhood of one or more other congregations, the Presbytery, within whose bounds such congregation is situated, shall not proceed to a settlement of a new minister without prior consultation and agreement with the Sustentation Committee in regard to the necessity of retaining such congregation as a separate and independent charge, and, if it shall seem expedient, the use of all prudent means to effect a union between the vacant congregation and a neighbouring one; cases of difficulty to be referred to the Assembly.

9. That every aid-receiving congregation be required to furnish the Committee with an annual statement of its accounts, duly certified by the Presbytery of the bounds.

2. Self-sustaining and aid-giving congregations.

1. All self-sustaining and aid-giving congregations shall be required to participate in the fund, sending in the amount of the minimum stipend plus whatever they may be able to give to the help of the fund, and receiving back the minimum stipend for their minister.

2. When such congregation gives a call it will promise its minister the minimum stipend plus any amount it may feel able to give as supplement.

3. The amount such congregation will be expected to contribute to the Sustentation Fund will be adjusted by negotiation between the Committee and each congregation, subject to the sanction of the Presbytery, on a common basis applicable to the whole Church.

It will also be observed that the Committee does not seek to regulate the financial arrangements of aid-giving congregations, or to interfere with existing engagements, but only requires a participation in the fund, and what help such congregations may be able to afford.

3. Regulations applying to both aid-receiving and aid-giving congregations.

As it is proposed to pay the minimum stipend at the close of each quarter, congregations will be required to remit to the fund quarterly, and, where that is possible, a monthly remittance will be preferred.

In cases where the remittance is not made before the quarter's stipend is due, and no explanation sent to the treasurer, the quarter's stipend will be withheld.

(Signed) - P. McF. McLeod, Convener.

MONTREAL, 9th June, 1880.

It was moved by Mr. P. McF. McLeod, seconded by Mr. D. J. Macdonnell, and resolved as follows: Receive the Report, and adopt the recommendation of the Committee that the plan now presented be sent down to Presbyteries with instructions to consider and report to next Assembly; and to report also, in connection therewith, their views on the whole question as to ministerial support, whether by a sustentation or a supplementary scheme; and that the Presbyteries shall report to the Committee by the first of March, in order that they may be in a position to consider more fully the entire question of ministerial support. Further, re-appoint the Committee as follows: Mr. P. McF. McLeod, Convener; Dr. McNish; Messrs. D. J. Macdonnell, Alex. Gilray, W. T. McMullen, John Thompson (Sarnia), D. M. Gordon, R. H. Warden, Robert Campbell (Montreal), Thomas Sedgwick, E. A. McCurdy, John McMillan (Truro), Dr. McDonald; Messrs. R. Murray, J. K. Blair, Geo. W. Underwood, D. Morrice, A. C. Hutchison, Colin McDougall, Wm. Mitchell, W. B. McMurrich.

REDUCTION OF SUPPLEMENT REPAID.

The Assembly took up again the motion of Mr. J. Becket, and the amendment of Mr. J. M. King, recorded near the close of the morning Sederunt to-day. A vote was taken between said motion and amendment, when the motion was carried, and the Assembly ordered, in accordance therewith, That it be an instruction to the Home Mission Committee, Western Section, to pay the twenty-five per cent. deducted from the payments to supplemented ministers, where this has not been done.

MISSION TO LUMBERMEN.

The Assembly called for the Report of the Committee on the Mission to the Lumbermen. The Report was read by Mr. D. M. Gordon, the Convener, who at the same time gave explanations of the state and working of the scheme. On motion of Mr. Gordon, seconded by Mr. J. S. Black, the Assembly agreed to receive the Report and adopt its recommendations as follows:—

1. That the Mission be placed under the supervision of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, commending it to the special sympathy and support of the congregations within the Synod, with instructions that any report of the Mission approved by that Synod, shall be embodied, for the information of the General Assembly, in the report of the Assembly's Home Mission Committee.
2. That the Committee to be appointed for the current year shall hold office until the next meeting of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, when their successors will be appointed by that Synod.

RETURNS TO REMITS.

Mr. D. J. Macdonnell, from the Committee to Classify the Returns to Remits, sent down to Presbyteries last year, gave in and read a report in terms following:—

1. Returns anent retaining the names of ministers who retire, with permission of the General Assembly, from the active duties of the ministry, on account of age or infirmity, on the rolls of their respective Presbyteries:—Fourteen Presbyteries approve; six approve provided the ministers whose names are retained engage in no secular calling; (of the twenty Presbyteries thus approving, eleven expressly state that the right to vote shall be accorded, while nine say nothing about the right to vote); eleven Presbyteries approve of retaining the names on the roll, the right of voting being withheld. Four disapprove simpliciter.
2. Returns anent the Presbyterian University: Seven Presbyteries approve simpliciter; four approve with modifications; twenty-two disapprove, of which two recommend that each Theological Hall should secure the power of granting degrees in theology; one Presbytery expresses no opinion on the principle, but judges the establishment of the University inexpedient; one sends no report.
3. Returns anent the validity of Ordination by the Church of Rome: Sixteen Presbyteries regard Roman Catholic ordination as invalid; seven regard it as valid; six recommend that each case be dealt with as it arises; two express no opinion; four send no report.
4. Returns anent the mode in which ministers of other Churches shall be received: Twenty-six Presbyteries approve simpliciter; three wish the eleventh clause modified; one Presbytery wishes the eleventh clause rejected; one wishes the third and fourth clauses modified.
5. Returns anent the reading of the Pastoral on Home Missions, and the securing of contributions: On this point six Presbyteries report that the injunction of the Assembly has been fully complied with; the other Presbyteries make no returns.

The report was received.

INDUCTION OF PROFESSOR COUSSIRAT.

On motion of Principal McVicar, duly seconded, the Assembly resolved, That in the event of the Rev. Daniel Coussirat, B.D., accepting the appointment of French Professor of Theology in the Presbyterian College, Montreal, the Presbytery of Montreal be instructed to take the necessary steps to induct him into office.

The Assembly agreed that the Memorials and Overtures from the Presbytery of Barrie be the first order of the day for to-morrow morning.

The hour of adjournment having arrived, the Assembly adjourned to meet in this place to-morrow morning at ten o'clock, of which public intimation was given, and this Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

EIGHTEENTH SEDERUNT.

At the City of Montreal, and within Crescent Street Church there; Thursday, the seventeenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty years, at ten o'clock in the forenoon:—

Which time and place the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada met, pursuant to adjournment, and was constituted with devotional exercises—Mr. E. A. McCurdy, at the request of the Moderator, offering prayer.

The minutes of the Seventeenth Sederunt were read and sustained.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

Dr. Waters from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, read a report recommending the order of business for this day. The report was received and the order of business as therein stated, sanctioned.

PREFERENTIAL CLAIMS—OVERTURE PRESBYTERY OF BARRIE.

The General Assembly took up an Overture from the Presbytery of Barrie, setting forth that labourers in the mission field of Manitoba are allowed certain preferential claims for stipend over others labouring in equally important fields, and praying the Assembly to legislate in such a way as to secure absolute fairness in the distribution of the contributions for Home Mission purposes. Messrs. Leiper and John McL. Stevenson, under appointment of the Presbytery, were heard in support of the Overture. On motion of Mr. Laing, duly seconded, the Overture was received. The Assembly, on motion of Principal Grant, seconded by Mr. B. Campbell, resolved, That it be remitted to the Home Mission Committee, to consider whether it is necessary to make special engagements with missionaries sent to Manitoba, or elsewhere, and to report to next General Assembly.

GRAVENHURST, MAGANETAWAN, ETC.

The Assembly took up next a memorial from the Presbytery of Barrie in reference to the reduction by the Home Mission Committee of the grants applied for on account of Gravenhurst, Severn Bridge, and Washago, and praying the General Assembly to refer the application in question to the Home Mission Committee for more favourable consideration. There were read also memorials of a similar purport in relation to the Mission in the Minesing group, and the missions of the Maganetawan district. Messrs. John Gray and John Leiper, under appointment of the Presbytery, were heard in support of the memorials. On motion of Dr. Cochrane, seconded by Mr. J. M. King, the Assembly agreed that the request of these memorials be sent down to the Home Mission Committee for their consideration in terms of said memorials.

MR. JOSEPH ANDREW.

In reference to the case of Mr. Joseph Andrew, one of the missionaries to Muskoka, on whose behalf application had, last year, been made for admission to full ministerial standing, the Presbytery of Barrie, in compliance with the instruction of last Assembly, reported that it is the intention of Mr. Andrew to attend Queen's College, at least another year, before seeking admission to full standing as a minister of this Church.

MANITOBA COLLEGE, DELIVERANCE ON REPORT.

Principal Grant, from the Committee to frame a Deliverance on the Report of the Board of Management of Manitoba College, and other relative papers, handed in and read a draft deliverance, which was received, and it was agreed to consider its several clauses seriatim. The several clauses being considered one by one, and agreed to, the draft deliverance was agreed to as a whole in terms following:—

1. The Assembly approve of the allowance of $600, voted by the Committee on the Ordinary Fund of Manitoba College, to Dr. Patterson, for his services as Agent of the Assembly; and agree that $300 of this amount be paid out of the Assembly Fund, the other $300 having been in part collected by Dr. Patterson, and in part paid out of the Ordinary Fund of Manitoba College.
2. The Assembly regret that only thirty-five congregations should have responded to the Committee's circular. The General Assembly having repeatedly expressed its conviction that the maintenance of Manitoba College in efficiency is essential to our work in the North-West, instruct the Committee to press the matter committed to them until a sufficient sum is raised by congregational collections or donations to relieve the Eastern and Western sections of the Home Mission Fund of this burden borne by them; and instruct the Committee to bring the matter specially before the parent Churches.
3. The General Assembly express satisfaction at the growing prosperity of the College, indicated in the Reports, and at the increased contributions to its support from local sources, and urge upon the Board of Management the duty of looking specially to local sources for the new Buildings required, and for the extension of the College work by additions to the teaching staff.
4. The General Assembly tender thanks to the Committee of the Ordinary Fund, especially to the Convener, and re-appoint the Committee, with the addition to it of Rev. G. Bruce (St. Catharines), and Rev. Mr. Torrance (Peterborough).
5. As regards the burden on the Home Mission Fund, for the support of the College, the General Assembly instruct the Eastern Section to pay $250, and the Western Section $1,000, for the current year, in the hope that congregational collections and donations and the grants from the parent Churches will prove sufficient not only to make up the amount required but also to reduce the debt now standing against the Ordinary Fund.

MANITOBA COLLEGE, COMMITTEE ON ORDINARY FUND.

The Committee re-appointed, with additions, is as follows:—Mr. D. H. Fletcher, Convener; Dr. Reid, Dr. Grant, Dr. Moore, D. J. Macdonnell, M. W. Maclean, Hon. Alex. Morris, Hon. J. McMurich, Messrs. Donald McLellan and James Croil, Rev. Géo. Bruce (St. Catharines), Rev. Mr. Torrance (Peterborough).

MEMORIAL, PRESBYTERY OF LINDSAY—REV. D. D. MCLENNAN.

The Assembly took up a memorial from members of the Presbytery of Lindsay, stating that in the Providence of God, one of the ministers of that Presbytery, Mr. D. D. McLennan, had become mentally incapacitated for his ministerial duties, and was at present under medical treatment in an Asylum, in Toronto, and that his family were in circumstances requiring pecuniary aid; and praying the Assembly to issue certain instructions to the Home Mission Committee, the Committee on the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund, and that on the Widows' Fund, for the help required in the circumstances. Mr. A. Ross and Mr. James Hastie were heard in support of the memorial. It was moved by Dr. Waters, seconded by Mr. Laing, and resolved, That the memorial be received, that the request of the memorialists be remitted to the Committees of the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund, and the Widows' and Orphans' Fund—Western Section—for favourable con-

FOREIGN MISSION—NORTH-WEST—GRANT OF LANDS.

Professor McLaren, Convener of the Foreign Mission Committee, Western Section, submitted the subjoined preambles and resolutions in relation to certain lands in the North-West Territory, hitherto occupied by the agents of this Church, but to which no legal title had been obtained, which preambles and resolutions, being considered by the Assembly, were adopted in terms following:—

1. Whereas no patents for the lands, the property of the Foreign Mission, have been issued to the trustees mentioned in the resolution of the Assembly adopted at Ottawa, in 1879, as set out on page 30 of the minutes of said Assembly; and whereas it is desirable to substitute the names of other trustees instead of some thereof; the Assembly do hereby appoint John Black, D.D., of Kildonan, Professor George Bryce, of Winnipeg, Manitoba, Professor William McLaren, of Toronto, the Rev. James Robertson, of Winnipeg, and the Hon. Alexander Morris, of Toronto, to be trustees in lieu of the trustees named in the said resolution, to whom and their successors in office, the lands referred to in said resolution may be conveyed, and with the same powers and under the same trusts as defined by the same.

2. Whereas it has become desirable to place in the market a portion of the lands held by this Church for the use of the mission at Prince Albert: Resolved, That the Assembly instruct the Foreign Mission Committee to have the said lands surveyed and laid out into lots, and that they be authorized to sell such portions of the land as they may deem proper; and that the trustees, as appointed as aforesaid to hold the same, are instructed and required to sign, execute, and deliver all deeds or agreements for the sale of such portions as may be directed by the Foreign Mission Committee; the proceeds of said sale or sales to be applied to the use of the mission to the Indians of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, in such manner as the Assembly shall direct.

RECORDS OF SYNODS AND MANITOBA PRESBYTERY.

Reports were handed in and read from the several committees appointed to revise the minutes of the several Synods and of the Presbytery of Manitoba, certifying that they had examined the minutes of the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston, of the Synod of Hamilton and London, and of the Presbytery of Manitoba, and had found the minutes of these several Judicatories carefully and correctly kept. The reports were received, and the Assembly ordered the several records aforementioned to be attested in terms thereof.

COMMISSION TO KNOX CHURCH, PERTH.

The Moderator here named the Commission agreed upon at the morning Sederunt yesterday, on the case of Knox Church, Perth, as follows: Professor W. McLaren, Convener; H. Gracey, T. S. Chambers, W. McWilliam, James Cleland, T. G. Smith; Messrs. George Davidson, Walter McKenzie, J. B. Fairbairn. Added at the Twenty-third Sederunt, Dr. Reid and Mr. A. Young (Napanee).

The hour of adjournment having arrived, the Assembly adjourned to meet in this place at three o'clock, of which public intimation was given, and this Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

NINETEENTH SEDERUNT.

At the same place and on the same day, at three o'clock in the afternoon:—

The Assembly met and was constituted with devotional exercises, Mr. S. Houston, at the request of the Moderator, offering prayer.

REPORT ON "PRESBYTERIAN RECORD."

Dr. Jenkins, the Convener of the Committee on the Presbyterian Record, gave in and read a report stating the amount of the present circulation of the periodical, and the condition of the finances connected therewith. On motion of Dr. Jenkins, seconded by Dr. Bell, the Assembly agreed to receive the report, thank the Committee and Editors, especially the Managing Editor, for the diligence and ability with which the Record has been conducted; express satisfaction at the success of the periodical, as shewn in the circulation and the state of the funds; approve of the disposition of the $1000 of the profits to the Home Mission Fund, and commend the Record to our ministers and people as worthy of their support, and enjoin Presbyteries to draw the attention of their several congregations to the importance of extending its circulation; authorize the Committee to employ the $400 of profits still in their hands in furtherance of the interests of the publication.

On motion of Mr. McLean Sinclair, seconded by Dr. Jenkins, the Assembly agreed to instruct the Committee to take into consideration the practicability of enlarging the Record, so that fuller information may be given respecting the proceedings of our higher Church Courts, and the leading schemes of the Church, and also the possibility of lessening the expenses in connection with the management of the Record.

REPORT OF JUDICIAL COMMITTEE.

Principal Caven brought up a report from the Judicial Committee, in the matter of the Reference from the Synod of Toronto and Kingston in the case of Mrs. Phillips; and requested that while the report was being read the Assembly should sit with closed doors. It was moved by Mr. L. G. McNeill, seconded by Mr. A. McLean Sinclair, and carried, that the request be complied with. Strangers were then requested to retire.

The Hon. Mr. Morris, Messrs. D. J. Macdonnell, C. B. Pitblado, and J. Middlemiss, craved that their dissent from the action of the Assembly, in closing the doors, be marked in the minutes.

The report was then read by Dr. Caven, as follows:—

The Committee having maturely considered the references from the Synod of Toronto and Kingston for advice with regard to a reference to them by the Presbytery of Saugeen, of a reference from the kirk session of Arthur, anent the church standing of two members of that congregation, as affected by their marriage in the Province of Ontario, after one of them, Maria Jane Buschter, who it would appear had been previously married in said Province on the 10th of August, 1879, to one Henry Lewis, and had, after a residence of eighteenth months in the State of Illinois, on the 24th day of March, 1879, obtained a decree of divorce from her said husband in the District Court of the State of Illinois, on the grounds, as stated in the judgment of said Court, in the cause of Maria-Jane Lewis versus Henry Clay Lewis, viz.:—"That the defendant had been guilty of habitual drunk-eness, and had wilfully absented himself from the said complainant, without any reasonable cause, for more than the space of two years before the filing of the complaint thereon."

The Committee, in pursuance of their duty, submit the following statement to the Assembly:—First. It appears that after the obtaining of the said decree, the said Maria Jane Buschter, returned to Ontario, and on the 27th of May, 1879, was married to one Thomas Phillips, who was a member of the congregation of Arthur, as Mrs. Lewis had been previously to her departure to Illinois.

Second. That after the solemnization of the marriage by the Rev. D. Stewart, minister of Arthur, the question of the marriage was taken up by the Kirk Session of Arthur, in consequence of the expressed dissatisfaction of a member of the congregation with regard to the said marriage, and the Session agreed after deliberation to ask the advice of the Presbytery, "1st, as to whether Mr. Stewart was justified, under the circumstances, in marrying the said parties; and, 2nd, as to whether the said Thomas Phillips and Mrs. Phillips are entitled to the privilege of church membership!"

Third. The Presbytery, on the 16th of September, 1879, considered the reference, and, after reasoning, sent the question back to the Session of the Arthur congregation to proceed formally in the case, and appointed Assessors to act with the Session thereon.

Fourth. The Session accordingly met on the 6th of October last, and entered upon consideration of the case. The Session had before them the decree of divorce granted in the State of Illinois. The Session took declarations of certain witnesses that the said Lewis had been guilty of adultery, and had admitted the same.

Fifth. The Presbytery considered the evidence and decree, and remitted the case to the Synod of Toronto and Kingston for advice, who directed the Presbytery of Saugeen to prepare a full statement of the case for submission to the General Assembly for advice.

Sixth. From the Presbytery's statement it would appear that about two years after the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, they parted in February, 1872, specially on the ground that the said Lewis had committed adultery. Mrs. Lewis then went to her father's house, and supported herself and child by teaching music. Mrs. Lewis corresponded, they relate, with Lewis in different letters about obtaining a divorce from him, and informed him that she intended to apply in the proper manner to secure it. They also state that about two years after their separation Lewis wrote his wife that she could do what she liked in the matter, and that after having lived a separate life and supported herself and child for several years, Mrs. Lewis then repaired to the United States and lived in the State of Illinois for one year and six months, when she obtained, as before stated, a divorce from the said Lewis.

The Committee having given this statement of the facts of this painful case, beg leave to report to the Assembly as follows:—

Inasmuch as marriage is a civil contract as well as a religious ordinance, due regard to the law of the land and to the interests of public morality, requires that the Church should not lend her sanction to divorces or re-marriages which our law, in this matter conformable to Scripture, does not recognize.

Whilst in the case before us there is evidence that divorce might have been sued for on the ground recognized by Scripture, and the law of Canada, as adequate, yet the party whose relation to the Church is in question, obtained, in a foreign country, a divorce which the law of this country does not hold to be valid; the divorce, therefore, and the marriage which followed, should not, by any action of the General Assembly, be regarded as having fully satisfied the requirements which Christian duty enjoins us to respect.

In these circumstances, the judgment of the General Assembly is that the party should be instructed and encouraged to seek divorce from Henry Lewis in the way provided by the law of Canada; and without questioning the good faith of the party in the steps which she has taken—expressing also sympathy with her in the painful and trying position in which she has been placed—the Assembly deems it necessary, to avoid all offence, that she should not be regarded as in full communion with the Church until the requirements of the civil law have been duly complied with.

In regard to the conduct of the Rev. D. Stewart in marrying to Thomas Phillips the person above referred to, the General Assembly find that they have no evidence before them upon which to pronounce any judgment.

Mr. D. J. Macdonnell here read a paper purporting to be a report of the minority of the Judicial Committee, in terms following: "The minority of the Judicial Committee, while concurring in the historical statement prepared by the Committee in the case of Mrs. Phillips, and in the deliverance proposed down to the word 'placed,' desire to have the following words substituted for the remaining portion of the finding:—'Considering the acknowledged difficulty of obtaining divorce in Canada; considering, further, that there were sufficient grounds in this case for obtaining divorce according to the law of Canada; the General Assembly does not deem it necessary, in the present position of the matter, to disturb the church standing of the parties, inasmuch as there has been no moral offence committed.' (Signed) D. J. Macdonnell, John J. A. Proudfoot, G. D. Mathews, John McMillan, George Bell, LL.D., John Gray, D. McCurdy."

It was then moved by Mr. L. G. McNeill, duly seconded, and resolved, That the report be received, and that the finding contained therein, together with the paper read by Mr. Macdonnell, be printed for the use of members of the Assembly, and the consideration of the report made the first order of business for to-morrow morning.

PRESBYTERIAN UNIVERSITY.

The Assembly took up the Report on Returns to Remits, when that on the subject of a Presbyterian University was read. No further action was taken on the returns.

OVERTURE ON THEOLOGICAL DEGREES.

The Assembly took up an Overture from the Synod of Hamilton and London anent the conferring of Theological Degrees, setting forth, in substance, that it was desirable and equitable that the Senates of our Theological Colleges should possess coördinate powers in the matter of conferring degrees in Theology, and that, especially, the Senates of Knox College, Toronto, and the Presbyterian College, Montreal, should obtain the powers for the obtaining of which the General Assembly of the Canada Presbyterian Church formerly took action, and praying that the Boards of Management of Knox and Montreal Colleges be appointed a joint Committee, and instructed in terms of the Deliverance of the General Assembly of 1871, to take such steps towards the amending of the Charters of those Institutions as may be necessary to give the Senates of both Colleges the power of conferring Degrees in Divinity, under such regulations as the Assembly may, from time to time, enact. The overture was supported, under appointment of the Synod of Hamilton and London, by Mr. R. N. Grant.

While Mr. Grant was proceeding with his argument the hour of adjournment arrived, and the Assembly adjourned, to meet at this place at half-past seven o'clock this evening, of which intimation was publicly given, and the Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

TWENTIETH SEDERUNT.

At the same place and on the same day, at half-past seven o'clock in the evening:—

The General Assembly met, pursuant to adjournment, and was constituted with devotional exercises—prayer being offered, at the request of the Moderator, by Dr. MacIsaac. The minutes of the Nineteenth Sederunt were read and sustained.

Mr. J. Laing gave notice that, to-morrow morning, he would submit a resolution on printing the papers in causes of appeal by the parties concerned.

OVERTURE ON THEOLOGICAL DEGREES.

The Assembly resumed consideration of the Overture on Theological Degrees, interrupted at the close of the last Sederunt. Mr. Grant continued his argument in support of the Overture to a close. Mr. J. Laing, also, under appointment of the Synod of Hamilton and London, was heard in support of the Overture.

Mr. R. N. Grant moved, seconded by Mr. C. B. Pitblado, as follows:—Receive the Overture of the Synod of Hamilton and London, and empower the Boards of Management and Senates of Knox College, Toronto, and the Presbyterian College, Montreal, respectively, to apply to the Legislatures of the Provinces in which said Colleges are situated, to bestow upon them the power of conferring degrees in Theology in such manner as this Assembly shall enact—the Boards to report to the General Assembly, for its approval, the examination on which the degree of Bachelor in Divinity shall be conferred. It was moved in amendment by Mr. D. M. Gordon, and duly seconded, That the Overture lie on the table till next Assembly. A vote being taken on this amendment it was negatived—forty voting yea, and seventy-six, nay. Another amendment was moved by Mr. D. J. Macdonnell, seconded by Mr. T. Sedgwick, That the Assembly take no action in the matter. An amendment to the amendment was moved by Mr. R. Hall, seconded by Mr. Neil McKinnon, That out of respect to the twenty-two Presbyteries which disposed of the University scheme remitted to them last year, this Assembly take no action in the premises. This amendment was negatived by a vote of twenty-six for and seventy-six against, and that of Mr. Macdonnell by a vote of thirty-six to sixty-three. Principal McKnight then moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. R. Campbell, as follows:—The Assembly having considered the Overture, empower the Boards and Senates of the Colleges in Toronto and Montreal to take such steps in the matter as they may deem advisable. The original motion of Mr. R. N. Grant was then withdrawn in favour of Dr. McKnight's amendment, which being put to the House was carried unanimously, and the Assembly decreed in terms thereof.

The hour of adjournment having arrived, the Assembly adjourned, to meet in this place to-morrow morning at nine o'clock, and the Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

TWENTY-FIRST SEDERUNT.

At the City of Montreal, and within Crescent Street Church there; Friday, the eighteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty years, at nine o'clock in the forenoon:—

Which time and place the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada met, pursuant to adjournment, and was constituted with devotional exercises, Mr. James Hastie, at the request of the Moderator, offering prayer.

The Minutes of the Twentieth Sederunt were read and sustained.

LOYAL ADDRESSES.

Dr. Jenkins, from the Committee to draft Addresses to the Queen, and to the Governor-General, presented and read draft Addresses as required. The draft Addresses were received and adopted, and ordered to be engrossed and forwarded in the usual way.

LIMITATION OF TIME OF SPEAKING PROPOSED.

A motion was made and seconded, that henceforth during this session speeches be confined to five minutes, except in cases of the movers of resolutions, who shall be allowed ten minutes. A vote being taken the motion was negatived, and no restriction was imposed.

REPORT JUDICIAL COMMITTEE—re MRS. PHILLIPS.

The Assembly returned to the consideration of the Report of the Judicial Committee in the matter of Mrs. Phillips, deferred from yesterday afternoon. The finding in the case, as reported, as also the paper submitted by the minority of the Committee were presented in printed form.

Dr. Caven, the Convener of the Committee, gave extended explanations of the historical aspects of the case, and then moved, seconded by Mr. W. B. McMurrich, in terms of the finding above recorded, the words "and also Thomas Phillips, to whom she is said to be married," being first by permission of the Assembly inserted between the words "she" and "should" in the third paragraph of said finding. It was moved in amendment by Mr. D. J. Macdonnell, seconded by Dr. Proudfoot, in terms of the deliverance of the Committee down to the word "placed," in the third paragraph of said deliverance, and adding the paragraph expressing the mind of the minority of the Committee in terms following:—"Considering the acknowledged difficulty of obtaining divorce in Canada; considering further, that there were sufficient grounds in this case for obtaining divorce according to the law of Canada, the General Assembly does not deem it necessary in the present position of the matter to disturb the church standing of the parties, inasmuch as there has been no moral offence committed."

The discussion on these motions was proceeded with till the hour of adjournment, when the Assembly adjourned to meet in this place at three o'clock in the afternoon, of which public intimation was made, and this Sederunt was closed with the Benediction.

TWENTY-SECOND SEDERUNT.

At the same place and on the same day, at three o'clock in the afternoon:—

The General Assembly met, and was constituted with devotional exercises,—Mr. Thomas Duncan, at the Moderator's request, offering prayer.

The minutes of the Twenty-first Sederunt were read and sustained.

REPORT OF JUDICIAL COMMITTEE.

The Assembly resumed consideration of the finding of the Judicial Committee in the case of Mrs. Phillips, interrupted by the adjournment of the morning Sederunt. With the leave of the Assembly, and the consent of his seconder, Mr. Macdonnell changed the terms of his amendment by inserting after the word "Canada," in the first clause, the words, "even on the grounds recognized in Scripture," and erasing the words at the end of said amendment, "inasmuch as there has been no moral offence committed." A vote was taken upon Mr. Macdonnell's amendment, when it was lost—yeas, nineteen; nays, fifty-eight. Professor McLaren then moved in amendment, seconded by Principal McKnight, That the motion in paragraph third be amended by striking out all after the words "that she and Thomas Phillips," and the following to be substituted, "should not be continued in full communion with the Church until they have, in the judgment of the Presbytery of the bounds, made all due efforts to comply with the requirements

This last amendment being put to vote was lost, only five voting yea. The first amendment, that of Professor McLaren was then put to the House, when it was lost—yeas, 32; nays, 48. A vote was then taken upon the main motion, which was carried by 57 to 16, and the Assembly found and decreed in terms thereof as follows:—Inasmuch as marriage is a civil contract as well as a religious ordinance, due regard to the law of the land and to the interests of public morality requires that the Church should not lend her sanction to divorces or re-marriages which our law, in this matter conformable to Scripture, does not recognize.

Whilst in the case before us there is evidence that divorce might have been sued for on the ground recognized by Scripture, and the law of Canada, as adequate, yet the party whose relation to the Church is in question, obtained, in a foreign country, a divorce which the law of this country does not hold to be valid; the divorce therefore, and the marriage which followed, should not, by any action of the General Assembly, be regarded as having fully satisfied the requirements which Christian duty enjoins us to respect.

In these circumstances the judgment of the General Assembly is that the party should be instructed and encouraged to seek divorce from Henry Lewis in the way provided by the law of Canada; and without questioning the good faith of the party in the steps which she has taken—expressing also sympathy with her in the painful and trying position in which she is placed—the Assembly deems it necessary, to avoid all offence, that she, and also Thomas Phillips, to whom she is said to be married, should not be regarded as in full communion with the Church until the requirements of the civil law have been duly complied with.

NOTICE OF MOTION—MARRIAGE DECEASED WIFE'S SISTER.

Professor Gregg gave notice that at the next Sederunt he would move the following resolution, viz.:—Receive the overture respecting marriage with a deceased wife's sister, and appoint a Committee to watch legislation on this subject, and to take such steps by petition or otherwise, as they may deem advisable, with a view to arrest such legislation as that recently proposed in the Parliament of Canada.

PRINTING PAPERS.

Mr. Laing, seconded by Principal Grant, now moved the resolution of which he had given notice yesterday, in terms following:—Whereas it is desirable that all the members of the Assembly be fully informed regarding cases referred to the Judicial Committee, by the Assembly, with a view to this end, resolved, That it be an instruction to Presbyteries and Synods in sending up causes to the General Assembly, to have the papers in all causes printed for the use of members of the Assembly, at the expense of the complainants or appellants, or parties interested in a reference, as the case may be. The Assembly agreed to defer consideration of this motion till the Assembly of next year.

RETIRED MINISTERS ON ROLLS OF PRESBYTERIES.

The Assembly took up the returns to the remit on the subject of retaining the names of retired ministers on the rolls of Presbyteries. The report on these returns was read. It was moved by Mr. Middlemas, seconded by Mr. Hall, That, with the approval of the majority of the Presbyteries of the Church, as shewn by the returns, the names of ministers who have retired from the active duties of the ministry, with the leave of the Assembly, be retained on their respective Presbytery rolls—such ministers retaining all their judicial functions—so long as they reside within the bounds of the several Presbyteries in which they resided at the time of their retirement. It was moved, in amendment, by Mr.

T. Sedgwick, seconded by Mr. R. Murray, That the consideration of the subject be postponed for a year. It was moved, in further amendment, by Mr. McLean Sinclair, and seconded, That the present law, namely, that retired ministers be retained on the roll, but without the power of voting, be continued. Votes being taken on these amendments and on the motion of Mr. Middlemiss, the motion was carried by a large majority, and the Assembly decided in terms thereof.

The hour of adjournment having arrived, the Assembly adjourned, to meet in this place at half-past seven o'clock this evening, and to continue in session until all the business be finished. The Sederunt was then closed with the Benediction.

TWENTY-THIRD SEDERUNT.

At the same place and on the same day, at half-past seven o'clock in the evening:—

The General Assembly met, pursuant to adjournment, and was constituted with devotional exercises,—Mr. Joseph Elliot, at the request of the Moderator, offering prayer.

The minutes of the Twenty-second Sederunt were read and sustained.

REFERENCE, re REV. R. CHAMBERS.

Mr. Thomas Lowry presented a reference from the Presbytery of Paris, praying that the name of Mr. R. Chambers, now a missionary in Eastern Turkey, be retained on the roll of that Presbytery, and requested that the reference be taken up now, as he had been appointed to support the same, but must leave the Assembly before it could be reached in regular order. It was resolved to adhere to the order of business, and take up this reference in due course. Mr. Lowry then asked and obtained leave to retire from further attendance at this meeting of Assembly.

RECEPTION ACT.

The Assembly took up the returns to the remit on the draft Act for the receiving of ministers from other Churches, sent down to Presbyteries last year, under the Barrier Act. The report on the returns was read. It was then moved by Dr. Waters, seconded by Dr. Proudfoot, and resolved, That the draft Act for the reception of ministers, having been approved by a majority of Presbyteries, in terms of the Barrier Act, it be now enacted as the law of the Church, in terms following:—

ACT FOR RECEPTION OF MINISTERS.

I. Any minister who is a settled pastor in a Church which holds the same doctrines, government and discipline as this Church, and who is regularly called by a congregation of the Church, may be received by a Presbytery on presenting a Presbyterial certificate; but the Presbytery if it sees cause may refer the case to the Assembly.

II. Ministers and licentiates expressly designated or commissioned by the Churches in Great Britain and Ireland, may, on producing their commissions, be admitted by Presbyteries as ministers or probationers of this Church.

III. In all cases in which an applicant for admission does not come in the manner provided above, but with a Presbyterial certificate only, he cannot be received into full standing as a minister or probationer of this Church without permission of the General Assembly.

IV. The Presbytery shall, at an ordinary meeting, hold private conference with the applicant, for the purpose of ascertaining his doctrinal views, literary attainments, and other particulars. If satisfied, the Presbytery shall record its judgment, and transmit the application, with extracts of its proceedings thereon, and relative documents, to the next General Assembly; and the Clerk of Presbytery shall forthwith issue circular letters to the other Presbyteries of the Church.

V. The Presbytery, if unanimous in transmitting the application, may in the meantime avail itself of the applicant's services.

VI. If the Assembly grants permission to receive the applicant, the Presbytery shall, on his satisfactorily answering the questions to be put to ministers or probationers, and on his signing the formula, receive him as a minister or probationer of this Church.

VII. When the Church to which the applicant belonged is not a Presbyterian Church, the applicant must apply to the Presbytery within whose bounds he resides, and produce documentary evidence of his good standing as a minister in the Church to which he belonged. The Presbytery, if satisfied with such evidence, shall proceed to confer with him, and answers must be obtained to the following questions, viz:—

1. What course of study has he passed in Arts and Theology?
2. When, where and by whom was he ordained to the ministry?
3. Has he ever been connected with any other Church than that from which he brings documents, and if so, in what capacity?
4. What are his reasons for applying for admission to this Church, and what has led to his change of views?
5. How long has he resided within the bounds of the Presbytery?

VIII. The Presbytery, if satisfied with the answers to these questions, shall further inquire as to the degree of success which has attended the previous ministry of the applicant. If satisfied as to the probability of his usefulness in the Church, and as to his Christian character and good report, the Presbytery shall record its judgment on the whole case and apply for leave to admit him. The answers given and the information obtained must be embodied in a report, transmitted to the General Assembly, along with extracts of the Presbytery's proceedings and other documents.

IX. The applications, sent forward by the various Presbyteries of the Church, shall be considered and disposed of as the General Assembly may from time to time determine.

X. If the Assembly grants permission to receive the applicant, the Presbytery shall proceed as hereinbefore mentioned in section VI.

XI. All applicants for admission to the Church, other than those referred to in sections I. and II., must appear personally before the General Assembly.

ROMAN CATHOLIC ORDINATION.

The Assembly took up the returns to the remit sent down last year to Presbyteries on the subject of Roman Catholic ordination. The report on the returns was read. It was moved by Dr. Proudfoot, seconded by Dr. Jenkins, That Romish ordination be recognized, but as there are points of difference between Romish ordination and Presbyterian ordination, a Presbytery purposing to apply to the General Assembly for leave to receive a Romish priest into the ministry of our Church, must ascertain that he has correct views of ordination, and that he has reasonable evidence that he is called by Christ into the ministry, and that he understands and embraces our doctrinal standards; and further, that in the case of leave being obtained, the person to be received shall be required in open court to answer satisfactorily the questions put to students when they obtain license. It was moved in amendment by Mr. J. Laing, seconded by Dr. Waters, as follows: Resolved, that when an ex-priest, who is a member of this Church, desires to exercise the functions of the ministry in this Church, and applies to a Presbytery with this view, the Presbytery having satisfied itself as to his acceptance of the Reformed Faith, his Christian character and fitness for the work of the ministry, shall apply to the Synod of the bounds, who may, if they see fit, grant leave to receive such applicant as a licentiate or probationer. No vote was taken on the motion or amendment foregoing, and on motion of Dr. McVicar, seconded by Dr. Bennett, it was agreed to lay the whole subject of Roman Catholic ordination on the table till next Assembly.

Mr. James Hastie had leave of absence.

OVERTURE ON EXPENSES OF ASSEMBLY.

There was a motion to read an Overture from the Presbytery of Barrie, remitted last year to the Finance Committee, Toronto Section, anent lessening the expenses of the General Assembly, referring especially to the expenditure required in the printing and distributing of so large a number of copies of the Assembly minutes, and representing that one copy only of the minutes to each Synod, Presbytery, and session, would be sufficient, while copies might be supplied to parties wishing them at a price to be fixed by the Assembly. Dr. Reid presented and read the Report of the Finance Committee to whom the overture had been remitted, stating in detail the condition of the Assembly fund, and the charges thereon, and the desirableness of measures being adopted to increase the fund, and to relieve it from some of the burdens hitherto laid upon it; and recommending, with a view to lessening, somewhat, the expenses, that only three copies of the Assembly's minutes be supplied to each congregation, one for the Moderator of Session, one for the Clerk, and one for the members of the session, unless the session should be exceptionally large, when a few additional copies should be sent, it being understood that copies might be obtained by those requiring them at a reasonable price. It was also stated that the number of copies required last year was 5,300, and that if an edition of only 3,000 were issued there might be a saving of from $400 to $500.

It was moved by Mr. R. Murray, and duly seconded, That the Report of the Finance Committee be received, and the recommendation with regard to the distribution of the minutes adopted, and that one thousand copies be offered for sale at twenty-five cents per copy.

It was moved in amendment by Dr. McGregor, seconded by Dr. McVicar, That the Report of the Committee be approved, with the exception of the recommendation to reduce the number of copies of the minutes sent to sessions, and that the Clerks of the Assembly be directed to continue on this point the former practice: On a vote being taken the amendment was carried, and the Assembly decided in terms thereof.

ASSEMBLY FUND CONTRIBUTIONS.

On motion of Mr. R. H. Warden, duly seconded, it was agreed, That the amount required to meet the expenditure in connection with the Assembly Fund be allocated among the Presbyteries of the Church, and that Presbyteries be enjoined to see that the congregations within their bounds contribute towards the Fund.

COMMISSION—KNOX CHURCH, PERTH.

On motion of Professor McLaren, duly seconded, Dr. Reid, and Mr. Alexander Young, of Napanee, were added to the Commission, appointed at the Fifteenth and Eighteenth Sederunts, to visit the congregation of Knox Church, Perth.

REPORT OF DISTRIBUTION COMMITTEE.

The Assembly called for the Report of the Committee on the Distribution of Probationers. The report, in printed form, was submitted for the Convener—Mr. R. Torrance—by Mr. J. C. Smith. It was then moved by Mr. Smith, seconded by Mr. J. A. R. Dickson,

It was moved in amendment by Mr. R. H. Warden, seconded by Mr. F. W. Farries, That the report be received, the thanks of the Assembly tendered to the Committee, especially to the Convener, and that the resolution of last year, referred to as above, be continued for another year. A vote being taken, the amendment was carried and the Assembly decided accordingly.

Mr. J. C. Smith dissented from this decision, and asked that his name should be removed from the Distribution Committee. Mr. Smith's request for the removal of his name was granted, and Mr. D. D. McLeod was appointed in his stead.

RECORD OF ASSEMBLY—REPORT ON.

Mr. J. Middlemiss gave in a report from the Committee to examine the Record of the General Assembly, certifying that the Record had been examined by them, and found to be carefully and correctly kept. The report was received, and the Assembly ordered the Record to be attested in terms thereof.

PRESBYTERIAN COUNCIL.

Principal Caven here stated that he had lately learned that, from the growth and extent of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, it was entitled to two additional delegates, besides those appointed last year, to represent the Church in the Presbyterian Council to meet in the City of Philadelphia in September. On motion of Dr. McVicar, seconded by Dr. Jenkins, the Moderator—Mr. Donald Macrae, M.A.—and Dr. Mathews, of Quebec, were appointed additional delegates from this Church to said Presbyterian Council.

Principal Caven asked and obtained leave to retire from further attendance at this Session of the Assembly.

SABBATH SCHOOL LITERATURE.

There was taken up and read an Overture from the Presbytery of Lanark and Renfrew, praying the General Assembly to appoint a Committee to examine books and periodicals, and issue a list of such as might be profitably used in the Sabbath Schools of the Church, and to make such arrangements with booksellers as might further the object sought. On motion of Mr. John Crombie, it was agreed to lay the Overture on the table.

STATISTICS.

The Assembly called for the Report of the Committee on Statistics. The report was presented for the Convener—Mr. Torrance—by Dr. Waters, and its recommendations were read. It was moved by Principal Grant, seconded by Dr. Waters, and agreed, That the Report of the Committee on Statistics be received, and its recommendations adopted; that it be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes; that in future the report be printed for the use of the Assembly; that the thanks of the Assembly be given to the Committee, and especially to the Convener, and that the usual allowance be made to the Convener as a recognition of his services.

REFERENCE—PRESBYTERY OF PARIS: MR. R. CHAMBERS.

There was taken up and read a reference from the Presbytery of Paris containing an application of Mr. Robert Chambers, a minister of this Church, now a missionary in Eastern Turkey, under the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, requesting that his ministerial status as a minister of this Church be preserved to him in the foreign field. The reference was supported by Mr. R. N. Grant—in place of Mr. T.

Lowry, absent by leave of the Assembly. On motion of Professor McLaren, seconded by Dr. Bell, the Assembly resolved as follows:—Sustain the reference from the Presbytery of Paris; agree to recognize Mr. Robert Chambers as a minister of this Church, and that his name be entered on the roll of the Presbytery of Paris; and, further, cordially sanction his acceptance of employment as a missionary, in Turkey, of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, and earnestly bid him God-speed in his work.

PRESBYTERY OF CHATHAM—MR. J. CAIRNS.

There was read an extract minute of the Presbytery of Chatham, embodying a report of a Committee of Presbytery appointed to superintend the studies of Mr. John Cairns, and asking the leave of Assembly to continue the superintendence of Mr. Cairns' studies. It was on motion agreed to receive the report and grant leave to the Presbytery of Chatham as craved. (See printed minutes, 1879, page 15.)

OVERTURE ON CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES.

There was taken up and read an Overture from Dr. Proudfoot, and twenty-eight others—ministers of this Church, and members of this Assembly—representing the expediency of making certain constitutional changes affecting the Courts of the Church, and especially praying that a committee be appointed to consider whether the meetings of Assembly should be biennial or triennial instead of annual, and whether the Synod might not be entirely abolished, or the management of Home Missions within their bounds be intrusted to Synods. It was moved by Mr. A. McL. Sinclair, seconded by Principal Grant, That the overture be received, and a committee appointed in terms of the same. It was moved in amendment by Mr. J. Laing, seconded by Mr. C. B. Pitblado, That the overture be laid on the table. The amendment was carried, and it was agreed to lay the overture on the table.

OVERTURE, MARRIAGE WITH DECEASED WIFE'S SISTER.

There was taken up and read an overture from the Presbytery of Toronto, relating to the proposal in the last Session of the Parliament of Canada to legalize marriage with the sister of a deceased wife, and with a deceased brother's wife, and praying the Assembly to take the whole subject into consideration and adopt such measures as it deems best to avert such legislation as that recently proposed. Professor Gregg now moved, seconded by Principal McVicar, the resolution of which notice was given near the close of last Sederunt, in terms following:—Receive the overture respecting marriage with a deceased wife's sister, and appoint a committee to watch legislation on this subject, and to take such steps, by petition or otherwise, as they may deem advisable, with a view to avert such legislation as that recently proposed in the Parliament of Canada. It was moved in amendment by Principal Grant, seconded by Mr. McL. Sinclair, That the overture be laid on the table. Votes being taken the motion of Professor Gregg was carried, and the Assembly decided in terms thereof. The Committee was appointed as follows:—The Moderator, Dr. Reid, Principal Caven, Prof. McLaren, Prof. Gregg, D. M. Gordon, Dr. Moore, Dr. McVicar, Robert Campbell, Hon. Mr. Vidal, George Hay, Esq., Hon. Geo. Bryson, John Charlton, M.P., Hon. David Christie,—Dr. Gregg, Convenor.

TEMPERANCE.

There was presented and read an Overture from the Synod of Toronto and Kingston, setting forth the great evils of intemperance, and praying the General Assembly to take the whole subject into consideration, and devise thereon such measures as may tend to the glory of God and the good of the Church, especially by the appointment of a standing committee on temperance. Mr. Donald Fraser, of Mount Forest, was heard in support of the overture. There was read, also, a memorial on the same subject, from Mr. Neil McKay, under appointment of the Executive Committee of the Dominion Temperance Alliance, praying for an expression of the Assembly's estimate of the Canada Temperance Act, so that our people may be encouraged to avail themselves, in their several localities, of the facilities for the restriction and regulation of the traffic in intoxicating liquors. Mr. Neil McKay was heard in support of his memorial.

On motion the Assembly resolved as follows:—That the Overture from the Synod of Toronto and Kingston be received; that the Assembly appoint a standing committee on temperance, with authority to make inquiries of the various Presbyteries within their bounds regarding the prevalence of intemperance, and the best means of promoting a healthy scriptural temperance sentiment and practice; that Presbyteries be enjoined to hold conferences on this subject, and frame and forward to the Convener of the Temperance Committee such answers as they may be able to give, together with such views and suggestions on the whole question as they may deem proper; that the Assembly recommend the appointment of Synodical Committees on Temperance, where such do not exist; and that the Standing Committee now to be appointed consist of a member from each Presbytery of the Church. The Committee was appointed as follows:—Dr. Mathews, Messrs. James McCaul, Alex. McGillivray, W. J. Dey, W. D. Ballantyne, F. W. Farries, L. G. McNeill, Dr. Burns, D. Stiles Fraser, J. F. Blanchard, E. A. McCurdy, Jos. Hogg, Dr. Jardine, H. B. McKay, John Murray, Hon. D. McCurdy, Neil McKay, Dr. James, G. A. Munro, Mungo Fraser, J. Becket, R. Hamilton, James Sieveright, Alex. Sutherland, Andrew Tolmie, Walter Coulthard, R. J. Beattie, H. Crozier, E. Cockburn, R. Wallace, J. McL. Stevenson, James Cameron, Peter Straith, J. B. Mullan, D. Fraser, H. McKellar.—D. Fraser, Convener.

With reference to the memorial of Mr. McKay the Assembly resolved as follows:—The Assembly are much pleased to mark the progress recently made in temperance legislation, especially in the enactment of the Act known as the Canada Temperance Act, and rejoice to know that in several sections of the Dominion, notably in Prince Edward Island, the people by their votes are putting the Act into practical operation.

APPLICATION, PRESBYTERY OF LANARK AND RENFREW, TC MR. JAMES ROBERTSON.

There was submitted and read a petition from the Presbytery of Lanark and Renfrew reciting that in 1878, on application of the Presbytery of Ottawa, the General Assembly had granted to Mr. James Robertson the position of a student who had finished his second year in the literary course, and instructed said Presbytery to superintend his studies; that in February of the following year he was transferred to the Presbytery of Lanark and Renfrew; that under the direction of a Committee of Presbytery, Mr. Robertson has been pursuing his studies; and now from the progress made by him, they pray the General Assembly to discontinue such superintendence, and grant Mr. Robertson the position of a student who has finished his first year in Theology, with the view of his entering, at an early period, some one of the Theological Halls of the Church. The application was supported by Mr. John Crombie. On motion of Mr. Crombie, seconded by Mr. Laing, the Assembly granted the prayer of the petition.

APPLICATION, PRESBYTERY OF STRATFORD, MR. JAMES SMITH.

There was presented and read an application from the Presbytery of Stratford for leave to place the name of Mr. James Smith, newly ordained as a missionary, on the roll of the Presbytery. On motion of Mr. R. Hall, seconded by Mr. Daniel Gordon, the following resolution was adopted, That the request of the Presbytery of Stratford be granted. In doing so the Assembly expresses its gratification that Mr. Smith has devoted himself to Foreign Mission work, and earnestly commend him to the blessing of God.

LETTER, SYNOD REFORMED CHURCH.

There was taken up and read a letter from the Rev. John F. Mesick, under appointment of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, dated June, 1879, saying that finding it inconvenient to be personally present, he availed himself of this mode of conveying to the General Assembly of this Church the fraternal and Christian greetings of the body represented by him. The Assembly agreed that the letter be received, and that the Moderator and Clerks be a Committee to acknowledge the communication and express the reciprocal regards of this Church.

MANUAL OF GOVERNMENT.

There was produced and read an Overture from the Presbytery of Brockville, setting forth the desirableness of compiling and publishing, for the use of the members of the Church and others, a manual of Church government, and praying the General Assembly to publish under its sanction such manual, to be employed in families and congregations, and particularly suited to the instruction of the young. On motion of Dr. Waters, duly seconded, it was agreed to postpone the consideration of this Overture till the meeting of the next Assembly.

REPORT ON THE PRESERVATION OF ARCHIVES.

The Assembly called for the Report of the Committee on the preservation of the Archives of the Church. The Report was handed in and read by Mr. John Gray, the Convener. On motion made and duly seconded, the Report was received and adopted, and ordered to be printed in the appendix to the Assembly Minutes. The Committee was re-appointed as follows: Rev. J. Gray (Convener), Dr. Gregg, Professor Campbell, Dr. Reid, Dr. I. Murray, Dr. McGregor, Dr. Patterson, Dr. Bell, Dr. Waters, Professor Mowat, Mr. K. McLennan, J. G. Murray, Professor Bryce, Professor Hart, and Mr. H. S. McCollum. The members resident in the Maritime Provinces were appointed a sub-Committee, Dr. Patterson, Convener.

REPORT ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Assembly called for the Report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance. The Report was presented and read by Mr. John Laing, Convener pro tempore. On motion of Mr. R. Murray, duly seconded, the Assembly resolved as follows: Receive the Report, and direct the Assembly's Committee on this subject to co-operate in all well-directed efforts with the Committees on this subject appointed by the Synods and Presbyteries of our Church, and with other local Committees in various parts of the country, whose aim is the promotion of the due observance of the Lord's day.

REPORT OF DEPUTATION ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Assembly called for the report of the Deputation appointed last year to wait upon the members of the Government at Ottawa, with the view of securing that all persons employed in the Parliament Buildings be relieved from duty on the Sabbath, and be afforded the opportunity of enjoying the privileges of the public worship of God and the means of grace. Dr. Reid reported verbally that the Deputation had carried out the purpose of their appointment, and had had such conference as instructed, but were told merely, in effect, that the employes in the Parliament Buildings were under the direction of the two Houses of Parliament, and that the Government proper had no control in the matter.

PROTECTION OF CHURCH PROPERTY.

The Assembly called for the Report of the Committee on the protection of Church property. It was stated on behalf of the Committee that they had nothing to report, as no case endangering the property of the Church had arisen during the year.

OVERTURE, EXAMINATION OF STUDENTS.

There was submitted and read an Overture from the Presbytery of Ottawa, setting forth that there was considerable difference in the procedure of different Presbyteries in the examination of Students of Theology, and candidates for license, and that these examinations ought to be of a strict and uniform character, and praying the Assembly, through the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, to take such measures as shall secure uniformity in these examinations. The Overture was on motion received.

OBITUARY NOTICES.

The Assembly called for the Report of the Committee on Obituary Notices. The report was submitted on behalf of the Committee by Dr. Reid, and was held as read, and it was remitted to the Clerks of the Assembly to revise the notices and prepare them for publication.

The following is the Report of the Committee:

THE REV. WILLIAM BARRIE, D.D.,

departed this life at Guelph, Ont., on the 28th July, 1879, having well nigh reached the age of four-score years. He was born at Gateside, Fifeshire, Scotland. His theological education was obtained at the University of St. Andrew's. When licensed to preach the Gospel, Mr. Barrie laboured for a time in Scotland, and also in London, England. He then received an appointment from the Secession Church to labour for three years in Canada. On the completion of this term of service he accepted a call from the congregation of Eramosa, and was inducted as pastor on the fourth day of January, 1843. A few years ago the Presbyterian College of Monmouth, U.S., conferred on him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. Dr. Barrie retired, in 1877, from the active duties of the ministry, and resided in Guelph, where he enjoyed the love and esteem of many friends and acquaintances, amid whose regrets he was laid in his last resting-place.

THE REV. MICHAEL WILLIS, D.D., LL.D.,

died at the manse of Aberlour, Banffshire, Scotland, on the 19th August, 1879, in the eighty-first year of his age and the fifty-seventh of his ministry. He was a native of Greenock, and having pursued his studies for the Christian ministry in connection with the Old Light Burghers, he received ordination in the year 1821, and soon attained a prominent position among his brethren, as minister of Renfield Street Church, Glasgow, and as Professor in the Divinity Hall of his denomination there. In 1839, along with the Synod, of which he was a member, he joined the Church of Scotland. In 1843 he espoused the cause of the Free Church. Shortly after he had taken this step he came to Canada as a deputy from that Church to visit the churches here. In 1847 he was appointed Professor of Theology in Knox College, Toronto, in which position he continued, acting also as Principal of the institution, until 1870, when he sent in his resignation and returned to Britain, holding a liberal retiring allowance cordially granted to him by the Church. For a period of twenty-three years Dr. Willis laboured with assiduity and faithfulness in the teaching and training of candidates for the Christian ministry. Many of the present ministers of the Presbyterian Church in Canada received their training at his hands. An earnest and able preacher—a well-furnished theologian—a warm-hearted philanthropist, ready with his sympathies and aid in behalf of the poor and the oppressed, Dr. Willis, by his address and personal efforts exerted a wide influence upon public opinion and religious and benevolent enterprise, during his residence in this country. Though full of years and labours, he was fresh and buoyant in spirit to the close of his days. In 1877 he attended the First Presbyterian Council, held in Edinburgh, and took part in its proceedings. Thereafter he undertook an evangelistic tour on the continent of Europe. A few days before his death he preached in the parish church of Aberlour. His remains were taken to the city of Glasgow and interred in the High Church burying-ground there, his funeral being largely attended by members of the Free Church Presbytery and by ministers and members of other religious denominations.

THE REV. ALEXANDER TOPP, D.D.,

died suddenly, in the city of Toronto, while visiting a sick parishioner, on the 6th day of October, 1879, at the age of sixty-four years. He was born near Elgin, Scotland, in the year 1815. His studies for the Christian ministry were pursued at King's College, Aberdeen. On their completion Mr. Topp was licensed to preach the Gospel in 1836, at the early age of twenty-one years. A few months thereafter he received a presentation from the Crown to the collegiate charge of Elgin, being the first minister in Scotland who received an appointment from Her Majesty Queen Victoria. In 1843 he cast in his lot with the Free Church. After a successful pastorate, extending over nine years, at Elgin, he was translated to the Free Roxborough Church, Edinburgh, where he remained for a period of six years. In 1858, he became pastor of Knox Church, Toronto, and soon gained a prominent position in the Canada Presbyterian Church, to the Moderatorship of which he was elected in 1868. As pastor of one of the largest congregations in the Church, Dr. Topp was well known and universally respected. As a member of the Church Courts, his reputation was still more extensive. In private life he was beloved by all for his gentlemanly bearing, his conscientious adherence to his convictions, and his marked integrity of character. By lengthened services, matured wisdom, and sagacious counsels he had acquired the confidence and attachment of his brethren throughout the whole Church. In the negotiations for the union of the several Presbyterian Churches, Dr. Topp manifested the liveliest interest. As Convener of the Committee of his own Church, he laboured with diligence and judgment to advance the cause of union; and to his sagacity, kindness and tact the early and harmonious accomplishment of this object is not a little due. He rejoiced cordially when the union was so happily consummated. His appointment to the Moderatorship of the General Assembly, the year thereafter, expressed the unanimous opinion of his brethren that he had well earned the highest honour which the Presbyterian Church in Canada had in its gift.

THE REV. DANIEL ANDERSON, of Rothsay, Ont., departed this life on the 11th day of October, 1879, in the fifty-eighth year of his age, having borne with Christian resignation a long and painful illness. His end was perfect peace. Mr. Anderson was a native of Edinburgh, where he completed his literary and philosophical course of study and commenced that of Divinity. His theological studies were completed at Knox College, Toronto, Mr. Anderson having come to Canada in 1855. Ordained to the ministry in 1857, his first charge was in the township of Brock. In 1860 he removed to Farnham Centre, Quebec. In 1864 he was settled at Rothsay, in the Presbytery of Guelph, where he has since resided, ministering with fidelity and acceptance during most of the time to two congregations, separated from each other by a distance of ten miles. While Mr. Anderson's position was not such as to bring him prominently before the Church or the public at large, few ministers laboured with more diligence and devotedness in his Master's service.

THE REV. JAMES BRECKENRIDGE

died at Streetsville, Ont., on the 10th day of December, 1879. Mr. Breckenridge was born in Argyllshire, Scotland, in the year 1831. He came to Canada when a young man, and after spending some time in the work of teaching at Georgetown, Ontario, where also he held office as an elder in the Presbyterian Church, in the year 1855 he entered upon a course of theological study at Knox College, Toronto, at which institution he was highly esteemed for his moral worth and intellectual attainments both by the professors and his fellow students. His college discourses were of a high order of excellence. In all his public appearances he gave evidence of clear and vigorous thought. For the last two years of his attendance at the Hall, Mr. Breckenridge laboured, during the summer vacation, in the East Mission Church, Toronto. In March, 1871, he was ordained and inducted into the charge of Streetsville, where he laboured with great earnestness and success until his death, securing the great respect and love of his people. He rendered valuable service to Knox College as an Examiner, for which his high scholarship and clear judgment so eminently fitted him. In private life Mr. Breckenridge was distinguished as a genial companion, a faithful friend, a wise and tender father, and a loving husband.

THE REV. JOHN HUGH MACKERRAS, M.A.,

Professor of Classical Literature in the University of Queen's College, at Kingston, and joint clerk (with Dr. Reid and Dr. Fraser) of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, died at Peterborough, on the 9th day of January, 1880. Mr. Mackerras was born at Nairn, Scotland, in 1832, and was in his forty-eighth year when removed by death. He came to Canada when a mere lad, and acquired his early scholastic training from his father, Mr. John Mackerras, in the public school at Williamstown, in Glengarry. In 1847 he entered Queen's College, and in 1852 he completed his theological curriculum. In September of the following year, being then twenty-one years of age, he was ordained and inducted to the charge of the Presbyterian congregation at Bowmanville, in connection with the Church of Scotland. In April, 1866, he was appointed to the chair of Classical Literature in Queen's College. His high intellectual and literary qualifications, combined with a most amiable, gentle and genial disposition, fitted him, in an exceptional degree, for the duties that devolved upon him. Mr. Mackerras was appointed Clerk of the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Canada in connection with the Church of Scotland, in June, 1865, and discharged the duties of that office with marked ability until the 15th June, 1875, when he was elected one of the clerks of the united Church. In this larger sphere his aptitude for business soon became conspicuous. His quickness of apprehension, accuracy, soundness of judgment, profound knowledge of Church law, and his imperturbable good nature were of immense service to the General Assembly, and contributed greatly to the consolidation of the Church and the harmonious management of its affairs. He loved the Church and the College with which he was identified. For both he worked with a will, alas! beyond his physical ability. And he died in harness. His character was known and appreciated throughout the Dominion. Learned, eloquent and accomplished,—he was distinguished also by simple, earnest and unostentatious piety. For a number of years Mr. Mackerras' health had been declining. He spent the winter of 1875 in France. In May of that year he appeared before the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, and delivered an admirable address before that venerable Court, in reference to the approaching union of the Churches in Canada. From that time it was but too evident to his friends that his strength was failing, and that ere long they would be deprived of his genial company and wise counsels. The great change did not come upon him unawares. He was fully conscious of its approach, and prepared to depart and be with Christ, "which is far better."

THE REV. JOHN STEWART.

of New Glasgow, N.S., died on the 4th day of May, 1880, after a brief illness. He was an indefatigable worker in the Master's vineyard. His life was crowded with manifold and zealous labours, even to his last days. Mr. Stewart was born in Little Dunkeld, Scotland. He studied Theology under Dr. Thomas Chalmers. He was licensed to preach the Gospel in 1832, and he continued in the work of the ministry for a period of forty-eight years. Shortly after obtaining license Mr. Stewart came to Nova Scotia, and laboured with great faithfulness, in the face of many difficulties, in Cape Breton, and subsequently in New Glasgow. In 1844 he cast in his lot with the Free Church of Scotland, and he became the minister of Knox Church, New Glasgow, a position which he continued to occupy until his retirement from the active duties of the ministry. He rendered very valuable service in establishing the Free Church Theological Hall, and was remarkably successful in raising funds for that institution. As an able preacher, an earnest, an indefatigable labourer, and a true pioneer, he established a high claim upon the respect and the gratitude of the Church which he served so long and so well. He rests from his labours and his works do follow him.

THE REV. ALEXANDER MACLENNAN, B.A.,

died on Amherst Island on the 18th day of May, 1880, in the fifty-fourth year of his age. Mr. MacLennan was born in Charlottenburgh, in the county of Glengarry, Ontario, and at the age of twenty-five years entered Queen's College at Kingston, in 1851. In 1861 he completed his theological course, and was licensed to preach the Gospel. In the following year he was inducted into the charge of Mulmur, where he spent nine useful and happy years. In 1871 he was translated to Scott and Uxbridge, and held that pastorate until he was forced, by pulmonary disease, to demit it in 1876. After a few months of needed rest, Mr. MacLennan resumed the work he loved, and having received a unanimous call to Amherst Island, was settled there by the Presbytery of Kingston, on the 19th day of November, 1878. He soon secured the respect and affection of the people of his charge. Careful in the preparation of his sermons, simple, but solemn and earnest in his manner of preaching, he possessed influence with his people through the presentation of Gospel truth with the air and bearing of a man who spoke what he believed, and whose utterances abounded in Scripture truth. As a pastor he was highly valued, for he was evidently a genuine Christian, who always meant what he said, and was ever ready to help his parishioners, in his unassuming way, by kind acts and sensible advice. He leaves behind him the record of an exemplary, earnest, and laborious life, devoted to the work of the Christian ministry; and he will live long in the affectionate remembrance of the people whom he so consistently served in the Lord.

PETITION OF MRS. MARPLES.

There was produced and read a petition from Mrs. Marples, the widow of the late Rev. John Marples, praying for pecuniary aid. On motion, the petition was remitted for consideration to the Presbytery of Toronto.

UNION PARCHMENT.

Dr. Reid produced the Parchment on which was written the Basis of Union of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and stated that the document had not been dated. The General Assembly empowered Dr. Reid to insert the date in the proper place in said Instrument.

PUBLIC COLLECTIONS.

The Assembly proceeded to arrange the dates at which the collections for the several schemes of the Church should be taken up during the year, and it was resolved that in congregations where there are not Missionary Associations, collections for the schemes shall be taken up as follows:—

- I.—French Evangelization,—Third Sabbath of July.
- II.—Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund, and Widows' and Orphans' Fund,—Third Sabbath of August.
- III.—Assembly Fund,—First Sabbath of September.
- IV.—Home Mission Fund,—First Sabbath of October.
- V.—Foreign Mission Fund,—Fourth Sabbath of January.
- VI.—Colleges,—First Sabbath of March, or on such other days as may be most convenient for the congregations.

VOTES OF THANKS.

It was moved by Dr. McGregor, seconded by Dr. Waters, and passed with acclamation, That the thanks of the General Assembly are hereby given—

1. To the Christian friends in the city of Montreal for their generous hospitality, as well as to the Committee of Arrangements, especially to the Convener, the Rev. R. H. Warden, for the admirable manner in which they have discharged their duties.
2. To the Minister and Trustees of Crescent Street Church, for the accommodation afforded to this meeting of Assembly.
3. To the Railroad and Steamboat Companies for their courtesy to members of Assembly.
4. To the Press generally, for their full reports of the meeting of Assembly.
5. To Professor McLaren, of Montreal, for the excellent manner in which, throughout the session, he conducted the service of praise.

The Minutes of this Sederunt were read and sustained.

CLOSE.

The Moderator addressed the Assembly. Prayer was offered by Professor McLaren, of Knox College. The Assembly engaged in praise, singing Pa. cxvii. 6-9. The Moderator then said—

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the only Head of this Church, and by the authority of this Assembly, I dissolve this meeting, and appoint the next Assembly to meet in the city of Kingston, and within St. Andrew's Church there, on the second Wednesday of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one years, at half-past seven o'clock in the evening.

The Session was then closed with the Apostolic Benediction.

REPORT
OF THE
(WESTERN SECTION.)
FOR 1879-80.

OF THE

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN CANADA.

FOR 1879-80.

The Home Mission Committee in presenting their Annual Report to the Assembly, desire to express their gratitude to God for what they have been enabled to accomplish during the year just closed. Many new appointments of Missionaries to necessitous districts have been made, while the contributions have exceeded any former year. The year began with gloomy forebodings, as to the possibility of continuing our work, but the liberality of our people has enabled the Committee, not only to liquidate past indebtedness, but also to extend their operations. "Not unto us O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy and for thy truth's sake."

According to our usual custom, the Committee present an outline of the work undertaken by the Presbyteries engaged more directly in Mission work, and of the special fields under the charge of the Committee. In Presbyteries not reported the work advances none the less satisfactory, but it consists not so much in the breaking up of new ground, as consolidating and strengthening existing stations and supplemented congregations. Complete Statistics of all the Mission Stations and Supplemented Congregations will be found in the Appendix of this Report.

OTTAWA.

The Mission Fields of this Presbytery are six in number :

1ST. ATLWIN AND THE DESERT. This Field embraces a wide area along the Gatineau River. The Missionary travels between 50 and 60 miles in passing from one extreme to the other. There are 8 stations at which services are held at regular intervals, and there are two other points at which the Missionary hopes to hold occasional services during the summer months. The sum of the average attendance at all the stations is 185. Number of families, 80; of communicants, 103; Sabbaths supplied during the past year 52; amount promised by the station per Sabbath nearly $7.00; expended on buildings during the year, $200. Concerning this Field the Missionary, Rev. D. McNaughton, reports: "There are many difficulties to be encountered. The lumbering interest, which has hitherto been the most important one, is fast declining. All the valuable pine has been already removed, and those who have been engaged in the business have been compelled to move further back into the pine region. As a result of this fully one-half of the Protestant families have left the Desert, and others are going, and the same thing is going on all over the field." The Missionary also deprecates the prevalence of such vices as profanity, intemperance and Sabbath breaking among the young men especially, though not wholly confined to them; and attributes this prevalence to the fact that the great proportion of the men spend their winters in the lumbering shanties when they are not only beyond hallowing restraints of home and Sabbath worship, but are also brought into closest contact with the low and demoralizing conduct of the French Roman Catholics, many of whom are their fellow workmen, and he adds, "Though this is not a prosperous field it is a necessitous one. The Field will in all probability be a drain on the funds for a long time, but if we can hold on we have reason to trust that in 'due time we shall reap, if we faint not.'"

2ND. CANTLEY AND PORTLAND.—This too is a very necessities Field. It embraces an area of about 25 miles in length by about 8 or 10 miles in breadth, to the east of the Gatineau River. It was first entered by the students of the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian College, Montreal. For two or three summers one of the students labored there for a few months each summer. A little more than a year ago, the Presbytery having explored the Field, resolved with the concurrence of the Assembly's Home Mission Committee to send an ordained Missionary to the Field. This has been done, and under the efficient labors of the Missionary, Rev. D. Findlay, good work and hopeful progress are being made. Two Church buildings have been erected during the past year, and are almost completed. At 4 stations services are regularly held, and at two others occasionally. The average attendance at each station is about 40 during the summer and 35 in winter. There are 43 families professedly Presbyterians, and 30 communicants. The Field has been regularly supplied every Sabbath during the year, and the people have agreed to contribute between three and four dollars per Sabbath, fifty dollars in money, besides a large amount of gratuitous labor which was expended during the year in church building. The progress of the past year warrants the expectation that ere long much more will be done to sustain ordinances than is now being done.

3RD. PLANTAGENET.—In this Field a new arrangement has been contemplated, which, it is hoped, will tend to the consolidation and progress of the cause. Hitherto services have been held at three stations. It is now suggested that the number be reduced to two, and as this can be done without increasing to any great degree the distance which the people would have to travel, and would secure for the whole Field a service every Sabbath, the suggestion is looked upon with a great degree of favor. A member of the Presbytery is appointed to visit the Field and report on this and other matters. The Student Missionary who labored there last summer says, "A settled minister, or ordained Missionary would be a great boon to this whole district, as the state of morality among the people is very low."

4TH. BEANBROOK AND CAMBRIDGE.—In this field a very handsome and commodious church was erected last summer and is now almost clear of debt. The work in this region is progressing hopefully. The people are eager to hear the Word of Life, and ready to contribute to the extent of their ability to the support of the Gospel.

5TH. EAST TEMPLETON.—In this Field a good degree of interest was manifested in the Gospel during the last summer, and the services of the Student Missionary were highly appreciated. Owing to the inroads of certain wandering evangelists during the winter, the Field is not in so hopeful a condition at present. The people have become restless and divided. We trust the Lord will overrule all this for good.

6TH. HULL.—This Field is situated in the City of Hull, and is supplied as an out station by the Rev. Joseph White, of Rochester. The great mass of the people in this city are French Roman Catholics. Mr. White says, "There has been great fluctuation in this Field since my connection with it. The present membership is larger than ever before. It is just double what it was when I was appointed to the oversight of Hull, but hardly what it would have been had our people been more stationary. On looking over the roll I find that 40 have been received into Church-fellowship in all, since my connection with the station."

LANARK AND RENFREW.

The progress made during the past year in the large Mission Fields of this Presbytery has been on the whole, encouraging and satisfactory. The best results have flowed from the effort mentioned in the last Report to provide continuous supply at the most important and necessities points, and the hearty response on the part of the people thus benefited shows that there is an immense gain in the continuous occupation of Mission Fields; a gain which greatly overbalances the increase of expenditure which is at first necessitated. The obligations undertaken by the people have in almost every case been promptly and satisfactorily met; and now that prospects are brightening in the Ottawa Valley, there is reason to expect that an increasing share of the burden of an admittedly expensive Mission work will be borne by the people themselves.

It is well, however, that the attention of the Church should at this time be directed to the conditions and claims of the Mission District under charge of this Presbytery, as they seem to demand increased encouragement, and if need be, increased expenditure, so that Presbyteranism may take its proper position in the Ottawa Valley.

The wants of the District are very great and it is plain that by no other denomination can they be supplied so well as by ours. The roughness of the country, the consequent poverty of the bulk of the people, and the large numbers of Roman Catholic settlers make the work much more difficult, but at the same time whatever there is of wealth and influence in the Protestant community is almost wholly ranged upon our side. Besides those who are thus heartily with us, there are large numbers who are lapsed or unattached, but whom we may naturally hope to reach and to attach to our cause. In short, it is to the deliberate conviction of the Presbytery, formed after most careful enquiry, that it is possible to set down a Presbyterian Church in every township where there is any considerable number of Protestant families; and also by grouping stations and judiciously applying the methods of continuous supply in the outset, there will very soon be half a dozen self-sustaining congregations in these outlying districts.

Whether the Presbytery should be encouraged to aim at such consolidation and extension will appear when the history of this district is considered.

In an interesting article in the January number of the "Catholic Presbyterian," the Rev. W. D. Ballantyne, of Pembroke, recounts some of the efforts made and hardships encountered by pioneer ministers in the Counties of Lanark and Renfrew. It is there shown what labors they carried on throughout this district, and it seems due to their memory, if there were no other motive, that now, after so long a time, we should seek to realize the aims which they so certainly had in view. No doubt much time has been lost, especially in the County of Renfrew, but so much the more may it be expected of our Church that now, when the way is open and the time propitious, every effort should be made to possess the whole land.

The Presbytery have shown themselves alive to the wants of their Mission Fields; they have shown a right and commendable spirit in that more has been given to, than was asked from the Home Mission Funds; and for their encouragement it should be made apparent that the Church is with them in their effort; not merely by wishing them God speed, but ready also to grant them material support in thus seeking to hold or to redeem for Presbyterianism the whole district under their charge.

BROCKVILLE.

The Mission Field in the North part of the Presbytery has been re-arranged in such a way that certain fields formerly dependent on the Home Mission Committee for assistance, have now become self-sustaining. The grants from this Presbytery to the Home Mission Fund have also increased during the year, 100 per cent. over 1878-79. This is very creditable, because during the past six years there have been new churches erected by all the important congregations, or the old ones repaired. In this way a large amount of money has been of necessity spent in this work. A great progress has been made in this direction in this Presbytery recently, and what is worthy of note is that most of the churches are without debt. We may therefore look for even more effort in the future for Home Missions and other schemes of the Church.

KINGSTON.

Thonet Church is now enclosed, and Mr. Miller occupies the Field. At L'Amable the materials are procured for the erection of a neat church this summer. 25 additions were made to the communion roll last fall, making the membership about 70. A Missionary at present occupies this field. At Mayo, a communion roll has been formed of 35 members. At Carleton 45 additions have been made, making the membership over 100. The net gain in these three Fields during the year is 106. Maynooth is supplied during the summer with a Student, with encouraging prospects.

BARRIE.

(Including the Muskoka Field.)

PARRY SOUND.—Owing to the depression of business and removal from the place of some of our members, the congregation feel unable to pay its due proportion to the stipend of the ordained Missionary; and as it has fallen in arrears, a request was conveyed to the Presbytery that no laborer either minister or student should be sent in Mr. Mackay's room until some time after the opening of navigation, when they hoped they would have gathered enough to pay off their indebtedness. Mr. MacKay had resigned the charge on March 31st, and the Presbytery having the offer of service from the Knox College Students Missionary Society agreed to hand over their District for the summer to the Society. Thus the congregation and Home Mission Committee have been relieved for the season, through the help of the Students Missionary Society.

2. MAGANETAWAN.—Mr. Andrew, the former Missionary here, left to attend Queen's College in October last, after having labored nearly six months. Mr. Hugh Thomson was appointed by the Presbytery as ordained Missionary in the district and began his labors there on the 21st of December. He has been preaching, administering ordinances and completing the organization of the congregation. He reports preparation for church building at Beggsboro and Maganetawan. Disasters which injured the harvest last year throughout the Muskoka District have rendered the people here unable to contribute to the stipend of the Missionary according to their promise. Mr. Thomson writes: "You are doubtless aware from the newspapers and otherwise that the crops failed to a large extent last year in this region, and that a large number of the people have even to get their seed to sow this spring from the Government. On account of there being no public works going on to employ the willing hands, a large amount of destitution has been experienced, and in consequence the income of the various stations in this Mission is next to nothing. The field is large and necessitous and will require considerable aid until the settlers get into a more comfortable state. Many have but small clearings, not enough to live on, and those who have larger, suffer so that not a church."

3. NIPISING.—There are five or six stations in this group which have been worked by the Knox College Students' Missionary Society for a few summers. Last winter the Presbytery employed Mr. Clark of East River near Huntsville as Catechist on trial in this group. He seemed to have been energetic and diligent. During five months he held service 46 times, made 400 visits, and walked over 950 miles. The great kindness of the people made the heavy and continuous travelling easier than it otherwise would have been. The people contributed some money towards his maintenance, although as appears from the following extract, they had but little in their power. He writes, "I am sorry to say that financially it has been a very bad season for me. The fact is there is no money in the place, and people have had a very hard winter, of which I have been a partaker." Referring to smallness of contributions of the stations he adds, "I am in nowise surprised, as going among the people the whole winter I could not see where the money was to come from. It has been a great struggle with nearly all to live. They would, I am sure, have done liberally if they could. Many have been working on the Government roads, at fifty cents a day, drawing their pay in flour and meal as they could earn it, and many more could gladly have done so could they have had the chance. Some I have seen parting with their only cow for provisions; or their yoke of steers which were just getting useful to them."

4. MINESING group consists of five stations, some of which were, until last summer worked, by students, and others formerly were a part of Mr. Craw's congregation or of Mr. Scott's missionary charge. Mr. E. N. B. Millard was appointed ordained missionary by the Presbytery, and entered on his labors on the second Sabbath in December. The stations are widely apart. On some Sabbaths Mr. Millard's labors involve preaching three times, driving twenty miles through rough and bad roads, and walking six miles where horse and buggy cannot be employed. Mr. Millard's duties seem to be equally abundant and arduous on weekdays. At Minesing a new church was opened in October by the Rev. Mr. Laing, of Dundas, and Rev. Mr. Leiper, of Barrie. The church is said to be a credit to our people. It is comfortably seated, well lighted and heated, and the floors are carpeted. There is a good vestry, and splendid sheds, with rooms for tea-meeting, Sabbath school, and all neatly paid for. At some of the other stations they speak of church building. The contributions of these stations to the schemes was $72.50. It is hoped that the Committee will re-consider the decision to give only $100 supplement to these stations, and that the Missionary, who does work so abundant, will have more than $500 to support him.

5. The Penetanguishene group is still supplied by the Rev. B. Scott, an active and successful Missionary. The only matter which occurs as calling for notice is the increase of contributions of these stations to the schemes of the church. These contributions have gradually risen from $80 in March 1866 to $180 in the same month of this year.

6. While progress is being made in some stations, as the foregoing remarks show, some others are scarcely making the same advance. Where labor has been expended for years in succession, some of the stations exhibit weakness and discouragement. Various causes may be assigned in addition to that of the disasters which made last season's harvest so unproductive. There have been dissensions in some of them, but chief of all I think is the intermixture of our supply of ordinances. When our student missionaries leave for College, the people are discouraged that months must elapse before services are resumed, and laborers of other denominations have then an advantage which they are not slow to make use of. If we could secure a number of catechists to hold the field in winter much might be done to prevent the losses which cannot but follow our intermittent supply.

Mr. Findlay, of Bracebridge, who has for years most efficiently superintended the Mission work in Muskoka, adds the following: "During the past winter we were able by the employment of Catechists to give supply to several stations which hitherto have been vacant during that portion of the year. Mr. Clark, who supplied during five months in districts known as the Nipissing field including 8 townships, reports having walked 950 miles on foot, during the period visiting 450 families, holding service twice every Sabbath and frequently during the week among the settlers. His labors appear to have been highly appreciated, though the return he received in the way of money was but limited. This is the section of the country most immediately affected by the withdrawal of the contract for the G. B. Branch P. R. R. Many of the settlers waited on the understanding that regular employment would be obtained in the construction of this public work. In this they were disappointed. The Provincial Government did undertake a very unusual thing in order to assist them in their distress. They gave out work in cutting out roads, which at 50 cents per day paid in groceries and provisions, enabled some families to pull through the winter. The Students Missionary Association of Knox College have five laborers this summer at work, which with the four student catechists under the Presbytery and two missionaries make in all eleven laborers in the field. I propose visiting the different fields during this summer and will probably have somewhat to report by October.

OWEN SOUND.

During the year Lion's Head, a station in the Indian Peninsular has been organized with 21 communicants and it is expected that a church will be built this summer. Crawford Station has also been erected, consisting of some sixteen families. The other stations and mission fields are in a healthy condition.

HAMILTON.

There has been a change in the prospects of the Mission Work in this Presbytery, of an encouraging character. Some of the Mission Stations lying nearest to St. Catharines, have been affected by the revival, which has spread out in its influence to many of the smaller places around. Special services have been held for several weeks, in some of these places which have been largely attended by deeply earnest audiences, the services having been conducted entirely by our own Church at HAYTHOLDSVILLE, about four miles from St. Catharines, in the centre of a large population who have scarcely attended any church. At another point south, which had been closed for many years, so far as our church was concerned, till the past two summers, a congregation has been formed and 11 members admitted, and there is good hope of the rapid growth of the congregation. At the same time there is a change in the condition of mind of the people, in portions of the field lying too remote, to have been immediately affected by the special services. A very discouraging state of things has at length begun to give way to earnestness and an evident interest in religion. And it is believed that the missionaries will meet with encouragement in their labors during the summer in fields where there was need of strong faith before. FORT ENIS, &c., are manifesting signs of hope and services conducted at Victoria at the end of the International Bridge are largely attended by the railway men especially.

One thing is worthy of special attention, in regard to the opening of new life and the tenderness of heart, which have appeared like green buds springing from old roots, which seemed to have died in the ground, is the clear evidence that these give of the truth of God's promise to answer the prayers of his people. Prayer has been offered continually for over two years, and as by agreement or covenant among Christians, for the breaking up of the hard crust, and the outpouring of the Spirit. The continuance in prayer begot an expectation, and in the seeming delay faith was much tried, but the people of God feel that the answer is now being made manifest in God's own time and quietly, but with the efficiency which is by the power of the Spirit alone. There is much to be overcome of the deadness of the past, but there has come something which reminds us of the breath of spring and there is a new hope in it.

MANITOULIN ISLANDS.

The Rev. H. McKay, who has laboured for five years in this necessitous field, assisted by his brother and several student catechists from Knox College, sends the following interesting account of the present condition and prospects of our Church in these Islands:—

I have been spending the most of my time this winter in the north and west of the Island, extending over 50 miles. Our largest station in this part is Gore Bay. Here we have a comfortable church which cost about $800. During the winter we had a tea-meeting at which we got about $40, there is still a debt of about $70 which we hope to be able to pay before long. We have also at this place a park lot of 5 acres in connection with the church, upon which we had some improvements made this winter. I have held services at this place three Sabbaths out of four since last October. The average attendance on the Sabbath is about 120. I superintend the Sabbath School, we have 6 teachers and about 50 scholars and I also teach a Bible Class of about 20. There are about 24 families in connection with our church upon which we can depend for any help, the most of these are very poor and not any of them wealthy. We have not had the Lord's Supper dispensed since I sent my last report. We purpose having this done in March. Six have applied for admission on profession of faith. I don't know yet whether all shall be admitted or not as they have not been examined. There are four or five by certificate from other congregations.

There will be a change in our roll of members at this communion, as several are leaving for other parts of the Island, also one or two members have been expelled for intemperance. The surrounding stations I have tried to supply as best I could considering the roads and weather.

ICE-LAKE.—On Sabbath afternoon every two weeks we have a meeting of about forty. There are seven families belonging to our church. We never had communion in this place, but there are four members and six others who wish to unite with us. The number of families in the settlement is twenty-one, some Methodists, some English Church, and one Catholic, all are poor and with difficulty make both ends meet.

KEGAWONG.—I supply on Sabbath evening every two weeks; the place of meeting is a private house, the number attending the meeting is about thirty. These two places are about 5 miles apart, when the roads are opened up they may form one station, the most would have seven miles to go. There are about eighteen families in both places belonging to our church, there being about fifteen members. A Sabbath School is held at Kegawong with four teachers and forty scholars. A good library was given us by Mr. Henry, owner of the mills at the place, also periodicals. All the people of the last two places are poor—all with one or two exceptions are in debt and have their farms mortgaged.

SOUTH-END is another station where we hold a meeting on Sabbath evening every four weeks in a private house. Here there are a large number of settlers of different denominations, the majority of whom are Presbyterians. As there is no school in the section early in the winter I organized a night-school which is well attended. The school is taught by a young man residing in the section. I visit the school occasionally and find many of the scholars making rapid progress. I may say there has been a large number of young people who could not as much as write their names, or read a word, many of whom began to learn the letters, and are now able to read and write. The people speak of building a school-house next summer, and having a regular teacher.

LOWE BAY is another station. I preach on Sabbath afternoons, once in four weeks, in a private house. The attendance is about 40. During the past few months a good interest has been shown by the people in the way of attending meetings, some coming as far as seven miles over a bad road. There is no school at this place yet, but next summer a school-house will be built and a regular teacher engaged. The people at this place are of different denominations, Presbyterians, Methodists, &c. These two places are but new and growing. There are about 11 families in both places, and they are about six miles apart. We have no Sabbath-school at either place. These are the places included in the Gore Bay and Kegawong field applying for regular services, or rather that the missionary should confine his labors to this particular part. The trustees at Gore Bay and Kegawong have canvassed the field as well as they possibly could. We have done what we could with subscription lists and, the amount subscribed is $300. This was promised on condition of having a settled pastor, and was for the year from October 1879 to October 1880. I have labored in this field as if a settled pastor, only taking one Sabbath in four to visit other stations, which would otherwise be neglected. We have raised nothing for the other schemes of the Church yet. In regard to the $300 subscribed I am willing to take it as good. I imagine that about $200 have been subscribed about Gore Bay and the other $100 from the smaller stations. We have discouragements in the work, one great evil being drunkenness. Many who have settled on this island lost their all by strong drink and have come in order to make a new start in life and to be free from temptation. But now the temptation is thrown in their way and they easily yield and ere long many of them will be again driven from house and home. Thus instead of being a support and ornament to the Church they are a hindrance and bring disgrace upon the cause. Another evil with which we have to contend, is the loose way in which the Sabbath is observed, especially in the summer time. When the boats are running they call at our docks and trade and do business. Stores are thrown open and some buy and sell, and very often our congregations are disturbed and the holy day of rest robbed of its charm. Another hindrance to good being done among the young, is dancing parties. This is very common especially in the winter, and they are generally as well attended and perhaps a little better than the Bible class or prayer meeting. As a general thing, the class of people who came to this island, are either quite indifferent in regard to the realities of eternity or very cold in the Christian life. There are (thank the Lord) a few noble exceptions, however, who are willing to work on amidst discouragements, hoping that ere long brighter days are in store for Manitoulin.

In regard to the success of the Gospel, I may say that we have some indications for good. At nearly all the appointments we may find the anxious, and those seeking after the way of life, and in many cases those whom we trust have found it.

The other appointments which I have been trying to keep up are as follows:

PROVIDENCE BAY.—Here a village has been surveyed last summer and a number of new buildings have been put up. There are grist and saw mills and a good tract of land surrounding the village. It may be a village of some importance ere long. At this place I held monthly services on Sabbath morning and some meetings during the week.

The large majority of the people are Presbyterians (Gaelic). About 20 families belong to our church. We have one elder and 14 members on the communion roll. We have been making a move in the way of church building. We had a meeting in January which was well attended. A committee was appointed to visit the people to procure subscriptions and to report at another meeting. We find that after visiting the people that about $150 has been subscribed, the greater part of which is in work material.

The subscription list for winter supply has not yet been circulated (in February). I do not think I can get much from them, as I have only been able to give 4 Sabbath services during the winter.

MINDAMOTA is another station much neglected. Services have been held here once a month during the winter, but the roads were so bad that few were able to be out. This place is 6 or 7 miles from Providence Bay. There is a large settlement in which the Presbyterian element is, I think, in the majority. A Union Sabbath School is held by the people and is pretty well attended. I cannot report much financially from this place.

Wolsey or Burpee Township is another station 14 miles south west of Gore Bay. 15 families are here. I have visited the place three times, and formed a Sabbath School which is held regularly. The attendance at services was about 40. There are several other places in this neighborhood where I have held week evening appointments. I have also preached at Michael's Bay, Sandfield Mills, Bidwell, Little Current and Manitowaning.

In the east end of the island, Mr. Jones has been engaged as missionary during the winter months. Since this field was left destitute of student supply, Mr. Jones has held regular services at the church at Manitowaning. There is also a Sabbath school, Bible class and week-day prayer meeting. The number in attendance on Sabbath is about 60; in the Sabbath School about 140, with 6 teachers and two elders.

We had our communion on the 21st of September, when 12 new members were added by profession and 3 by certificate. The number on the roll is 76, but this includes all the members in Manitowaning and surrounding stations. The number of baptisms at this place have been 6. In Manitowaning there are 20 Presbyterian families, in Bidwell 6; in Smiths 8, and at Hilly Grove 9. In addition to his regular service at the first mentioned station, Mr. Jones preaches every three weeks at Smiths, 6 miles distant; at Sandfield Mills, 14 miles distant, every 2 weeks, and at Tekkummah 12 miles distant every 4 weeks. He has also week evening appointments at Michael's Bay, at the lumber shanties, at Tekkummah and at Hilly Grove. The sum of $100 has been subscribed in this district for winter supply. There are collections taken up each Sabbath to pay for incidental expenses. The labors of Mr. Jones in this part of the field are not without their good results. At some of the stations there is a desire to hear the Word, and many who were not in the habit of attending meeting now attend.

Perhaps you may think the Report small in money matters, but those only who labor among the people know their poverty and difficulty in raising money. In looking back over the five years spent in Manitoulin Island I may not have pressed the people to give as I ought to. I have been trying to get the heart, believing, that if the heart was touched, the good cause would be supported by the purse. However I have brought the matter before them and pressed it as far as I thought prudent. We have here an Island 100 miles long and 30 miles broad with a population of about 8,000 scattered in every part of the Island, the vast majority of whom are unconverted and on their way to destruction. Are we as a Church to give it up? I could not keep from weeping when I heard of such a thing. Do with me what you will, only do what you can for the cause of our blessed Master on Manitoulin Island. The work as it stands at present has cost me many anxious thoughts, many a weary journey, many a night on the stormy wave, or groping my way through the lonely forest, fatigue in summer and winter's cold, (but of these I complain not, my happiest hours were those in which I had to suffer). Because of what it cost me is one reason why I should feel sorry if the Island is given up. Consider it, 8,000 inhabitants, and the vast majority of them starving for the Bread of Life!

SAULT STE. MARIE.

The Rev. J. B. Macleod, who has supplied Sault Ste. Marie and Korah for two years, says: "Presenting my second annual report for the Mission Station of Sault Ste. Marie and vicinity, I regret to say that I am not able to report any great material progress. The year now closing has been very much like the years which have preceded it in the history of the mission. The same fluctuation has characterized our part of the population. Quite a few who were with us in town at one time of the past and present years, are now no longer in our midst. Some of them have moved out into the new townships, which are being settled, and others have left the parish altogether. Of course, some of these will eventually strengthen our cause here, and receive benefit from the ordinances in connection with our church; but at present they are too far out and too scattered to render it possible for them to attend the services in the town, or in the country, and in a few cases such is the state of the roads that the missionary can see them at their own homes but seldom, and that only at certain times in the year. As an illustration of how our cause fluctuates I may instance the present state of our Sabbath School. At one time last year we had from twenty (20) to thirty (30) pupils attending the Sabbath School in town. At present there are very few children outside of your missionary's family. There are no more families of our people in town at present than we had several years ago, while in the country the number has been slowly increasing. Services were held in the church in town by your missionary regularly on Sabbaths, morning and evening. Korah township has been supplied regularly every two weeks, and frequently weekly. The services at Korah are always held in the afternoon. Seal- ing ordinances have been dispensed when considered expedient, and as occasion required. The ordinance of the Lord's Supper was dispensed at Sault Ste. Marie on January 11th last. On this occasion seven (7) names were added to the communion roll—six (6) by certificates and one

(1) by profession of faith. The whole membership at present is thirty-eight (38). The actual membership, however, is somewhat less, as a few have left these parts who have not yet applied for certificates, and some of whom may or may not return. Of the above 38 names only fourteen (14) represent heads of families. The number of baptisms administered by your missionary throughout the whole district visited by him during the year, has been eleven (11). Last year I had to report a heavy debt upon the church edifice. I am happy to be able to report that this incumbrance has been well nigh wiped off—partly by the efforts of the people themselves, and partly through the liberality of our people in several portions of Ontario. Your missionary made a tour last summer through parts of Bruce, Maitland, Huron and Paris Presbyteries, soliciting assistance for liquidating the above debt, and succeeded in collecting, to this date, for that purpose, to the amount of six hundred and thirty-six dollars and seventy-five cents ($636.75). The debt still resting upon the church building is not more than $40 (forty dollars), and subscriptions yet unpaid will cover this, should the amounts be realized. The station has contributed during the present year (ending 31st March), for all purposes, three hundred and thirty dollars ($330). It is hoped that during the present month this amount will be increased. Of this amount seventeen dollars (17) have been devoted to the schemes of the church; and your missionary has received, in cash, one hundred and four dollars ($104), and in kind twenty three dollars ($23)—total, one hundred and twenty-seven dollars (127). A part of the balance of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250)—i.e., the station's share of the missionary's stipend is covered by subscriptions; and I am hopeful that the whole amount will be made up at, or soon after, the expiration of the year. Now, in regard to the prospects of this mission we can only conjecture. I can't speak with definiteness concerning the future. My own conviction is that Sault St. Marie will be in the future what it has been in the past, until we get new and different material. Prosperity, however, may be near at hand. A Railway via Sault Ste. Marie, connecting Ontario and Quebec with the great West and North West, is one of the chief topics of the day. At present we feel quite confident that this is in the near future. It is indeed generally believed that the work will be proceeded with next summer. In case that the R. R. should come, that may bring greater prosperity to this field than it has enjoyed in the past."

From the foregoing remarks it will be seen that the work of your missionaries in this part has been largely that of sowing. I would hope, however, that their labors have not been in vain. A foundation has been laid, and good seed has been sown, and we trust that the superstructure may be reared and the reaping time come not many days hence.

Whatever may have been accomplished in this particular part your missionary has had the pleasure of seeing the work of our church extended, and our cause somewhat consolidated in a good portion of central Algoma. St. Joseph's Island—almost unknown when your missionary was appointed—has been frequently visited by me, and last summer, (partly, at least, through your missionary's instrumentality), enjoyed the labors of a student missionary. I, for the most part, held services on the Island at two points, viz: Hilton and Richard's Landing. The attendance at the former would average about thirty-five (35), and at the latter about sixty-five (65). Mr. Meldrum, the student missionary, held services on another part of the Island—Chelmsford—during last summer, average attendance, thirty-five (35). The contributions for last summer were: the missionary's board and cash $70.00.

Last month I made an extended tour along the north shore of the river St. Mary and Lake Huron, visiting at the same time St. Joseph's Island and the Bruce mines. The two townships which I visited on the north shore were: Tarbutt, Plummer, Coffin, and Thessalon, passing through or touching upon Macdonald, Laird, Lefroy and Rose townships.

I beg leave to present a few facts concerning some of these, and their claims upon our church. Tarbutt is a small and new township on the St. Mary river, and opposite Richard's Landing on St. Joseph's Island, and about thirty (30) miles east of Sault Ste. Marie. I understand that the whole township is taken up, and almost every plot by sturdy Scotch Presbyterians. Here I found eighteen Presbyterian families, and in the whole section occupied by these I was given to understand that there is but one (1) family other than Presbyterian. As the land is already taken up, it is confidently expected that there will be about forty (40) of our families there next spring. In this township the wild woods are made vocal every Sabbath day—if not every night and morning—by the sweet Psalms of David. The people meet every Sabbath for reading of the word, prayer, and exhortation. Before leaving this place steps were taken to proceed with the erection of a church. The site was selected and preparations made to begin the work by the 10th inst.

In Plummer township our people put up the walls of a church last winter. During my first visit to this place this season sufficient money was subscribed to buy the lumber, &c., and since then the lumber has been purchased, and the church will be fit to hold services therein early in the summer. Plummer is from twenty-five (25) to thirty (30) miles from Tarbutt. Within possible, if not convenient, reach of the church in Plummer there are twenty-eight (28) Presbyterian families, and quite a few more in the surrounding district.

Coffin township adjoins Plummer, and the part of it (McPhee's Valley) visited by your missionary is from six (6) to eight (8) miles from Plummer church. Here I took down the names of eighteen (18) Presbyterians—twelve of which represent heads of families, the balance young men who are landholders. Here, as in Tarbutt, I am happy to say, the people meet every Sabbath to read the word and to offer prayer and praise to the God of Heaven.

In and around the Bruce mines there are about twenty (20) families of our people. Here however, like the Sault, the people are not stationary; many of them will be moving into the country in the summer and others will likely take their place.

Thessalon, the next place visited, is about fourteen miles from the Bruce mines, and about sixty-six miles from Sault Ste. Marie. Thessalon township I regard as very interesting. It is pretty well settled, and a large proportion of the settlers are Scotch. Here I received the names of thirty-four (34) families who are known to be Presbyterians, and I have reason to believe there are many more, although my informers could not say to what church many others leaned. This field is ours if we simply go in and possess the land. Here I met a woman of our church who has been there for fourteen years, who declared that in that time she had not seen nor heard a Presbyterian minister until my arrival.

The committee will have some idea of the extent of this field when I say that while upon that missionary journey, I drove, in all, two hundred and seventy miles—much of which was performed on ice. I may remark that our people in Thessalon have the matter of church building under consideration. In addition to the settlers in the townships, there is at Thessalon village a large saw mill, which gives employment in the summer season to from 60 to 70 men. I regret to say that in this township I found Plymouth leaven at work. "The Brethren" are disseminating their pernicious doctrines through the means of insidious literature, which is palmed off upon the unsuspecting under the guise of "Glad Tidings," &c.

I have endeavored to lay before you a few simple facts concerning the state, the wants and prospects of this portion of Central Algoma, and I have no doubt that the duty and the responsibility of the church in this matter will be apparent to your committee. In all the places I have spoken of, our people are crying for gospel ordinances, and that in connection with the church of their fathers; and I need scarcely say that I promised to lend them my aid in securing for them a missionary. St. Joseph's Island is known to some members of your committee, and I doubt not that its importance will be granted; and I have no hesitation in saying that in my judgment the north shore is much more important. We can't afford to neglect these places any longer. I sincerely trust that the Home Mission Committee will take steps to provide for the wants of our people in these destitute districts. There should be at least 2 missionaries in the places spoken of; one for St. Joseph's Island and Tarbutt, and the other for Plummer, the Bruce mines and Thessalon.

Mr. Macleod having returned to Ontario, the committee have appointed Mr. W. D. Gallagher, who has just completed his studies at Knox College, to this field.

PRINCE ARTHUR'S LANDING.

Mr. McKerscher continues his labors at Prince Arthur's Landing and Fort William with satisfactory results. A new church was opened at the latter place on the 14th December, 1879. There is also some talk of building a new church at the Landing to meet the increasing demands of the congregation. As, however, the future of this place is somewhat uncertain, the congregation in the meantime have rented the new town hall for the summer months. Mr. McKerscher has also repeatedly visited the line of the Pacific Railway, going as far as 230 miles from the Landing, or about half way to Winnipeg, and held religious services with the men employed on that section. At his request, the committee agreed to appoint a missionary, to work along this section of the Railway during the present summer months, and Mr. D. McDaniel, of Queen's College, has accordingly proceeded to this field. It is expected that his entire support will be provided for by the men themselves.

The committee have also appointed Rev. W. D. Russell, of Montreal, to Section B, of the Canada Pacific Railway. Mr. Cameron, who formerly labored on this section, leaving as mentioned elsewhere, been put on the regular staff of missionaries in Manitoba. Mr. Russell writes from Rat Portage,—his headquarters,—after his arrival, as follows:

"The results, so far, are encouraging. I have had four services in the village with an attendance of about 70. More would come if they could be accommodated. On Tuesday night a meeting was held about erecting a building to be used as a schoolhouse and church. A committee was appointed, and over $300 placed on the subscription list, and we are certain of raising an additional $100 in the village. About $500 ought to put up a commodious and comfortable building. I have been twice over the line, and start again in a few days for another tour. My charge is over 80 miles long." (Mr. Russell has, since the above was written, also left the Railway Mission.—See Manitoba report.

MANITOBA.

It is just ten years ago at this present Assembly since the First General Assembly of the Canada Presbyterian Church established the Presbytery of Manitoba. Previous to this time the Foreign Mission Committee of the Church alone did mission work in the North West. In the year referred to the work among the settlers in the Red River and Assiniboine region was transferred from the Foreign Mission Committee to the Home Mission Committee. When the H. M. Committee undertook the work in 1870, it had supervision of only six preaching stations made up of 90 families; and two ordained missionaries and a catechist sufficed for the whole work in the North West. The congregation in Winnipeg was not then in existence, and what

The Committee of religion. of God, became missionaries of the mission work done and while in the year themselves and 1880 the mission station up of 1500 to from the first. is now the capital of the Province was a hamlet of 300 souls. Since the work was undertaken by the Home Mission Committee, the Committee has taken great interest in it, and under God's blessing rapid advances have been made. A large and influential congregation has risen in Winnipeg. The Assembly's College has been begun, and largely assisted by the friends of the Committee, and the scattered settlers followed to upwards of 100 points with the ordinances of religion. The little nucleus of 2 ordained missionaries and catechist has, under the blessing of God, become 20 missionaries and 5 catechists regularly employed, independent of the missionaries of the Foreign Mission Committee among the Indians, and not taking into account the mission work done by the Professors and Students of the College, and the pastors of Kildonan and Winnipeg. In 1870 the Committee was responsible for the annual amount of $1,400, while in the year ending March, 1880, some $8,400 was spent in the field. In 1870 the people themselves are not reported to have raised anything for the support of the missionaries. In 1880 the mission stations themselves are found contributing about $6,500, and while the Home Mission stations, as already stated, contained about 90 families in 1879, in 1880 they are made up of 1500 to 2000 families. These figures do not include the congregation of Kildonan, which from the first has been independent of all aid from the church.

The plan, begun early in the decade by the Presbytery and successfully carried out, has been to have, if possible, the first missionary in the field of opening settlement.

The first missionary who appears in any field, obtains a hold most important, and the Presbytery regard it as a wise thing, and a thing most honouring to Christ, that so soon as any considerable number of people are found settled together, the pioneer Presbyterian Missionary should visit them, and having collected the scattered settlers at central points, raise the accents of praise to God in the open air, or in the unfinished log dwelling of some Godly settler.

So soon as any region is fairly settled, which may be within a year of the time when the first settler entered, the Presbytery aims at sending a missionary to reside amongst the people. The almost invariable course is next to open five or six stations or meeting places, 6 or 8 or 12 miles apart. By doing this the missionary can, by giving three services a Sabbath overtake his whole field once a fortnight. The Presbytery has not found it a feasible thing, nor would it be a desirable thing, to require from any locality, a guarantee as to how much can be raised by the people towards the support of the missionary, before sending the missionary upon the ground. It seems much better to send the missionary first, and the Presbytery believe that its method in this respect has been successful. When the missionary has arrived, has settled, and has preached at the several points, the Presbytery has been seldom disappointed in having subscription lists payable half yearly, signed as well as could be expected from the circumstances of the people. It is made a fixed principle that all places shall contribute as largely as possible from the very first, and that even before any effort can be made to erect a church, or public building of any kind. The necessities of the Home Mission Committee have left no other course open to the Presbytery, but to insist on giving as large as possible from the very initiation of the missionary's work. The Presbytery find that on an average, a missionary can overtake about 50 or 60 families of Presbyterians scattered among four or five stations, and mixed up with persons of other denominations, many of whom will have to depend upon the Presbyterian church for all the services they receive.

The Presbytery desires to express its sense of the great self-denial and devotion of many of the missionaries who have gone cheerfully into settlements not a year old, have lived with their families in tents, while a temporary and inconvenient log house was being erected out of their limited means, or sometimes on borrowed money. The prestige of being the first to preach the Gospel in new settlements involves likewise the enduring of many hardships and inconveniences. It is also noteworthy, that the missionaries are put to anxiety from the payments of the new settlers being necessarily dilatory; for it is often much easier to get a very fairly signed subscription list than to have the obligations met with any fair degree of promptitude. In new countries such as Manitoba there is much difficulty in obtaining sale for the farmer's commodities, except in the immediate vicinity of cities and towns, so it is not easy to have prompt payments made. While endeavoring thus to give an accurate picture of the work of pioneer missionaries, the Presbytery desires to testify to the very sympathetic and liberal assistance that has been given by the church during the past decade to the Presbytery of Manitoba. To the generous and far seeing action of the Assembly's Home Mission Committee, during these years is largely due under God, the progress that has been made, and the strong and hopeful position the Presbyterian church holds in the North-West to-day. It is sometimes said by half-hearted believers in the system of Presbyterian Government, that the system is weak in new countries, and that a central authority is necessarily stronger in executive power than the Presbytery. The Presbytery desires to give its emphatic testimony against such an opinion. Few bodies probably have had jurisdiction over a wider territory than the Presbytery of Manitoba, yet meetings of Presbyteries four or five times a year are possible. Executive committees can do the work requiring immediate attention in the intervals, and then the consultation of those acquainted with the different localities, the liberty of each member to advance what he thinks best, and the precedence given only by wisdom of counsel and devotedness of service are important features of an agency, unequalled, if the men be zealous and Gospel-possessed for laying the foundation of the church in new lands. These statements are made as due to the various persons and bodies concerned, and also to bring to the mind of the church that her efforts, while, no doubt, far below what they might have been and should have been, have yet been blessed by the approval of the Great Head of the Church.

CHURCH BUILDING.

One of the greatest hindrances to the work has been the want of a church building fund. Comparatively small sums act as a great stimulus on a young community in providing themselves with a place of worship. It is true that a building corresponding to the primitive dwelling of the pioneer does not cost a great deal, and it would be manifestly unnecessary and wanting in fitness that the first church building, which may prove not to be in the most convenient situation as the settlement grows, should greatly exceed the cost of the settler's house, yet it is found a difficult thing to get a church undertaken for two or three years after a settlement begins, and there are obvious difficulties in advancing the organization of stations while public worship is conducted in a private house.

A small amount then to stimulate the building of these primitive churches would be a boon to the Presbytery. Through the kind offices of Joseph McKay, Esq., of Montreal, some $500 or $600 were a few years ago given for assisting such enterprises, and much benefit resulted from the distribution of this in small sums to induce new settlers to erect church buildings. The Presbytery would strongly urge this as a most important matter. In the mission stations during 1879, nine new churches were opened, though a considerable burden of debt is still resting upon them. Were a small fund in the hands of the Presbytery, as suggested, 1880 would not be behind the year that has past.

It is now becoming impossible to go minutely into the circumstances of the several stations and the work done without increasing unduly the length of the report. Only special features can be noted.

NEW CENTRES.

During the last two years a great change has taken place throughout the country in the springing up of business centres at convenient points. Up to that time scarcely anything worthy of the name of even a village could be found outside of Winnipeg. Two places only, Emerson and Portage La Prairie were centres needing mention, but not only have these two places become small towns, but new places such as Selkirk, Morris, Gladstone, Stonewall, Neaseville, have risen up, and for their age, possess features worthy of notice. The progress of railway construction and advancing settlements are at the present time stimulating the same tendency and places unknown till the present year, such as Minnedota or Odanah, Birtle, Cross-ling and Crystal City are new claimants for the distinction of business centres. The Presbytery makes it an especial matter to possess as soon as possible such points, and from the very beginning of their history, to assist in laying the foundations of truth and righteousness before indifference and vice have got a stronghold, and so as in the case of the metropolis of the Province, to become a factor in the growth and progress of the place, and endeavor to direct the rising energies of these new communities into healthful moral channels.

RURAL INTERESTS.

The Presbytery is, however, well aware that much of the strength of our Presbyterian church will be found in the sturdy country congregations. The North West will be a land of farmers. The simple Presbyterian ritual is easily adapted for use in the settlers' shanty, the primitive school-house, the public hall, and the log church, as well as to the largest and most intelligent city congregation. Accordingly, a large majority of our stations consist of those rural gatherings, the people coming many miles in some instances, and worshipping God in almost as simple a manner as did our ancestors, on the hillside or in the mow. Already, comfortable churches are erected in a number of these purely rural localities, such as Burnside, Grassmere, Prospect, Clear Springs, Campbellville, &c., to be followed we trust by a score or two of others within a comparatively short time.

SUBDIVISION OF GROUPS.

The plan already spoken of as followed, by sending a missionary to take charge of 5 or 6 stations is, of course, simply the primary step. As settlers drop into the several localities the gatherings increase in size, the stations need more frequent supply, and the field must be divided. In this way it is generally found the two portions are each able to contribute as much support as the whole previously did, with the additional prospect of, with the fuller supply, and more complete organization, becoming nearer and nearer self supporting. In this way what was the Boyne Group, to which a missionary was first sent in 1875, has now four missionaries with vacant fields for two more. Where in the Little Saskatchewan and Beautiful Plains Group of stations two years and a-half ago there were not twenty settlers, there are now appointed five missionaries by the Presbytery. The Springfield Group two years ago under the charge of one missionary, has now three groups of stations, and Rockwood, a district of slower growth has just been divided.

SPECIAL FIELD.

Prince Albert is every year being more spoken of as a likely field for emigration. The growth of the settlement has been very gradual. Rev. James Duncan is doing excellent service in what is for a young man, a most responsible position. The work has, however, from the scattered nature of the settlements outgrown the control of one missionary. A new district of great fertility was last year opened up about 40 miles east of Prince Albert at Root on Carrot river. An urgent appeal comes from the settlers there for a portion of Mr. Duncan's services. Another missionary is urgently required for that district to divide the work with Mr. Duncan. Mr. Duncan, though in the employ of the Home Mission Committee, has done good service in connection with the Indian Mission work in that locality.

THE FAR WEST.

To one unacquainted with the vastness of the North West, Prince Albert, 500 miles west of Winnipeg seems remote enough, but a settlement of much importance is clamorously calling for a missionary of our church, from a much greater distance inland. This is Edmonton, N. W. T., by road 1000 or 1100 miles west of Winnipeg, and but a short distance from the Rocky Mountains. Battleford, a point about 650 miles west of Winnipeg, was at the time of last Assembly, occupied by one of our missionaries, but the great demand for missionaries for more important fields necessitated the withdrawal of a missionary from that point.

This was deemed all the more advisable since much doubt seems to rest on the likelihood of Battleford being a place of any considerable importance. But Edmonton is an agricultural district, and of such attractiveness that a considerable population has already been drawn westward to it. Reports reaching different members of Presbytery are to the effect, that a considerable proportion of the settlers are Presbyterians, and that a missionary of our church would be welcomed there. A number of adjoining settlements to Edmonton are also said to be springing up.

FAVORITE IMMIGRATION LOCALITIES.

Two districts seem most attractive to the incoming settlers this year, viz: 1, Little Saskatchewan Region; 2, Turtle Mountain District. The first of these begins at the Little Saskatchewan River, a southward flowing tributary of the Assiniboine, 150 miles west of Winnipeg, extends for a hundred miles west to the Upper Assiniboine at Fort Ellice, where that river has itself a southward direction. This country, formerly known as the Swan River District, is the beginning of the second great prairie steppe. It is more diversified than Manitoba, on a higher level, the land is more rolling, and the whole more attractive to an eastern eye than the country in Manitoba. As already mentioned, four missionaries are appointed to this district. From present appearances two more will be absolutely necessary by the close of the present immigration season. This region will be reached by the second hundred miles of railway now under contract, and will no doubt be a region of great importance not only materially but ecclesiastically.

The second immigration field most popular is the Rock, Lake and Turtle Mountain region. This is usually reached by leaving Emerson and going westward. The Presbytery had hoped to have been able to supply Cypress River in this region this summer as well as Turtle Mountain to which a large number of settlers have gone. What can be done for this region, which will be still more important at the end of the season's immigration, will require to be considered at the October meeting of the Committee.

CANADA PACIFIC RAILWAY.

The work of ministering to the laborers on Contract 15 and Section B, C. P. R., seems to have been left entirely in our hands. During the year the Presbytery was gratified by the appointment of a second missionary to assist Mr. Cameron. This gentleman was Rev. W. D. Russell. Shortly after Mr. Russell's arrival a great change took place among the employees. A large number of French and Irish Roman Catholics having been brought on the work, the employers having refused to raise the wages of the men, a change took place of almost all the Protestant workmen on the line. As the mission has hitherto depended on the free will offering of the men, it was deemed, on account of the diminution of contributions, advisable, as well as for other reasons, to withdraw one of the missionaries. Mr. Cameron was accordingly withdrawn. Later the change has become more marked still in the character of the men. It is said there are only some 300 or 400 men on the works, not above 120 of whom are Protestants. No course has been left the Presbytery but to withdraw Mr. Russell also—as there seemed no way of meeting his salary.

CONTRIBUTIONS.

A vast amount of labor was performed by the Presbytery during the last summer in sending deputations throughout the country to increase amounts from stations. A heavy expense was incurred by members of the Presbytery in doing this. The gratifying result was attained of raising the subscriptions to $6,466 as contrasted with $4,826 of the previous year—an increase about 33 per cent. It must be remembered that a large number of the new settlers are poor—came to the Northwest because they are poor. They are in consequence not able to give largely. But the Presbytery is doing its best, and while knowing that the contributions are far below what they ought to be, yet believes they compare favorably with the amounts raised by people of equal ability in any part of the Church.

INCREASE OF LABOREES.

During the past year the inability of the Assembly's Home Mission Committee to extend the work in Manitoba to the smallest degree, gave rise to grave apprehensions in the minds of members of the Presbytery. Some thousands of new settlers have come, new settlements have risen, and it was impossible to see fields unoccupied and to hear the Macedonian cry from several localities unheeded. It became a matter of consideration and earnest prayer to members of Presbytery. Rev. Mr. Roddie, of Nova Scotia, offered his services and was accepted thus supplying four stations without receiving remuneration. The French Evangelization Society generously sent a man to a mixed French and English field, and partly supported him. He gets nothing from the H. M. Fund. Rev. D. McEae, in search of health, came to the Northwest, and was induced to occupy a new and needy field. This he has done with but little remuneration, except $100 in April for the half-year's work. His health is greatly improved. A fourth missionary, Mr. Copeland, an earnest young man, who is studying for the Church, had been compelled to give up on account of ill health, offered his services. Except $50 from the Committee and what the people in one of the newest districts could give—very little—Mr. Copeland received nothing for the winter's work.

Mr. Lawrence, a middle aged gentleman, of much acceptability as a missionary, offered his services and received nothing from the Committee for half a year's work.

A Gaelic missionary, Mr. McLeod, has also been laboring in Beautiful Plains region—getting hardly anything—and allowed nothing by the Home Mission Committee. And also Mr. D. McGregor a student of Manitoba College, has done good service in supplying vacant stations and has received what amount he raised from local sources, the Committee being unable to make a grant. Here then were seven labourers raised up to do the church's work, and at an expense to the Home Mission Committee of only $160. A number of them, who are most efficient labourers were at the April meeting of the Assembly's Home Mission Committee put on the regular staff, but God be praised, who raised up in the time of need so many useful men, and thanks to the men, who at such great personal sacrifice, did so well the Lord's work. Rev. Mr. Wellwood has been appointed to the work of the Presbytery; Rev. A. H. Cameron, formerly of C. P. R., has been placed on the regular staff; Mr. Farquharson, of Knox College students' Missionary Society, occupies one field, and Mr. Caswell, a student of Knox College, another, for the summer.

MISCELLANEOUS.

At the close of the Church Year, Rev. John Scott, of Emerson, who has been successful in forming a congregation and building a church in Pembina U. S., gave notice to the American Church that his duties required him, on account of the increase of population, to give Emerson his undivided time. Mr. Scott has not been paid the full amount promised and expected from American Board.

Rev. Peter Stralith retired from the service of the Presbytery during the year, his engagement having expired.

NECESSITIES.

It is a matter that concerns the mind of the Presbytery, and which it believes should be dealt with by the Assembly, how the spread of the Gospel is to be made commensurate with the settling up of the great plains of the North-west. The Presbytery is convinced that the development of the last decade cannot be taken as in any sense a guide for the next. Until two years ago no railway communication was enjoyed by the North-west, and accordingly the immigration was kept in check by the difficulties of ingress to the country. The country only became known as a field for emigration at the beginning of the decade, and until two or three years ago it had not been decided in the public mind whether Manitoba was a desirable region for a large population. Again, for nearly half the decade the country was being ravaged by the locust, and doubt thrown on its capabilities. Again, it is in the nature of emigration that it should increase in far more than a regular proportion.

These considerations all present a serious problem to the church. Not only will it require an ever-increasing interest on the part of the church, and a consequent increase of liberality, to follow with the ordinances of religion her sons and her daughters as they seek new homes in the North-west, but the Presbytery is of opinion that continued efforts should be made by the church to keep the importance of our Canadian work and the just claim we have on several grounds for their assistance, before the eyes of the mother churches.

CONCLUSION.

When it is considered that in the Presbytery there are such fields of labor as Cypress Hill, Turtle Mt., Carrot River, Edmonton and Hay Lakes, Fort Alexander and stations on Lake Winnipeg; entirely unoccupied; when we see a number of such fields as the Emerson group, Westbourne group and Rockwood group needing urgently to be divided; when there is heard the rumbling of the ever-increasing approach of immigration; when the cry of earnest souls from new township after township asking for the gospel is heard, can it be wondered at that most serious thoughts as to the possibilities and responsibilities should fill the minds of members of Presbytery. It will take more than every effort of the church to overtake the work. The Presbytery rejoices for what has been done—rejoices that, to some extent, the cloud seems to have lifted, and that the committee has been able to order an advance. The North-west is the great mission field of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. May the Lord of the harvest send forth laborers into his harvest.

As the railway world did not commence last year, as announced, and from other causes we have not prospered financially, as expected. Preparations for commencement are now being made, but for the first year the results to us are problematical. We may have increase, or we may have decrease. Since the above tables were given in to the Presbytery, two or three families are preparing to move elsewhere. Mr. Jamieson reports his health much better than formerly.

At the last General Assembly your Committee reported that the Rev. Donald Ross, of Lancaster, had accepted the appointment to this important field, at a salary of £1,250 with $900 as an allowance for travelling expenses. The Assembly having approved his appointment and commended him and his work to the special interest of the church, Mr. Ross made preparations to leave for his distant field, after having addressed meetings in different parts of Ontario and Quebec, and collected funds in aid of the mission. The Committee however regret to state that on account of serious illness Mr. Ross was unable to proceed to the mission. A letter dated Selkirk, Manitoba, of date September 24th, accompanied by medical certificates, testifying to his critical state of health, and advising him not to proceed further, was laid before the Committee at its meeting in October. The Committee, in view of all the facts of the case, while regretting exceedingly that Mr. Ross was unable to proceed to the mission, and deeply sympathising with him in his serious illness, had no alternative but to release him from the appointment, which they accordingly did. In order to supply the Prince Albert Station, thus unexpectedly left unprovided for, the Presbytery of Manitoba sent Mr. J. Duncan at once to the mission, and at the last meeting of the Committee, Mr. Duncan was regularly appointed missionary to Prince Albert at a salary of $900 per annum. It is expected that at least $500 of this amount will be paid by the field.

At the request of Mr. Ross, and in justice to those congregations which so liberally responded to his appeal for aid, in behalf of the Prince Albert mission, the Committee herewith present the statement of his receipts and expenditure :

REVISION OF GRANTS.

The last General Assembly instructed the Home Mission Committee to entertain no application for new grants or for the continuance of old ones, either supplemented congregations or mission stations, unless there be laid on the table of the Committee an extract minute of the Presbytery making the application, showing that the grants have been revised since the meeting of Assembly, and that deputies have visited the supplemented congregations and missions within the bounds with a view to the reduction of the grants.

This instruction your Committee are happy to state has been carried out by all the Presbyteries and in many cases with a gratifying reduction of grants.

SPECIAL CASES REFERRED TO ASSEMBLY.

In the following supplemented congregations grants have been made, subject to the approval of the General Assembly, the contributions of the people being below the required minimum:

New Glasgow in the Presbytery of Montreal.

Dalhousie and North Sherbrooke in the Presbytery of Lanark and Renfrew.

* Melrose and Lonsdale in the Presbytery of Kingston.

Balscover in the Presbytery of Lindsay.

* Ayton and East Normanby in the Presbytery of Saugeen.

Victoria in the Presbytery of Hamilton.

* Kinloss and Bervie in the Presbytery of Bruce.

In the case of those marked * grants have been made, conditioned on the contributions of the people, reaching the required minimum. In the other cases, the Committee cannot entertain the hope that in their present condition this desirable end can be attained at least for some time.

AID FROM THE HOME CHURCHES.

Your Committee have gratefully to acknowledge their obligations to the Free Church of Scotland Colonial Committee for a grant of £250, and the Presbyterian Church of Ireland for £100 for the general work of the Committee. Also £150 from the Free Church and £100 from the Presbyterian Church of Ireland towards the maintenance of Manitoba College. In view of these grants to Manitoba College, and in view of the great desirability of cancelling the large indebtedness of the Home Mission Fund, the Committee resolved to apply, as they hereby do, to the General Assembly to reduce by the amount of these grants (£250) for the present year the obligations of this Committee to Manitoba College, provided that from these and other sources the $3,400 required for Professors' salaries be raised.

Correspondence has been held during the year between your Committee and the Colonial Committee of the Church of Scotland, regarding aid from that Church in behalf of Manitoba. Nothing definite has, however, as yet been agreed upon.

ANNUAL REPORT

—)o(—

This Society was formed in the early days of the College. Its objects may be said to be two-fold : 1st, To carry the Gospel to more recently settled parts of the country which are not likely to be supplied with the ordinances by Presbyteries ; 2nd, To foster a missionary spirit among the students. In order to this, monthly meetings are held to deliberate on the best means of executing the Society's work, to hear reports from its various fields, and missionary addresses from ministers who are fully awake to the importance of this branch of the Church's work.

The membership of the Society comprises all who are studying in the city with a view to the ministry of the Presbyterian Church.

During the summer months students are sent to newly settled districts, and stations are established and cared for until strong enough to take their place among the regular mission stations of the Church, when they pass into the charge of the Presbytery within whose bounds they are situated, leaving the Society free to devote its energies to more needy places. The work is thus largely of a pioneer kind. A considerable number of fields first occupied by the Society are now flourishing mission stations or pastoral charges.

In the PARRY SOUND District two ordained missionaries have for nearly two years been laboring where but a few years ago our missionaries first entered. This year a missionary will be sent to the village of PARRY SOUND.

At PRINCE ARTHUR'S Landing a pastor is now settled where he first labored as our missionary.

In Manitoulin Island an ordained missionary, the Rev. Hugh McKay has now the oversight of a large mission which owes its origin to the Society, as indeed do all the missions on this large island. Fields have also in past years been occupied in the Ottawa Presbytery, in the counties of Essex, Lambton and Simcoe, at Saint Ste. Marie, Silver Islet, and as far west as Manitoba.

Supply is frequently given to fields in which there is little prospect of establishing permanent stations, the prosperity of the districts in which they are situated depending almost wholly on lumbering and mining operations. In most cases, however, the stations become permanent. New fields are asking for supply every year, but the work can be extended only as the funds permit.

The expenses in connection with the work are defrayed by contributions obtained by the missionaries in their respective fields, and by donations from friends throughout the Church. The fields generally contribute well, but the very fact that these are handed over to Presbyteries as soon as they become self-sustaining will indicate how essential to the progress of our work is the liberality of friends outside the fields. The attention of friends is invited to the nature of the Society's work as worthy of a generous support. During the past year the following fields have been occupied, viz. : Wabashene, Central Manitoulin, St. Joseph's Island, Coboonak, Nipissing, Strong, Katrine and Emdale, Bayville, Carlow (North Hastings), and Mayo (North Hastings). Regarding these the following items may be specially noted :

MUSKOKA AND PARRY SOUND.

In 1873 a missionary was sent to Muskoka, which was then an almost unknown land, to both immigrants and missionaries. He was invested with discretionary powers as to location, and was able to hold services with some degree of regularity at all places where it was possible to gather together a little congregation, from Muskoka on the south to Magnetawan on the north and east. This region and the country to the north and east are now occupied by ten missionaries, four of whom are supported by the Students' Society.

In the summer of 1877 the Society sent a missionary for two months to the district lying around and near Lake Nipissing. His report to the Society was such as to encourage the continuance of the work, and accordingly a missionary was sent for three months of the following summer. During the past summer again the field was occupied and extended. Services were held fortnightly at each of four stations, viz. : Nipissingan, Commanda, Commanda Lake and Big Bend. These fields embrace a tract of country thirty-five miles long and nineteen wide. The rapid settlement of this district renders it a favorable place for missionary effort.

About 15 miles to the south-east of this field lies the township of Strong, which was, during the summer, made the centre of a large mission, including the adjoining townships of Lount, Machar, and Chapman. At four different points in these townships, services were regularly held. A large number of Presbyterians have settled here, and the services were largely attended, but the field being entirely new, there is as yet no organization into regular congregations; This will probably be accomplished during the present year. The country away to the north-east of this is being rapidly settled and is demanding attention, so that increased effort must be put forth in this direction. Katrine and Emsdale, lying about fifteen miles to the south of the Society for a few years, during which time they have become strong, have been occupied by the Society for a few years, during which time they have become flourishing stations; last year two others were added, viz.: Burk's Falls and east Station. Congregations with elders and managers have been properly organized, while the Sabbath School attendance and yearly contributions are encouraging.

The only field which the Society occupied during the year is Baysville, a thriving village on the shore of the Lake of Bays, sixteen miles east of Bracebridge. This field has been under the care of the Presbytery of Barrie for some years and was first occupied by the Society last year. It lies in a rough but well settled district, and is about thirty-seven miles in length. The missionary's report was such as to encourage the Society to continue the work there during the coming summer.

The Society is deeply indebted to the Rev. A. Findley, of Bracebridge, in connection with its work in Muskoka. The reverend gentleman has travelled over the whole of this vast district preaching the Word, organizing congregations and dispensing the sacraments; he has thus acquired a thorough knowledge of the country and its needs, and has more than once guided the action of the Society in the selection of fields.

Just on the south-eastern boundary of Muskoka, in the northern extremities of the counties of Ontario and Victoria, an interesting field, Cobocoon, has for three years been occupied by the Societies missionaries. It was not a new field when, in 1877 it came under the supervision of the Society, but it had never been properly organized. It is now a healthy mission and almost ready for an ordained missionary, having during these years, increased from a membership of twenty-eight to one of seventy-nine.

To the south-west of Muskoka, on the shore of the Georgian Bay, is situated Waubashene, where the Society for several years past sent a missionary. There seems to be little hope of establishing a permanent station here, as the existence of the place depends on the lumber trade. Still, there is a goodly number of Presbyterians in the place who are willing to pay the expenses of a missionary, and the Society cannot refuse to send one.

The North Hastings field has been for some years under the care of the Society, and has progressed very favorably from its first occupation. Two Students were sent there for the summer and the field was divided and extended. The results have been most satisfactory; besides the regular Sabbath services and weekly prayer meetings, special services were held in both parts of the field, and sixty-seven persons professed faith in Christ. The Society has found it necessary to commit this entire district to the care of Kingston Presbytery, although the fields were desirous of having our missionaries this year as formerly.

ALGOMA DISTRICT.

Eight years ago the Society sent a missionary to Manitoulin Island. Previous to this no regular Presbyterian service was conducted on the island, but settlement was so rapid that the work was continued; soon an ordained missionary was required, and in the autumn of 1877 the Rev. Hugh McKay was sent by the Presbytery of Bruce to exercise pastoral authority over the whole island. Since then, churches have been built and congregations organized at the most important points. Last year in addition to supporting the ordained missionary, the Presbytery of Bruce employed a student missionary for Manitoulin and neighborhood, leaving the Society in charge of the central part of the island, where fortnightly services were held at six places, viz.: Providence Bay, Mindamoya, Basingthwaite's settlement, Sandfield Mills, Tehkummah, and Michael's Bay. During the year twenty-seven persons were added to the membership of the Church in this part, and steps taken towards the erection of two churches, while at one place, Basingthwaite's, a small building was erected to serve as a union church. This field embraces the whole of the townships of Carnarvon, Tehkummah, and Sandfield, with parts of adjoining townships. The Society propose extending the work here during the coming summer, and to send an additional missionary.

St. Joseph's Island situated near the head of Lake Huron, about thirty miles from Sault Ste. Marie, came first under the Society's care during the year just closing, and promises to be a very interesting field. Its inhabitants number about 3,000, most of whom have settled during the past three years; this will give an idea of the rapid colonization of the Island. Regular services were not conducted by any denomination until last year, when the Society ventured to send a missionary for four months. He reports to the Society that he met with great encouragement from the people of the island, and also those from Plummer township, a place on the mainland which he was able to visit occasionally. On his recommendation, the Society has decided to send an additional missionary to this part, who will make Plummer township the centre of a large mission.

Little need be said of the mission work done in and around the city during the College session of 1879-80. As usual assistance has been given to missions in connection with the Gaol, the Central Prison and the Hospital. Parkdale has been regularly supplied with morning and evening services, and Brockton with morning services.

The thanks of the Society are due to M^{rs}. English, of Michael's Bay, M^{rs}. Tinkiss of Manitowaning, Messrs. Fisher and Richards of St. Joseph's Island, and the Georgian Bay Lumbering Co., of Wabashene, for boarding its missionaries in their respective fields, free of charge.

Thankful acknowledgement is also made of valuable contributions of books and papers received from Knox Church, Hamilton; Knox Church Dundas; Knox Church, Toronto; Erskine Church, Toronto; Cook's Church, Toronto, and from the Presbyterian Church Newmarket.

While God has been pleased to bless our labors to others, we would not forget the fact that our whole work is a valuable means of fostering the missionary spirit and of quickening religious life among ourselves, and we pray that the Master of the vineyard may bless our efforts even more abundantly in years to come.

STUDENTS' MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

MASSAWIPPI	..	..	..	Mr. R. McNABB.
COATICOOKE	..	..	..	Mr. B. HYDE.
RAWDON	..	..	..	Mr. J. A. TOWNSEND.

This Society has been in existence since 1869. All Students of the College are expected to be Members. Its object is to foster a missionary spirit and to promote missionary work. During the summer vacation some of its members are appointed to fields selected by the Society. Its funds are derived from the contributions of the fields supplied during the summer; and the subscriptions of students and their friends in the city and elsewhere. During the College Session the Society supplied Massawippi, Richby and Coaticooke gratuitously, and also conducted weekly prayer-meetings in remote parts of the city congregations.

MISSIONARY WORK—SUMMER 1879.

MASSAWIPPI, AYER'S FLATS, and ABBOTT'S SCHOOLHOUSE were supplied by Mr. J. A. Anderson, B. A.

Massawippi is situated nineteen miles south of the city of Sherbrooke, in one of the most beautiful sections of the Eastern Townships. The Society has much cause of thankfulness for the success attending the Missionary's labors, under the Divine guidance. The good seed sown by previous missionaries is now bearing fruit, and the glorious rays of the Son of Righteousness are penetrating the clouds of superstition and doubt which at one time enveloped the minds of many. Heads of families saw it to be their duty to have their children baptized. Seven baptisms are reported, and two members in full communion were added to the church; making in all, sixteen at this station. The Sabbath-school and Bible-class are reported as in a flourishing condition, the average attendance being thirty-five. A weekly prayer-meeting was held, which was appreciated and attended by an average of thirty. Sabbath services averaged seventy-five.

Ayer's Flats is a little village at the head of lake Massawippi. Here there are no Presbyterian families. Mr. Anderson conducted fortnightly Sabbath services in the school-house. The average attendance was forty, and the people request that they may be remembered by the Society next summer. Prospects here are hopeful.

Abbott's School-house is a stronghold of Universalism. Services were conducted here fortnightly on Sabbaths during the former part of the summer, when Mr. Anderson transferred his work to Ayer's Flats, where greater interest was manifested by the people. In all the above fields the mission has strong opposing elements to contend against on account of the many prevailing forms of unbelief. The total cost of this field was $214.97; amount collected $96.66.

RICHBY, COATICOOKE, and NORTH COATICOOKE were supplied by Mr. A. Anderson, who has since been called away to the church triumphant.

Richby is a little village five miles from North Coaticooke, situated in one of the most fertile districts in the Eastern Townships. Here, as elsewhere in this region, are fragments of evangelical and non-evangelical denominations. In this field Mr. Anderson labored assiduously among the people, preaching every Sabbath morning, and conducting a Sabbath-school and Bible-class at the close of the service. Average attendance at service, forty, and average at Sabbath-school, twenty.

Coaticook is a thriving town on the Grand Trunk Railway, about twenty miles from Sherbrooke. Here, after returning from Richby, Mr. Anderson preached every Sabbath afternoon in the town hall, to an average attendance of twenty-five.

North Coaticook is a mile and a half from the main village, and here Mr. Anderson preached on Sabbath evenings. The average attendance was thirty-five. Communion was dispensed by Rev. A. F. Tally. Number of communicants in the three stations, twenty-seven. The Lord's work is prospering, and the Society has cause of thankfulness for the progress made. The total cost of this group of fields was $205.75, and the amount collected $85.00.

Here we would record our deep sense of the personal worth and praiseworthy devotedness of our late missionary, and we trust the good seed sown by him shall not have been in vain. We pray that it may bear fruit abundantly to the praise and honor of the Divine Master.

THE RIDGE, THANET, NUGENTVILLE AND GLENMERE. This group of stations was supplied by Mr. J. McFarland.

The Ridge is situated about sixty miles north of Belleville, and is principally a mining district. It has been occupied by the Society for a number of years. Mr. McFarland had labored here the previous year, and was reappointed to the field at the request of the people. He preached here every Sabbath to an average of seventy persons. A Sabbath school was held at the close of the service at which the average attendance was thirty. A weekly prayer meeting was held which was well attended.

Thanet is eight miles from the Ridge. Here Mr. McFarland preached every Sabbath to an average of forty. The average attendance at Sabbath-school was twenty. A new church has been erected, and signs of prosperity are manifested. A decided interest in the work of the Society is shown by the people.

Nugentville is six miles from The Ridge, and here our missionary conducted fortnightly services. Attendance averaged seventy. Sabbath school was conducted every Sabbath; average thirty-five. The prospects here are encouraging.

Glenmere is fourteen miles from The Ridge. Here also the minister preached fortnightly to an appreciative audience, averaging forty. The average attendance at the Sabbath-school was twenty. Communion was dispensed in two of the stations in this group, viz. Thanet and The Ridge. The entire membership in all these stations is sixty-nine. Fifteen baptisms were reported. The entire cost of these stations was $195.70; amount collected, $82.80. Mr. McFarland, our missionary, did not spare himself in his efforts to extend the work here. The Kingston Presbytery has taken up this field, and we pray that the good work may still prosper.

MISSIONARY WORK—WINTER 1879-80.

Gaelic Work. Services were held in this language during the winter in Stanley Street Church by Messrs. McLean, Smith and Morrison.

PRAYER MEETINGS. The following weekly prayer meetings were conducted under the auspices of the Society:

St. Antoine Street Meeting, conducted by J. F. McLaren. This meeting was originally instituted by the elders of Erskine Church for the benefit of aged and infirm persons unable to attend church services on Sabbath. Average, twenty.

POINT ST. CHARLES MEETING, in connection with St. Joseph Street Church, was conducted by Mr. J. Mitchell. The attendance at first was small, but gradually increased until it equalled the accommodation. With two exceptions the meeting was addressed by a different speaker each evening. Average, twenty.

NAZARETH STREET MEETING, in connection with Crescent Street Church, was conducted by Mr. R. Hyde, who reports very encouragingly concerning the work. The meeting was attended principally by the working classes. Average, twenty-four.

St. LAURENT STREET MEETING, in connection with Chalmers Church, was conducted by Mr. J. P. Grant. Through the influence of Rev. P. Wright a school-house was secured for the services. Considerable interest was manifested by those who attended. Mr. Grant strongly recommends that this meeting be continued next session. Average, nineteen.

EAST END MEETING, in connection with St. Gabriel Street Church, was conducted by Messrs. Baillie and W. Shearer. It was held in private houses. A deep spiritual feeling seemed to pervade the meetings. Average, twelve.

REPORT OF

This Association has been in existence for thirty years, during which time it has been in active operation. At no time during its existence as an association has its operations been so extended as during the past year.

The one great object of the Association, as stated in the constitution, is the promotion of Divine truth. Its work during the session is threefold:—(1) Supplying mission fields on behalf of Kingston Presbytery; (2) giving occasional supply to vacant charges, and also to settled congregations in the temporary absence of their own pastor; and (3) attending to special work within the city, such as Sabbath-school teaching, weekly prayer meetings, visitation of hospital and jail, tract distribution, holding regular Sabbath services in the House of Industry, Asylum, and in the village of Portsmouth.

The Association is composed of all the students of the Theological Faculty of Queen's University, the students of the Arts department who have the ministry in view, together with those who, although aspiring to places in professions or in spheres of activity other than the ministerial, acknowledge the prime importance of the work sought to be accomplished by this Association, and desire to have their names enrolled as members.

The regular meetings of the Association are held in the Divinity Hall every alternative Saturday during the session.

A prayer meeting is held in the University Buildings every Sabbath, and is conducted and attended by members of this Association, and also of the Queen's College branch of the Inter Collegiate Y. M. C. A.

During the past summer the Association had two fields, which would otherwise have been destitute of the ordinary means of grace, under its immediate supervision. The success attending the efforts of our missionaries in these fields has led the Association to take up another field in addition to these for the summer of 1880.

The following fields within the bounds of the Kingston Presbytery received supply through the Association during the session at the request of the Presbytery's Convener of Home Missions:—Wolfe Island; Mill Haven and Bath; Clark's Mills; Newburg, &c.; Tamworth, &c.; Morton; Sharbot Lake and Parham; Glenvale, &c., and Portsmouth.

During the Christmas vacation ten destitute fields were visited by members of the Association. Divine service was held on the three Sabbaths. During the week the students, in their respective fields, were engaged in house to house visitation and in holding special evangelistic meetings.

Lectures were delivered during the College session before the Association by the Rev.'s D. Mitchell, of Belleville; Rev. J. F. Stevenson, D.D., of Montreal; the Rev. Principal Jardine, D. Sc.; the Rev. Principal Grant, M.A., D.D., and the Rev. Geo. Muller, of Bristol, England.

During the session the following amounts have been received from mission fields, viz.: Clark's Mills, Newburg and 5th con. Camden, $47.05; Tamworth, Centreville, and 8th con. Camden, $15.05; Morton, $23.00; St. Columba and St. Pauls, $16.00. This amount, together with the amount received from the Home Mission Fund, after defraying expenses to and from the fields amounts to $2.90 a Sabbath.

In conclusion, the Association desires to express its thankfulness to its many friends for the encouragement and aid which they have rendered. Its members would also record their gratitude to Almighty God, who, in the past has so abundantly blessed their feeble efforts, and would pray that He will yet more abundantly bless them in their efforts to extend the knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus.

FINANCE.

The Report presented at the last General Assembly showed an indebtedness of $9551.39 or adding monies then due to Missionaries in Manitoulin and elsewhere, $11,051.39. The Assembly after serious consideration as to the best mode of meeting this large deficit, agreed that instead of making a special appeal for the removal of the present deficit, there be but one appeal for the deficit and the current year's expenditure combined, and that a committee be appointed to prepare a short appeal to the members and adherents of the Church, setting forth the condition and requirements of the fund—to be signed by the Moderator; that the Assembly enjoin every minister to read this appeal from the pulpit on some Lord's day on or before the last Sabbath of September next, and to afford opportunity to every individual to contribute by subscription, or in any other way that the Session or Deacon's Court may have previously resolved upon.

At the meeting of the Home Mission Committee held on the 8th October, it was found that, after paying the claims for the half year ending 30th September, the indebtedness of the Fund amounted to $23,000. After long and earnest deliberation the following Resolution was adopted:

"Whereas, the indebtedness of the Fund at this date is the sum of $23,000, and that there are claims upon the Fund which the Committee are, by the instructions of the General Assembly required to pay as preferential claims, which, with the present indebtedness, will exhaust the entire income expected by the Committee for the year, the Committee resolve not to proceed in making any appropriations for the next six months, the claims for which, as sent by Presbyteries, amount to about $12,000; but to adjourn until the last week in March next, and then to meet to distribute among the various Presbyteries of the Church, in respect of mission work and supplements during the six months then past, such moneys as the liberality of the Church may, by that date, have placed at the disposal of the Committee; provided always that the Committee may meet at an earlier date, if the Convener see cause."

This action, the Committee were well aware, would cause great perplexity to Presbyteries, in regard to the continuance of missionaries in mission fields, and anxiety to the missionaries themselves, who rely upon the grants being promptly paid. No other course, however, seemed open to the Committee. To have continued the grants on the former scale, without the hope of paying them when due, or to have reduced the grants to a scale that the Committee would have felt to be utterly inadequate, would have been attended with the most injurious consequences to the work, and must have resulted in great suffering to missionaries, and the ministers of supplemented congregations. The Committee felt it was wiser to lay a candid statement of the condition of the Funds before the ministers and congregations of the Church, and await their response, rather than pursue either of these alternatives.

Your Committee are now happy to report, that so hearty and generous has been the response to their appeal, the entire indebtedness has been cancelled, and the claims for the current year also fully met. For such a result, they desire to render their unforgotten thanks to the Great Head of the Church, who has enabled his people to give so willingly, and to the Presbyteries of the Church, who have rendered valuable assistance, in placing the pressing claims of the fund before the congregations within their bounds.

REMARKS.

The amounts contributed by Presbyteries embrace Congregational and Sabbath School contributions. But it may be stated that the total amount contributed by Sabbath Schools is $2262.80, v.z.: In Presbytery of Montreal, $178.50; Ottawa, $12.95; Glengarry, $10.00; Lanark and Renfrew, $37; Brockville, $12; Kingston, $35; Peterboro, $209.09; Whitby, $120.11; Lindsay, $13.67; Toronto, $406.85; Barrie, $18.08; Saugeen, $12.40; Geolph, $186.74; Hamilton, $598; Paris, $129.17; London, $192.50; Chatham, $5; Stratford, $34.97; Huron, $6.77; Bruce, $33.50; Maitland, $10.

Under the heading "Donations and Special Contributions" are included special donations, whether for debt or ordinary fund. Indeed, it is impossible to keep these separate, and hence the contributions from Presbyteries include all contributed for debt and for ordinary work of the year. The Donations, &c., also include balance of ministerial contributions paid after last year's accounts were closed, amounting to $726.50, and a donation of $750 from Committee on Pres. Record. Of the special donations, $3,600 was given by Montreal.

The payments include balances due to Presbyteries as stated in last year's account, and the appropriations made in October, 1879 and March, 1880.

RECOMMENDATION TO THE ASSEMBLY.

In view of the repeated deficits in the Home Mission Funds for several years, and with the prospect that with the rapid opening up of the North West, still greater demands will be made upon the Committee for Missionaries, the Committee agreed to bring before the Assembly the urgent necessity of adopting such means as would tend most effectually to draw out the liberality of the Church in Canada, and the Churches in Great Britain on behalf of the great work. The amount expended upon the North West, British Columbia, the Stations in Manitoulin, along Lake Superior and in Muskoka now reaches a sum GREATER THAN THE ENTIRE AMOUNT raised 10 years ago for Home Missions. But while putting forth every effort to occupy these more distant fields, the Committee feel that they cannot neglect equally destitute localities in Ontario and Quebec. It is from these Provinces that the greater part of the contributions come that enable the Committee to do so much for Manitoba. To neglect therefore to supply the many necessitous districts in Central Canada and the rapidly growing stations in the West, and the handful of Protestants in the East, who are struggling to maintain Gospel ordinances, would inevitably weaken our Church in these older Provinces, and materially diminish our resources.

A carefully prepared appeal was sent to the various Churches in Great Britain in 1875, and published widely in their respective Records, and brought under the special notice of the Colonies Committees. Since that date, almost constantly in one form or another, similar appeals have been made, and the attention of the Churches in Scotland and Ireland called to the pressing claims of Manitoba and the North West. The present time, when by reason of great commercial depression, the funds of the Home Churches are barely able to maintain their own schemes, does not seem opportune to institute any special agency for collecting funds. Without, therefore, suggesting what steps should be taken to develop the liberality of the Churches in Britain and our own Church in Canada, to meet the pressing demands of the North West, the Committee simply lay the whole matter before the General Assembly for its serious consideration.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

In the name of the Committee,
WILLIAM COCHRANE,
CONVENER.

HOME MISSION REPORT.

(EASTERN SECTION.)

During the past year, fifty-seven agents were employed under the Committee as against fifty-one during the preceding year. Fourteen of these were ordained ministers, ten were licentiates, thirty were students preparing for the ministry, and three were men of piety and zeal recommended and asked for by Presbyteries on account of special aptitude for the work. The average of the time given by the students is about five months, but as two of the catechists were employed during the whole year, the average of the non-licentiates is thus raised to about six months.

For several years our vacant charges have been about twenty-five, for the supply of which thirteen preachers were reported in 1878, nineteen in 1879, but this year twenty-four have been employed, though not more than fifteen at any one season of the year; so that the work actually accomplished has not exceeded what might have been done by twelve missionaries employed steadily from the beginning to the end of the year.

For the first time for many years the ministerial force at the Committee's disposal was more than adequate to meet all the demands of Presbyteries and congregations. Many vacant charges sought only half supply, some from the want of funds and others because they acted on the Assembly's permission to provide for themselves, so that probationers had not constant employment; and the Committee had to decline offers of home missionaries from a distance who were willing to cast in their lot with us.

Of the twenty six charges reported vacant last year, fourteen now have settled pastors, and twelve remain as they were, and as other ten have become vacant since, the present number is twenty-four. These should furnish an ample field for the employment for the probationers on the list, and the six young preachers who issue from our Theological College this spring; and they will, if they rightly appreciate the value of a preached Gospel. During the year past congregations of size and ability sufficient to command the services of a preacher without interruption, have, from a mistaken economy, or in waiting till some paltry debt due to a former incumbent should be discharged, deprived themselves of the preaching of the Gospel for one, two, and three months at a time. If this course is continued, such congregations will become demoralized, the young lost to the Church and to society, and men who have prepared themselves for the pulpit be driven to other lands where their services will be wanted. The Committee would ask the hearty co-operation of the Presbyteries in impressing the vacant congregations with the fact that the Gospel and the public ordinances of religion are incalculably more valuable to churches, communities, and families than the money expended in the payment of the preacher.

The Committee would also record their conviction that the same desire to have cheap services has led, in some cases, to the employment of the catechist instead of the probationer, to the injury alike of the congregations, thus reduced as it were for a season to the state of mission stations, and dwarfed in their liberality, and of our licensed and ordained preachers, who find themselves unemployed while their places are occupied by young men who have scarcely commenced the study of theology.

SPECIAL FIELDS.

Besides our ordinary congregations, whose condition, though vacant, is, or should be, set forth in the statistical and financial tables of the General Assembly, there are four special fields respecting which some additional statements are called for. Two of these are in Newfoundland one in New Brunswick, and one in Nova Scotia.

I. BEDFORD, WAVERLEY, AND FALL RIVER.

The villages just named are about six miles apart, and ten and twelve miles from Halifax. Our adherents were too few to form a regular charge, and supply by catechist, tried for years, having failed of success, Rev. G. Christie, by request of people and Presbytery, took charge just two years ago. Then the average attendance at Bedford was only twenty; now, sixty. Waverley and Fall River, now from thirty to forty. Weekly prayer-meeting, then five or six; now twenty, at Bedford; at the other stations, fifty. Sabbath school at Bedford, six teachers and forty scholars; at Waverley and Fall River, twenty each. Families or portions of families, Bedford, forty-eight, visited, sixty-five; Waverley and Fall River, twenty-nine, visited, forty-three. The discouragements have been: limited sphere, apathy among the people, and the demoralizing influence of the overflow of the scum of the city on the Lord's day. But these have been met with hearty, earnest work, in season and out of season. The encouragements are the growth already indicated, to which may be added a communion-roll of thirty-two at Bedford, and thirty-six at Waverley and Fall River, in all sixty-eight, and the gathering of a church around Mr. Christie, whose removal would be regarded as a great loss to the community. The Presbytery of Halifax wish the effort maintained, and the Committee are of opinion that the appropriation made in its support is money well laid out.

II. NEW KINCARDINE.

The situation of this body of Scottish settlers in Victoria Co., N.B., has been described in former reports. They are still contending with the hardships and trials of a new settlement, on land which is not of the first quality. During the year, however, they have had good crops and raised all their own food. A few families have been added, making 97 in all, which have been ministered to during the past as well as the preceding year, very faithfully and with much labour, by Rev. S. Russell, who succeeded Rev. P. Melville.

There is one central building, Melville Church, and three others, stations, making in all four places of preaching; and divine service has been maintained with regularity in all. When the minister is absent services are held by the elders, who also conduct weekly prayer meetings, in each district. Bible classes are conducted by the minister on week days in winter, and in summer before or after public worship. In Sabbath school work great interest has been developed—teachers, 18; scholars, 151. On communion roll, 200. Baptisms, 14; deaths, 8; marriages, 2.

There are two hindrances to real progress which require removal; first, the central church—for such at least it was designed to be—is not properly attended, ordinarily not half filled. The minister goes to the people, instead of the people coming together in one place. There are too many stations, and practically no centre, and while this one is unremoved, the congregation will neither be united nor strong. Second, the spirit of self-support and liberality seems to require to be called forth. So far, not even the board and travelling expenses of the minister have been provided by the people, aided by a generous grant of £50 sterling for three years from the Colonial Committee of the Free Church. This committee has thus far paid in full the salary of the officiating minister; but this cannot be continued, and the committee has remitted to the Presbytery of St. John to mature arrangements to the effect that henceforward the people will assume a definite proportion of the salary to be provided. While this change must be made with tenderness and a due regard to the difficulties of the situation, the interests of the congregation itself, and the principles and policy of this Church require, that self-support and Christian giving should be cultivated from the first, and at all stages of church life and progress. ■

THE TOBIQUE.

Several settlements on the Tobique River have been visited by Mr. Russell monthly, for the last half year, viz., Three Brooks, Arthurette and Tilleyville, the last a new settlement under the Free Grants Act. Here are twelve families of Presbyterians, mixed up with other denominations. At Arthurette our members are smaller but the attendance large. At Three Brooks, our people, though not numerous, have shown great spirit and liberality in church building, having in the last two years nearly completed, and opened for public worship, one of the finest church edifices in the district, at a cost of $900 and free of debt. In this district the land is good, and settlers are coming in. They should have been provided for before this, and as they now have appealed for the services of an earnest catechist, and number twenty-five families, besides a mixed population, the committee have resolved: 1st, To appoint without delay a successor to Rev. S. Russell whose resignation has been reluctantly accepted; and, secondly, to send without delay a suitable catechist to the Tobique.

III. BAY OF ISLANDS, NEWFOUNDLAND.

This struggling congregation has been seriously crippled by the failure of the herring fishery and the almost total cessation of lumbering. Many families have been compelled to leave, besides fifty or sixty young men. The remnant will be unable to raise the amount of salary required. Reluctantly Mr. Creelman contemplates resignation of his charge, after the hard struggle of erecting church, manse and two school houses,—the latter built chiefly by the Presbyterians, though public property. From a membership of nine, when the church was organized three years ago, the roll increased to fifty-one, about half of whom have been compelled to leave. The Committee sympathizes with the pastor and people and cherishes the hope of some arrangement by which this interesting field will continue to be occupied.

IV. BETTS' COVE AND LITTLE BAY.

These are the names of copper-mining districts on the north-east coast of Newfoundland, where a company, at the head of which is Mr. Ellershausen, carries on extensive works in mining and shipping copper-ore for the European market. Two years ago the headquarters of the work was Betts' Cove, but during the past year Rev. A. Gunn, our missionary, has resided (and found his chief field of labour) at Little Bay. While Mr. Cruickshank occupied the field a church was erected and opened at the former place, and during the last year the same has been done at Little Bay. The building cost $1500, of which over $1000 were raised by the people themselves, $200 given by friends in St. John's, and with some aid from Harbour Grace, etc., the debt is small, and probably has been ere this entirely wiped out. Rev. L. G. McNeill opened the church, in connection with Mr. Gunn. The occasion was one of great gratitude and joy, the building being singularly beautiful and fitted for its objects, and the people as well as the ministers thankful that God had signally prospered them and blessed the work of their hands.

Mr. Gunn says: "At the Communion, three were admitted for the first time. Christian people generally commended, and the season was pleasant and profitable. Sabbath school in a healthy condition; seven teachers and librarian; scholars, sixty; volumes in library, seventy. Prayer meetings at church and near loading wharf, and catechumen's class for a time. Visitation.—There being no other resident minister among a population of from 1000 to 1500, Mr. Gunn visited every family, and frequently the afflicted, the great difficulty being to reach the young men living in mess houses."

"Betts' Cove supplied about once a month. Hall's Bay Mill, and Roberts' Arm visited; services well attended; but there are few Presbyterians in the latter place."

Mr. Gunn testifies to great kindness received from all the agents of the company, represented by Mr. Ellershausen, and says, of the people generally, "all attend our service. Some of our best friends are found among those not Presbyterians. May this good feeling continue. Our Church is well adapted for Mission work in these districts, because we are friendly with all and henceforth with kindly feelings toward one another."

The size of the congregation cannot in either place be properly expressed by the number of families, as many of the adherents are young men without family. In June last there were in Betts' Cove ninety-three Presbyterians, of whom thirty-three were children. Little Bay, 180 Presbyterians. In August the latter had drained off some from the former; the whole number being still slightly over 200. These facts bring out one of the ever-recurring difficulties of the situation, viz.: the fluctuating character of the congregation. Few of the members or supporters regard the place as their home, and if the minister is absent for a season he will find on his return that some of the people have disappeared, and their seats occupied by new comers.

Mr. Gunn has done his part well, has received great kindness from the office-bearers of the Company as well as from the common people, and his resignation having been accepted, the Committee are thankful that Mr. W. S. Whittier has accepted the invitation which they gave him to take up for a season the work which, well begun by Mr. Cruickshank, has been successfully followed out by Mr. Gunn.

The communion was dispensed in March for the first time at Little Bay.

STUDENT MISSIONARIES AND CATECHISTS.

These have been widely dispersed over the Maritime Provinces and in all the Presbyteries except Newfoundland, and Lunenburg and Yarmouth. The students were mainly from our own seminaries, but partly also from Princeton and Union Theological Seminaries; some were inland and some by the sounding sea, some in new fields and some in old, but with scarcely an exception they worked hard and gave excellent and productive service. The main facts are given in detail in an appended table, but in brief they may be thus stated:—Number of mission fields, 32; preaching stations, 114; average Sabbath attendance, 10,782; communicants, 1,738; families, 2,330; families visited, 2,475; average attendance at Sabbath school, 2,177; amount paid by stations, $3,232.84; by Home Mission Committee, $1,369.26. N.B.—The four special fields are not included in these figures.

Besides filling up the blank schedules some of the young men have furnished written reports more interesting than figures, and this practice should be the rule and not the exception; and from these a few extracts are presented.

IN THE PRESBYTERY OF MIRAMICHI.

Mr. J. H. Trussell from New York, who occupied the New Brandon district under superintendence of Rev. S. Houston, writes: "Five new members were added at the recent communion. I feel much more encouraged this year than last, and I think the field well worth looking after. Most of the people seem willing to do all they can. I took in a fourth station, Canoba, this year, and have been repaid, for two of the five new members live there. Neglected in the past, I trust it will not be overlooked in the future. It is worth looking after, and the field as a whole presents plenty of material to work on." In the same Presbytery Mr. Angus Sillars, presents a strong request to the Presbytery that Kouchibouguac and Kouchibouguais should not be abandoned for the six months of winter, but supplied, at least at intervals.

IN ST. JOHN PRESBYTERY.

More than in any other in the Maritime Provinces the mission fields are weak through division, not the division of Presbyterians among themselves, but through the existence of three or four denominations in every little village and settlement, no one being able to support a resident pastor. At Boiestown, at Baillie, at St. George's, in the Littleton district in the west, as well as Londonderry, and in the Hopewell district farther east, the same great hindrance comes out in every report. Still we gather that the Presbyterian cause, too long neglected, gains, and that the efforts of the Presbytery and its agents are not put forth in vain.

IN WALLACE PRESBYTERY.

Mr. J. H. Cameron reports of Upper Wentworth and Henderson settlements: "Presbyterians few, but increasing; field promising, one in which an active pastor could do much good, many belonging to no sect might be gathered in." Of Shemogue and Port Elgin, Mr. George reports: "This field is very promising owing to the sterling character of the Presbyterianism of the people. The supply should, if possible, be continued during the winter months."

IN HALIFAX PRESBYTERY.

Mr. McLaren, who supplied St. Croix and Ellershoushe, reports: "Conducted fifty-seven Sabbath services, seventeen prayer meetings, thirty-six Bible class meetings, and five funeral services. The Shorter Catechism and Bible lesson for Sabbath schools in advance, studied in Bible class. A prayer meeting also kept up by the elders and others at St. Croix on Sabbath morning. The Sabbath school at St. Croix was reorganized in spring with seven teachers and about forty scholars; also at Ardoise, with four teachers and twenty scholars. At Ellershouse there is a union Sabbath school with nine teachers and forty-five scholars. At St. Croix twenty attended Bible class, and at Ellershouse forty. Presbyterian families, 50; families visited, 97; Lord's supper administered at both places by Mr. Mowat, of Windsor, and by Mr. McNab, of Newport.

FINANCES.

In the matter of finance our report will compare favourably with last year. That closed with a debt of $1,807.04, and as that year was commenced with a balance on hand of $170.76, we really went behind to the sum of $1,477.80. During the year now closing we have paid off over $1000 of debt. Two sums of £60 and £50 stg., received from the Colonial Committee of the Free Church, for the benefit of Mr. E. Gillies, and of New Kincardine, have been passed over to their respective objects. Besides this, £100 stg. of the Free Church grant of £200 stg. came into our funds, but only to be paid out for the support of Manitoba College, so that our own funds have carried on our own ordinary Home Mission work. The state of the funds may be thus given:—

Debt at the commencement of the year	$1,807 04
Expenditure to May 1, 1880	4,679 41
Receipts		$5,986 45
		5,487 14
Balance due Treasurer		$499 81

Receipts above expenditure, and consequently debt reduced to the extent of $807.73.

The Committee would record their sense of deep obligation to the parent Churches, to the Colonial Committees of the Established and Free Churches of Scotland, and to the Presbyterian Church, Ireland; and though the greater part of their generous gifts have been passed over to the supplementing department of our work, the Committee feels none the less the value of such aid during a long night of commercial depression.

We would also be thankful to God for the progress and prosperity of the year closing. On many grounds, as it appears to this Committee, our people should feel constrained to prosecute this work. On the ground of patriotism and political economy, on the ground of kinship to those who need our help, on the ground of fidelity and loyalty to our own branch of the Church, but more especially on the ground of love to our Divine Master and zeal for His kingdom and glory, we should push forward this great work. The extension of the Church at home is the readiest, the nearest way for the advancement of Christ's kingdom; and we cannot, as a Church, abate our efforts in this department without bringing on ourselves dishonour and loss.

Further details are given in the subjoined appendices.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE DISTRIBUTION OF PROBATIONERS.

To the Venerable the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada:

Your Committee on the Distribution of Probationers for the year beginning with the 13th July, 1879, and ending with the 4th July next, have to report in the following terms:—

Four meetings have been held by the Committee in the course of the year, one shortly before the close of each quarter, according to the arrangements for distribution, at each of which reports were expected from Presbyteries of the vacancies in their bounds. The names of Probationers applying for appointments were submitted, and allocation of services was made in proportion to the demand and supply.

For the first quarter there were thirty-five Probationers and twenty-eight vacancies; for the second, forty-three; for the third, thirty-four; and for the fourth, thirty-five.

The total number of Probationers expected to fill the List of Probationers of those with names omitted from the Committee for the present was published.

In consequence of other proposals, Probationers seven; for the In some and when in a satisfactory the work was As in for were Probationers services, some this evil has Presbyterian prompt in the Gospel of Christ.

second, forty-three Probationers and thirty-six vacancies; for the third, thirty Probationers and thirty-four vacancies; and for the fourth, twenty-three Probationers and eighteen vacancies.

The total number of vacancies reported during the year was sixty-nine, and of these thirty-three had settlements effected, thus leaving thirty-six, which, instead of eighteen, is the number one would expect to find on the scheme for the current quarter. Of these settlements fifteen were from the List of Probationers, the others being translations from one pastoral charge to another, or settlements of those without charge, whose names had not been placed at the disposal of the Committee.

Forty-nine names of Probationers were on the roll, some of them for longer or shorter periods, and others for the entire year. Of these, as just stated, fifteen accepted calls they had received from congregations, and entered upon the work of a stated ministry; three have withdrawn; one has gone to Scotland; another is labouring in the North-West; one in Muskoka; one applied, we have not heard with what result, to be received by the United Presbyterian Church of North America; two have had their names dropped, having completed their period of probation, and two have had their names omitted from the roll for the current quarter because of certain representations made to the Committee by Presbyteries in whose bounds they had been labouring, thus leaving twenty-three on for the present quarter, for, while some of those on the printed list have been settled since that list was published, others have applied to be put on and have taken their places.

In consequence of many of the vacancies insisting on the privilege of procuring one-half, or some other proportion of their own supply, your Committee have not been able to give full work to the Probationers. The number of Sabbaths to each one for the first quarter was six; for the second, seven; for the third, ten; and seven for the fourth.

In some instances Probationers refused to go into the Presbyteries to which they were appointed, and when instances of this were reported to your Committee further appointments were withheld till a satisfactory explanation was afforded, on the ground that there were plenty of men willing to take the work assigned them.

As in former years the Committee have had before them letters from ministers who, when they were Probationers, had supplied certain vacancies, but had not received remuneration for their services, some of them having lain out of their money for a considerable period. It is believed that this evil has greatly diminished in the Church, but there are cases of it still, particularly in one Presbytery. Is it too much to expect that Presbyteries would instruct vacancies in their duty to be prompt in the discharge of their obligations to those who have been sent to minister to them in the Gospel of Christ?

No means have been available to your Committee for ascertaining whether Presbyteries have adopted steps to induce congregations to pay Probationers as liberally as possible.

The Committee would most earnestly, yet respectfully, call the attention of your Venerable Court to the resolution adopted by the General Assembly at its last meeting by a majority over amendments in opposition to it, in the following words: "That Presbyteries correspond through their clerks with the Committee, indicating the names of those Probationers whose services are not desired by the vacant congregations within their bounds, and that the Committee be authorized to act in accordance with the expressed wishes of the Presbyteries in regard to this matter;" and would strongly recommend that it be at once repealed, for they are persuaded that it proceeds on a wrong principle, that it is invidious in its character, and that it can be, if it has not already been, used to do serious injury to Probationers. As illustrative of its working it may be mentioned that at the first meeting of the Committee after last Assembly one Presbytery sent in the names of seventeen Probationers, or just the one-half of those on the list for the quarter preceding to whom they took exception; another objected to all the names but four, that is to thirty; while another stated that they did not wish to receive any that were objected to by others. Your Committee have felt great difficulty in working this regulation, and believing it to be unsound, harsh and oppressive, they would recommend its repeal.

Appendices are subjoined giving the lists of Vacancies and Probationers, with settlements for the year.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUPPLEMENTS.

(MARITIME PROVINCES, 1879-1880.)

The Committee has prosecuted its work during the year past with considerable anxiety and difficulty, but with a fair measure of success. For the last three years the expenditure had exceeded the receipts, so that, notwithstanding special appeals, and in some cases double contributions, the year closed with a balance of $1,084.28 against the fund.

The instructions of the Assembly, in reference to the half-yearly payment coming due on July 1st, were, that a temporary loan might be made, so that half the amount should be paid at once, but that nothing more should be paid till such temporary loan should be refunded, and means furnished by congregations to meet the claim in full, it being understood, however, that the old loan of $1,084.28 should remain during the current year undischarged.

The Committee have to report that these instructions have been faithfully carried out. On the 1st July, $1,347.24 were paid, $1,000 from loan and the balance from contributions. Of course this payment was just the half of what was due, and it was not till the month of October that the funds enabled the Treasurer, after repayment of loan, to discharge the other half.

Of the payments coming due January 1st, 1880, one-half was remitted about the middle of January, and the other in the month of February, so that the ministers on the fund, while experiencing the inconvenience of delay and the painfulness of uncertainty, have enjoyed in common with others the pleasure of seeing on the part of many of our people a hearty determination that they should sustain no real loss.

For the year past forty-five congregations were on the list, about one-fourth of which had no pastor, and these drew nothing, so that the actual recipients of the benefit were thirty-nine. Some of these being for a month or two only, the number for the year may be set down at thirty-six, but that means that about every fourth congregation is supplemented and that three out of every four have to provide about forty dollars each for the fourth, a state of things most unfavourable for further enlargement of the number. The payments have been:—

During the year fewer congregations have contributed to the Fund than in the year preceding, but the sum received from them has been greater by $286.79. The subjoined statement shows the number of congregations contributing, with the amounts received from and paid to each Presbytery. For the sake of comparison the receipts are given for two years.

It will be seen from these figures that the credit of the increase belongs to the Presbyteries of Truro, Prince Edward Island, Miramichi, Newfoundland, Victoria and Richmond, and Halifax, all the other Presbyteries having given less than during the year preceding. In Truro Presbytery every congregation has given, and all, including the supplemented charges, have given liberally. The Committee deeply regret that, in the present condition of the Fund, with revenues from without likely to be, at least partially, withdrawn, that the congregations contributing should be reduced instead of increased; for it renders the reduction of the grants inevitable. Between forty and fifty congregations have given nothing.

Having presented the facts in connection with the year past, the Committee have next to give a brief account of their deliberations and recommendations as regards the future.

THE FUTURE.

When the Committee met at Truro on the 23rd December, to make arrangements for the future, they found themselves confronted with the following facts. First, that there was a debt against the fund of $1,084.28; secondly, that for the present year, it would be scarcely possible to make any reduction in that debt; thirdly, that they had notice of probable withdrawal of aid by the Colonial Committee of the Church of Scotland; and, fourthly, that the General Assembly required them to bring their expenditure within their income.

In these circumstances, reduction of grants was simply unavoidable; and the main question before the Committee was this—By what principle shall this reduction be regulated? Two proposals had been before the Committee on former occasions, and had in turn been adopted, but never carried out. One was the rigid application of the rules of the General Assembly, and the other was a pro rata reduction. After the fullest consideration the following resolution, moved by Rev. E. A. McCurdy, and seconded by Rev. J. A. Chase, was adopted, it being previously ascertained that all Presbytery congregations and ministers had been notified that it was the intention of the Committee to be guided in future appropriations by the rules of the General Assembly, of which a copy had been furnished:

"Whereas it is of great importance that the supplementing fund be administered in strict accordance with the rules laid down by the General Assembly, and

"Whereas there is reason to believe that the immediate rigorous enforcement of these rules would bear hardly on some of the supplemented congregations, and injuriously affect not a few of their Pastors, and

"Whereas it is believed that the granting of supplements directly proportioned in amount to the measure in which the respective congregations have complied with the regulations of the supreme Court, would be at once equitable, and tend to secure a more general observance of the same:

"Therefore resolved, That for the ensuing half year, congregations which have complied with all the regulations of the Assembly receive the full amount of their claim; those which have complied with three, ninety per cent. of their claim; those which have complied with two, eighty per cent.; those which have complied with one, seventy per cent.; and those which have complied with none, be dealt with each on its own merits, with the understanding that in no case shall an amount be granted, more than fifty per cent. of the claim. Congregations which have given notice that they intend to present no claim after the current ecclesiastical year to be dealt with as special cases."

After consideration this resolution was unanimously accepted as tentative, and the Committee proceeded to apply it to the claims just read. The four tests being:—

First, Amount of salary paid by people $400.

Secondly, Contributions made to the schemes of the Church and returned in the statistics.

Thirdly, Contributions to ministerial support at the rate of $7 per family.

Fourthly, Contributions at the rate of $1.50 per communicant.

Repeatedly in years past congregations came forward and voluntarily set free funds which they had been accustomed to receive; and the Committee have noticed that they never suffered from their public spirit, but on the contrary were benefited by their generous action. To withdraw funds without such concurrence is quite as painful to the Committee as it is distasteful to the congregations and Presbyteries affected; but the Committee had to choose between such action and disregard of the counsels, and disobedience to the commands, of the General Assembly. And as respects the principle or mode of carrying out the reduction acknowledged to be unavoidable, the Committee will surely not be placed on the defensive for beginning by making closer application of the laws of the Assembly, which, even if funds were abundant, they have no right to ignore.

With these remarks they submit, for the approval of the General Assembly, the results of the application of these regulations in reference to the year now current. The subjoined list has been reviewed at a meeting of the Committee held in Chatham, N. B., on the 26th of May, and modified in some particulars on further information furnished by Presbyteries.

NOTES.—1. New Carlisle is yet to be visited by a deputation of Presbytery; but the claim is set down at $200 because that was the former grant. 2. The word new indicates that the settlement has been so recent that the pastor has had no opportunity of furnishing statistics, or of making a year's collection for the schemes. In all cases the grants are conditioned on compliance with the rules of the General Assembly.

In conclusion, the Committee would thankfully acknowledge the liberality and great kindness of the parent Churches, whose donations have already been named. They have also to acknowledge receipt of $250 from the Committee of Management of the Record, through Mr. Croil, but for which the expenditure would have exceeded income by the sum of $183.05. It is, therefore, only by aid from without that our balance of debt has been reduced from $1,084.28 to $1,017.33, so that the fund is not by any means in a satisfactory condition. In less than two months the first semi-annual payment for 1880 will be due, and when the time comes the treasurer will not be in funds. Unless authorized by the General Assembly to make a temporary loan, as they did last year, to be repaid within the year, they have no course open but to pay pro rata. The Committee have, therefore, to ask the General Assembly for instructions, as they can recommend no further reduction for the present year. In any case, they must earnestly ask for early collections, alike from the congregations which ignored this fund last year, and from those who did support it. In prospect of the withdrawal of a portion of the aid hitherto enjoyed from Britain, our engagements cannot be met, unless the principle which underlies every sustentation and supplementary fund, be fully recognized and acted out: that we are all brethren; that the Church is one, though having many members; and that a primary duty of the stronger members is to shew sympathy with the weaker in their difficulties, and to help them in their struggles for congregational existence and progress. Equally is it the duty of the smaller and weaker members to help themselves, to the full extent of their ability, developing the principle of self-support, and by persevering efforts pushing their way up to independence. Were such results to shew themselves to any considerable extent, they would greatly encourage the Committee, and give the fund a new and most telling claim on the support of the whole Church.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JAMES SINCLAIR, Chairman.
P. G. MCGREGOR, Secretary.

REPORT.

The record of the year is one of deep interest, and calls for grateful acknowledgment of the tender mercies of our Heavenly Father towards the missionaries, and of the good hand of our God upon the Church in blessing her foreign mission work. In both of the mission fields watched over by the Eastern Section of the Assembly's Committee, progress has been evident, while its modes of manifestation have been as varied as are the circumstances and habits of the Polynesians and of the East Indians, of the people of the New Hebrides and the coolies of Trinidad.

As no appointment to either field has been made by the Committee, and as nothing unusual has occurred in their deliberations or actions, it will be advisable to turn attention at once to "the work," first in the New Hebrides, and secondly in Trinidad.

NEW HEBRIDES MISSION.

This mission, originating with the late Dr. Geddie—who was soon joined by Rev. John Inglis, of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of Scotland,—has received accessions repeatedly from Australia and New Zealand, as well as from this country, until, notwithstanding its severe losses, it has a mission Synod of twelve clerical members and a mission ship, connecting, as it were, all the mission stations on different islands with one another and with Australia and New Zealand.

Twenty-three ministers have been in this field, of whom two died by violence, and six from natural causes, while four retired. Eleven remain, and met last year in Synod as usual for discussion, review and prayer. The meeting was held at Dillon's Bay, Erromanga, and the brethren were all accommodated on shore, chiefly at Mr. Robertson's. The business was most harmoniously and pleasantly conducted, and the mission as a whole was found to be steadily progressive. Mr. Lawrie has taken charge at Ananue, Aneiteum. Mr. Michelson was appointed to Tangra, and the mission Synod regarded the whole aspects of the mission as indicative of advancement.

The work is one, and in the labours of every missionary, and the condition of every island, we are interested; but our limits forbid us to enter into any details, except in reference to the work of the three labourers who are supported by this Church.

ANEITEUM

Has up to a recent date enjoyed the services of two ordained missionaries, of Mr. Inglis at Ananue, and lately of Mr. Annand, at Anelcauhat. Mr. Inglis having returned to Britain to superintend the publication of the Old Testament, Rev. Mr. Copland supplied his place for four months, after which the charge of both sides of the island devolved on Mr. Annand. Mr. Lawrie, a layman, has been sent out by the Free Church of Scotland, and has in great measure relieved Mr. Annand by taking up the work at Ananue. The population is still decreasing, and at present amounts only to 1150. In Ananue 585, with a communion roll of 273. Anelcauhat, population 565, roll 243. The further statistics of Mr. Annand for the year, are—suspended, 10; restored, 12; added to roll, 1; candidates' class, 6; baptisms, 1 adult and 8 infants; communion dispensed three times; marriages, 18; public worship every Sabbath in four churches; Sabbath schools, 18; prayer meetings, five weekly; day schools, 20. Normal school for the training of teachers, but admitting all who desire to be instructed, meets four days a week for four months; on roll 40; attendance not generally regular; fourteen prizes given at the closing to reward attendance and diligence. The school is furnished with globes, maps and magic lantern, besides common school furniture.

The event of the year has been the receipt and diffusion among the people of the second volume of the Old Testament, in the language of the Aneiteumese, to be speedily followed by the first volume, which has since been printed, and will reach the people during the present year. This work, the first Bible in any of the native languages of Western Polynesia, is a monument to the joint labours of the late Rev. Dr. Geddie and Rev. John Inglis, has been printed by the British and Foreign Bible Society, but paid for by the arrow-root contributions of the Aneiteumese themselves.

Mr. Annand states that in his district three hundred were immediately distributed, and the reading of "the Book" commenced immediately, so that the current year is likely to prove one of literary, and let us hope also of religious revival.

With the entire Bible, they will soon have new editions of the First Catechism of the Assembly's Shorter Catechism, fifty Hymns set to tunes, Pilgrim's Progress, abridged, and some other pamphlets, placing them quite in advance in native literature.

Mr. Annand, from whose report most of these facts are culled, states that he has prosecuted his work this year with much comfort, and though his addition as respects church membership is small, he adds that progress is not to be judged so much by growth in the communion roll, as by the improved conduct of the people. This has been somewhat marked, and though he thinks his announced departure for Sydney, and their expressed fear that God would take him away from them on account of their sins, had their influence, the fact remains, that the year 1879 has been the most encouraging of any during his missionary life. When the time for a separation of a few months arrived, many tears were shed, and much unfeigned affection was displayed in various ways. We have only to add, without any reference to the last year, the testimony of Dr. Steel, an eye witness and visitor, extracted from his work on the New Hebrides Mission just published,— "Their morals have undergone a great change. From the fierce cannibals of fifty years ago, to whose coast it was dangerous for strangers to approach, they have been transformed into a quiet, inoffensive people, living in the fear of God, at unity with each other, and amidst the usual temptations to fall, keeping up a consistent profession of the faith of Christ."

ERAFATE

There are two missionaries on this island, Mr. McDonald, son-in-law to the late Dr. Geddie, and Mr. McKenzie, our own missionary, and the subjoined statements are drawn from the report of the latter respecting his own work and mission field.

The infant school at Erakor, taught by Mrs. McKenzie, has been unusually encouraging, having over forty in regular attendance. Besides the usual classes for teachers and candidates, another has been held attended by twenty young men. All professing Christians attend church and Sabbath school more or less regularly. Nine elders give occasional aid, when requested at prayer meeting, and Dr. Steel's testimony may be again given. "This church has been shining on the darkness around, but the darkness has not yet comprehended it. The influence has nevertheless been felt, and the way has been opened for other missionaries by the success at Erakor and Pango. It is a marvellous contrast to see the decently clothed, well conducted people there, compared with the naked savages all around."

Here, also, something is being attempted to evolve the principle of giving. Last year, as a first effort, one cask of arrow-root was raised and sold; but this year they expect to raise what will help to pay for the printing of the Acts of the Apostles, which is being carried through the press while

Mr. McKenzie is at Sydney.* They have already Genesis, the Gospels of St. Mark, St. Luke, and St. John, Hymn Book, Catechism and Primers, and with the Acts of the Apostles, they will take rank in respect of privilege next to the Aneiteumese.

Mr. McKenzie's departure on furlough, brought forth indications of attachment similar to those displayed on Aneiteum. He has been longer with his people, and the progress made during his pastorate of the last seven years and upwards, is presented by himself in the subjoined review:

"When we settled we found two villages, Erakor and Pango, professedly Christian, but the darkness of the surrounding villages was as dense as it was when missionaries first set foot on the island. As soon as I had a knowledge of their language sufficient to enable me to hold intercourse with them I began to itinerate, taking Christian natives with me. The first village we visited was Eratap, one of the most ferocious on the whole island. About the time that Dr. Geddie settled in Aneiteum teachers were settled there by the L. M. Society's missionaries, but they had to soon flee for their lives. When the next effort was made to introduce the Gospel they clubbed one of the party to death. About 1875 we sent them a teacher, a native of Erakor, but they soon drove him away. We persevered, however, and at length by the blessing of God on our efforts they were crowned with success. We have now a church there with nineteen members, and as many more attend the candidates' class. Of the church members four visit in turn a distant heathen village.

"The next place we visited was Bufo. The first time we went there we were forbidden to return; but as their opposition went no further than words, we did not heed it. Although our success has been checkered, our labour has not been in vain. About twenty have joined the worshipping party; the rest still cling to their old ways. We have lately succeeded in settling a teacher among them, and although they carry on their heathen customs, most of them listen to his instructions on Sabbath. Of the twenty who moved to the Christian villages, four are church-members, and three attend the candidates' class. The other two villages we have been visiting are Fila and Woruntubou. At the former we have from time to time encountered much opposition. It is one of the most influential villages on the island, and the work has been much retarded at some of the inland villages by the hostility of the Fila natives. Were they to renounce heathenism the cause would, I believe, make much more rapid progress on the island.

"There are still a large number of villages away in the interior of the island, which we hope to be able to overtake some day. War, cannibalism, and infanticide still prevail to a large extent. Indeed it is but the day of small things on the Island of Efate. But my brother missionary, Mr. McDonald, on the other side of the island, is labouring away zealously and successfully, so I hope that in due time it shall all be won for Christ.

"In 1872 we found thirty-nine church members in good standing. Since that time I admitted sixty and restored a number who were under suspension. Of this number some have died and others have been suspended, so that now we have eighty-one in good standing on the roll.

ERROMANGA.

Mr. Robertson reports abundant opportunities for direct missionary work with his people generally, and at Dillon's Bay especially the people were more anxious than ever before to improve the various classes within their reach. These are first, early morning prayer with instruction in Scripture truth from Genesis, St. Matthew's Gospel, or Catechism,† conducted generally by a teacher, sometimes by the missionary. At nine a.m. Mrs. Robertson's class for children six years of age and upwards to eleven, the older scholars remaining for writing, and the girls to sew. This class is bringing forward young people whom Mr. Robertson regards as the hope of the missionary, who, if they continue as they are now doing, will by consistent conduct and fair attainments, command the respect of all, whether Christian or heathen. From January to April, Mr. R. conducted a class for young men in reading, writing, singing, and elements of arithmetic. Besides these efforts for the good of those dwelling around Dillon's Bay, Mr. Robertson, as his report shews, has visited all the near side of the island, and succeeded in settling a teacher at Unepang, from which he was repulsed a year ago. The further encouragements noted are, relinquishment of heathenism by Kawawi, a chief and son of one of the murderers of John Williams, the co-operation of the Christian natives, in manning his boat for missionary visits, digging a well, thatching roof, cutting and bringing firewood, thus in their own way acquiring some acquaintance with the bliss of giving. One dark cloud throws its shadow over a scene otherwise very cheering, and as the missionary wrote, so we must all bear with sorrow, that labour vessels have allured away many of the young people who were under Christian instruction, and one teacher; the whole number drained from that part of the island being about one hundred in less than six months. "Lord, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph, and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves? They break in pieces Thy people, O Lord, and afflict Thine heritage."

* The Acts were printed before Dr. Steel left Sydney.

† Henceforward they will have also the Acts of the Apostles.

THE "DAYSRING."

The mission ship of the Presbyterian children in Canada, Scotland, Australia and New Zealand, has done her work well during the year, having made her two voyages to Sydney, visited all the mission stations repeatedly, besides making exploring voyages to heathen islands. Follow her for near half a year commencing with last October. She left Sydney on the 9th, reaching the Loyalty Islands on the 19th, and landing Rev. S. Ella of the London Missionary Society at Lefon. Having reached Aneiteum on the 22nd, she sailed for the islands north on the 23rd, landing mails and stores at all the stations and returning. On November 11th she sailed again on a cruise to the northern islands and anchored in St. Jago Bay, Espiritu Santo on the 19th, sailing again on the 21st, and cruising down the west coast, she fell in with the schooner "Stanley," bound to Fiji with 161 natives for the labour market. The "Dayspring," reached Havannah Harbour, Efate, December 1st, and sailing south on the 4th, met in the evening the Episcopal mission vessel, the "Southern Cross," with Bishop Selwyn, and natives receiving very different treatment from those on the "Stanley," and being conveyed to a very different institution, the Norfolk Training School and Missionary College. Mr. Paton and the captain boarded the sister mission ship, and their visit was heartily welcomed, and returned by the Bishop and his party, who left with prayers, expressions of good will, and gifts. "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity." The mutual greetings on this happy occasion shew that the old feelings of good will and sympathy which the first Bishop Selwyn always displayed toward our missionaries, especially to Dr. Geddie and Mr. Inglis, live in the son and are shared by his coadjutors. In truth the incident is a beautiful vision upon those seas so often crimsoned with blood. But night is coming on, and these messengers of peace hold on their respective courses, the one to Norfolk Island and the other to Aneiteum.

On December 17th the "Dayspring" sailed for Sydney which she reached on the 31st, and there landed Rev. Joseph Copland, with Rev. Messrs. McKenzie and Annand with their families, and having visited Melbourne, and being refitted, she has sailed again, and by this time doubtless has restored our missionaries to their island homes and gathered their brethren to their annual Synodical Meeting. To aid in supporting this vessel is therefore a work every way worthy of our Sabbath schools.

TRINIDAD MISSION.

The work here shews decided progress, which will appear from a brief notice, first, of the respective fields; and secondly, of steps in advance, common to them all, and specially to the two districts which have been under culture for the longest period.

In noticing the work in the respective districts, it must be remembered that 1879 was the year of Mr. Christie's furlough for six months, which, by the Committee's request, was extended to eight.

COUVA.—MR. CHRISTIE'S ABSENCE.

Mr. Christie's labours in his own field were only four months. Messrs. Morton and Grant supplied one third of the remaining Sabbaths, and reliable catechists, sent alternately by them, the other third. The services in the church and in the hospitals were thus regularly maintained and efficiently conducted; and, though the missionary or evangelist generally remained for a day or two, still, as might be expected, the schools suffered from the absence of the resident missionary. For other reasons, approved by the Mission Council, the Perseverance and Spring schools have been closed, leaving under Mr. Christie's charge Esperanza, Sevilla, Camden and Exchange, attendance on which will be given under another heading. Baptism, four adults and two infants. Collections, £18 11s. 1d. stg.

SAVANNA GRANDE.

The whole work in Mr. Morton's district has been pushed forward with great vigour and success. At the mission where Mr. Morton resides, now called Princetown, in commemoration of the visit of the sons of the Prince of Wales, services have been regularly conducted with increasing interest; and from this, as from a centre, inroads have been made in different directions upon surrounding heathenism. First, the Gospel has been preached and a school conducted at the Morichal by Joseph Annajee, who has proved a valuable aid.

At Peparo, in the same direction, an opening has been embraced, land purchased and donated by Mr. Morton for a building, and $350 raised for a church and school building, which, with a residence for Joseph Annajee, will require in all about $900, which Mr. Morton expects to raise without making any call on our funds.

At St. Julien's Village, three and a-half miles above Princetown, a house has been rented at $3 per month for school and Sabbath services, to be conducted by Mr. Morton and alternately by Akbar Ali, recently engaged as teacher and catechist.

At Mount Stewart a new school-house has been built at a cost of $350, in a better place, and more suitable for permanence and progress.

SAN FERNANDO.

Mr. Grant reports that "The work has been prosecuted in the usual way. Mission schools have received a large amount of attention, and the Word has been preached on nearly every day of the week as well as on Sabbath. Education and the Gospel travel together in friendly intercourse."

The stations regularly supplied were substantially the same as those reported last year, extending over twenty estates. The public religious services are with very few exceptions in the Hindustani, respecting which Mr. Grant says—and his statements apply generally—"Your catechists have done much in this year to give instruction in Hindustani. On estates it is the language spoken; children take to it more readily in schools, parents can note progress, and more readily use their influence to send the children to school. Adults, too, in evening classes, have received much attention during the year. At Lal Behari's station above twenty adults have been taught to read in their own language with considerable freedom. Those who apply themselves to read generally attend church. Services in English and Hindustani have been regularly maintained in San Fernando, and in the Hindustani in three out-stations every Lord's day. Other stations receive supply, but not with the same regularity. Your catechists, Lal Behari, Sadaphal, and Jai-pargal-lal have laboured with much fidelity, and C. C. Soodeen and others have been ready to any call to duty. We have all laboured hard and with some success. In the year we have added to our baptismal roll sixty names; thirty-seven of these are adults and twenty-three children, all of whom are under religious instruction."

General Statement.

Having thus referred briefly to the aspect of the work in the different parts of this mission field, let us next turn to a few signs of life and progress which can be advantageously viewed in connection.

SCHOOLS.

There are two high schools, one at Princetown and the other at San Fernando. Respecting the first, which is supported by the Halifax Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, Mr. Morton acknowledges gratefully obligations, not only to these ladies, but to Miss Blackadder, the faithful and successful teacher. Her services, he says, have been very valuable and deserve special mention. She has also taken the whole charge of three orphan girls, and of several children who lived on the premises here to attend school.

With an equal appreciation of the value of education as the handmaid of direct mission work, Mr. Grant thus speaks of his schools in general and of his high school in particular:—"Our school-roll shews 448 pupils, of whom 278 were in daily attendance. Our San Fernando school, in the hands of J. W. Corbie, who had the advantage of two years' instruction at the Galt Institute, is doing well. No pressure is now required to secure a satisfactory attendance. The success of this school is closely linked with the prosperity of our English-speaking congregation. Hence the importance of sustaining its efficiency."

PREPARATION OF HELPERS.

Though the subjoined notes are written by Mr. Grant they may be accepted as substantially the course pursued generally in reference to those who teach and conduct services at the out-stations.

"All my helpers and teachers, and monitors too, meet every Saturday for instruction. Each teacher reports, in the first place, the condition of his school; if there be any falling off he is expected to account for it in a satisfactory way. The catechists tell of the visits they have paid, and report any special encouragements which they have had. There is generally something reported that is fitted to awaken gratitude, to strengthen hope, to stimulate to increased exertion.

"Then we take up Geography, History or Arithmetic for an hour, rarely more than one of these on any day. Afterwards we come to the study of God's Word. The Acts of the Apostles, with the Epistles, have occupied our attention principally. We are supplied with good maps of Bible lands, which I purchased when at home, four years ago, and with these aids I think our young people have obtained a pretty intelligent idea of the relation of places, the travels of the Apostles, the condition of the cities visited, and the peculiar difficulties encountered. The subject for Sabbath is prepared by me beforehand, and carefully gone over with them, so that each goes out in some measure prepared for the work of the following day. The exercises occupy from four to five hours. Lal Behari always takes some portion of the work for my relief. This class is attended regularly by about twelve young men, and its exercises have an important bearing on the work of the mission. At its close appointments are made for the Sabbath, and generally in such a way as to relieve the teacher of the week from duty on the Sabbath in his own district. I am well sustained by my assistants, and a good work is in progress.

"It will thus be seen that every teacher is 'like a scribe, well-instructed unto the kingdom of heaven,' and goes forth as from a theological seminary or a religious retreat, to make known the way of life.

In the number and prosperity of the mission schools, we have one gratifying proof of the vitality of the mission."

SELF-SUPPORT.

Another evidence of vitality is the development of the principle of self-support. Even in the Couva district, from which the missionary was absent two-thirds of the year, collections to the extent of £18 sterling are reported. In the Savanna Grande district a new school-house at Mount Stewart has gone up at a cost of $350, but without charge to us. At Princetown the collections for the year (notwithstanding great depression from the unprecedentedly low price of sugar and consequent reduction of wages) were, adults, $103.37; children, $12.91. In future, however, they have undertaken to meet their own incidental expenses and also to pay Akbar Ali $132 per annum for teaching and evangelizing at St. Julien's Village. In the Peparo district $350 have been raised for building, and the aim is to raise the whole sum of $800. These sums are drawn, it is true, from various sources, but according to their means the Christianized Orientals are doing their full share.

When we look at the returns of the San Fernando district the principle of self-support is still more strikingly developed. In the San Fernando church, the weekly collections amount to £114 9s. 11d. and the special collections for repairs to £76 4s. 5d.—total $927.52; and for the next year that spirited little church of Orientals, lately emerging into the light and joy of Christian liberty, has resolved to raise one hundred pounds sterling of the salary of Mr. Grant.

There is another source of support for which we should be deeply thankful, both on account of the value of the contributions and because of the unequivocal evidence thus afforded of the estimation in which our men are held and of public confidence in their work. The planters contribute to the work, chiefly of course to the schools:

In San Fernando	£245 8 4
" Savanna Grande	65 0 0
" Couva	385 4 2
		£695 12 6

Valuable as this aid is, and encouraging as it is to our missionaries when they go forth scattering the precious seed with weeping, still more significant, and still more cheering are the free-will offerings of these neophytes, who show that they have already learned the truth of the words of the Lord Jesus, "That it is more blessed to give than to receive."

NATIVE WORKERS.

Among the signs of progress the deep interest evinced by converts in promoting the cause of Christ among their fellow-countrymen should be noted. The departure of Balaran for India has not yet been made up to Mr. Christie, but in Tejjadder and other teachers he has aids not to be despised. Mr. Morton gives us the names of helpers old and new to the number of at least eight, including Joseph Annajee, Akbar Ali, at St. Julien; John Gobin at Jordan Hill, John Dharm (or Banks) at Mt. Stewart, Alexander Banawa at Peparo, Francis Mewa (or Ramkbelawan), and Jeffery Sabarn, living near the mission and giving aid.

Mr. Grant also makes grateful mention of the services of Messrs. Corabie, Lal Behari, Sadaphal, Telaksingh, Soodeen, and as many as ten others, teachers or mentors, directly engaged in mission work. The reading of these reports recalls the last chapter of the Epistle to the Romans, in which the great missionary who indited that letter, names with such grateful recognition and remembrance those who had laboured with him in the Gospel. This is a feature in the Trinidad mission of deepest interest.

CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

But another step is being taken. The missionaries and the Presbytery of Trinidad expressed the opinion, about nine months ago, that the time had come for entertaining the question of ordaining to the office of the ministry, some of the promising young evangelists engaged in mission work, and prepared a syllabus of such standard of attainment as might be regarded as necessary in the circumstances. This Committee expressed sympathy with the proposal, and the Presbytery of Trinidad have proceeded thus far. Two candidates have offered, and having prosecuted a course of study, have been once and again examined by the Presbytery, approved, so far as the examinations proceeded, and encouraged to persevere in their studies; the whole subject to be submitted for the sanction of the General Assembly. It thus appears highly probable, that in a short time, we shall have these two proved evangelists presiding over Indian churches and occupying seats in the Presbytery of Trinidad.

FURTHER ENCOURAGEMENT.

At a meeting of the Mission Council held near the close of the year, Mr. Grant reported that the Government had agreed to give £30 stg. per annum for each of the following settlements, Montserrat and Tenguia, in Mr. Morton's district, and Barrackpore, Fyzabad, and Russillac, in his own field. These schools are designed chiefly for the benefit of coolies who have settled on Crown lands and they are placed, under the charge of the missionaries who have commended themselves to the governing authorities as equally the friends of education and of the Indian settlers. In brief it may be further stated, that whether land is provided by the Government, which is done where a suitable site is in their possession, or provided by the efforts of the missionary, these schools will all soon be in operation, and for them no demand for any charge has yet been made upon home funds. The special advantage is that the missionaries are thus aided in following to their places of settlement those who have been impressed with Divine truth on the estates, and by education and the Gospel bringing such cases to a successful issue.

Three points are subjoined in connection with this statement. First, that so far as the Trinidad mission is concerned the sum contributed by the Church is very nearly equalled by amounts raised on the island from sources already indicated in this report. For the past calendar year the following is the proportion:—

The second explanation refers to present indebtedness. The year commenced with debt on the first account $1,513.78, on the second $2,607.49; total $4,121.27. It closes with debt on the first reduced to $365.98, and on the second to $1,995.92, total $2,361.90, as against $4,121.27.

Crerar Reserve Fund, now exhausted	689 12
.....	$1,759 37

The third is, that the Crerar Reserve has been expended. James Crerar, Esq., late of Picton, made the Foreign Mission Board, and the British and Foreign Bible Society residuary legatees of his will, which resulted in the receipt by the Board of nearly $10,000. Though it was entirely unrestricted by conditions the Board decided that it should be a reserve fund, to be drawn upon, chiefly for such extra demands as houses, land if necessary, boats for New Hebrides missionaries, house repairs, and outfit for missionaries. For twelve years it has done excellent service, and was the chief factor in purchase and payment of three houses in which the Trinidad missionaries reside, in several churches and boat purchases, and the interest occasionally aided our annual revenues. During the last two years it has been drawn upon to reduce debt, which, if all had done their part well, would never have become necessary. In applying the last portions of it in this way the Committee, though reluctant, concluded that it was the wisest appropriation of it which they could make in the circumstances. They direct attention to the fact that henceforth all extras will be required to be met from ordinary revenues.

REV. DR. STEEL.

In anticipation of the presence of Rev. Dr. Steel, of Sydney, N.S.W., at the meeting of the General Assembly, the Committee most cordially passed the following resolution at their meeting held May 12th:—"The Board desire to express the high gratification which they experience at the statement just made by their Secretary that he had information to the effect that Dr. Steel, our agent in Sydney, had arrived in America, and expected to attend the General Assembly at Montreal, in June, and would record their deep sense of the value of the services which, for many years, he has rendered to the New Hebrides mission, and trust that his recently published work on that mission, and the information which they trust he will lay before the General Assembly by address, will revive the interest of the whole Church in the evangelization of that whole group."

REV. JOHN STEWART.

The great Master having removed from the Church on earth this venerable father, long known as a zealous friend of, and worker for, Foreign Missions, the Committee have entered on their minutes the subjoined record:—

"It having pleased the Great Head of the Church to remove from the earthly vineyard the Rev. John Stewart, of New Glasgow, the Board agrees to place on their records an expression of their sense of the services rendered by him to the cause of foreign missions.

"At the commencement of his career he was engaged in city mission work, and came to this country as a home missionary to Cape Breton, in which he laboured with great diligence and success; but at the same time he was through life deeply interested in missions to the heathen. He was active in leading the Free Church of Nova Scotia to engage in the work, and from the time of their undertaking a mission of their own, was Convener of their Committee, and diligently discharged the duties of that office until the union of 1860, when he became Chairman of the Board, and manifested the same interest in all the missions of the united body. The Board bear testimony to his uniform courtesy, attention to the business entrusted to him, and zeal in promoting the great work entrusted to their charge."

WOMEN'S SOCIETIES.

Grateful acknowledgment is hereby made for the zealous aid of the women's societies in Nova Scotia and Newfoundland. This help has come in contributions to revenue, and in sympathy manifested by correspondence with the wives and helpers of the missionaries. The sum of $624 has been received and applied as directed. $212 from Newfoundland for Zenana work, and the remainder for Trinidad missions, with the exception of $25, for New Hebrides missions, from the Truro Society.

REFERENCES.

1st. The Committee have respectfully to ask the sanction of the General Assembly to the steps taken in Trinidad in the direction of taking on trials for ordination to the work of the ministry or missionary, the young Orientals now being trained under charge of our missionaries and of the Presbytery of Trinidad.

2nd. The Committee ask the General Assembly to direct that the salaries of the missionaries in the New Hebrides be raised from £150 stg. per annum, to £175, with the former allowance continued of £10 stg. for each child. This recommendation was made repeatedly by the Mission Synod of the New Hebrides, and was found on investigation of facts to be simply an act of justice to our missionaries. It has been indorsed by the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, and is hereby submitted for approval to the General Assembly.

3rd. The Committee ask leave to appoint a fourth missionary to Trinidad. For such an appointment the missionaries there have been pressing urgently for the last two years. They have repeatedly described the new field which they are so anxious to occupy, and have explained its importance and its claims, so that the Committee has for some time been most anxious to grant their desire, but the one hindrance was want of funds, and of this the missionaries were fully aware. At the close of 1879, by the liberality of the coolie converts, as well as of the proprietors, and by the consent of the Government to open the five schools already referred to, the missionaries were able to reduce their estimate of expenses on the year 1880, to the extent of £200 stg., and to procure from proprietors and others special subscriptions, for the fourth man, of about £150. Having accomplished so much, they assume that their request will be complied with heartily and at once, and the Committee were most reluctant to disappoint them, even to the extent of a little delay. But having had painful experience during the last few years from the embarrassment of debt, and knowing that even with salary provided, there would be outlay for teachers and buildings speedily following the sending forth of another missionary, they, before coming to the General Assembly, laid the subjoined resolution before the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, and asked their advice:

"That from the openings for missionary work in the Caroni district, from the increased contributions of the supporters of the missions in Trinidad generally, and from the liberal offers made for the support of the fourth missionary specially, the Committee is of opinion that the Church is now called to go forward to the making of such appointment; but in view of the deficiencies of past years, of existing debt, and of the responsibility of the proposed step in all its bearings, decides to ask the advice of the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, and directs the Secretary to lay all the facts before that body." To which the following reply was given: "That in the opinion of this Synod there is a loud call to send a fourth missionary to Trinidad immediately, but as the heavy debt stands as an obstacle in the way, the Synod recommends the Board to make a special appeal to the Church to remove the debt at once, with the intimation that as soon as this object is accomplished the missionary shall be sent."

This appeal will be made without delay, and the Committee ask the sanction of the General Assembly to procure and send forth a missionary, so soon as the response will warrant them in taking that step; and they would close by expressing the hope that the Lord would so open the hearts of His people, that the financial difficulty may be taken away, and that your Committee may next year be able to report that the fourth missionary has reached Trinidad and occupies his post there.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Your Committee when they entered on their duties last year, cherished the hope that they would be able to present to this General Assembly a Report in some respects more favourable than they have now to submit. But while these hopes have not been fully realized, the review of the year's work brings up nothing which need either seriously discourage or greatly alarm the Church in the prosecution of that work to which it is called; alike by the command of Christ and by the indication of God's Providence. Considerable financial embarrassment has been occasioned by the unlooked-for increase which has taken place in the expenditure, and difficulties which have sprung up in connection with the internal working of one of the Missions have caused no small anxiety to those entrusted with the general oversight of the work. But your Committee are aware that they have no reason to think that any strange thing has befallen them. The records of other bodies engaged in conducting heathen Missions, supply too many parallels to both portions of their experience.

But, while the Report is not in all respects what your Committee could desire, it presents ample grounds for thankfulness. The work has, on the whole, been steadily advancing, new doors for Missionary labour have been opened, the Missionary staff has been strengthened, and the divine blessing has not been withheld. It is also satisfactory to find that, if the contributions have not come up to the estimate made for the year, they are, at least, somewhat in advance of any previously received for Foreign Missions.

The work done, as on former years, falls into three departments.

I.—MISSION TO THE INDIANS IN THE NORTH-WEST.

At Prince Albert, on the Saskatchewan, two labourers have been employed during the year. Rev. D. C. Johnson who, for nearly three years, taught the Mission School with great efficiency, and rendered very valuable aid in preaching the Gospel in the various stations in the settlement, returned last autumn to Ontario. Miss Baker, who reached Prince Albert shortly after Mr. Johnson retired from the field, has taken charge of the school. This lady was to have accompanied Rev. Donald Ross and his family to the Saskatchewan, but when, owing to the state of his health, Mr. Ross was under the necessity of stopping short at Manitoba, Miss Baker went forward to Prince Albert, and, according to previous arrangement, occupied the place in the school left vacant by Mr. Johnson. The high testimonies which had been previously received as to her attainments and efficiency as a teacher, appear to have been fully sustained by the reports which from various quarters have reached your Committee of her success. When she went to Prince Albert, the Committee promised a grant only for one year. It has, however, been judged proper to continue the grant for a second year to the school, in the hope that, at no distant day, means will be found to relieve your Committee entirely of its support. That the school is doing excellent service to the community, and to the cause of Christ, is unquestionable, but it is now only to a very limited extent the kind of service which is naturally associated with Foreign Mission effort.

The Indian work at Prince Albert has, during the year, been conducted by Rev. John Mackay, whose report is in some respects the most encouraging which has been received from that field.

Three stations, one on the North Branch of the Saskatchewan, and two on the South, have been supplied regularly. At Sturgeon Lake, where the Indians are heathens and had formerly refused to allow Missionaries to come to their reserve, Mr. Mackay has been able to maintain regular services, and been cheered by the tokens of the divine blessing. Four families have here been baptized during the year. It is also noteworthy that Mr. Mackay laboured at this reserve under great disadvantages, owing to the lack of a school-house, or building of any kind, where the Indians could conveniently assemble for religious instruction. New ground was also broken during the year at a locality fifteen miles farther up the Saskatchewan, where the Indians gather in large numbers looking for work from the settlers. The services held at this point, in the house of a Presbyterian resident, were attended by an average of about forty Indians. The Indians who congregated at this point were for the most part from the reserve of a noted Cree chief, named Mis-ta-was-sis, who with his band have recently evinced an earnest desire to place themselves under the spiritual guidance of the Presbyterian Church.

Fourteen years ago, when Mis-ta-was-sis and his band were wandering over the plains in a purely savage and heathen state, they visited Prince Albert, and were brought under the influence of the late Rev. James Nisbet and his interpreter, Mr. Mackay. They were the first missionaries with whom these Indians had come in contact. The impression made upon them appears to have been deeper than was supposed at the time. After white settlers came to the neighbourhood, they moved away, and are now settled upon a reserve north of Carlton, about seventy miles from Prince Albert, but they have not forgotten what they learned in by-gone years. Other denominations have sought to find entrance among them, but they evince a strong desire to obtain the means of grace from those who first brought them to the light. A year ago, the chief called together all his councillors and head men to decide what steps should be taken to secure a teacher from their own denomination. He then sent for Mr. Mackay, and asked him what prospect there was that they could obtain a minister for themselves. Mr. Mackay could not give them any definite assurance, but promised to let his brethren know, and to do what he could for them. Last winter a second council was held, and the old chief Mis-ta-was-sis himself was sent as a delegate to Mr. Mackay, to urge their request for a minister. In a lengthened conversation he referred to the time, fourteen years before, when Mr. Mackay began to teach them. He and his followers were then upon the war path. "He wondered," writes Mr. Mackay, "that I was not afraid to go among them, when danger impended. He said the Almighty had directed his footsteps toward the setting sun, where by the river he had learned to know Christ; and the object of his mission to me was to see if I could aid him to get a minister of his own. He wished me to tell the Committee that they wanted no other than the native who speaks their own language, and who first taught him to know God, meaning myself. 'I am not,' he continued, 'working for a day only, but that this thing may be permanent.' This, he said, was the determination of himself and his people."

This earnest Macedonian call comes from a band which numbers from 370 to 400 Indians, and which is presided over by perhaps the most popular and influential chief of the Cree nation. Mr. Mackay has indicated, moreover, his willingness to labour among these people who plead so earnestly for his services. He reports thirteen baptisms and three marriages among the Indians of this Reserve. Your Committee have already taken steps which may lead to the early occupation of this promising field.

At Okanase and the associated stations, Rev. George Flett has laboured with his usual zeal and self-denial, and is, upon the whole, encouraged by the decided indications of good accomplished. He reports 37 baptisms at Okanase, 7 at Fort Ellice, and 24 at Fort Pelly, making a total of 68 registered, during the year, among the visible people of Christ. Of these, 32 were adults. He reports also 7 marriages, 7 deaths, and 34 members in full communion, resident at Okanase and Fort Pelly. Owing to the scarcity of provisions among the Indians, many of them, during the past winter, were with great difficulty saved from starvation, and Mr. Flett's limited resources were taxed to the utmost to meet the pressing calls made upon him. He writes, "Just before Christmas, I had to make four trips to a camp of Indians north of us, to bring them some food and medicine, and also some clothing which Mrs. Bryce had the goodness to gather from other kind friends. I saw there was danger of their freezing to death, so I got my team of horses and made two trips, and brought them all to my place—twenty of them." And when we add to this, that Mr. Flett had had himself to feed from 20 to 25 Indians every day for more than a month, the Church will easily perceive the burden that such a winter lays upon a self-denying and generous missionary. The Committee made a grant of $200.00 to aid in the erection of a church at Okanase, where the lack of such a building was greatly felt. The word for the

The work among Sioux or Dakota Indians, near Fort Ellice, has been carried on, as formerly, by Rev. Solomon Tunkansuicy, but as he does not either speak or write the English language, there is great difficulty in obtaining detailed information in reference to his work. He enjoys, however, the full confidence of the Presbytery of Manitoba, and of Christians who reside in the neighbourhood in which he labours. He travels over a considerable extent of country, visiting the Reserves which have been set apart for the Sioux Indians. The school at the Reserve has been kept open for a portion of the year, but owing to the very small attendance, it seems probable that it will be found necessary to close it. Your Committee await further information respecting it.

II.—MISSION TO CHINA.

Your Committee have always been able to turn with satisfaction to this department of the work. The blessing which so early crowned the labours of your first missionary, continues to attend the work in Formosa. Marked progress has been made during the year. Five new chapels have been opened, and two old ones rebuilt. When the last Report was presented to the General Assembly, there were fifteen chapels and fifteen trained native helpers, now there are twenty chapels, each of which is supplied by a trained native helper. There were then 255 members in full communion, now there are at least 300. More than 2000 persons have abandoned idolatry, and wait regularly on the means of grace in connection with the various chapels. Elders and deacons have been ordained, two Bible women carry the Gospel to their heathen sisters, and eight schools are giving elementary instruction to the young.

During the year an hospital has been erected at Tamsui at an expense of nearly $3,000. The honour of this enterprise is chiefly due to the large-hearted liberality of Mrs. Mackay, of Windsor, Ont. She desired to perpetuate the memory of her late husband by the erection of a permanent building in connection with the Formosa Mission. The sum of $1,700 has been received from Mrs. Mackay, in two donations, and invested in the fine building which has been completed at Tamsui. Your Committee propose that it shall hereafter be styled "The Mackay Hospital." In this way they hope that the streams of beneficence which may be expected to flow steadily from the Institution will, both in Canada and China, be constantly associated with the name of departed worth.

Dr. Ringer, in his Annual Report, states that "the new Hospital, now completed, promises to be a most satisfactory edifice. It contains four wards, a consulting room, and large hall; the latter doubly utilized as a waiting-room and chapel. There are also several private apartments for assistants, and the general accommodation in every way justifies the hope that considerable increased indoor relief will be afforded to sufferers during subsequent years."

The Hospital has, under the care of Dr. Ringer, continued to render excellent service to the Mission. It has done much to alleviate human sufferings and commend Christianity by its practical fruits to the Chinese people. During the year 1,204 new patients attended the Hospital, of whom sixty-two were treated in the house. The Church is under continued obligations to Dr. Ringer for the valuable services he has so long rendered cheerfully and gratuitously to the Hospital. With him it has evidently been a labour of love, but it is none the less worthy of special and hearty recognition on the part of the Canadian Church. At Kelung, a second hospital on a much smaller scale was opened during the year at the suggestion of Dr. Mann, the resident English physician, and placed under his care. The pleasure of working in a noble cause is the only temporal reward which he receives for his generous labours.

It is less necessary for your Committee to give minute details of the work in Formosa as the General Assembly will, they trust, be addressed by one who has been honoured to found the Mission, and, up to the present time, to be its controlling spirit. He will be able to speak from personal knowledge with an accuracy and force which no Committee can hope to equal. It is with much pleasure your Committee have learned that Rev. Dr. G. L. Mackay, your first missionary to Formosa, has at last yielded to their solicitations and left China on a visit to his native land. His abounding labours, under a climate peculiarly trying to the health of foreigners, rendered a season of relaxation in every way necessary. He returns after eight years' labour, such as few men have accomplished. It is no ordinary joy to welcome back for a season one whom God has so richly owned and blessed in His service.

The return of the senior missionary for a season to Canada, has devolved upon the Rev. K. F. Junor weighty responsibilities. The entire oversight of the extensive work in Northern Formosa is laid upon him, until his colleague is able to return to China. But with his knowledge of the language and acquaintance with the mode of conducting the mission in Formosa, your Committee have every confidence that he will with God's blessing, if spared in health, prove equal to the occasion. At the date of his last letter, he had returned from a tour among a number of the stations, and speaks very hopefully of the prospects of the work. He mentions facts which show that the Gospel is gradually spreading among the people, and that not a few of the leading Mandarins manifest a friendly spirit. A man who had recently occasion to apply to the Mandarin at Tek-Chham on business, informed that official, "that he was going to enter the Church of Jesus. The Mandarin told him that if he wished to do so that was good." Mr. Junor may well add, "there is great reason for thankfulness to God that we have a Mandarin in such an important city favourable to the Gospel." Others also in high places are referred to as equally friendly. But, after all, the most hopeful symptom appears to be the wide-spread feeling of respect and esteem with which the mass of the people have learned to regard the missionaries and the Gospel which they proclaim. There is reason to believe that the foundation has been laid for a great and stable work.

III.—MISSION TO CENTRAL INDIA.

India presents a mission field second in extent and population only to China. Its relation to the British Empire gives it a special claim upon the Christians who live under the same flag. Fifty years ago, when Duff landed in India, but small impression had been made by missionary zeal upon the dense mass of heathenism, and the prospect of the ultimate evangelization of the land seemed almost hopeless. But since that time such progress has been made that even the weakest faith may gather courage from it. Half a million of the population gathered into the fold of Protestant Christianity, represents a small portion of what has been done. Western and Christian ideas have largely permeated society. By a process of sapping and mining, the way has been prepared for the overthrow of the hoary superstitions which have long enslaved the people. For many years the Church has been sowing the seed, and now every year gives clearer promise of an abundant harvest.

In Central India, where the Presbyterian Church in Canada has broken ground, matters have not moved on very satisfactorily during the year, but there is reason to hope that a measure of good has been done, and the way in some degree prepared for better things in the future.

On the 9th September, Mr. John Wilkie, M.A., was ordained as a minister of the Gospel, and designated as missionary to Central India by the Presbytery of Guelph, and shortly after he and his excellent wife sailed from Quebec on their way to the scene of their future labours. They arrived in safety at Bombay on the 22nd December, and reached Mhow on the 25th of the same month, and the next day went on to Indore, where they have taken up their abode. The Committee having appointed Mr. Wilkie Treasurer to the Mission in Central India, he entered upon his duties on the 1st January, and the ability and care with which he has discharged the duties of this important office have given great satisfaction to your Committee. Mr. Wilkie is in the meantime devoting his energies chiefly to the acquisition of the language.

Rev. J. F. Campbell sends an interesting report of the work done at Mhow during the year. The agencies employed there have been exceedingly varied. Without attempting to give all the details, we may mention that there is a Sabbath morning service with an average attendance of about 38, a Sabbath school and Bible class where about 48 persons, men, boys and girls, receive instruction. A daily service is held in the bungalow, chiefly for the servants and their friends, and a prayer-meeting is maintained weekly. A boys' school is sustained which has an average attendance of nearly 43. To this may be added street preaching, services of song, and preaching in the villages around Mhow, 34 of which have in the course of the year heard the Gospel. A discussion also was held for ten evenings with a Mahomedan Moulvie who came to Mhow on a preaching tour. Mrs. Campbell, assisted by the wife and daughter of the catechist, conducted a girls' school, which, during the last quarter, had an average attendance of 15, and she visited twenty-one zenanas. Two of these families have left Mhow, and one has been given up, so that the number now visited is eighteen.

Towards the end of January, Mr. Campbell, leaving the work at Mhow under the care of his catechist, started on his third itinerancy, which lasted about seven weeks. He was accompanied and aided in his work by a colporteur of the Bible Society, whom he employed to go with him on his tour. In this journey Mr. Campbell travelled 300 miles, and visited more than forty places, including the seats of three Rajahs and four Shakurs (chiefs); and besides the word preached, about 700 portions of Scripture, mostly Gospels, were sold at reduced prices. A large number of tracts and small books were also sold. In two places Mrs. Campbell was invited to visit the Shakurani (wife of the Shakur), and then, and on a few other occasions, had the privilege of declaring the Gospel to a number of women. So far as known the Gospel had never been before preached in most of these places. During the year Mr. Campbell baptized one man and two children. The man had been for a considerable time on probation, and has so far given great satisfaction.

A brief printed report of the work accomplished by the printing press at Indore has just come to hand. It adds, however, almost nothing to the fuller report received last year. From the report just received, it appears that there have been issued from the Indore press, in English and Hindi, about 162,450 copies of Scripture and other tracts, representing 1,516,150 pages of religious matter. The circulation of so much Christian literature, which the natives read with avidity, cannot be unproductive of good.

No report of the general work accomplished by the Rev. J. M. Douglass, or by the ladies at Indore has, up to the present time, been received. The omission may be largely due to the unhappy internal condition of the mission during the year, to which it is now necessary to allude.

When your Committee entered upon their duties last year, they learned that intimations had come from India of dissensions which had made their appearance among the mission staff at Indore—the precise character and origin of which were not known, but of which enough was known to cause anxiety. Correspondence which ensued brought to light the fact that all the members of the mission staff both at Indore and Mhow had come, in some way, to be involved in

Your Committee, after considering all the information presented to them subsequently, found that it was impossible to investigate the dissensions in question, without sending a deputation to India and examining into matters on the spot—a step which, in view of the expense, they did not feel warranted in taking. It was also apparent that no quasi judicial investigation was likely to issue in restoring peace to the mission while all the members of the staff remained in the field. Your Committee therefore felt shut up to deal with the matter entirely by executive action. They made no attempt to pronounce judgment on rumours, but their action was directed solely to bring about what was most likely to secure the peace and orderly working of the Mission. A change was made in the Treasurership of the Mission, to which office Mr. Wilkie was appointed. Miss Fairweather was brought home to Canada on furlough, and the Committee have since decided that, in view of the existing state of matters in the Mission, they cannot any longer find her useful employment there, and they are not in a financial position to undertake an additional field. Your Committee hope that what they have done will result, gradually, in bringing about a more satisfactory state of matters in the Indore Mission, and they have reason to believe that the beneficial effects of their action are already, to some extent, apparent.

The following statement of the Receipts and Expenditure for the year is, in some respects, so exceptional that it deserves, and no doubt will receive, special attention from the General Assembly:—

This statement is, no doubt, somewhat startling. It is not, however, without elements which may encourage. It is certainly satisfactory to find that during a year in which very special and successful efforts have been put forth to evoke the liberality of the Church on behalf of other schemes, the Foreign Mission Fund, without any special effort, has not only held its own, but has reached a somewhat higher point than it ever did before. Last year the total receipts were $21,815.39, and this year they are $22,471.59, or $656.20 in advance of last year.

But a debt which has increased $11,500.00 in one year, and which now amounts to $16,558.83, is a disagreeable fact which needs some explanation. An examination of the accounts shows that the debt was greater by a considerable amount at the commencement of the year than was ascertained when the report was given in to the Assembly in June last. The sum of $2,500.00 was sent to India to meet instalments on the mission property purchased. From information subsequently received, there is reason to think that this amount was largely used for the ordinary expenditure of the mission, while the instalments on the property were in the first instance met by money borrowed in India, which had to be repaid by your Committee during the year now closed. There was also a balance due on the salary of Rev. Dr. G. L. Mackay, in Formosa, for the year 1878, which he did not draw until 1879. The debt, therefore, cannot have been less, at the time of last Assembly than $7,000.00. From the arrangements which have been made to secure regular quarterly financial returns from all the missions, of their receipts and expenditure, it is believed that such an inaccuracy is not likely again to occur in the report to the General Assembly.

This, however, does not explain the very great increase which has taken place in the expenditure of the year. This is almost entirely due to the large sum paid during the year for mission property in China and India. During the year 1879 there were extra expenses, in connection with the Formosa work of a kind not likely to occur again for some time, amounting to $5,152.64. A large proportion of this sum was incurred during the past ecclesiastical year. Of this amount, no less than $4,280.00 was expended in the erection of the new hospital, the repairs made upon the mission houses at Tamsui which had been assailed by white ants, and in the erection of new chapels, beyond the sum put in estimate for that purpose for the current year. For the sum of $4,280.00 Mission property, all of a very necessary kind, can be shown in Formosa.

During the same period, nearly the entire price of the mission property at Indore, amounting to about $7,661.00, has been paid. It will be remembered that the General Assembly at Hamilton in 1878, authorized the Committee to proceed with the erection of buildings for residence of missionaries at Indore; and enjoined ministers to lay the urgent need of such buildings before their congregations, as part of the ordinary requirements of the Fund. It is to this large but very necessary expenditure, incurred with the direct sanction of the supreme court, that the present embarrassment is chiefly due. The $4,280.00 expended upon property in China, together with the sum spent upon the mission buildings at Indore, makes a total of $11,941.00, which is more than the entire increase in the debt during the year.

Your Committee have been able, for the first time, to secure both from India and China, estimates, in advance, for the annual expenditure of these missions. The latter they were able to sanction without any change, but the former which is, however, $5,500.00 less than was spent in India last year, they have been able still farther to reduce. Your Committee believe that by means of these estimates their successors will be able, in future, to regulate the outlay of the various missions, so as to prevent the accumulation of debt. But your Committee trust that an earnest effort will be sanctioned by the General Assembly, and made by the Church, to remove this debt and raise the funds necessary to carry on the work in full efficiency. It is estimated that $24,400 will be required to meet the expenditure of the year and pay the interest on the debt already incurred. But your Committee trust that the General Assembly will take such steps as will issue in the augmentation of the Foreign Mission Fund to such an extent that it will suffice to meet the present debt and the annual expenditure necessary to carry on the work with efficiency. Your Committee would, therefore, urgently request the General Assembly to call upon congregations to make a special effort to double their contributions to Foreign Missions for the present year, and to enjoin upon Presbyteries to use all due diligence to secure this end.

In accordance with the instructions of the last Assembly, your Committee, at its first meeting, appointed a standing Committee to take charge of the work formerly conducted by the Juvenile Mission Committee, and such other cognate work as might be assigned to it. Miss Machar was appointed Secretary-Treasurer, and requested to give the Standing Committee on juvenile work the benefit of her valuable services. This she has kindly done, and the report which is printed in full, as appended, shows that the work has been done with much efficiency and success. The accounts having been closed a month earlier than the Juvenile Mission Committee closed them, the amount reported as received, viz.: $1,106.50, is scarcely equal to the contributions received on former years; but since the report was written the Secretary-Treasurer has received $140.00, bringing up the total for the year to $1,246.50, which it is believed will be found rather in advance of the contributions usually received through the corresponding channel on former years.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbytery of Kingston holds on its way vigorously. It has seven Auxiliaries and one Mission Band. This Society has paid to Rev. Dr. Reid the sum of $170 to aid in carrying the Gospel to the women and children of Central India.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, Western Section, has advanced steadily during the year. It has paid to Rev. Dr. Reid for Zenana and other work among women and children, in connection with the Central India Mission, the noble sum of $3,500.00, an advance of $500.00 on the large contribution of the previous year. This Society has now forty-six Auxiliaries and nine Mission Bands. Two of these Auxiliaries are Presbyterial Societies, viz., Hamilton and Glengarry, each of which has a number of branch societies connected with it. Your Committee trust that circumstances may ere long again admit of the development of the agency in connection with your Central India Mission, which these societies are designed to sustain. In the meantime it is encouraging to know that the liberality of the Christian women of the Church is evidently ready to support all the lady missionaries that the Church is at present prepared to employ in its India Mission.

REPORT OF THE JUVENILE MISSION SCHEME.

FOR THE YEAR ENDING APRIL 30, 1878.

The Committee of the Juvenile Mission Scheme regret to have to report a smaller amount of receipts than last year. This is partly accounted for, however, by the circumstance that the report is, this year, made up one month earlier than usual, so that it really records the receipts of only eleven months. Owing to this necessity not having been generally understood, some schools which have hitherto contributed regularly and liberally have not sent in their remittances in time to be included in this year's account. It is hoped that these will swell next year's receipts. Other schools which have lost the orphans they formerly supported in Scotland have this year withheld or considerably decreased their contribution. On the other hand, a number of schools which have never hitherto contributed to this scheme, have come forward this year with encouraging liberality.

In order to awaken increased interest in the Juvenile Mission Scheme, the Committee, in accordance with the desire expressed by the General Assembly, last June, and in pursuance of the instructions of the Foreign Mission Committee, issued circular letters at the beginning of this year, addressed through the ministers, to all the Sabbath schools of the Western Section of the Church, describing the objects taken up by the scheme, and urging the great importance of training children to zeal in Foreign Missions by drawing forth their interest and contributions towards some one of these objects. In response to this appeal a number of schools, not formerly contributing, have undertaken to support orphans at Indore, or teachers at Trinidad or the New Hebrides. All the orphans who were inmates of the Orphanage at Indore, when last heard from, are supported through this scheme, as well as two Zenana teachers at Indore, eight native teachers at Trinidad and the New Hebrides, while the "Dayspring" has also received the same amount as last year.

In addition to these objects more specially connected with our own Church, the orphans still remaining on the list supported at the Scottish Orphanage in India, and the schools for native children which this scheme is pledged to support at Calcutta, have received their usual share of support.

While the Committee regard this scheme as a useful nucleus for more extended efforts, they feel strongly that far more useful work might be accomplished by it, if ministers and superintendents of Sabbath-schools would take a more active interest in bringing its claims before the children under their care. To this end the Committee earnestly commend this scheme to the Assembly, in the hope that a wider and more efficient co-operation may be secured, and that the scheme may, under the blessing of God, become an effectual means of training the children of this Church to a warm and growing interest in the work of her Foreign Missions.

All which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE MISSION TO THE LUMBERMEN IN THE VALLEY OF THE OTTAWA.

The Lumber Mission Committee, in presenting their Annual Report, desire to recognize the goodness of the Great Head of the Church in the increasing work done by the Missionaries to the Lumbermen, and in the increasing support rendered to the Mission. During the past season a large number of shanties were visited by the Rev. S. J. Taylor, of Mattawa, and the Rev. Joseph Gandier, of Fort Coulonge. The following extracts from their reports will convey some idea of the character and extent of the work done by them :—

Mr. Taylor, whose work at Mattawa involves labour among the lumbermen during other seasons than those in which he visits the shanties, and to whose salary $200 are contributed from the funds of the Lumber Mission, states that he gave seven weeks to the work of the Mission. "During that time," he says, "I visited fourteen lumber depots and twenty-four shanties on the Ottawa and its tributaries, the Magnusippi, Mattawa, Montreal, and on Lakes Beauséjour and Kippewa, etc., and seventy-five families, exclusive of those in Mattawa and vicinity, scattered throughout the region from Rockcliffe to the head of Lake Temiscamingue. Between Deux Rivières and the head of Temiscamingue the Gospel was preached in every shanty except two or three. I visited as well many of the camps along the railroad (C. C. R. extension), as far down as Rockcliffe. All classes of people seem glad to see the Missionary and give him a hearty welcome, and the best of everything, even to the warmest and softest corner on the shanty floor. Everywhere I endeavoured to speak to both English and French in their own tongue, and everywhere I was struck and encouraged by the eagerness with which they listened to every word uttered. The literature sent me for distribution among the shantymen was gladly and thankfully received. In the shanties visited by me there were about 900 men, of whom at least seventy per cent. were French; and it is an encouraging fact that every year the number of French who can read is on the increase. It is a strange and significant fact that shantymen take it for granted that a Protestant Missionary is a Presbyterian. Several times men have said to me, I suppose you are a Presbyterian. I never saw a Missionary belonging to any other Church in a shanty."

Mr. Gandier was able to devote fifteen weeks to the work of the Mission during the past season, and reports :—"I have done about double the work of previous years, having visited sixty-five shanties, twelve depots, thirty-two stopping places, and sixty-three families. Some of these I visited twice, so that the total number of visits was 222. In these places there were about 3,485 persons; to reach them I drove about 1,920 miles. I spent eight days last August in visiting most of the scattered Protestant families in the townships of Waltham, North Allumette, Chichester, and Pontefract. These people have no services whatever, and no minister to visit them except your Missionary; they are so much scattered that they can never form congregations, but a few families can meet in some places. When this could be done I conducted ordinary public service, and in every family I had Bible-readings and exhortations. In the same way I visited, during winter, families scattered along the Pickanock, Bonchere, and Madawaska, and baptized twenty children.

The shanties visited were on or near the Pickanock, Conlonge, Black River, Schyan, Chalk Bonchere, Madawaska, and their tributaries; also on the Canada Central R. R./Extension above Des Joachims. As usual, I was welcomed everywhere by both Protestants and Catholics, and now fail to express the gratitude shown by some of those whom I visited. Although in comparison with the field before us the work done is but small, yet I know it is accomplishing great and good results, as several of the shantymen have testified.

Your Committee are of opinion that, while much good is being accomplished through labours such as those of Mr. Gandier and Mr. Taylor, and while they hope to secure the services of those ministers for a portion of each year, yet it would be of the utmost importance to secure, if possible, the services of one or more ordained missionaries specially designated to mission work among the lumbermen. Mr. Taylor, in the report from which extracts have been already given, lays stress upon this proposal. He says, "Appoint a missionary to the shanty men, or rather to a certain district or number of shanties, say thirty-five or forty. He would be able to spend a few days in every shanty in his district two or three times during the season. He would get acquainted with the men, and would be heartily and liberally supported by them. Of course, it would be a necessity that such missionaries have some knowledge of the French language. To this might be joined, with advantage in every respect, Bible colporteurage. The missionary could dispose of more Bibles and to better advantage than any colporteur, and of course there would be the great saving of a colporteur's salary." Your Committee have, on previous occasions, presented similar suggestions in their reports, and they heartily endorse the words of Mr. Taylor. At the same time the difficulty in carrying out the proposal is to secure suitable men for such a service; if they were forthcoming their support might readily be provided. As in previous years, your Committee have distributed a large quantity of appropriate literature among the shantymen, the employers in many cases forwarding parcels of publications to districts that were not visited by the missionaries. They regret that they were not able to procure their supply of French literature in time for distribution during the past season. The Religious Tract Society of London, and the publishers of the "British Workman," furnished large quantities of literature gratuitously in addition to those supplied by purchase. Some of the publications of the Tract Society, being books more suited to Sabbath schools, were disposed of for Sabbath school libraries.

Your Committee continue to regard this mission as an important branch of the Home Mission work of the Church. They are of opinion that it might appropriately be under the control of the Home Mission Committee; at the same time they recognize the probability of securing a larger amount in special contributions for a mission to the shantymen by continuing it as a separate branch of Home Mission work. Should it be determined thus to continue it in separate form, your Committee recommend that the Assembly place this mission under the supervision of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, commending it to the special sympathy and support of congregations within that Synod, with instructions that any report of the mission approved by that Synod shall be embodied, for the information of the General Assembly, in the report of the Assembly's Home Mission Committee.

If this recommendation be adopted by the Assembly it will be understood that the Committee to be appointed for the current year shall hold office until the next meeting of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, when their successors will be appointed by that Synod.

The Treasurer's statement, herewith presented, shows a very large increase on the receipts and disbursements of any previous year.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

The Report of the Senate, and also the Report of the Board of Examiners, herewith transmitted, give a detailed account of the subjects studied, the diligence of the students, and the honour gained by them.

From the accompanying Financial Statement, it will be seen that the expenditure of the year recently terminated was $12,854.12, and that the income from all sources was $369.04 less. It is worthy of notice that hitherto the balance against the College has generally been much greater. Indeed, during the year immediately preceding, the expenditure was $1,100 greater than the income. While this improvement in the financial position of the College is partly due to special donations, $371.95 greater than the donations of previous year, to an increase of $128 of interest from the Endowment Fund, and to the termination of the late Dr. Willis' retiring salary in the middle of the year, yet it is also due to an increase of $621.20 in Congregational contributions, the amount accruing to this College from such contributions being $7,180.42, against $6,559.22 of the previous year.

It is much to be regretted that, after deducting $400.75 contributed during the year, there is still $10,784.84 of debt on the Ordinary Fund. It is the decided opinion of the Board that the special effort, sanctioned by the Assembly of 1877, and approved by subsequent Assemblies, to clear off the whole debt, should be continued till this end is gained. It is due to those who have already contributed that the effort should be extended over the whole constituency of the College; it is also a matter of great importance that the Ordinary Fund should be at once freed from the payment of interest on the debt. That so little has been done for this purpose during the past year is due to the difficulty in finding persons willing and having leisure to canvass, to the great commercial depression which has prevailed, and to the strenuous special effort made to relieve the Home Mission Fund of serious embarrassment. It should not be forgotten, however, that the efficiency of the Theological Colleges is vitally connected with the edification and extension of the Church, as an educated and well-furnished ministry is now more indispensable than ever, and as our students are generally pioneers in the Home Mission field, while the desire evinced by several to carry the Gospel to the heathen has awakened much interest in Foreign Mission work, and has greatly encouraged and incited the Church to enter upon it. It is much to be desired that the more intelligent and wealthy members of the Church would evince a deeper interest in the Colleges, as they most specially are in a position to know the great cost and value of a liberal education, while others seem less capable of realizing this, and hence they give reluctantly to the Colleges, while they respond liberally and generously to appeals in favour of Missions.

The ENDOWMENT FUND now amounts to $51,992.10. This is $500 more than was reported last year, the increase being due to the bequest of the late Mr. J. Carswell.

To the BURSARY FUND contributions amounted to $1,323.25. To this are to be added a balance of $97.61 from last year, interest from investment, $506.00, and principal repaid $261, making the available revenue $2,177.76. Of this $1,640 has been paid on Scholarships or Bursaries, while $350 has been invested, $150 transferred to Ordinary Fund, $25 paid towards general expenses, leaving a balance of $12.76. The Fund invested now amounts to about $8,000.

To the BUILDING FUND subscriptions to the amount of $2,927.85 have been paid during the year, which, with a balance of $1,969.91, makes $4,897.76, which has been applied to the reduction of the debt on the building. The debt is now about $26,000. To meet this there are subscriptions unpaid amounting to upwards of $30,000, but making allowance for the expense of collection, and for interest on debt, it is evident that the congregations belonging to the constituency of the College, which have not yet contributed to the Building Fund, must be thoroughly canvassed. The Board has made arrangements for having this done.

The Board has pleasure in reporting that the domestic arrangements of the College, under the kind and skilful management of Mr. Fullarton, Steward, have given much satisfaction, the students having availed themselves of all the accommodation which the College buildings afford; and that the proper work of the College has gone on during the session with its accustomed regularity and with much comfort.

The death of the Chairman of the Board, the Rev. Dr. Topp, is reported by the Board with heartfelt sorrow. He was one of the best friends of the College, who was always ready to advocate its claims, and as Chairman of the Board of Management, and as a member of the Senate, and of the Board of Examiners, did all he could to promote its welfare. He evinced his interest in the College to the very close of life by bequeathing 370 valuable volumes to its library. The Board has recorded in its minutes its deep sense of the loss which not only the College, but also our whole Church has sustained by his death.

After the decease of the previous Chairman, Dr. Proudfoot was appointed Chairman by the Board.

It is the opinion of the Board that the rules governing its procedure should in several points be amended. The Board, therefore, request the General Assembly to instruct the Board to be at this time appointed to consider this matter, with the view of reporting to next Assembly amendments to be adopted by the Assembly in the event of approval.

All which is most respectfully submitted.

JOHN J. A. PROUDFOOT,

Chairman of the Board of Management.

REPORT OF THE SENATE OF KNOX COLLEGE: SESSION 1879-80.

The Senate of Knox College beg to report to the General Assembly regarding the Session 1879-80.

In the Theological Department the list of Students is as follows:

THIRD YEAR: A. B. Baird, M.A., James Craigie, M.A., William Gallagher, J. R. Johnson, B.A., G. D. McKay, William McKay, James Ross, J. C. Tibb, M.A., J. K. Wright, W. A. Hunter, M.A.

SECOND YEAR: J. W. Cameron, B.A., Abraham Dobson, James Farquarson, B.A., David James, Duncan McColl, B.A., J. A. McDonald, Mal. McGregor, B.A., John McLeod, John Mowat, Thos. Scouler, Daniel Stalker, B.A., R. Y. Thompson, B.A., J. A. Turnbull, B.A., Andrew Wilson.

FIRST YEAR: David Bickell, Samuel Carruthers, John Currie, John Gibson, B.A., W. H. Hunt, B.A., John Jameson, D. B. McDonald, Angus McKay, William McKinlay, David McLaren, B.A., A. G. McLachlin, B.A., John Neil, B.A., Robert Sinclair, W. G. Wallace, B.A.

Angus McLeod (not enrolled) gave attendance on the classes of the Second Year till compelled by illness to retire—in February; and Archibald Cuthbertson attended during the entire session the classes of the First Year.

W. G. Wallace was in attendance during the first term only; having accepted an appointment, for the current year, as head master of the High School at Beamsville.

The following abstract of the Class Reports of the several Professors is here given:

Dr. Caven taught the classes in Senior and Junior Exegetics, and in Biblical Criticism. In the Senior Class in Exegetics lectures were given on the first five chapters of the Epistle to the Romans, and on eight of the more distinctively Messianic Psalms. The subject of Prophecy was also briefly treated. The Junior Exegetical Class read critically the first four chapters of the Gospel of Luke and the first eight chapters of the Book of Genesis. The principles of Exegetics were also taught in this class. Biblical Criticism, as in past years, was taught partly by lecture and partly by text-book.

Dr. Gregg taught the classes in Apologetics, in Church History, and in Bible History. In Apologetics, Natural Theology and the Evidences of Christianity were discussed. In Church History, the period ending A.D. 755 was reviewed. In Bible History, the Life of Christ was reviewed and the Authorship of the Gospels discussed. Dr. Gregg examined the Homilies prescribed last session to students of the first year.

Professor McLaren conducted two classes in Systematic Theology. In the Senior Class, consisting of the Third Year's students, the subjects of the Atonement, the Kingly Office of Christ, Effectual Calling, Justification, Adoption, Sanctification, the Moral Law, the State of the Soul after Death, the Second Advent, the Resurrection, the Last Judgment, and Future Punishments were discussed. This class also underwent a written examination, at the close of the Session, on "Fairbairn on the Revelation of Law in Scripture." The Junior Class (First and Second Years) were occupied with the subjects of Creation, Providence, the Origin of Man, the Origin of the Soul, Man's Original State, the Covenant of Works, the Fall, Original Sin, the Covenant of Grace, the Person of Christ, and His Prophetic and Priestly Offices. Each Student of this class gave a Theological Essay during the Session.

Dr. Proudfoot reports that, during the first term, he gave instruction to the students of the Second and Third Years on Church Government and Pastoral Theology. On the former subject he delivered thirty-six lectures—discussing exhaustively the Scripture testimony, and presenting the patristic testimony of the first two centuries, so far as time permitted. The nature of Ordination, and the doctrine of Apostolic Succession according to the teaching of Scripture, were fully considered. On Pastoral Theology seven lectures were given, time permitting the presentation of an outline only of this subject. Twenty-four Discourses were heard and criticised; the students being thus taught carefully to apply the Homiletical principles which had been systematically stated.

All the Professors express entire satisfaction with the deportment of the students, and with their diligence in the prosecution of their studies.

In the Preparatory Department, Mr. A. B. Baird, B.A., was re-engaged as Tutor in Greek, and Mr. Duncan McColl, B.A., was appointed Tutor in Latin.

The students in this Department of the College are the following:

THIRD YEAR: A. K. Caswell, G. B. Greig, J. H. Henderson, Thomas Nixon, B. B. Smith, Angus Robertson, Alex. Urquhart.

SECOND YEAR: F. T. Bremner, John Campbell, W. F. Johnson, A. B. Meldrum, W. S. McTavish.

FIRST YEAR: George Ballantyne, Andrew Beattie, W. M. Fleming, J. S. Hardie, H. C. Howard, James Malcolm, James A. McDonald, J. B. McLaren, Robert McNair.

Owing to illness, James A. McDonald was compelled to leave College shortly after the commencement of the Session, and was unable to return.

Andrew Beattie, F. T. Bremner, James Malcolm and Robert McNair withdrew from the Literary Classes at Christmas, with the view of taking a full University Course. This step the Senate views with satisfaction, as another instance of a growing desire on the part of our students for the ministry to secure the benefit of a regular course in Arts as preparatory to the study of Theology.

Mr. Baird reports that the Senior Greek Class (Second and Third Years) read the Second Philippic of Demosthenes, and part of the First Book of the Iliad. The Junior Greek Class (First Year) read the First Epistle to the Corinthians, and part of the First Book of the Anabasis. The two classes met together every Monday afternoon for the study of Grammar. During the Session the Senior Class met 55 times, and the Junior Class 56 times.

Mr. McColl reports that the Senior Latin Class read the Second Book of the Odes of Horace, and part of the Fifth Book of Livy; and the Junior Class, part of the Second Book of the Aeneid, and of the Third Book of Caesar's Commentaries. On Mondays the classes met together for the study of Grammar and Latin Prose Composition.

Both Tutors testify to the diligence of the students under their care, and to their correct deportment.

Professor Gregg, as in past years, has rendered important service in conducting, for the benefit of the first year, a class in Mathematics.

Elocution was taught during the past Session by Richard Lewis, Esq. The class in this study met 25 times, and was open to all students for the ministry, whether of Knox College or of the University.

The Students' Metaphysical and Literary Society—of which Mr. A. B. Baird, M.A., was elected President—pursued its aim with much energy and success; holding, as in past sessions, weekly meetings for discussion of topics chiefly of a metaphysical or literary character, for practice in speaking, and for reading and criticising essays. The Society held two public meetings in the College Hall, and a Conversazione, which proved highly successful.

The existence of a large class for the Cultivation of Sacred Music is a feature in the College which is entitled to be mentioned with commendation.

The Reading Room has been supplied as usual with periodicals, and seems to be a place of increasing interest to the students.

It is with unfeigned satisfaction and thankfulness that the Senate make reference to the operations of the Students' Missionary Society. The report of last summer's work in the several fields occupied by the Students' Society is very cheering and stimulating. The students laboured in connection with the Society in remote and necessitous places; and eleven had been appointed to fields during the coming summer. By the liberality of several congregations and individual friends of the Society, its finances are, at the present time, in a satisfactory condition.

The Students' Saturday Evening Prayer-meeting was held as in past years, and also the Monthly College Prayer-meeting.

Mr. Abraham Dobson was re-appointed Librarian. He reports that during the Session 495 volumes were returned to the Library, and 589 taken out. The Library has received many valuable additions during the past six months. 370 volumes were bequeathed by the late Rev. Dr. Topp; 117 volumes were generously given by Mr. Williamson, and 20 volumes by a Reading Club through one of its members, W. M. Clark, Esq. Valuable contributions to the Library were also made by the Rev. Dr. Hamilton and by Mr. Gillespie.

The Senate would again desire to record its very high appreciation of the service rendered to the College by the University Scholarship Scheme. There can be no doubt that the literary attainments of many candidates for the ministry are not a little indebted to this Scheme; and it is clear that whatever elevates the attainments of a number of candidates must tell favourably upon the general standard. Thanks are due both to the Board of Examiners, and to the individuals and congregations that contributed Scholarships during the past year.

The Senate has to deplore the great loss which the College sustained at the commencement of the past Session, in the death of the chairman of the College Board, the Rev. Dr. Topp. As a member of Senate and of the Board of Examiners, as Chairman for many years of the Board of Management, as minister of the important congregation over which he presided, and as member of successive General Assemblies, he shewed the greatest interest in the College, and laboured much to promote its welfare. Nor is it here to be forgotten that when the Chair of Systematic Theology was vacant by the retirement of the late Principal Willis, he, at very great personal inconvenience, discharged the duties of that Chair, with much acceptance, for three months.

The death of the Rev. Mr. Breckenridge, a distinguished alumnus of the College, and a most efficient member of the Board of Examiners, is also a serious loss in the College. No one could have brought better judgment or greater zeal to the service of the College than Mr. Breckenridge, and the conscientious accuracy which marked all his labours as an Examiner will not soon be forgotten.

The Senate has already recorded in its Minutes the estimate which it formed of the character and labours of these eminent servants of God, and expressed its deep sorrow at their removal from us.

Scholarships were awarded in connection with the University Scholarships Scheme. The names of the successful competitors appear in the Report of the Board of Examiners.

In the Theological Department the Scholarships were awarded as follows:—

Chairman of Senate.

KNOX COLLEGE, TORONTO, April 7th, 1880.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EXAMINERS OF KNOX COLLEGE.

The Board of Examiners for Knox College begs to submit the following statement of its work during the year. As formerly, its operations have had respect to three distinct classes of Students at different stages in their course of preparation for the Ministry of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

I.—MATRICULATED STUDENTS IN ATTENDANCE IN UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, TORONTO.

The Board was enabled, through the liberal donations to this Fund, of Zion Church, Brantford, Knox Church, Hamilton, St. James' Square, and Charles Street Churches, Toronto, and through one individual donation, and the proceeds of the Alexander bequest and another bequest under the control of St. Andrew's Church, London, and the Burns Scholarship, to offer eleven Scholarships, ranging in value from $60 to $40, to young men taking a full course of study at University College, with a view to enter the Ministry of the Presbyterian Church. Fifteen students presented themselves as competitors for these Scholarships, a larger number than on any previous occasion.

The following were the successful competitors:

In the First Year.

1. William Farquharson.....The St. James' Square Church, Toronto, Scholarship, $60.
2. John L. Campbell.....The Ottawa Scholarship, $50.
3. K. C. Tibb.....The Burns Scholarship, $40.

In the Second Year.

1. W. A. Duncan.....The Alexander (I.) Scholarship, $60.
2. D. McGilivray.....The Knox Church, Hamilton, Scholarship, $50.
3. James C. Smith.....The Alexander (II.) Scholarship, $40.

In the Third Year.

1. J. S. Mackay.....The London (I.) Scholarship, $60.
2. William E. Hanna.....The Zion Church, Brantford, Scholarship, $50.
3. Thomas Hepburn.....The Charles Street Church, Toronto, Scholarship, $40.

In the Fourth Year.

1. Thomas Davidson.....The London (II.) Scholarship, $60.

The Board would again bespeak for this scheme the generous support of all who are desirous to encourage the future ministers of the Church to take a full University course, previous to their entering on the study of Theology. Had a larger amount been at its disposal, additional Scholarships might have been awarded with advantage.

II.—STUDENTS IN THE PREPARATORY COURSE OF KNOX COLLEGE.

Nine students appeared before the Board in October, with a view of entering the Preparatory Classes in Knox College. Their attainments in Latin, Greek, Mathematics and English were found to be such that the Board could assign the standing of entrants in the first year to seven, viz.: Robert McNair, H. C. Howard, James Malcolm, William Fleming, J. P. McLaren, John S. Hardie, P. Alex. McDonald. In regard to the two others they were permitted to attend the classes, but their standing was made dependent on the terminal examinations. One of these, Andrew Beattie, together with two others of the above named, afterwards adopted a course of study at University College. The Board was unable to allow the standing of the other applicant.

At the close of the College Session, the Board in conjunction with the Senate, examined in Latin and Greek, the students of all the years, and those of the first year in Mathematics also. These examinations afforded evidence of the pains taken by the tutors in the instruction of the students and of the progress made in most cases. In one case of a student of the second year, the Board was unable to sustain the examination and the standing for the year was disallowed.

Certificates were presented from the Professors of University College by the students of the various years, attesting regularity of attendance in the prescribed classes, and in most cases, satisfactory attainments. In one case, where the proper standard was not reached, a supplementary examination was appointed.

Seven students, G. B. Greig, J. S. Henderson, Thomas Nixon, Alexander Urquhart, R. B. Smith, A. Robertson, and A. K. Caswell, having completed their studies in the Preparatory Course, will be entitled to enter on the study of Theology next Session.

III.—STUDENTS IN THE THEOLOGICAL COURSE.

Thirteen students appeared before the Board with a view to admission to the Theological Classes. Of these five were received as graduates of the University of Toronto, viz.: John Gibson, B.A., David McLaren, B.A., Archibald McLachlin, B.A., John Neil, B.A., and William G. Wallace, B.A. Six were received as having completed the Preparatory Course of Knox College, viz.: Samuel Carruthers, David Bickell, John Currie, William McKinlay, John Jamieson, Angus McKay. Of the remaining two, Robert G. Sinclair was admitted as having attended three Sessions at Dalhousie College, and William H. Hunt as having completed the third year of his course at University College, and as having it in view to graduate in the same. Another student, Archibald Cuthbertson, was allowed to attend the Theological Classes of the First year, and passed the terminal examinations in these, with the exception of Biblical Criticism. His standing, however, as a Theological student is not allowed, until he has attained a higher standing in the University of Toronto.

The closing examinations were conducted by the Board acting in conjunction with the Senate. The results were on the whole satisfactory. In regard to one student, William McKinlay, of the First Year, it was agreed, in view of his defective acquaintance with the subjects taught in the various classes, as brought out by the results of the examination, that his case be reported to the Assembly, and that the Assembly be requested to grant Mr. McKinlay his standing on the ground of great personal worth, exemplary diligence as a student, and well proved efficiency as a labourer in the mission field.

As the class lists presented in the report of the Senate to the Assembly contain the names of those who passed in their respective Years, and of those who in addition gained Scholarships, it is not thought necessary to repeat them here.

All which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN M. KING,
Chairman of Board of Examiners.

Toronto, June 3rd, 1880.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY AND COLLEGE.

The Trustees respectfully submit the following report for Session 1879-80, the thirty-ninth since the foundation of the University by Royal Charter:

I. ATTENDANCE.

The number of students in Arts and Theology was one hundred and fifteen, of whom fifty-one registered as studying for the ministry of our Church. The steady rate of increase that we have chronicled in preceding reports has thus been maintained. For information respecting the names, addresses, and standing of the students we refer to the Calendar, copies of which are herewith submitted.

II. MEDALS, SCHOLARSHIPS, BURSARIES, GIFTS, ETC.

On these subjects, so interesting to students and their friends, the Calendar gives precise information. The bequest made by the late Rev. Dr. Spence, in part to found a memorial scholarship, has not yet been received, as the will is being contested. Though we have every reason to believe that this bequest will be received, it may not be amiss to call attention to the fact that, in the history of Queen's, as well as of kindred institutions, bequests have been lost by reason of legal defects in wills, or other causes, and that generous intentions have been thus frustrated.

Grateful for bequests, we owe a special debt of gratitude to those benefactors who act as their own executors. Every year we make mention of additional gifts. Last winter, M. C. Cameron, Esq., M.P., established a bursary of $60 a year to be given to a Gaelic speaking student. He nominated the first holder, but hereafter it and the Marion Stewart McDonald Scholarship—which is open only to students from Glengarry—are to be awarded at the close of the Matriculation Examinations in Arts. A. Gunn, Esq., M.P., has awarded a Scholarship of $100, to be awarded at the Matriculation Examination next October, for general proficiency. And a number of donors have established a Scholarship of $100 for best Matriculation Examination in Classics, in memory of the much lamented Prof. Mackerras.

III. THEOLOGICAL STUDIES AND LECTURSHIPS.

In one of the departments of the Theological Faculty, the subjects taken up were—In Hebrew, first year, Gen. I. ii.; Ruth I. iv.; Wolfe's Grammar. Second year, Gesenius' Grammar; Exodus xv. xx.; Ps. xl. xiv.; Prov. xxx. xxxi. Third year, Gesenius' Grammar; Isaiah xl. i.; Dan. ii. iii.; Ezra iv. v.; Ps. cx. cxl. In Biblical Criticism, Rules of Interpretation; Epistle to Romans in Greek; Lectures. In Church History, Killen's Old Catholic Church; Lectures. In the other department, The Trinity, The Doctrine of Sin, and The Atonement. The text-books on these subjects respectively were—Lee, Hill, Julius Müller, & Crawford. Special lectures were also given (1) by Rev. R. Jardine, D.Sc., who continued the course commenced by him the session previous on Apologetics with reference to modern investigations and phases of thought. Another side of Apologetics was treated by the Principal in Lectures and Examinations on Butler's Analogy. (2) By Rev. R. Ure, D.D., who lectured for five weeks on Homiletics and Pastoral Theology.

The Board has appointed the Rev. T. F. Fotheringham, M.A., of Norwood, and the Rev. Robert Campbell, M.A., of Montreal, special Lecturers for next session on Apologetics and Church History respectively.

IV. ENDOWMENT FUND.

No progress has been made in this direction during the year. At least $30,000 of additional subscriptions are required.

V. NEW BUILDING.

On May 30th, 1879, the foundation stones of our massive new College were laid by His Excellency the Governor-General and H.R.H. the Princess Louise, amid academic and popular enthusiasm unparalleled in our University history. The Chancellor constituted His Excellency a member of Convocation by bestowing upon him, at the request of the Senate, the Degree of LL.D. The Very Reverend the Moderator of the General Assembly offered the dedicatory prayer. The Mayor of the City, in the name of the people of Kingston, asked the illustrious visitors to lay the foundation stones of the building, a memorial of the enlightened liberality of the citizens, destined, we trust, to endure for many generations. At the close of the proceedings, His Excellency and H.R.H., assisted by Dr. Williamson, planted memorial trees in the Campus.

The Building is to be completed on September 1st; and to be opened on next University Day, October 16th, on which occasion we invite all our friends to come and rejoice with us.

VI. PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

Two years ago, the General Assembly at our request sanctioned the institution of a Preparatory Department in connection with the Theological work of the College. After two years' experience we would recommend that it be discontinued, and—faith being kept with those who commenced their course in it—that students be required hereafter to take the regular University classes. We find that when young men are not able to take the junior Latin, junior Greek, or junior Mathematics Class at any University, and yet are allowed to complete their training in Arts in three sessions, they must either enter on the study of Theology insufficiently prepared on these primary subjects, or must give their strength to elementary work that they could do better in a High School, to the neglect of other equally important subjects. Three years of a regular University course or its full equivalent is the least that ought to be required before students begin the study of Theology. Special cases the General Assembly alone should deal with.

VII. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS.

In submitting these, we have the great satisfaction of reporting a balance to credit. The explanation of this extraordinary condition of things is that two instalments of our new Endowment Fund have been paid in, while as yet no additional expense has been incurred. But, as the proposed additions to our staff in Arts and Divinity must now be made with the least possible delay, and as the Colonial Committee's grant is being withdrawn, we cannot expect to shew a similar statement in future. Still we hope for the best, especially as the amount received during the past year from Dr. Reid, as Treasurer of the College Fund, was in excess of previous years and may be expected to increase.

VIII. DEATH OF PROFESSOR MACKERRAS.

The past year will always be sadly memorable to us as the year in which we lost our well-beloved Professor Mackerras. Not we alone mourn him.

"Multis ille bonis flebilis occidit."

The whole Church mourns the loss of one whose character and life was an inspiration to all who knew him. His Church and his Ama Mater were very dear to him. As long as the University endures, his memory shall remain part of her most sacred treasure.

In name and by appointment of the Board.

Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT OF THE PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE OF MONTREAL.

The Board of Management of the Presbyterian College, of Montreal, begs leave to make the following annual statement of its affairs to the General Assembly, and to transmit therewith the Report of the Senate, that of the Board of Examiners, the Treasurer's Balance Sheet, and the Calendar for next Session. In these documents full details are given as to the work done by the College during the past year, and as to its financial position at the present time. Only a few general statements and explanations are therefore necessary to place the affairs of the College in a clear light before the General Assembly and the Church.

As to the matter of chief importance—the work done by the College during the past session—the Board is thankful to be able to say that it has fully maintained the position of previous years. The total number of students enrolled has been sixty-two. Of these thirty-nine were in theology. Ten finished their course at the end of the session, of whom three have fitted themselves for work in both French and English. The total number of graduates from this, the youngest of the Theological Colleges of the Church, is now sixty-one. These are to be found scattered throughout all portions of the Church, including the North-West, where there are now four; while the original expectation of the friends of the College, that it would supply the lack of ministers in its own district is shown to be realized by the fact that twenty-eight of its graduates are settled as ministers or ordained missionaries within the bounds of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa. The Board would also call attention to this fact, which is worthy of notice, that twenty-two of its graduates are able to conduct services in two languages.

The Treasurer's statement shows that the financial position of the College is somewhat more favourable than at the time of the last report. This is owing mainly to the generous liberality of Mr. Joseph Jackson, of Montreal, a gentleman not connected with the Presbyterian Church, who has made a donation to the College of $4,000, of which $3,000 has been already received in cash. This donation has been made a separate fund for the present; as it is one of the conditions on which it was received, that an annuity should be paid to Mr. Jackson from the proceeds during his lifetime.

In addition to this, however, it is gratifying to be able to state that each of the separate funds, except that for endowment, shows an increase over last year. The ordinary revenue has exceeded the expenditure by $190. The scholarship endowment fund has received an increase of $500, and the ordinary scholarship fund, $239. The debt on the library fund has been paid off, and a small balance remains on hand, while the foundation of a library endowment fund has been laid, through the liberality of several friends who take a special interest in the collection of a proper library.

On the other hand, there has been sustained a loss of a little over $300 in the General Endowment Fund, through a mortgage received as a legacy several years ago. For this loss the authorities of the College are in no way responsible. The Board regrets to state, also, that the debt of about $6,000 on the Ordinary Revenue reported for the last three years, remains untouched, as well as that of over $8,000 on the building.

In connection with the financial position of the College, the Board cannot refrain from calling attention to the fact, which is clearly brought out in the estimates furnished to the Church by the Assembly's Finance Committee, of the unequal burden laid upon the constituency of this College for the support of Theological education. From their statement it clearly appears that this Eastern constituency requires to contribute at the rate of 33¢ cts. per communicant, while the Western constituency requires to contribute at the rate of only 18 cents. The disparity is all the greater, if the special subscriptions to the second Theological chair are taken into account, for then the amount required from the Eastern constituency rises to about 54 cents per communicant. In view of these facts, the Board cannot but urge respectfully upon the Assembly the necessity of equalizing the burden somewhat, either by enlarging the constituency of the College or by increasing the grant now made from the Western constituency. On the basis of the figures used by the Assembly's Committee on Estimates, an equal distribution per communicant would increase the grant from the Western section from $500 to $2,080, or including the special subscription for the Theological chair, from $500 to $4,200.

The Board has great pleasure in reporting that four additional scholarships have been provided through the liberality of several friends, and will be offered for competition next session, according to the terms laid down in the Calendar. One, of $50, is given by a minister of the Church, who was at one time a student in the College. Mr. D. Morrice has offered a second scholarship, amounting to $100. The late Mr. John Garrett, of Hamilton, by his will, provided for an annual French Scholarship of $50, and a gentleman who does not wish his name to be made public, has founded one of $50 annually, to be entitled the Nor'-West Scholarship.

The Board has also great pleasure in reporting that arrangements have been made for giving instruction in the Gaelic language, without drawing upon the ordinary funds of the College.

The Board would make the following recommendations:

1. That the recommendation contained in the Report of the Board of Examiners, to vest their powers henceforth in the Senate, be adopted.
2. That the recommendation of the Senate, which has also been approved by the Board of French Evangelization, as to the appointment of a French Professor of Theology, be adopted, and that his salary be fixed at $2,000 per annum, to be paid, as heretofore, by the Board of French Evangelization.

In the event of this recommendation being adopted by the Assembly, the Board is prepared to suggest the name of a gentleman in every way suited to this work.

3. That the Rev. John Scrimger, M.A., be reappointed Lecturer in Greek and Hebrew Exegesis, at a salary, as before, of $900.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE SENATE OF THE PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE OF MONTREAL, FOR THE SESSION OF 1879-80.

The Senate of the Presbyterian College, of Montreal, beg to report that sixty-two students were enrolled during the past session; thirty-nine in Theological classes, and twenty-three in the Arts course of McGill University, and under the care of the special lecturer in Classics and Mathematics.

The Senate refer to the Report of the Board of Examiners for the standing accorded to students and for scholarships, prizes, and other distinctions awarded them. Ten have completed their Theological curriculum and passed preliminary examinations for license before the Presbytery of Montreal.

Two were suddenly removed by death about the middle of the session, viz., Mr. Alexander Anderson, second year Theology, and Mr. J. Fraser, second year Arts, both young men of earnest piety and much promise.

The work of instruction was conducted by the following Professors and Lecturers: Rev. Principal McVicar, LL.D., Professor of Systematic Theology, Homiletics, and Church Government; Rev. J. Campbell, M.A., Professor of Church History and Apologetics; Rev. J. Scrimger, M.A., Lecturer in Old and New Testament Exegesis; Rev. A. B. Mackay, Lecturer in Sacred Rhetoric and Elocution; Rev. A. B. Cruchet, Lecturer in Sacred Rhetoric and Homiletics (French); Rev. P. Wright, Lecturer in Classics and Mathematics; A. C. Hutchison, Esq., Lecturer in Ecclesiastical Architecture.

The Senate acknowledge their special indebtedness to Mr. Mackay and Mr. Hutchison, whose valuable services have been rendered without remuneration.

The weekly devotional meetings of Professors and Students have been well sustained, and have afforded opportunities for the discussion of many important subjects bearing upon Ministerial usefulness and success.

The Students' Missionary Society, which reports its work to the Assembly's Home Mission Committee, has been specially active during the session in conducting a Gaelic service in Stanley Street Church on Sabbath afternoons, and five prayer meetings in different parts of the city in connection with the other Presbyterian churches. The Society employs three of its members as missionaries during the coming summer at Mississippi, Coaticook, and Rawdon.

The Literary and Philosophical Society, it is believed, rendered excellent service in promoting the ends it contemplates by its ordinary and public meetings. The prizes competed for were awarded at the request of the Society by the Rev. J. S. Black, Rev. J. Fleck, and Rev. A. B. Mackay.

The Senate strongly recommend all students to be active members of both these Societies. The Library has received an addition of 282 vols., 69 vols. having been presented by several friends, and 213 vols. purchased by Mrs. Redpath, Terrace Bank. The necessity for more room and a fire-proof building for the Library, as stated in last year's report, is becoming more and more urgent.

The Senate report with special pleasure that, through the liberality of certain benefactors of the College, provision has been made for a course of Lectures in the Gaelic Language and Literature, which will be delivered next Session by the Rev. Neil McNab, B.D., LL.D., Cornwall. This is the first instance in Canada of such facilities being afforded for the study of a language which is extensively used in the service of the Church.

The Senate respectfully represent to the General Assembly that the time has arrived for extending the work of the French department of the College. In addition to missionaries such as have hitherto been prepared, the Board of French Evangelization require a large number of Colporteurs specially trained for the work, and thoroughly instructed in Biblical knowledge and in the Romish Controversy as it exists in Canada. For these purposes the services of a Lecturer are inadequate. It is therefore recommended that the General Assembly appoint a French Professor of Theology, of high attainments and undoubted Missionary zeal, to devote his whole time to this department.

All which is respectfully submitted.

D. H. McVICAR,
Chairman.

THIRD YEAR LITERARY COURSE—H. M. Ami, R. Gamble.

SECOND YEAR LITERARY COURSE—D. Mackay, S. Rondeau, G. Whillans.

FIRST YEAR LITERARY COURSE—A. Lee, W. Fraser, W. K. Shearer.

UNCLASSIFIED IN LITERARY COURSE.—The following Students, whose studies have been interrupted by sickness, or who from other causes have failed to take all the work of their year, await their standing after examination: R. B. Arthur, H. W. Barber, A. F. Blouin, D. G. Cameron, J. Dow, J. E. Luclos, L. Gobeille, J. F. Grant, G. F. H. Hitchcock, R. Laprise, J. Martel, J. T. Reid, W. D. Roberts, R. Smart.

In connection with the final examination the following awards were made to the successful candidates:

THE GOLD MEDAL for excellence in all the work, pass and honour, of the Third Year, J. F. McLaren.

THE MACKAY SCHOLARSHIP of $60, for excellence in the pass work of the same, J. F. McLaren.

THE MORRICE SCHOLARSHIP of $100, for all the work, pass and honour, of the Second Year, J. Mitchell.

The severity of the examinations is attested by the fact that five of the most valuable Scholarships, amounting in all to $340, remain untaken, it being the feeling of the Board that such Scholarships should only be given for special excellence in the prescribed course of study.

In view of the permission given by the recently adopted College regulations, to dispense with a Board of Examiners, and of the fact that your Board in Montreal has, from the beginning, been a mere name as distinguished from the Senate, it is respectfully recommended that the said Board do cease to exist, and that its functions be henceforth vested in the Senate; said Senate to be permitted also to appoint examiners within the Church but outside of itself, whenever the interests of the College demand it.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

MONTREAL, 27th May, 1880.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF SUPERINTENDENCE OF THE PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, HALIFAX—1879-1880.

The Board begs respectfully to submit the following Report respecting the Institution over which they have been appointed to watch:

I. OPENING AND CLOSING EXERCISES.

The Session was opened with a lecture delivered in Chalmers' Church, on November 6th, on the Book of Deuteronomy, by Rev. Professor Currie, and was closed with a public meeting held in Fort Massey Church, on the evening of April 29th. The Professors gave brief statements respecting their work, showing that the Session had been a busy and successful one; prizes were presented and a valedictory read by Mr. W. S. Whittier, after which addresses were delivered by Rev. A. McLean Sinclair, Dr. Waters and Rev. K. McLennan. Collections for the library were taken both at the opening and closing services.

II. LIST OF STUDENTS.

Fifteen regular students were enrolled, of whom one, from loss of health, retired a few weeks after the class exercises began. The actual number for the whole Session was therefore only fourteen.

Third Year.—W. S. Whittier, J. W. McLeod, Richmond Logan, Edward Thorpe, William A. Mason, and Ewan Gilles.

Second Year.—Murdoch Campbell, Angus Sillars, B.A., James A. Forbes, Angus McMillan and Anderson Rogers.

First Year.—A. B. McLeod, C. D. McLaren, and James McKenzie.

The following reports by the Professors afford full and somewhat detailed information respecting the course of study and the progress of the students.

DR. MACKNIGHT'S REPORT.

The Session opened with an attendance of fifteen students. One of these, however, had injured his health by over work as a catechist in summer, and found it necessary to return home in the middle of the Session. Of the remaining fourteen, eight attended the class of Apologetics. The work of this class embraces three general topics:—Natural Theology, the Evidences of Christianity, and the Rule of Faith. As regards the mode of instruction, three methods are combined—lecture, examination on a text-book, and review of some of the most important books on the subject. The class of Systematic Theology was attended by six students. The subjects of lecture in this class were Christology and Revealed Ethics. On both subjects a historical mode of treatment was adopted. The doctrine concerning Christ, His Person and His Work, was traced through Old Testament prophecy, and then exhibited as set forth by Christ Himself, and His Apostles. The history of revelation was followed up by the history of the formulation or scientific expression of the doctrine, till the time of the Nicene Council. In tracing the revelation of human duty we did not get further than the Old Testament. On text-book day (Thursday) we used a portion of Hodge's Outlines. In both classes the usual discourses were read and criticised. Of the exegetical hour (one day in the week), I was kindly relieved by Dr. Burns in the earlier part of the Session. When his lectures were completed, I found occasion to deviate from my usual course of continuous reading in New Testament Greek, and gave the hour to an exegetical examination of passages bearing or supposed to bear on the Baptist controversy.

I have pleasure in testifying to the diligence of the students, and to the propriety of their conduct both in class and out of it.

HALIFAX, 29th April, 1880,

A. MCKNIGHT, D.D.

CLASS OF CHURCH HISTORY, PASTORAL THEOLOGY AND HOMILETICS.

During the first month of the Session this class studied the ninth century of Church History. From the beginning of December the study of the last period of Church History, in its ancient and classic form, was commenced. This was followed by the study of the first and second periods of Church History in its mediæval and Germanic form of development. These sections, except when examinations were held upon the lectures, occupied the class till the middle of April.

During the past half of the Session lectures were given three times each week on the external history of the Church from the Apostolic Age to the reign of Heraclius and the rise of Mohammedanism in the seventh century. In these lectures attention was directed to the persecutions which the Church suffered during the early centuries, the opposition of the heathen philosophers and the writings of the Christian apologists.

In the beginning of February a course of lectures, forming part of a general course on the Apostolic Age, was resumed. The subject of lecture during the past Session was the writings of the Apostle John, which in our time have become a special subject of attack. This course occupied two months—from the beginning of February till the end of March.

During the month of April five lectures upon Foreign Missions were, in obedience to an injunction of the Synod, delivered. Want of time, arising from the number of subjects belonging to the work of the class, rendered it necessary to make this course short, and to confine attention to a particular branch of the subject, viz.: The support of foreign missions as an essential part of the duty of every Christian congregation, the best methods of awakening an interest in foreign missions among members of the Church, and the reasons why, from a congregational point of view, every congregation should take a part in this cause.

On two days of each week examinations upon the text-books and lectures were held. The substance of these ordinary examinations was to some extent embodied in the two written examinations of the Session. Since the 6th of February, discourses on subjects prescribed at the close of the preceding Session were read and criticised in the class. In addition to the work of the Church History class, one hour in the class of New Testament Exegesis was occupied in reading passages from the Greek New Testament. In this way seven chapters have been read and critically examined.

Upon the whole, a good deal of work has been performed in this class during the Session, and there is every reason to think that the studies of the class have been profitable, and that progress has been made by the students, whose conduct has been perfectly satisfactory, and, in so far as known, in harmony with their views as students preparing for the ministry. The highest hopes of their future usefulness may be entertained, and the Church may be congratulated upon the prospect of having so many able and excellent young men enlisted in the work of the Gospel ministry.

ALLAN POLLOCK.

HEBREW AND EXEGETICAL CLASSES.

During the term which has just closed the junior Hebrew class, attended by the first-year students, met every day and went through Green's Elementary Grammar and Reader, a manual which presents a good outline of the etymology and syntax of the language, and contains a series of reading-lessons strictly progressive in their character and embracing as much matter as twelve or thirteen chapters of ordinary length. Paradigms were committed to memory, and every word in the lessons was subjected to a careful analysis. An exercise in Hebrew composition was prescribed once a week.

The senior Hebrew class, composed of the students of the second and third years, and also meeting every day, studied Green's large Grammar, and read thirty chapters selected from Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Judges, Samuel, Kings, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Amos, Psalms, Proverbs, Job, the Song, and Ecclesiastes. No difficulty was designedly passed over in the reading, and as much attention was given to the exegesis as time would permit. In Chaldee, portions of Ezra and Daniel were read, also extracts from three of the Targums. For about three months a Hebrew composition was prepared once a week. Towards the close of the term a few lessons in Arabic were given from Bagster's elementary handbook of that language.

In this connection I may be allowed to recommend that students who have the ministry in view should endeavour to comply with the requirements of the Church by obtaining some elementary instruction in Hebrew before entering the Hall. This might be done by attendance upon classes or by private study. Should Hebrew be made an elective in an arts course, the Church might, as a general rule, insist upon a knowledge of the elements of the language as a qualification for entrance upon the study of theology. Although with us the Hebrew classes meet every day, and in all about eighty chapters during the curriculum are carefully read, yet, unless a student has some special aptitude for the language, a longer period is necessary to enable him to handle the original of the Old Testament with as great facility as he does that of the New. Looking at the growing importance of topics, the discussion of which cannot be disavowed from an accurate acquaintance with Hebrew, the Halls in Britain and in the United States are earnestly pondering how they can best raise the standard of Hebrew scholarship; but while all admit the importance of this matter, the churches, with few exceptions, have not as yet positively enacted that even the elements of the language shall be included among the subjects of examination for students about to enter upon the study of theology. In Germany Hebrew is taught in the Gymnasium, and a student of theology in the very outset is expected to read Hebrew almost as easily as Greek. While our Halls cannot attain such heights, at least for a long time, we should aim at improvement.

But to proceed. The Exegetical class attended by all the students met three times a week. On Mondays I delivered a written lecture. The first matter discussed was Inspiration, covering six lectures. Then the subject of Hermeneutics was taken up and continued to the end of the term. For a part of the Session, Wednesday was devoted to Greek Exegesis, and the first five chapters of 1st Corinthians were read, four or five verses on an average forming the subject of a study. In this exercise, first the various headings were noted and their claims examined, then the passage was expounded orally. For the last two months the hour on Wednesday was occupied in hearing Hebrew and Greek critical exercises, the former being read by students of the third year, and the latter by students of the first. These exercises, as is the custom, were criticised by the class as well as from the chair. On Fridays the class was examined on Hodge's Lectures on Inspiration, and on Part IV. of Barrow's Introduction to the Bible, which treats of Biblical interpretation.

During the Session two written examinations were held, one in December and the other in March. As a wholesome stimulus to study the examinations have been very beneficial, and in the Hebrew and Exegetical, as well as in the other departments of the Hall's work, the results of last Session have been fully abreast of those of any previous year.

I have much pleasure in testifying that, so far as I know, the conduct of the students has been altogether becoming their profession.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN CURRIE.

HALIFAX, April 29th, 1880.

III. A LECTURESHIP.

Although no lecturer has been appointed, the zeal of the Chairman has led to a de facto lecture-ship during the last as during the preceding course. Last year Dr. Burns delivered eight lectures on "The Principles, Practices, Missions and Institutions of the Jesuits," and this year he has delivered nine lectures: five on "Universalism, Restorationism, and Annihilationism;" two on the "Life and Times of John Knox;" and two on "Certain Phases of Modern Thought." This course was highly appreciated by the students, eliciting their unanimous thanks and the Committee's cordial approval.

IV. PRIZES.

In connection with the class examinations the following distinctions were awarded to the successful competitors:

The St. David's Sabbath School prize of $40, to Mr. J. W. McLeod, for excellence in all the work of the third year; second prize, to Mr. E. Thorpe, $25; and third, to Mr. R. Logan, $15.

The class prizes, for general excellence in the second year, were awarded, first, to Mr. Anderson Rogers, $25; the second, to Mr. M. Campbell, $15; and the third, to Mr. Angus Sillars, $10; the fourth, to Mr. E. Gilles, $10.

The class prizes in the first year were awarded, the first, to Mr. A. B. McLeod, $25; the second, to Mr. James McKenzie, $15.

The Fort Massey Church prizes were for the best two essays on "The Jesuits:" first prize of $30, won by Mr. A. Rogers; the second of $20, by Mr. A. Sillars.

The St. Matthew's prize of $25, was awarded to Mr. W. A. Mason, for the best essay on the "Subjects and Mode of Baptism."

The John Gibson prize for the best essay on the subject "Can God be Known?" was awarded to Mr. W. S. Whittier, $25.

The McMillan prize, given by Rev. J. McMillan, of Truro, for the best sermon on Matt. vii. 13, 14, was won by Mr. R. Logan, $25.

The Winch prize, for the best reading of the Scriptures, $6, was given to Mr. J. A. Forbes.

The Dr. Norman McLeod prize, given "in memoriam" by Rev. George Lawson Gordon, for the best essays in Gaelic on "The Extent to which the Doctrine of the Resurrection was held among the Jews," were awarded to Mr. M. Campbell, $20, and to Mr. A. McMillan, $10.

The prize provided by Rev. T. Chalmers Jack, for the best critical exercise on Isa. lii. 13-15, amounting to $30, was won by Mr. J. W. McLeod.

The Calendar will give full information respecting the prizes offered for the next Session.

V. LIBRARY.

$134.97 have been expended in replenishing the library, and the thanks of the Committee are due to Peter Ross, Esq., of Halifax, for a donation of $30 to this object. The Committee have also to tender cordial thanks to their Chairman for the valuable gift of the Encyclopedia Britannica, latest edition, purchased by the proceeds of his lecture on the "Life of Dr. Chalmers," recently delivered in different places for the benefit of the College.

VI. BURSARY FUND.

It will thus be seen that the students have been aided by bursaries, by prizes, and, in the case of those boarding in the College, by reduction of rate of board, the whole amount of such aid being as shewn $972.

Only fourteen congregations have taken part last year in this way of showing interest in the College, and a few gave the chief portion of what is credited to congregations. St. Matthew's furnished a contribution of $56.75 and a prize of $25; Fort Massey furnished in prizes $30; St. David's, St. John, N. B., Sabbath school, for prize, $40; St. Andrew's, Halifax, $30 in contributions; and St. Paul's, Truro, $15.

While thankfully acknowledging these aids from congregations, the Committee would record with thanks the following handsome donations for special prizes: John Gibson, Esq., of Halifax, $25; Rev. John McMillan, of Truro, $25; Rev. T. Chalmers Jack, of Maitland, $25; Rev. G. L. Gordon, of Grand River, C.B., $30; and chief among our benefactors in this department is an anonymous, though not an unknown, "friend in St. John's, Newfoundland," who, through Rev. L. G. Macneill, has sent $300 for bursaries, with notice that if the Lord shall continue his life and grant His blessing, as in the past, that he will continue this gift for six years. Rev. J. McMillan has also paid to stock $100, which provides $5 per annum for the elocution prize, the gift being, it is understood, "in memoriam," and consisting, at least in part, of what may be regarded as the bequest of a dear boy called home.

Amidst the various objects which call forth the liberality of our people this may not be the most clamant, yet it is confidently hoped that both congregations and individuals will have the College and the students in their hearts, and that they will shew their appreciation by following the example of those whose benefactions have just been recorded.

Owing to the prolonged and undiminished depression of business, severely affecting all classes in the Maritime Provinces, the Committee did not press for the collection of outstanding subscriptions to this fund. They have not, however, been unmindful of the need of stirring up our people's mind by way of remembrance, and have instructed their Finance Committee to use all diligence, during the present year, in pushing forward the work of completing the subscription lists, and of collecting what has been subscribed without any unnecessary delay. The Committee would bespeak the hearty co-operation of Presbyteries, and of true friends of the College in this effort.

VIII. FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

"The Committee have to report receipts above expenditure by $448.96. The congregational collections having risen from $1,098.01 last year to $1,959.02, and interest paid from $5,033.74 to $6,110.63, the latter increase arising to the extent of $805.04 from interest accumulated in the hands of Messrs. Farquhar, Forest & Co., from College Endowment funds, and therefore properly applied to meet current expenses.

It is gratifying to note increase in the number of congregations contributing to the College from 69 in 1878 to 95 in 1879 and now to 107 in 1880, and your Committee would anticipate a further increase during the year now current.

CONCLUSION.

The committee feel constrained, in closing, to record their gratitude for the Divine goodness and guidance. The Lord has preserved professors and students, and blessed the institution. In the death of George Buist the Committee has lost one of its most efficient and valuable members, and has entered on its minutes a suitable record of his worth. Should all the members of Committee prove as faithful to their trust, and as zealous for the welfare of the College as our departed brother, its external management will be well nigh perfect, and professors and students will enjoy all practicable facilities for the prosecution of the high aims for which they are associated.

All which is respectfully submitted.

R. F. BURNS, Chairman.
P. G. MCGREGOR, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT OF MANITOBA COLLEGE.—1879-80.

The College of Manitoba begs leave to present its Annual Report. The College began the Session on the 1st Tuesday in September, and completed its work in the first week of June. The rapid increase of population in the country, and the larger number of those desiring a higher education for their sons, have brought a larger number than ever heretofore to take advantage of the facilities offered by the College. The whole number of students for the year has been 47. Collegiate education has received a great impetus during the past two years in Manitoba. The establishment of a local University has given much interest to the subject of higher education, and the three colleges—the Roman Catholic, Church of England, and our own, have worked together with the greatest harmony. This year the number of students going up from the three colleges to the University examinations is twenty-five (25); of these sixteen (16) went up from Manitoba College. One student from Manitoba College has completed the course in Natural Science Honours and has proceeded to the first B.A. examination ever held in the Canadian North-West. This student is one of the mixed bloods of the country, and the grandson of one of the foremost men in the North-West in the establishment of the Presbyterian faith on the banks of Red River—Hon. Donald Gunn.

The action of the Assembly last year in limiting the responsibility of the Assembly to the amount of $3,400 for Professors' salaries, compelled the College Board to take further steps to meet the wants of the College for the year. The Board estimated that $800 would be necessary in excess of the amount already raised from local sources. The several congregations and mission stations were enjoined by the Presbytery to take up collections for the College; the response was very general, though, as was to be expected, the amounts given by congregations chiefly supplemented, or simply mission stations, could not be large. The amount raised from congregations was $218.61; from subscriptions, $247.50; from marriage license fees, $310; total, $776.11, being some $600 in excess of amount raised from local sources last year. The College Board is glad to notice that the Free Church of Scotland, and the Irish Presbyterian Church have given handsome donations to the College during the past year. Rev. Mr. Sprott, the delegate of the Church of Scotland, accompanied Prof. Bryce on his return from the General Assembly last year. The Board trust that his visit may result in a grant being given to the College, and also hope that all the mother Churches in the old land may be able to assist their children in the remote North-West.

The Board would earnestly represent to the Assembly the importance of keeping the claims of the College prominently before the eyes of the Churches in Britain. The immigration now setting in from Scotland to the North-West makes this all the more pressing. The Board is glad to notice the ever increasing number of congregations throughout Ontario and Quebec, which give a portion of their gatherings for the schemes of the Church to Manitoba College, and would return its special thanks to such congregations. On account of the number of Nova Scotians coming to the North-West, the Board would rejoice also to see a growing interest in the College in the Maritime Provinces.

During the past year the College has had under its care and training the three young men placed by the authority of the General Assembly under the care of the Presbytery, as students for the ministry. Regular instruction has been given these young men, with another since added. One of the three is recommended to the Assembly to be received into the ministry of the Church. The effect of training up a native ministry in a Church can hardly be overestimated; and the College, while not yet in a position to assume the responsibilities of training regular classes of students in Theology, looks with pride upon the fact that so early in its history three promising labourers have passed from its halls and are working in the mission field as regular appointees of the Home Mission Committee, and that probably not less than six young men may be studying in the College in connection with the work of the ministry next year.

The great question that now must occupy the attention of the Board, is a new College building. The present College building was got at a cost of $4,000. It is a wooden building, and while four years ago it was regarded as very suitable, yet, the demand for more room for class rooms, library and students' accommodation, together with the great improvement that has taken place in buildings in Winnipeg, compel the Board to consider the question of a new building as a most imperative one. Though the wooden building has depreciated in value, yet, it was bought in a locality where property has risen, so that probably the amount paid, or near it, might be realized for the building. The Board, four years ago, secured an excellent site of two acres for $500, which is now valued at $2,500, and during the past year received the patent from the Government. Had the Board an amount to begin upon, from outside sources, with the amount to be realized from property on hand, a considerable amount could be raised by friends of the College in Winnipeg, and others who look on the College as a local advantage. A building suitable would require from $15,000 to $20,000, and both the interests of the College and the honour of the Church demand that an effort should be made of an earnest character. A building to cost $30,000 is now in course of erection for St. Boniface Roman Catholic College—one of the Colleges affiliated to the University of Manitoba.

During the year the College library has received as the results of the efforts of Dr. Patterson in Scotland and Ireland a large consignment of valuable books, the gift of friends in Britain and Nova Scotia. The books number well upon two thousand (2,000) volumes, and extend over a wide range of knowledge. The library has now reached nearly 3,000 volumes.

As already stated the University of Manitoba has now been long enough in operation for the first student passing through the course to have reached the B.A. examination. Others are at the various stages on the way to that end, and the expectations entertained are being more than realized as to numbers pursuing the full course. But all this has laid increased duties on the professors. The lectures on science, the subject pursued by the two highest years, have been given chiefly in the evening, the time of the staff being almost wholly occupied during the day with other work. rejoicing that the work has been done, the Board is of opinion that the teaching staff should be strengthened by obtaining an assistant able to relieve the professors of part of their present work, in place of the class of assistant at present employed. This will involve a small increase in expenditure. To meet this the Board pledges itself to still further increase on the amount raised from local sources, and would ask the Assembly to increase the amount of its responsibility to $3,850, the sum previously allowed the College by the Assembly. The Board is of opinion that from the work being done, and from the growing interest in the advancement of the College throughout the Church, such action would be regarded as wise and necessary by the people at large.

The reports of the Senate and of the Treasurer are herewith transmitted.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. G. B. BANNATYNE,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE SENATE OF MANITOBA COLLEGE FOR THE YEAR 1879-80.

The Senate of Manitoba College begs leave to submit the following report to the Board of Management of the College:

STAFF OF INSTRUCTORS.

The Rev George Bryce, M.A., LL.B., Professor of Science and Literature; the Rev. Thomas Hart, M.A., B.D., Professor of Classics and French; the Rev. James Robertson, and the Rev. John Black, D.D., Lecturers in Theology; Mr. A. M. Campbell, Elementary Tutor.

NAMES OF STUDENTS.

Senior Department.—W. R. Gunn, J. B. Polworth, W. McK. Omand, R. R. Sutherland, A. M. Campbell, D. McGregor, R. G. McBeth, T. M. Hardie, G. M. Atkinson, D. Anderson, H. Ogletree, J. H. Mulvey, J. Code, J. Newcomb, F. Brown, G. McLeod, R. Swayze, J. Kennedy, R. Wood, J. Agnew, J. Huggard, D. H. McVicar, J. Hargrave, W. Scott, T. Scott, T. W. Scott, X. McPhillips, W. Lyon, A. Hursell, A. Stewart, H. Stevenson, G. Parker, N. Ferguson—33.

Junior Department.—R. Bannatyne, T. Moore, R. Strang, C. Kennedy, F. Lyon, G. Murray, H. McGregor, Reg. Strang, A. McLaren, J. Scott, J. Freeman, A. Logan, A. Craig, C. Nicol—14. Total number of Students, 47.

COLLEGE EXAMINATIONS.

These were held at the close of each of the three terms into which the session is divided, and with results, in nearly every case, satisfactory. The progress made by Mr. D. McGregor in the special course appointed for him by the Presbytery of Manitoba, has been of a highly satisfactory character.

ANNUAL PUBLIC MEETING.

This meeting was held this session in the new Knox Church, Winnipeg, at the December meeting of the Presbytery of Manitoba. Although the evening was cold and stormy there was a good attendance of the members of the Presbytery, former students, and other friends of the College.

The medals, prizes, and bursaries previously gained were awarded to the successful students, and appropriate addresses were given by the professors, the Rev. Messrs. Robertson, McRae and Ewing, Consul Taylor, and the Hon. S. C. Briggs.

MEALS, PRIZES, BURSARIES, ETC.

The Governor-General's medal (silver) was this year awarded to J. B. Polworth, as a result of both the College and University examinations. The Argyle medal (bronze) was awarded to W. McKay Omand for passing the best preliminary examination in the University of Manitoba. The first prize in the second form was awarded to R. R. Sutherland; G. M. Atkinson and D. Anderson (equal) were each awarded a prize in the first form, and J. H. Mulvey, and H. Ogletree, received honourable mention in the same form. The Senate bursaries for entrants were gained, in the order of their names, by W. Scott, D. H. McVicar (equal), T. H. Scott and A. Hursell.

UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.

A larger number of the students of the College are this year undergoing the University examinations than in any former year. This year go less a number than sixteen of the students of Manitoba College have presented themselves for examination—eight for the Preliminary, six for the Previous and two for the Honour Science course.

COLLEGE LIBRARY.

The Senate records with very great satisfaction that a large addition, consisting of some 1,800 vols., has lately, through the unwearied efforts of the Rev. Dr. Patterson, been made to the College Library. Many of these are works of a most valuable kind, and must prove a great boon to the students of the College.

The Senate also records with satisfaction that a bursary of the value of $40 has been, for this year, placed at its disposal by a warm friend of our cause in this Province, in Montreal. A few additional bursaries of this description would prove of great assistance and encouragement to deserving young men preparing for future usefulness in the numerous mission fields of the Church, scattered over the vast regions of the Canadian North-West.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEORGE BRYCE,
Chairman.

MANITOBA COLLEGE—REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ORDINARY REVENUE.

The Assembly's Committee on the Ordinary Revenue of Manitoba College held several meetings during the year.

At a meeting held in Toronto, on the 26th of November, 1879, the case of the Rev. Dr. Patterson was referred by the Assembly to the Committee for final settlement was considered.

1. The Committee found that the resolution of Assembly, appointing Dr. Patterson to raise funds in Great Britain toward the endowment of the College, provided that his remuneration should be at the rate of one thousand dollars per annum together with travelling expenses, to be paid out of the moneys raised by him.

2. That the sum of $615.76 was collected by him in Scotland. His travelling expenses from Nova Scotia to the North-West and back, and to Scotland, while there, and back, amounted to $315.76, leaving a balance of $100 to meet his salary while in the employment of the Assembly.

The Committee after mature consideration of the whole matter came to the following conclusion:

1. That the amount for travelling expenses, etc.—namely, $615.76—is quite reasonable.

2. That the sum of $600 be allowed as a fair remuneration for time and service while acting as an Agent of the Assembly.

3. That the Assembly, in referring the matter for final settlement to the Committee, having failed to designate any particular fund out of which to pay Dr. Patterson, and the Committee having no funds at their disposal, it was agreed that the Rev. Dr. Reid be requested to pay Dr. Patterson the sum of $200, and to charge the same in the meantime to the Assembly Fund, and that the Assembly be asked at its first meeting in Montreal to designate the fund out of which the balance of $300 shall be paid.

The Committee are of opinion, that, inasmuch as the fund out of which, according to resolution of Assembly, Dr. Patterson was to be paid has proved insufficient to meet salary and expense in full, the balance is a legitimate charge on the Assembly Fund.

The Rev. Dr. Reid at a subsequent meeting informed the Committee that owing to the Assembly Fund being in debt, he paid out of the money contributed to the Ordinary Revenue of the College the amount he was requested to forward to Dr. Patterson. The Committee approved of Dr. Reid's action.

The Convener in accordance with the Committee's instruction issued a circular in December in which the claims of the College for support were briefly presented. A copy of this circular was mailed to each minister in charge of a congregation within the Church. The Committee find that only a few congregations have responded to their appeal; these few, however, contributed generally. After the Assembly has repeatedly expressed its settled conviction that the maintenance of the College in efficiency is of essential importance to the interests of our Church in the great North-West, and asked congregations to contribute to its support, your Committee regret that so little loyalty to the supreme court of the Church has been manifested in this matter. They are not disposed to blame congregations, for they are fully persuaded that wherever the claims of the College have been fairly presented to the people, contributions have been given for its support.

Your Committee are at a loss to understand why the Home Mission Committee of the Western Section have reduced the grant of $2,000 given in former years to $400 this year, especially when it is remembered that the indebtedness of the College at present is over $4,000.

It is not to be supposed that the Home Mission Committee regard the $1,200 given this year by the Free and Irish Churches as a part of their fund, for these Churches contributed this amount specially to the College and in addition to it gave a liberal aid to the Home Mission Fund.

It is within the knowledge of the Committee that some congregations which are deeply interested in the prosperity of Manitoba College and which contributed liberally to the Home Mission Fund, were under the impression that the grant of this year would be equal to that of last year. Had they known that such a reduction would be made they certainly would have given less to the Home Mission Fund and more to the College.

The following is a statement of the fund:—

The Committee are strongly of opinion that a more generous support should be given to the College from local sources than at present. They would therefore respectfully recommend to the Assembly :

1. To urge on the friends of the institution in the Province of Manitoba and especially in the city of Winnipeg to assume henceforth a larger share of responsibility in supporting it than in the past, so as to reduce considerably the amount required from the Assembly for its maintenance.
2. Also to derive some means by which the present indebtedness of the College may be speedily removed.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FRENCH EVANGELIZATION.

In presenting their Fifth Annual Report to the General Assembly, the Board of French Evangelization desire to express their heartfelt gratitude to the Great King and Head of the Church for the large measure of success vouchsafed during the past year. It is impossible to review the work of the year without being constrained to say, "What has God wrought!" The continued prosperity of the cause in the stations formerly occupied by the Church; the large addition of ten new fields, which during the year have been placed under the care of the Board; the raising up by God of missionaries peculiarly adapted for these fields; the encouraging increase in the contributions in a year of continued commercial depression, and of special appeals for other departments of the Church's work; and, above all, the marked increase in the number of the converts, and the general prosperity and advancement of the cause of French Evangelization in connection with the Board, all call for deep and heartfelt gratitude. "This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes."

THE FIELD OF OPERATION.

It is a matter of great importance that our people should have correct views of the vast magnitude of the field in which the operations of the Board are carried on. The French-speaking people of the Dominion of Canada constitute one-third of the entire population. In the Province of Quebec, nine-tenths of the population—embracing more than a million of souls—are of French descent, the vast majority of whom are still blindly devoted to a corrupt faith. Though it is within this Province chiefly that the operations of the Board are conducted, they are by no means confined to it. In every one of the other provinces there is a considerable French-speaking population, and the Board are seeking, as far as the means at their disposal will admit, to supply these with Gospel ordinances. From another part of this report it will be seen that the Board have missionaries not only in Quebec, but also in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Ontario and Manitoba, and are about to commence operations in Prince Edward Island.

THE OBJECT OF THE BOARD.

Having full faith in the power of God's Word, and believing that the truth alone can make a people free, the great aim of the Board is to give the truth to those million and a quarter French Canadian Roman Catholics, assured that it not only reveals God's way of peace, but that it is the most potent lever to elevate them to that position in the social and religious scale to which their native genius and historic antecedents so eminently entitle them.

While fidelity to the truth of God, love to the souls of men, and loyalty to her King and Head, should prompt the Church to carry on this work, and seek to evangelize those to whom we are related by so many ties of commercial and social intercourse, it is none the less true that self-protection demands this at our hands. So that the question is not, "Can our Church afford to carry on this work?" but rather, "Can she afford to let it alone?" She may count the cost, and find that to prosecute it requires the expenditure of so much money, and the absorption of so much thought and energy, and ask, "Is the outlay warranted?" An intelligent decision is not difficult to reach. Can our Church, by a parsimonious economy, afford to remain an indifferent spectator of error, superstition and priestcraft? Can she refuse to give the Gospel of Christ to a million and a quarter of our fellow-countrymen, who are trusting for salvation to a "man-devised and God-dishonouring ecclesiasticism?" Can she afford to rear her children in close contact with an idolatrous religion, which she sanctions by her silence and inactivity? Can she afford to imperil the nation's welfare by an attitude of indifference towards a Papal aggression which is more offensively flaunted on the banks of the St. Lawrence than in any other land on earth? Or rather can she afford to lose for herself the spiritual strength and blessing which cannot fail to attend her earnest efforts to reclaim our fellow-countrymen to a purer faith? Is it not, therefore, the Church's duty and privilege liberally to support with her contributions and her sympathy and her prayers, that scheme, the great object of which is to clear away the covering with which this corrupt faith has overlaid the simple story of the cross; to remove the veil of error which it has woven to hide the face of the Crucified; to beckon aside all human mediators between the soul and God, and to wake the echoes of Rome's long dark night with the cry, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved?"

THE AGENCIES EMPLOYED.

As in former years, the agencies employed by the Board are missionaries—ordained and unordained—teachers and colporteurs.

The missionaries, in addition to ministering to organized congregations of those who have severed their connection with Rome, and the teachers, in addition to imparting instruction to the young in school, devote a large portion of their time to visiting the homes of French Catholics, trying to win them to the Saviour. The colporteurs give their full services to the work of house-to-house visitation. The value of this kind of work is daily being made more manifest, and the necessity for increasing the number of labourers in this department more urgently felt. In spite of all that has been accomplished in the past in the work of French Evangelization, the great bulk of the Province of Quebec is still a moral wilderness, and there is unlimited scope beyond the sphere of either missionary or teacher, for the self-denying labours of a class of men who are willing to go from house to house, carrying in their heart the love of Christ, and in their hand the Word of Life, telling the "old, old story" to all who will listen, and scattering as they go those leaves which are for the healing of the nations. It is no exaggeration to state that hundreds of these men could be profitably employed among the French-speaking people in the Province. For this kind of work men of special gifts and thorough training and burning love for souls are needed. The Board more than ever feel the necessity of largely increasing their staff of colporteurs, and earnestly hope that the General Assembly will at its present meeting appoint a permanent French Professor in the Presbyterian College of Montreal, who shall devote part of his time to the efficient training of men willing to consecrate their lives to the work of colportage among the French Canadians of the Dominion. When it is borne in mind that in some of the most densely peopled districts of the land, there are not only townships and counties, but vast stretches of country, extending, in some instances, upwards of a hundred miles, where the voice of a Protestant missionary is never heard, the urgent need of a large addition to this class of labourers is at once patent.

FRENCH RELIGIOUS LITERATURE.

Hitherto the Board have generally received ample supplies of copies of the French Scriptures from various auxiliary Bible Societies. They have, however, found difficulty, especially since the closing of the French Canadian Missionary Society's Depository, in procuring tracts and other French literature suitable for distribution by the colporteurs and missionaries. It is hoped that satisfactory arrangements will soon be completed whereby a considerable stock of suitable French religious literature will hereafter regularly be kept in the office of the Board. An edition of French hymns was recently published by the Board, and an edition of the Westminster Assembly's Shorter Catechism in French is at present in the printer's hands. The publication of a small French monthly sheet, or the securing of a page or two of French matter in the Presbyterian Record each month, would be of considerable service in advancing the work of the Board. The number of copies of the Scriptures, in whole or in part, distributed during the year was 2372, together with upwards of 30,000 French tracts.

EX-ECCLESIASTICS.

During the year a number of ecclesiastics of the Church of Rome sought counsel and protection from the Board. For several of these situations were obtained, and two are at present teaching in connection with the Board. Great difficulty is experienced in dealing with priests, etc., who desire to sever their connection with the Church of Rome, chiefly because of the lack of a suitable home in which to receive and maintain them till thoroughly tested and instructed in the faith. It is hoped that this lack may ere long be supplied, when it is confidently anticipated numbers will come to us for protection and instruction.

JOINT FRENCH AND ENGLISH WORK.

This continues an important feature of the work of the Board, the supplying Gospel ordinances, by means of missionaries qualified to conduct services in both languages, to sparse English-speaking communities settled in French districts. At present no less than seventeen fields are thus supplied by the Board, in nearly all of which, were they not thus supplied, the English-speaking people would either be without religious ordinances, or enjoy them at a very heavy expenditure upon the Home Mission funds of the Church. The English-speaking Protestants in ten of these fields were entirely neglected by our Church until the Board established these joint French and English stations. This department of the work is destined to assume larger dimensions in future years, there being still many districts in several of the Provinces of the Dominion containing an English-speaking population with no Protestant missionary within reach of them. Nearly all the French students in the Presbyterian College of Montreal are qualifying themselves for service in such fields.

CONTRIBUTIONS FROM FIELDS.

The Board have expended much thought and effort during the year in endeavouring to train the converts to contribute as God prospers them, for the support of the missionaries labouring among them, and though the result is not all that they could desire, yet there is some improvement over former years.

Many of the converts are poor, and their abjuration of Romanism is not infrequently followed by dismissal from employment or the withdrawal of trade from them, rendering it very difficult for them maintaining their families, not to speak of supporting Gospel ordinances. It should also be borne in mind that in several of the fields occupied by the Board, the weak, struggling congregation has to meet the salary of the teacher in charge of the Mission day school. In addition to frequently calling attention to this matter from time to time during the year, the Board issued a special circular in September last urging the missionaries to lay before their people the duty and privilege of regularly and systematically contributing for Gospel ordinances. The Board hope next year to embody in their Annual Report a statistical table containing details as to the amounts contributed by the respective fields, the membership, number of families, attendance at the services, etc., etc. In a number of the fields collections were taken during the past year on behalf of several of the general schemes of the Church.

SUPERVISION OF PRESBYTERIES.

The Board are most anxious not only to work in harmony with the Presbyteries within whose bounds the French fields lie, but also to have the Presbyteries take supervision of the stations and missionaries, and are glad to report that with one or two exceptions, this is now the case. From the peculiarities of the work and the difference in language, there is necessarily a closer connection between the fields, missionaries, etc., and the Board, than is the case with Home Mission stations and the Committee supervising that department of the Church's work. The missionaries report monthly to the Board, and thus the most searching and minute supervision is exercised.

THE BRITISH AGENCY.

At their first meeting after last Assembly the Executive considered at length the question of the continuance of the British Agency and resolved after correspondence with the Agent to try it for a time longer; such however was the result that the Board resolved two months ago to discontinue the permanent agency in Britain, and instead thereof to ask occasionally one of the ministers of our own Church to visit the friends in Britain with a view to maintain their interest in our work. The Board attribute the meagre result during the past two years to the severe and unexampled commercial depression in Britain, and bear testimony, as the appended list of contributions warrants them in doing, to the zeal and diligence of the Rev. T. Stevenson who has amid many discouragements faithfully served the Board, and to whom the cordial thanks of the Church are due.

REV. C. CHINIQUEY.

After an absence of two years in the Australian Colonies Mr. Chiniquy arrived a fortnight ago at his home in Illinois, and intends being present at this meeting of Assembly. The Board report with thankfulness that Mr. Chiniquy's health has been completely restored, and express the hope that he may be spared to do valiant service in the cause so dear to his heart.

REPORTS CONCERNING FIELDS.

The following details of the work in the several fields occupied by the Board are culled from the Reports of the Missionaries during the year. They indicate encouraging progress, and will tend, it is hoped, to deepen the interest of all who love the cause of French Canadian Evangelization!—

GRAND FALLS, N.B.

For the past six years this field has been under the care of the Rev. M. R. Paradis. In addition to the stations formerly occupied he has recently opened a new preaching-place, four miles distant from Grand Falls, with such success that the people speak of erecting a house of worship, though there are but 12 families Protestants in the settlement. Believing that a change would be beneficial to his health Mr. Paradis intended to resign his charge this spring, but such was the pressure brought to bear upon him by the people that he has resolved to continue in the field. Not only are the members of his own congregation and the Protestants of the district generally strongly attached to him, but he has access to many Roman Catholic families in whose homes he is permitted to read the Word of Life and to converse upon religious topics. The attendance at the regular Sabbath services is on the increase, while sixteen receive instruction in the Bible-class and thirty-six in the Sabbath school. The most noteworthy incident of the year was the conversion of a young man of good family who had been studying for the priesthood of the Church of Rome, and conceiving whom Mr. Paradis has formed a very favourable opinion. During the nine months that have elapsed since his abjuration of Romanism and his profession of faith in Christ, he has remained steadfast, notwithstanding the fact that his parents have disowned him, and some of his relatives, several of whom are priests, have sought in many ways to shake his faith. He has visited many of his former friends and spoken to them about the Saviour. It is his intention to study for the ministry. In a recent letter Mr. Paradis thus writes of him: "With God's blessing I believe he will become an honoured instrument in saving souls from darkness and superstition, and in bringing them to the fold of the Great Shepherd." The contributions of the field were $150 for the year.

Mr. Bouchard being able to conduct services in both French and English, it is hoped that during the summer he may gather together a good English congregation, and at the same time successfully carry on work among the one hundred and twenty-five French families in the district so as to warrant his being permanently settled in the field.

GLOUCESTER COUNTY, N.B.

As stated in last year's report, the Board, at the request of the Presbytery of Miramichi, sent a missionary, Mr. I. P. Bruneau, to labour in this county where there are several settlements of French Catholics. Mr. Bruneau's headquarters were at Caraquet, where he conducted services regularly, as also at Tracadie, the average attendance at the former place being forty, and at the latter thirty. Mr. Bruneau occasionally visited Big and Little Shippegan, where from forty to fifty attended his services. At one meeting twenty-four French Catholics were present. The field contributed seventy dollars during the summer towards the salary of the missionary. The Presbytery of Miramichi expressed their satisfaction with Mr. Bruneau's labours, and at their request he was reappointed to the field for the present summer.

STELLARTON, N.S.

During the year services have been continued as heretofore in this field, the missionary, Rev. Telephone Brouillette, frequently visiting the new French settlement, twenty miles distant. Two families, numbering nine persons, have since last report embraced the Gospel.

Owing to the continued depression of business and the closing of the mines, very many of the families connected with the mission have been compelled to leave the district. Of eighty-five French-speaking families who have left the Church of Rome during the five years the mission has been in existence, only twelve now remain in the district. Though greatly discouraged on account of the large numbers that have been compelled to go elsewhere for employment, the missionary is cheered by the fact that those who have left have taken the Gospel with them, and in their new homes are manifesting its power in their daily lives. Twenty-five of the families have settled in Osage City, Kansas, and are most anxious to have a missionary sent to labour among them. Others have returned to France, taking back with them, as they themselves avow, that which they esteem more precious than the gold they came to this country to find.

Mr. Brouillette testifies that in so far as he has been able to trace them, not one has forsaken the Gospel, and that in not a few cases he has evidence that by their Christian character some of the converts of the mission are adorning the doctrine of God their Saviour in their new homes, shining as lights in the darkness that surrounds them.

The Mission day school in this field, which is attended by twenty-three pupils, eleven of whom are the children of Roman Catholics, is supported wholly by the voluntary contributions of the parents. It is under the charge of Mr. Briol, an earnest Christian young man recently from Switzerland, who has consecrated his life to the work of French evangelization. He studied for a period of two years and a half at Glay, France, and designs completing his course in Montreal with a view to the ministry of our Church. Mr. Briol spends a portion of his time in visiting Roman Catholic families, and in addition to a Sabbath school, conducts a prayer meeting on the Lord's day when Mr. Brouillette is absent.

ANTIGONISH COUNTY, N.S.

Owing to the decrease in the number of families in Stellarton, as referred to above, the Board, at the request of the Presbytery of Pictou, have appointed Mr. Brouillette to spend three months in the County of Antigonish where there is a very large French Catholic population. The field, humanly speaking, is the reverse of hopeful, but nothing is too hard for the Lord. Mr. Brouillette having so recently entered upon this mission, it is too early yet to forecast the result. He visits daily from house to house, and in his last letter writes of fifteen persons, representatives of nine different Roman Catholic families, having come together expressly to hear him speak on the subject of religion without taking offence at what was said.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.

The Board are at present in correspondence with the Prince Edward Island Presbytery, with a view to the appointment of a missionary able to conduct services in both languages for a French and English field in the north-western part of the island.

POINTE AUX BOULEAUX AND PORT AU FERSIL, QUE.

Mr. S. Carriere, one of the student missionaries of the Board, laboured in this field last summer with considerable success. He conducted a Mission day school attended by nineteen pupils, four of whom were the children of Roman Catholic parents. His Sabbath services were regularly attended by several Roman Catholics, in the homes of whom he was welcome. The marked change of recent years as to the disposition of the French Romanists, is well illustrated in this field. Five years ago the spirit of persecution was rampant, and it was at the imminent risk of life that a Protestant missionary or Bible colporteur could carry on his work. To-day in this thickly settled and almost entirely Catholic district, the missionary is not only tolerated but treated with respect, and looked upon as a friend by many of those who still claim connection with the Church of Rome. It is true that it is as yet but the day of small things, but there is surely something to call for heart-felt gratitude, in the fact that in this vast district of country on the north of the St. Lawrence, where there is no settled Protestant minister for hundreds of miles, the Board have by God's blessing been enabled to establish this mission, by means of which the light is slowly but surely dispelling the gross darkness on every hand. Like the lighthouses which here and there dot the St. Lawrence River, this mission is designed "to give light and to save life," and it is most cheering to know that it is surely accomplishing its beneficent, Christ-like design. During the present summer Mr. J. Martel occupies this outpost. In his latest communication he reports that the people are contemplating the erection of a mission building, to be used as a school and chapel.

CHICOUTIMI, QUE.

The Board appointed the Rev. E. D. Pelletier to visit this city last summer. He laboured there for two months, at the close of which he returned with a petition praying the Board to organize a congregation and appoint a permanent missionary, the people pledging themselves to pay the entire salary of one, who would in addition to Sabbath services give part of his time through the week to teaching. The Board were unable to secure a suitable person in time to reach the field before the close of navigation. They have, however, more recently appointed Mr. Joseph Morin, who begins his work under favourable circumstances. Chicoutimi is the most important business centre east of Quebec City, north of the St. Lawrence. It is on the Saguenay River, at the head of navigation, and contains a population of nearly 2000. It is the See of a Roman Catholic Bishopric. The few Protestants of the place, though numerically weak, possess considerable influence, and the Board hope in conjunction with the Presbytery of Quebec, soon to have a regularly organized congregation with settled pastor in Chicoutimi.

QUEBEC CITY.

In many respects this is one of the most difficult fields occupied by the Board, largely owing to the fact that the Protestant population of the city (7000) is so disproportionate to the Roman Catholic (54,000); and fear of the consequences and the almost certainty of being thrown out of employment, prevent many not only from embracing Protestantism, but even from attending the services of our Missionary. The church, a substantial stone edifice, is situated in a central position on one of the leading streets. This may to some extent account for the attendance on the Sabbath evenings being larger during the short winter days than during the summer. The missionary of the Board, Rev R. P. Ducloux, reports twenty-one converts from Rome during the year. Owing, however, to the numbers compelled to leave the city for want of work, the attendance as well as the membership, continues nearly the same as a year ago. Mr. Ducloux distributed among Roman Catholics during the year forty-seven copies of the Bible, seventy-five portions, and a large number of religious tracts. A circulating library connected with the congregation does good service among Roman Catholics. A few of the soldiers of the B. battery attend Mr. Ducloux's services.

Heretofore a local Committee in the city have borne a large proportion of the missionary's salary. The Board have now assumed the responsibility of the entire salary in the confident hope that the Quebec friends will make good the amount formerly contributed by the Committee, a hope they are warranted in entertaining from the well-known interest taken by our ministers and other friends in the city in the prosperity of the French church.

DANVILLE, QUE.

The Rev. M. F. Boudreau continues in this field. During the year two French Catholics were received into communion with the church, and in the homes of eight or ten others the Bible is read and the families have ceased to visit the confessional, though they have not yet avowed themselves Protestants. Mr. Boudreau occasionally visits the French settlements of Wotton and Chester. At the latter he recently held a French service attended by thirty-five persons, twenty-two of whom were Roman Catholics. One of these offered the use of his house for the next service; another agreed to meet Mr. Boudreau's expenses; while a third—a young man—has since publicly abjured Romanism. It is interesting to state that the son of one of the first converts in this field is now studying for the ministry in the Presbyterian College of Montreal.

THREE RIVERS, QUE.

The Rev. C. E. Amaron, M.A., was inducted last fall into the pastorate of the English-speaking congregation of our Church in Three Rivers. He was influenced in his acceptance of the call by the fact that the congregation is in the midst of a large French Catholic community, whose spiritual interests he hoped to be instrumental in advancing. He holds a French service every Friday evening, and has a French class in the Sabbath school connected with his congregation.

lation of upwards of 5,500, including a few English-speaking Presbyterian families, for whose spiritual interests our Church is at present doing nothing. The Board has appointed Mr. L. Leclain to colport in the counties of Richelieu, Yamaska and Berthier, making Sorel his headquarters. His reports may lead the Board to try and establish a regular mission among the French and English Protestants of the place.

WINDSOR MILLS AND LOWER WINDSOR.

The Presbytery of Quebec having recently effected certain changes in the grouping of stations in the Richmond and Melbourne districts whereby Windsor Mills and Lower Windsor have been erected into a separate charge, the Board, at the request of the Presbytery, have agreed to co-operate in securing the services of a minister able to preach in both French and English, and have promised a grant towards his maintenance. There is a fair prospect of the early settlement of a suitable missionary in this field.

ST. HYACINTHE, QUE.

This field was supplied last summer by Mr. Joseph Allard, whose services were highly appreciated by the people. On his return to college the congregation gave a unanimous call to the Rev. E. D. Pelletier, who was inducted in October. Mr. Pelletier preaches every Sabbath morning in English and in the evening in French. The average attendance at the morning service is thirty, and at the evening forty, there being twenty families connected with the congregation. The attendance at the Sabbath School is twenty. The congregation contribute $250 per annum towards Mr. Pelletier's salary. They also support, in full, a day school, conducted during the past year by a lady teacher connected with our Church. Upon the substantial brick church erected a year ago there remained a debt of about $2,300. The Board agreed to make a grant of $1,000, conditional upon the debt being entirely wiped out. The offer was accepted by the congregation, who at once subscribed among themselves upwards of $600. Mr. Pelletier spent a few weeks in Nova Scotia, where he collected between $300 and $400, and the small balance he expects to collect in a few weeks, thus removing the entire indebtedness. The property has been deeded to the Board. It cost about $5,000, of which the people themselves contributed upwards of $1,500. The basement is occupied by the day school; and there is sufficient room on the lot for a manse, which it is hoped will be built before long.

A gentleman—a French Canadian—has recently offered the Board a farm of twenty acres, on which is erected a large stone house, about five miles distant from St. Hyacinthe, on condition that a mission day school is maintained in the house. The Board are at present making inquiries as to the field.

ST. VALERIEN, QUE.

This station is situated about twelve miles from St. Hyacinthe. There are only some four or five French Protestant families here, to whom Mr. Vessotti, one of the missionaries of the Board, ministered last summer, spending much of his time in colporting among the Roman Catholics of the district, by whom generally he was well received. Mr. Wm. Hay, one of the students of Queen's College, Kingston, having both French and English, has gone into the field for the present summer in the hope that he may be able to open an English station in a neighbouring village where there are a few Presbyterian families. As Mr. Hay only entered the field a week or two ago no report has yet been received from him.

ST. ANTOINE ABBE, QUE.

Mr. George Pelletier occupied this station last summer. He conducted a mission day school, as also a Sabbath school in the building erected by the Board a year ago, the number of pupils being fourteen. He spent a portion of his time in visiting the French Catholics of the district, to the homes of several of whom he gained access. The people contributed his board, equivalent to $10 per month of his salary. Mr. R. Laprise is the missionary employed this summer.

ST. JEAN CHRYSOSTOM, QUE.

Owing chiefly to the lack of labourers at the disposal of the Board, no missionary has been appointed to this station for the present summer. Mr. Laprise, the missionary at St. Antoine Abbe, four miles distant, has however been instructed to occasionally visit this district.

ST. ANICET, QUE.

In this parish, settled largely by French Canadians, there is a small English congregation (Laguette) of about thirty families, connected with our Church. Mr. T. A. Bouchard, one of the missionaries of the Board, laboured here last summer, his services being largely given to the English part of the work. Mr. Joseph Allard is the present missionary. He has instructions to devote a considerable portion of his time to the French with a view to instituting a regular service every Sabbath in that language.

LAPRAIRIE AND LA TORTUE, QUE.

Laprairie is one of many places in the Province of Quebec where the Protestant population has of late years greatly diminished in numbers. Formerly there was a regularly organized Presbyterian congregation herewith a settled pastor and church, manse, etc., but owing to the emigration of the English-speaking settlers it ceased several years ago to be a pastoral charge, and for one or two summers recently it has not even been supplied as a Home Mission station. Anxious to give Gospel ordinances to the few English-speaking Presbyterian families remaining in the district, the Presbytery of Montreal asked the Board to send in a French missionary qualified to do this and at the same time to make inroads among the French Canadians around.

Mr. W. Mullins was the missionary employed last summer. He held services regularly every Sabbath at Laprairie in English and at La Tortue in French. The attendance at the latter was about forty. Though the French Catholics generally were not favourably disposed, Mr. Mullins gained access to the homes of a few; in some of these he was gratified to find copies of the Bible. Mr. S. Carriere, the present missionary, has opened a French Bible class in La Tortue and writes hopefully of his work. He derives efficient help from the Rev. T. C. Perry, a retired minister of the American Presbyterian Church who has recently taken up his residence in the district and who takes the superintendence of the Sabbath school at Laprairie.

JOLIETTE, QUE.

The French Presbyterian Church here—the only Protestant Church in this town of three thousand inhabitants, continues under charge of the Rev. L. Dionne. Services are held in English in the morning and in French in the evening, the attendance varying from thirty to fifty. Most of the services are attended by Roman Catholics, of whom twenty were present on one occasion. There are but twelve families directly connected with the congregation, yet last year they paid the salary in full—$200—of the teacher of the Mission day school, contributed $50 towards the missionary's salary and $22.25 to the Schemes of the Church.

LAKE MASKINONGE, QUE.

A number of French Protestant families at St. Gabriel de Bandon and de Ramsay in this district upwards of a year ago petitioned the Board for the services of a regular missionary. Partly from lack of means, and partly from lack of men, the request has not thus far been complied with. The Board, however, are not losing sight of or entirely neglecting the field. One of their missionaries recently spent a month in the district visiting the several families and conducting services to audiences ranging from thirty to fifty.

NEW GLASGOW, QUE.

The Rev. A. B. Cruchet having accepted a call to the Canning Street Church, Montreal, the congregation of New Glasgow almost immediately secured the services of the Rev. Chas. Brouillette, who was inducted as pastor in December last. In addition to the English-speaking section of the congregation Mr. Brouillette has twelve French Protestant families, for the benefit of whom and any Roman Catholics who may choose to attend, he conducts a French service in the church every Sabbath afternoon and a fortnightly service on alternate Sabbath evenings in private houses. One young man recently abjured Romanism and connected himself with the church. In March last the sacrament of the Lord's supper was administered to eighteen French Protestants.

BELLE RIVIERE, QUE.

One of the oldest French Protestant congregations in the Province of Quebec is that of Belle Riviere in the county of Two Mountains. It was instituted by the French Canadian Missionary Society about forty years ago. Some time after that society ceased to take charge of organized churches, the congregation applied to be received into connection with our Church. A difficulty in regard to the ownership of the church property restrained the Board from taking action till recently. Arrangements, however, have now been completed whereby the Board provide supply regularly every alternate Sabbath to this field.

GRENVILLE, QUE.

There is nothing calling for special note in this field during the year, with the exception of the opening of a Mission day school by the Board, taught by Mr. P. St. Germain, under the supervision of the Rev. R. Hamilton, the missionary of the district. The school has been attended by an average of twenty-seven pupils, one half of whom are the children of Roman Catholics. The teacher, Mr. St. Germain, was a year ago a friar of the Church of Rome. In the beginning of August last he called at the office of the Board in the garb of a friar, and introduced himself as a Christian Brother, studying for the priesthood of the Church of Rome. He had for some time had serious doubts as to the confessional, had obtained a copy of the Word of God, as also a report of the Board from one of our missionary teachers with whom he had had frequent conversations which led him to see the errors of Romanism, and to resolve to abandon them. He had spent the few weeks preceding his visit to the office in a "Retreat" near the city, and had on the morning of the day he called received instructions to leave Montreal that afternoon with three priests for a Roman Catholic college in the Eastern Townships. He felt that now was the crisis hour in his history—that to obey these instructions was to do violence to his conscience, and he called to obtain counsel and direction. After a lengthened conversation with the Chairman and Secretary of the Board, a boarding-house was procured for him in the home of an active Christian family, where impression upon self to the Board has rendered view to the mission.

He purposes entering the Montreal College next Session with a view to the ministry of our Church.

The Rev. R. Hamilton, the ordained missionary of the Board at Grenville, quietly but steadily prosecutes his work among the French, giving what time he can spare to the English-speaking settlers of the surrounding district, for whose benefit he conducts at least one service every Lord's day. The prevalence of diphtheria has considerably interfered with the attendance during the latter part of the year.

NAMUR, QUE.

The first Protestant settlers in this district were the families of three of Mr. Chiniquy's converts in Montreal, who four years ago took up land in the township of Suffolk, where they were soon followed by others, so that now there are about fifty French Protestant families at Namur, and the neighbouring settlement of Grand Lac. The Board erected mission premises here two years ago. By God's blessing upon the earnest and faithful labours of the present missionary, Rev. J. Vessot, the work is satisfactorily progressing, and the attendance encouraging, the number at each service ranging from 40 to 70. In addition to the ordained missionary, the Board maintain a day-school here during the summer months. The present teacher, Mr. E. Fluhmann, has but lately commenced work. He expects an attendance of about thirty pupils.

Mr. Vessot has gained a strong hold upon the Roman Catholics of the district, nearly all of whom enjoy his visits, and attentively listen to his expositions of saving truth. Among them he has distributed a number of Testaments, and upwards of 600 tracts during the past six months.

ANGERS AND EAST TEMPLETON, QUE.

In the beginning of May a petition was received from a number of French Protestant families in Angers and East Templeton praying for the services of a missionary. These places, which are about four miles apart, are in the county of Ottawa, on the line of the Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa and Occidental Railway. In East Templeton there are five French Protestant families, and in Angers nine, in addition to eight English families in the latter place, most of whose members understand French. In East Templeton there is a small hewn log church, the property of the French Canadian Missionary Society. This the people are prepared to purchase if the Board will send them a missionary, to whose support they promise to contribute according to their means. A colporteur of the French Canadian Missionary Society makes this district his headquarters and will render efficient service in connection with the mission. Rev. C. A. Dondiet kindly visited the field last month, and on his recommendation the Board have appointed Rev. J. A. Vernon to supply the district temporarily, pending the result of correspondence with the Presbytery of Ottawa with a view to the establishment of a permanent mission here.

STE. CECILE, MASHAM MILLS, QUE.

This is another French settlement in the county of Ottawa, about twenty-eight miles from Ottawa City, up the Gatineau River. Learning that there were a number of French Protestants in the district unsupplied with Gospel ordinances and without facilities for the education of their children, the Board last summer appointed one of their missionaries, Mr. G. C. Mousseau, to spend a few months in the field, with a view to ascertain the prospects of establishing a mission here. Mr. Mousseau has now been nine months in the field, and the Board are at present in correspondence with the Presbytery of Ottawa as to the organizing of a congregation.

The number of Protestant families is ten. The attendance at the Sabbath service ranges from twenty-five to fifty. Mr. Mousseau also conducts a day school and a Sabbath school, with fifteen pupils on the roll. The Roman Catholics are friendly towards the missionary but indifferent to his work, though in a few of their homes the Bible is found. There are mission premises here which are about being deeded to the Board. The field has thus far contributed thirty dollars towards the salary of the missionary.

OTTAWA CITY.

This has been a chequered year for the small French Presbyterian church in Ottawa, owing to internal dissensions and other circumstances to which it is not necessary here to refer. The number of families connected with the congregation has been reduced to fifteen, and the communicants to thirty. The people have contributed about seventy dollars for rent and other expenses, and the Rev. M. Ami, the Missionary, has collected and forwarded to the Board $122.50.

Mr. L. Leclain has continued to labour as colporteur in the city, one-half of his salary being paid by the Ottawa Auxiliary Bible Society, and the other half by the Board. During the year he distributed fifty-six Bibles, 214 New Testaments, seventy-nine Portions, and 3,500 religious tracts. His monthly reports contain many incidents shewing on the one hand the ignorance and fanaticism of many of the Roman Catholics with whom he has come in contact, and on the other the eager desire of not a few to hear of Jesus and His atoning work.

The Rev. M. Ami has resigned charge of the congregation, the resignation to take effect on the 1st July, and Mr. Leclain is about to be removed to another field.

It is hoped that the difficulties and trials of the past year may be overruled for good, and that the future of the congregation and of the cause of French evangelization in Ottawa may be brighter than in the past.

THORNE AND LESLIE, QUE.

In the county of Pontiac there are several townships containing a number of Presbyterian settlers where no missionary of our Church steadily labours. Learning that there were some French Protestants in two of these, Thorne and Leslie, the Board after correspondence with the Presbytery of Lanark and Renfrew, resolved to appoint one of their missionaries, Mr. J. E. Duclous, to explore the field. Mr. Duclous having been only a few weeks at work, it is too soon to form an opinion as to the prospects of success. He has met with a number of Presbyterian families by whom he has been warmly welcomed. Thus far he conducts service every alternate Sabbath in English in Reid's, Dale's, and Riendeau's school-houses, and on the other Sabbath in French in Riendeau's section.

From his last letter the Board hope next year to be able to report the organizing of a permanent mission in this interesting field.

MATTAWA, UPPER OTTAWA, ONT.

The Rev. S. J. Taylor, B.A., the Church's missionary in this important outpost, has rendered most efficient service during the year, and it is gratifying to be able to report that he has, at considerable self-sacrifice, consented to remain for another year in this difficult and isolated field. The following extracts are taken from Mr. Taylor's latest communication to the Board:—"Since last report I have visited about twenty French and half-breed families. In only one of them permission was refused to read the Scriptures on the ground that it was contrary to the priest's orders." "I spent seven weeks among the shantymen. Of these about seventy per cent. are French, so that I was enabled to read the Scriptures and speak to about 600 Frenchmen. It would be difficult to find a more attentive audience than one meets in the lumber-shanties. On several occasions French Bibles were asked for, and almost in every shanty two or three—and very often half a dozen—would inquire for something to read in French. This inquiry after truth is an encouraging sign, and it is a noteworthy fact that every year the number of French shantymen who can read is on the increase. The Bible colporteur's stock of French Scriptures was as large this year as in former years, but this year he sold all in the first few shanties that he visited." "Shantymen have been and are lamentably neglected. Almost nothing is being done for the thousands of men thus employed. Knowing this, I would offer a suggestion—one which has met the approval of every lumberman with whom I have conversed. It is this: let the Church appoint missionaries to a certain number, say forty, shanties. There could be no grander field for French evangelization. For ten months of the year these men are away from all religious instruction and influence, save the annual visit of the priest, the mercenary character of which nearly all know and acknowledge. A missionary so appointed could visit his shanties two or three times, spending a few days in each one during the season. He would know the men and they him. He would not need a grant from any fund for his support, for the men themselves would not only liberally but most heartily support him. At the very least each shanty would average $20, and one missionary could visit from thirty to fifty two or three times in the season. From a yearly visitation very little good can be expected; besides, it savours of the method of Rome."

Mr. Taylor devotes part of his time to the men who are working on the extension of the Canada Central Railway; a large number of these are French-Canadians, including a few of Father Chiniquy's converts.

DRYSDALE AND GRAND BEND, ONT.

Nothing of special interest has occurred in this field during the year. Mr. J. Morin was the missionary of the Board last summer, the attendance being about fifty at Grand Bend and twenty-five at Drysdale. The French Protestants are divided between the Baptists and our own Church. A suitable missionary, able to conduct services in both languages, could undertake the charge of the English and French Presbyterian families and thus largely relieve the funds of the Church. Mr. A. Blouin is the French missionary employed this summer.

ESSEX COUNTY, ONT.

Mr. Alfred Blouin laboured as missionary colporteur in this county during the whole of last summer, having his headquarters at Tilbury West. He visited about seventy of the French Catholics every month, and had many opportunities of speaking with them concerning the truths of the Gospel.

STE. ANNE, KANKAKEE COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

This field will ever remain associated with the name of Father Chiniquy, for here it was that in the wonderful providence of God his eyes were opened and his mind savingly enlightened. The original settlers were all French Canadian Roman Catholics who emigrated from the Province of Quebec a quarter of a century ago. Led out of the Church of Rome by the instrumentality of Mr. Chiniquy, they have, through all these years, steadfastly adhered to the Gospel, and have done much to disseminate Protestant principles, not only in the regions around but also among the colony in attendance of deacons, in the afternoon being with it and the mission under the district school Lafontaine has been in charge of the also among the friends they left behind in Lower Canada. The largest French Protestant colony in America is to be found at Ste. Anne, numbering, as it does, about 250 families. The attendance at the Sabbath services in our own church, where there are eight elders and six deacons, is between 300 and 400 in the morning and 200 in the evening, while the Sabbath school in the afternoon has twelve teachers and 173 pupils on the roll, the average attendance for the year being 106. The Shorter Catechism is taught in the school, the children being as familiar with it and as well grounded in Bible truth as in any of the schools throughout the whole Church. The mission day school connected with the church, and in which so many of the missionaries under the Board received their early training, was about a year ago amalgamated with the public district school, thus reducing largely the charge upon the funds of the Board. The Rev. C. Lafontaine continues to act as Principal. Since September last the full expense of pulpit supply has been borne by the congregation. The Board are now in treaty with a French minister to take charge of the congregation, in room of Rev. E. D. Pelletier, settled in St. Hyacinthe, Quebec.

HEADINGLY, ETC., MANITOBA.

It is most gratifying to the Board to be able to report that they have broken ground in the western Province of Manitoba. Mr. Wm. Mullins, who for the past five years has done good service, first as a colporteur, and afterwards as a student missionary of the Board, completed his course of studies and was licensed last year. Having offered himself for work in the North-West, correspondence was opened with the Presbytery of Manitoba, the result of which was the appointment of Mr. Mullins to Headingly and La Riviere Sale. He began work in October and was soon afterwards ordained by the Presbytery of Manitoba. Mr. Mullins conducts service in English in both Headingly and La Riviere Sale, but spends the greater part of his time in visiting the French half-breeds settled in large numbers in the vicinity of these places, and at White Horse Plains.

He has gained access to the houses of many of these, and has never yet been repulsed or treated rudely by any Roman Catholic family. They not only receive him kindly but permit him to read to them the Word of Life, and to converse with them upon the things that concern the kingdom of Christ. He has distributed copies of the French Testament and tracts among those able to read. At La Riviere Sale the people are about to build a church. This settlement is comparatively new, and is likely to increase rapidly in population. Mr. Mullins writes most hopefully concerning his work and the future prospects of his field.

MONTREAL, DEPOT COLPORTAGE.

During the past few months large numbers of French Canadians have left for the United States and the North-West of Canada. Taking advantage of the opportunity thus afforded to place copies of the Word of God in the hands of those who, at least for a time, are going beyond the control of their priests, the Board have employed Mr. Noel Rondeau, for many years a tried colporteur of the French Canadian Missionary Society, to attend the railway depot and distribute tracts, Bibles, Testaments, and the Gospels. During the month of May Mr. Rondeau thus circulated 409 tracts, and disposed of 48 New Testaments, and 28 Portions. May the seed thus sown broadcast yield an abundant harvest!

MONTREAL, ITALIAN MISSION.

The Rev. A. Internoscia, an ex-priest from Italy, of the Church of Rome, who after attending the Montreal Presbyterian College for two sessions, was received by last Assembly as a minister of the Church, continues to labour among the Italians in the city. While his work is encompassed with many difficulties, he is not without encouragement and tokens of God's favour. He is most assiduous in his efforts to benefit his countrymen, and to acquaint them with the way of salvation. In his Annual Report he gives the names and addresses of sixty-seven Italian families whom he has sought out in the city, together with the number he has induced occasionally or regularly to attend his service. This service is held in St. John's Church (Russell Hall) at five o'clock on Sabbath afternoon—an hour most unsuitable, yet the only one at which the church can be had, it being used by the French congregation morning and evening, and by the Sabbath school at three in the afternoon. The attendance varies from twenty to forty-five. Mr. Internoscia understands German, to perfect himself in which he has of late been devoting considerable time and study. In the city of Montreal there are upwards of fifteen hundred Germans. The pastor of one of the German (Lutheran) churches has recently left the city, and there seems at present an opening for work among this class of the population. The church on Dorchester Street formerly used by the St. John's congregation, now meeting in Russell Hall, is at present unoccupied. The Board are considering the propriety of opening this church for a German service in the morning, and an Italian service in the evening, both to be conducted by Mr. Internoscia.

MONTREAL, CANNING STREET CHURCH AND SCHOOL.

After the departure of the Rev. B. Ouriere, as intimated in the Report of the Board last year, the Canning Street Church was deprived of the services of a settled pastor for a period of six months, during which time the congregation suffered very greatly. In the beginning of November last the Rev. A. B. Cruchet, of New Glasgow, was inducted as pastor, since which time the attendance has averaged fifty at each of the services, morning and evening. Eighteen new communicants have been received during the past six months, yet, owing to removals, etc., the membership at present is only forty. Mr. Cruchet reports the number of families fully identified with the Church as thirty-nine, while members of other ten attend the Sabbath services. During the whole year the mission day-school has been maintained with an average attendance of twenty-three. Mr. L. F. Richard is the missionary teacher at present employed. On the street adjoining Canning, and within a stone-throw of our church, a French Episcopal church was erected last summer.

MONTREAL, ST. JOHN'S CHURCH (RUSSELL HALL).

The Rev. C. A. Doudiet continues to labour here with increasing zeal and success. His Annual Report is so full of interest and encouragement that the Board hope to publish it (as well as that of other missionaries) in an early number of the Church "Record." Meanwhile the following items are gleaned from it:—The utmost harmony and good feeling have existed during the year in the Session, Board of Managers and congregation, and the hand of the Lord has been clearly visible. Six new elders have been ordained, thirty-eight converts from Rome have been received into the membership of the church, the communion roll of which, after being carefully pruned and the names of thirty-one who have left the city, and others who have died, etc., being removed, numbers 112 in good standing. The Secretary of the Board was present at the quarterly communion in March, when eighteen new members were received and upwards of 200 attended the service. The prayer-meetings are largely attended. The Bible class numbers from twelve to twenty, and the average attendance at the Sabbath-school, which has five teachers, is forty-one. The school contributed $10 for missions. After deducting twenty-two families that have removed during the year, there remain 130 families who claim connection with the Church, the members of ninety of whom are regular in their attendance. The Sabbath collections amounted in the year to $87.19, the subscriptions of the congregation to $113.37, and from other sources $53.03 were raised in the church, making a total of $253.56 for the year. This is a marked increase on former years, and augurs well for the future when prosperous times return in the business of the city. Mr. Doudiet dwells in the love and confidence of his people, and acknowledges his indebtedness to Mr. W. Dawson, son of Principal Dawson, of McGill College, who continues to teach in the Sabbath school, and to take a warm interest in the welfare of the young.

The mission day school, connected with the congregation, has been attended by an average of twenty-six, the number present in the early part of the winter sometimes reaching as high as forty. It is a present taught by Mr. Samuel Rondeau, one of the student missionaries of the Board.

THE LADIES' FRENCH EVANGELIZATION SOCIETY.

This Society—an important auxiliary of the Board—has enlarged the sphere of its operations during the year by opening and maintaining a French Presbyterian Home in the interests of the work. A brief report of the Society is appended, from which it will be seen that two Bible women are regularly employed in ministering to the temporal and spiritual interests of the converts and their families.

FINANCES.

In pursuance of the policy adopted by the Board the expenditure has been kept within the revenue. Fearing lest the special effort made by the Church to remove the heavy debt on the Home Mission Fund, and also the continuance of the depression in the general business of the country, might affect injuriously the contributions towards French Evangelization, the Board cut down the expenditure to the lowest possible point consistent with the efficiency of the work, and even declined, in the early part of the year, to entertain applications to take possession of new fields. The Lord, however, rebuked their fears and the feebleness of their faith.

The total contributions for the ordinary fund exceeded those of last year by $650, and the Board have been enabled to meet all claims and at the same time to make a special grant of $1000 to remove the indebtedness on the St. Hyacinthe Church property, while there remains a balance on hand of $715.91 at the close of the year. For this result the Board desire to acknowledge their heartfelt gratitude to God for having put it into the hearts of His people to provide the means requisite to carry on the work. They are stimulated to take courage and go forward with renewed zeal and enlarged faith and prayerfulness in humble dependence upon the promised aid of God's Spirit. To the Presbyterian Church of Ireland, the cordial thanks of the Church are due for a grant of £200 sterling, as well as for the interest manifested by the Mission Board of that Church and especially by Rev. Dr. Wilson of Limerick, its convener, as indicated by the frequent references to our work in the columns of their "Missionary Record." To 139 of the Sabbath schools of our own Church, including their Superintendents and Teachers, the Board are greatly indebted for contributions amounting to the sum of $1,666, and would solicit their continued interest, as also the co-operation of all the other schools of the Church. If each school contributed but one cent per month for French Evangelization, $10,000 would be the result next year, a result which can easily be attained if every Sabbath School Superintendent present the claims of the work to his school. Among the receipts of the year are legacies to the amount of $640, including a bequest of $500 from the late Mr. Andrew Cerswell of Tecumseh, Ontario, received through the Rev. Dr. Fraser of Bondhead. The Board express the hope that many other friends of the mission will remember it in a similar way, and that hereafter a considerable revenue will be obtained from this source.

The Board observe with regret that a considerable number of congregations neglected last year to contribute to the fund, and that several of these for two or three consecutive years have done nothing. The importance of the scheme, and loyalty to the Church and the Church's Head, ought surely to constrain sessions to give their congregations at least the opportunity to do something towards the cause of French Evangelization, by a Sabbath collection, if no missionary society exists in their churches.

The sum of $2,028 was received during the year from individual friends of the work. To every one of these the warmest thanks of the Board are tendered, and especially to those of them who gave time and labour in collecting contributions in their respective districts. The Board bespeak a continuance of their kind offices. The liabilities of the Board on account of mortgages on church properties at present exceed $16,500. It is most desirable that this indebtedness should be reduced somewhat every year, so as to admit of the amount now expended on interest being used in the extension of the work.

A careful estimate of the expenditure for the ensuing year, shews that at least $25,500 will be required efficiently to carry on the work with the present staff. This is $4,000 in excess of the receipts for the past year. The withdrawal of the permanent British Agency will affect the fund to a considerable extent, so that from the congregations of the Church, and the friends of the mission generally, fully $5,000 will be required above the amount received last year.

CLOSE.

At no former period has the work of French Evangelization seemed more hopeful. The power of the priests is evidently on the wane, while there is good reason to believe that many of the better class of them are restless and uneasy under the iron yoke of Rome, and are longing for the day of their deliverance. The people generally are more accessible, the spirit of persecution is fast disappearing, and the missionaries and colporteurs of the Board enjoy, with few exceptions, perfect immunity in carrying on their work. It must not, however, be forgotten that there still remains very much of the land to be possessed. Nearly a million and a quarter of our French-speaking fellow-subjects are yet in spiritual darkness. Self-interest, the political, social, moral and religious liberties of our children and the future weal of the Dominion, all demand that the most vigilant and unremitting effort be put forth for their evangelization.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ADDENDUM TO THE REPORT.

Since the printing of the foregoing Report and the opening of the General Assembly, the following matters have been under consideration by the Board, and are now submitted to the Assembly with the recommendations given below:

THE POINTE-AUX-TREMBLES SCHOOLS.

For some time past negotiations have been going on with the French Canadian Missionary Society, with a view to the transfer of the Mission Schools at Pointe-aux-Trembles to the Board. The negotiations are now completed, and only await the sanction of the General Assembly. The terms which have been agreed upon between the Society and the Board are substantially as follows:

- (1) The value of the property to be determined by two competent persons. This has been done and the price fixed at $5,500.
- (2) The terms of payment and other details to be arranged by the Board and a Committee of the Society appointed for the purpose.
- (3) The proceeds of the sale of the property and effects at Pointe-aux-Trembles to be expended, after meeting all existing liabilities and engagements of the Society, in the support of Colporteurs, circulation of the Holy Scriptures and of French religious literature, as hitherto.
- (4) On the completion of the sale to the Board of French Evangelization, and the consequent withdrawal of the French Canadian Missionary Society from its Mission School work at Pointe-aux-Trembles, the Society has decided to withdraw from all Missionary work, and to bring its existence to a close so soon as the funds derived from the sale of the property at Pointe-aux-Trembles, together with any other unsolicited contributions meanwhile received, will have been expended; it being further understood that the Society will not solicit contributions as heretofore, and will at once issue a circular explanatory of the decision come to, and the providential indications of its duty now to withdraw from the field of Missionary work among the French Canadians, which it has been honoured of God to occupy for the past forty years with such important results.
- (5) That the balance of a legacy from the late B. Gibb, Esq., as received by the Society from the Craig Street Church, Montreal, be handed over to the Board of French Evangelization, subject to the interest being appropriated for Educational work at the Mission Schools.

The Board, believing that this transfer will, by the blessing of God, greatly tend to the advancement of the cause of French Canadian Evangelization, and to the progress of the Redeemer's work, unanimously recommend:

I. That the sanction of the General Assembly be given to this agreement between the Board and the French-Canadian Missionary Society.

II.—That the General Assembly empower the Board to secure the services of the Rev. C. A. Tanner, who is open for engagement, to canvass for a time in America and in Great Britain, with a view to convey information as to the work of the Board, and especially as to these new arrangements, and to raise contributions for the purchase and maintenance of the Schools at Pointe-aux-Trembles.

REV. C. CHINIQUEY.

Mr. Chiniquy having arrived in Montreal since the opening of the General Assembly, has appeared before the Board and made a statement of his work during the period of his absence, upon which the Board adopted the following minute:

"That the Board express satisfaction with the return of Mr. Chiniquy in restored health, and with the testimony borne by the Rev. Dr. Steel, of Sydney, New South Wales, and others, to the great usefulness of his mission in the interests of truth and Protestantism in Australia and New Zealand; find that on obtaining leave of absence from the General Assembly, Mr. Chiniquy was invited by friends, who provided his travelling expenses, to visit Australia for the purpose of delivering lectures on Protestantism, and that he has realized a considerable amount from lectures delivered and books published by him in Australia and New Zealand; that while not acting as a collecting agent of this Board, Mr. Chiniquy received contributions for French Mission work, which he reports having disbursed in that interests of the work, according to his own best judgment in the United States, and also to some extent in Canada, in the following manner, viz.:

"First—In remittances to the Treasurer of this Board, elsewhere acknowledged.

"Second—In the purchase of a Mission property at Ste. Anne, Kankakee, which he has transferred to this Board.

"Third—In assistance rendered to ex-priests, and in the erection of churches.

"Fourth—In the erection of a house at Ste. Anne, Kankakee, in which there are rooms provided for ex-priests. This house was built from the proceeds of Mr. Chiniquy's lectures and publications."

The Board have received a petition from the Congregation of Ste. Anne, Kankakee, praying for the services of Mr. Chiniquy as pastor, offering a salary, which Mr. Chiniquy has expressed his willingness to accept; at the same time holding himself free to undertake such special mission work in Canada as the Board may deem desirable.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

D. H. MACVICAR, LL.D., Chairman.
ROBT. H. WARDEN, Secretary.

Montreal, 15th June, 1880.

N.B.—The above recommendations as to Pointe-aux-Trembles Schools were unanimously adopted by the General Assembly, and the Rev. D. Cousirat, B.D., of Orthez, France, appointed French Professor of Theology in the Presbyterian College of Montreal. In addition to lecturing to the French students for the ministry, Mr. Cousirat will devote part of his time to training Colporteurs for the work of French Evangelization. His salary is a first charge on the funds of the Board. To meet this and the maintenance of the schools at Pointe-aux-Trembles an additional sum of $7,000 will be required, making a total of $32,500, as the estimated expenditure of the current year, fully fifty per cent. more than the receipts of the past year. All contributions for French Evangelization (including Rev. C. Chiniquy's work) should be forwarded to the Treasurer, addressed Rev. R. H. Warden, 260 St. James Street, Montreal.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give and bequeath to the Treasurer, for the time being, of the BOARD OF FRENCH EVANGELIZATION of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, in trust for the said Board, the sum of _____ to be paid out of my personal estate, without any deduction whatever; and I direct that the receipt for the said sum of the Treasurer of the above-named Board of French Evangelization shall constitute and be sufficient discharge therefor.

LADIES' FRENCH EVANGELIZATION SOCIETY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN CANADA.

The Ladies' French Evangelization Society has been quietly working during the past year, and trusts that its labour has not been altogether in vain. The Society employs two Bible women, who labour respectively in the eastern and western districts of the city, visiting the homes of the poorer converts and also of many Roman Catholics. They have thus been the means of circulating many copies of the Scriptures and religious works, of alleviating distress, and of leading many persons to attend the services of the French Presbyterian congregations in this city.

Last fall it was deemed advisable to extend the work still more by opening a Mission Home in a central part of the city. This has been done and so far has been attended with success. To this Home all can come for advice and help, and women escaping from persecution in Roman Catholic families in the city or elsewhere may here find a temporary home. Here the Bible women reside, and one is always present to meet with those requiring aid. Meetings of a social and religious character have been held ever since the opening, and have been most encouragingly attended. It has been the aim of the Society to endeavour to make the women help themselves as much as possible, and thus guard against pauperism. Situations are found in connection with the Home for those requiring work, and a Registry Office for Servants is here kept.

* At a recent meeting of the Society it was decided to try and procure part of the funds necessary for carrying on the work by members' fees. Any lady belonging to the Presbyterian Church in Canada may become a member by the payment of an annual subscription of one dollar. It is thus hoped that the necessity for unduly burdening the friends in Montreal with special collections may be done away with, and an opportunity given to those in other parts of the Dominion of taking a more lively interest in the work.

All of which is respectively submitted.

M. H. CAMPBELL,
President.

MONTREAL, May, 1880.

All contributions on behalf of the Ladies' Society should be forwarded to the Treasurer, Miss H. M. Gordon, care of Joseph Mackay, Esq., 1059 Sherbrooke Street, Montreal. Donations of clothing, &c., should be addressed to the French Presbyterian Home, 24 St. Monique Street, Montreal.

REPORT ON SABBATH SCHOOLS, 1880.

Your Sabbath School Committee, for the past year, was convened to meet in Toronto, on October 8th, in the vestry of St. James' Square Church, and after deliberation decided to issue the blank form of the previous year, with some alterations, being satisfied that it embraced all the items on which information was desirable.

With the schedule, they enclosed to Presbyteries a copy of the Recommendations transmitted last year by the Synod of Toronto and Kingston, and laid on the table of last Assembly. Attention of Presbyteries was directed to the importance of obtaining as full returns as possible; as it was not contemplated to issue these schedules every year; and also that the Committee would be greatly helped, in submitting a list of approved books for libraries, by Presbyteries on their collective responsibility furnishing the names and authors of such books as they deem suitable.

Reports have been forwarded by the Four Synods of the Church, and an abstract of each is herewith submitted. Your Committee have endeavoured, as far as possible, to give the vital facts as furnished by each Presbytery, and it will be seen at a glance in how far Presbyteries have given attention to this department of work.

This Synod reports in the following terms:—

The report of the Synod of Hamilton and London, though not all that is desirable or possible, is yet the most complete in its information and arrangement.

It is a matter of regret to the Committee that in the two years' endeavours to obtain statistical information on Sabbath school work the Synod of Toronto and Kingston has not been able to make an exhibit in the line of the schedule.

The Synod of Ottawa and Montreal, as also the Maritime Provinces, report in due form for the first time, and the report of the latter is very carefully compiled.

The totals, as presented above and compared with the previous year, shew that more have made returns, and more attention has been given to the item of those who are communicants under instruction, also the important element of money expended on the schools and contributed to missions.

The schools are kept open all the year in about two-thirds of the whole. The Maritime Synod reports one-half as kept open from five to eight months in the year. Presbyterial oversight and encouragement might do much to produce a change in this respect.

The exceptions in the use of the International Scheme of Lessons are so few that it may be regarded as adopted by all. The same is largely true of the use of the Shorter Catechism. Psalms and other portions of the Scripture are reported as generally committed to memory, and all the reports regard this as encouraging.

The Hymn Books and Lesson Helps used by the schools are still very varied, but all have degrees of excellence: and though some of them are not clearly pronounced in doctrine, yet none are subversive of the leading evangelical truths of the Gospel. Those in the "Canada Presbyterian," the "Record," and the "Westminster" series are decidedly the most desirable.

There is a painful silence as to any adaptation of means fitted to impress our baptized children as to their responsibility to Christ and His Church, and the covenant relations in which they stand to the means of grace; but as there is a recommendation on this subject we forbear further statement.

The Church is still sensitive on the relation of our schools to the governing power of the congregation, a number of letters have been addressed to the convener on this subject, and a declaratory statement on this question of organization would be helpful to many schools.

There is reason to believe, that the difficulty in securing returns arises in many cases from defective organization, there being no regularly kept records of attendance, or classification of the work done.

The teacher's general preparation for his work, and also attention to the preparation of the specific lesson from week to week is receiving increased consideration in congregations and Presbyteries. The Presbytery of Paris reports five classes devoted to the general training of its teachers with an average attendance in all of three hundred. The city of Ottawa one: besides this an increased number report the weekly teachers' meeting, and where this is not held, the pastor lectures on the subject of the lesson at the prayer meeting.

The Presbytery of P. E. Island reports no training class, but sends the following paragraph on the felt need, "When a teacher is required, the Superintendent has to fall back upon one of the advanced classes, who without any special training for the work is placed at the head of a class. Not unfrequently the result is that the class is scattered, and the discouraged and annoyed teacher retires from the school. We do not so appoint teachers in our secular schools. We rightly require and insist on more than scholarship. Would it not be an easy matter to place a suitable number of the more advanced pupils under the tuition of the best teacher in the school with a view to a special training for the work of teaching."

There is a growing interest being manifested in the financial obligations of the schools, collections are taken up more regularly in a large number of schools, and contributions to missionary objects are fast becoming the rule instead of the exception. The Synodical reports will confirm the following, that the schools of the Eastern Synods, give more to missionary objects than they spend on themselves, and in the Western Synods this is reversed. Notably, the Synod of Hamilton and London reports as—

The Synod of Montreal and Ottawa reports on—
School expense	$3,270
Contributed to missions	2,291

This state of matters is believed to be still more marked in the Maritime Synod. The Presbytery of Montreal gives 51 cents per scholar.

The returns on equipment of schools indicate encouraging progress, and on the whole there is not lacking favourable conditions and means for doing good service in this department of Church work.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

I.

The Synod of Toronto and Kingston renew and transmit their Recommendations of last year, which are as follows:—

"I. That the International Series of Lessons be supplemented by

- (1) The addition of a portion of the Shorter Catechism to be committed with each day's lesson.
- (2) By adding a portion of Scripture, more especially the Psalms, to be committed for each Sabbath.
- (3) That proofs from Scripture be required for the leading doctrines held and taught by the Presbyterian Church, embracing also our Church polity, and the Scriptural significance of the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

"II. That in the meantime the Westminster Series of Lesson Helps be supplied in each congregation for the use of the teachers and scholars.

"III. That there be a Teachers' Meeting for the Study of the Lesson, or, should that be found impracticable, that the pastor take up the Lesson at the Weekly Prayer Meeting, or on some other suitable occasion.

"VII. That a scheme of Normal Class Lessons, suitable for different circumstances either in towns or cities, or in rural districts, be recommended by a committee chosen for that purpose, under the auspices of the General Assembly.

"VIII. That this Synod respectfully overtures the General Assembly to appoint a committee for the purpose of carrying out such recommendations in this Report as would require the action of the Assembly."

The Committee on the State of Religion of the same Synod recommend and transmit, II.

"That at an early day, say the last Sabbath of June, special supplications be offered for the baptized youth of the Church, and the subject of their Christian nurture, their early acceptance of Christ, and open confession of Him, as great vital concerns of the parents in the home, and the elders and pastors in the church, be distinctly and earnestly brought before each congregation."

III.

The same Synod (together with that of the Maritime Provinces and Hamilton and London) renews its Recommendation of last year, viz.:—"That it be an instruction to Presbyteries to hold conventions with the people, and to encourage the formation of classes for the training of teachers."

IV.

"The Synod of Montreal and Ottawa ask the Assembly to call the attention of Sessions to the importance of their exercising a living and intelligent control of the Sabbath school work in their congregations."

V.

"That every school, large or small, be expected to raise money for strictly missionary purposes, and that the necessary, and current expenses of the school be a charge on the ordinary revenue of the congregation."

VI.

"That a full record of attendance of teachers, scholars, and of moneys collected, be kept in every school and reported to the congregation as the Session and Deacons' Court may direct."

VII.

All the Synods unite in pressing the overture of the Presbytery of Hamilton presented to the last Assembly and laid on the table for consideration, and which is of the following tenor:—

"That feeling convinced that much of the literature used in our Sabbath schools is of an unhealthy character, and recognizing the difficulty of securing proper books, the Presbytery memorialize the General Assembly to appoint a standing committee whose duty it shall be to examine books and periodicals prepared by societies and publishers for the use of schools, and to issue from time to time a list of such books as they may deem suitable for Sabbath schools, and thus aid Sessions and teachers in securing proper materials for this department of Church work."

VIII.

The Synod of Hamilton and London recommend that these blank forms be issued by the Committee biennially. The Synod of Montreal and Ottawa propose triennially, and the interim year (or years) deal with information furnished by the Presbyteries.

Your Committee are assured that these Recommendations though numerous, deal with vital questions in the work, and have come up from felt wants in the schools, transmitted through Presbyteries and Synods, and are worthy of the mature consideration of this Assembly.

After thoughtful attention to the foregoing Recommendations, your Committee respectfully submit, that the way to meet the objects sought, would be to issue a declaration of principles, with such directions as will cover the whole work, and to be supplied by Presbyteries to every teacher within their bounds. Such a Sabbath school directory with the imprimatur of the Assembly would be a source of strength to the teachers of the Church, and establish them in councils that have church life.

Touching the eight Recommendations transmitted to the Synod of Toronto and Kingston last year, and renewed, your Committee have given them their best consideration, and humbly submit the following scheme as a possible disposition of Recommendations VI. and VII.

The practical question raised by these Recommendations is, How can we elevate the standard of attainment in our Sabbath school teachers, and thus increase their teaching power?

In answer to this inquiry we submit,

First.—That this General Assembly give its approval to a scheme of reading and study, with the view of stimulating and directing the best efforts of our Sabbath school teachers and the young people of the Church.

FIRST DIVISION.

Open to all not over twenty-one years of age.

(1) A written examination on the life, work, and closing days of Moses, as detailed in the last four books of the Pentateuch.

(2) A written examination on the first twenty-eight questions of the Shorter Catechism, with the portions of Scripture on which they are based.

SECOND DIVISION.

Open to all not over twenty-four years of age.

(1) A written examination on the _____ (Book to be prescribed).

(2) A written examination on the Shorter Catechism, as in the first division, embracing the Larger Catechism to question 53, inclusive. Also some leading facts concerning the Westminster Assembly.

THIRD DIVISION.

Open to all not over thirty years of age.

A special prize in money or books for the best essay on "The Place and Importance of Childhood, as revealed in the Word of God, in relation to home training, and Sabbath School work."

For the carrying out of the above scheme of study the following regulations for students and candidates are to be strictly observed.

1. Examinations to be held simultaneously at convenient centres in each Presbytery of the Church, in the month of April, 1881.

2. Examinations to be conducted under the two divisions of work as set forth above, on a book or books of Scripture, or some prescribed text book bearing on the more immediate work of teaching.

3. The third division of work will be the preparation of an essay on subjects to be prescribed from time to time.

4. Essays to be forwarded to Mr. _____, not later than the last of April. Each essay to have a motto written on the top of the first page; the writer's name in no way to appear in the paper.

The writer shall enclose his or her name, post-office address, and age (stating whether they are engaged in Sabbath school work), in a sealed envelope, outside of which the motto belonging to the essay shall be written. This envelope not to be opened until the prize is awarded.

5. One examination for the whole Church to be set on each subject and forwarded under sealed covers to the parties in charge of the various examinations in Presbyteries, the covers not to be removed until the candidates are met in the appointed place. And the written answers to be enclosed and sealed for transmission to the _____ before the candidates leave the place of examination.

6. To remove all possible ground of suspicion from persons, Presbyteries or Committees, these papers shall be set, and directions as to the lines of investigations issued by Professors in the various Colleges of the Church, and they shall be held responsible for the report on the value of the answers.

7. The names of the successful candidates to be announced to the General Assembly and the Presbyteries to which they belong, the whole to be embodied in the Sabbath School Report, and engrossed in the records of the Church.

8. No name shall be engrossed unless the candidate have answered 75 per cent. of all the questions in each subject, and all who shall enter on such course of study shall pay 25 cents each, to meet contingent expenses connected with the scheme.

9. The studies may be carried on in classes in each congregation, or by groups of persons in country places, or in any other way most convenient to aid in the first and second divisions of the work; a syllabus of the subjects on which the examination questions shall be based, will be furnished to all complying with the last requirement of number 8.

10. In order to facilitate the working of the scheme, the Convener of each Presbytery's Sabbath School Committee shall be a corresponding member with the Convener of the Assembly's Committee, with the view of furnishing all possible information as to the work being done in his Presbytery, to arrange for the examinations, and report all necessary details. The time for candidates entering on this course of study to be closed October 1st, 1880.

SUPPLEMENT.

It is with great pleasure your Committee add the Sabbath School Report from the Presbytery of Manitoba. Last year an effort was made to report, but only four schools filled up the Schedule. This year there are:—

Schools reporting	21
Teachers—male 58, female 80—in all	88
Scholars	664
Schools kept open all the year	14
International Lessons used in	16
Shorter Catechism taught in	19
Communicants added from the schools	31
Amount received by collections in schools	$352

The usual Sabbath school literature in books and papers are received by some, but not in so abundant a manner as we are used to in our older Provinces. The Rev. Alexander Campbell, who carefully reports on behalf of the Presbytery, writes very hopefully of this department of work in the widely scattered settlements, and when the difficulties incident to a new country are taken into account, the Presbytery of Manitoba compares favourably with any Presbytery in the foregoing Report. And that the little one may become a thousand, and the small one a strong nation, is the prayer of your Committee.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HYMN BOOK.

The Committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1878 "to provide a selection of Hymns" with a view to its adoption and use in congregations of the Church, and instructed by the General Assembly of 1879 "to continue their labours for the improvement" of the selection sent down, during the previous year, to Presbyteries, beg to lay before the General Assembly the result of their labours.

The volume which the Committee take leave to submit is in printed form, and its contents are arranged and classified in the order which it is proposed to follow in subsequent editions. This will facilitate inspection, and will the better convey to members of the Court the character of the Book, and its suitability to the purposes for which it has been prepared. Further, printing was found to be necessary in order to the carrying out of the Assembly's instructions with regard to copyright.

The Committee's work, as now presented in this volume, faithfully corresponds with the instructions of the two Assemblies under whose appointment they have been acting.

I. In 1878 the Committee were instructed to make their "selection" chiefly from the four following Hymn Books:—"The English Presbyterian Hymn Book," "The Scottish Hymnal," "The United Presbyterian Hymn Book," and "The Free Church Hymn Book."

This instruction the Committee have been careful to observe. Of the 349 Hymns 151 are common to three or more of the books, 220 to two or more, while 89 are found in one or other of the four books. Only 40 of the whole number are taken from other sources, of these some are children's hymns, and they have been generally approved. Or to put it thus: 223 of the 349 Hymns are found in the Presbyterian (U. P.) Hymnal, 135 in the old U. P. Hymn Book, 213 in the English Presbyterian Hymn Book, 105 in the Scottish Hymnal, and 75 in the Free Church Hymn Book, being nearly the whole of this last named collection.

In the Committee's judgment the selection now submitted to the Assembly contains the best of all the hymns in these books. It is not not, therefore, too much to say that the best hymns in the language are contained in the volume now submitted to the General Assembly. Indeed, of the hymns of universally admitted excellence and power, few have been omitted. At the same time the Committee have been careful not to overlook the claims of certain well-known hymns which, though of a lower order of merit, are, from the spirit which they breathe, scarcely less acceptable to the Churches of English-speaking Christendom, than are those of the higher order. The Committee's experience in this regard coincides with that of every other Committee to whom a similar work has been confided; an experience which is so well expressed by the compilers of the English Presbyterian Hymn Book, that they take leave to transcribe it as setting forth the difficulties which they have themselves encountered.

"It has been considered desirable that the collection should embrace a much larger number of hymns and spiritual songs than might be held to be sufficient for the wants of any single congregation. Much diversity in habits of thought and feeling, and great variety of taste, exist in every Christian community, and it is right that in a book of praise, designed for general use, fitting expression should be found for all. There are many hymns to which a rigid criticism might take exception, but which are nevertheless so enshrined in popular sympathy and affection, that any collection which excluded them would be felt to be incomplete. Their presence, therefore, will tend to make this volume more useful and acceptable."

II. The Assembly of last year in re-appointing the Committee, instructed them to "continue their labours for the improvement of the collection of Hymns then presented, giving full consideration to the criticisms of Presbyteries forwarded to them, or which may yet be forwarded, and report to the next General Assembly."

Responding to the Assembly's invitation, a considerable number of Presbyteries forwarded to the Committee numerous valuable suggestions and criticisms. To these the Committee accorded an earnest and patient consideration, availing themselves of many of them to the great advantage of their now completed Hymn Book.

III. The Committee were last year "empowered to make such arrangements as shall secure the copyright of the Hymn Book." They have to report that, through the Joint Conveners, they have corresponded with the several authors of such copyright hymns as are contained in the selection, and they have the pleasure to state that in every instance their application has been met by generous acquiescence. A copyright of the book has been accordingly secured, and arrangements have been made with Messrs. Campbell & Son, of Toronto, for its publication. A copy of these arrangements is appended to this report for the information of the Assembly, which arrangements the Assembly will be asked to ratify.

IV. The Committee were last year further empowered "to select suitable music for the Hymns." They have to report that this matter has been entrusted to a Sub-Committee, with instructions to confer with, and to secure the co-operation of ministers and others in the Church who are known to be specially qualified to assist in this important matter. The Sub-Committee have not felt free to undertake anything more than preparatory work, until the Hymn Book shall have been finally authorized by the Assembly.

Several Presbyteries having recommended that a selection from the Paraphrases be incorporated with the proposed collection of Hymns, the Committee proceeded carefully to consider the Paraphrases with a view to the omission of such of them as are not more or less generally sung in our congregations. The conclusion at which the Committee arrived is that only about ten or twelve can, by general consent, be omitted. Such being the case the Committee are of opinion that it will be desirable to issue, as soon as possible, editions of the Hymns bound up with the Psalms and Paraphrases, in the form in which they have been bequeathed to us by our Scottish fathers.

The Hymns for the Young, which the Book contains, are intended to be used for the most part in such children's services as may be held in Churches. The Committee are of opinion that the time has arrived when the Assembly should, in the interests of the Church of the future, provide a suitable Hymn Book for use in our Sabbath Schools.

The Committee suggest that the title of the Book herewith presented to the Assembly be, "Hymnal of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, prepared by a Committee of the General Assembly."

REPORT ON THE STATE OF RELIGION.

In presenting their Report for this year, your Committee have much pleasure in recording a very considerable increase in the number of sessions which send returns. Over the previous year, this increase is very marked; although from several reasons, some of which it is possible to remove, there is still a serious deficiency. In point of fact, it is estimated that about one-fourth of the congregations have sent no report.

This is to be regretted, as it prevents the Committee from laying before the Assembly that information on a most important subject, of which it should be in possession.

CIRCULAR.

In the circular of this year, it will be noticed, that, instead of the direct questions of former schedules, the Committee contented themselves with indicating certain topics on which information was desirable; at the same time asking sessions to enter upon as full a statement as possible of the religious life of the congregations.

The topics presented for their consideration may be thus grouped:

I. The interest of the people in the work of the Church; as shewn (a) by their liberality, and (b) by their personal service.

II. Their interest in the ordinances, and in the observance of the sacrament of the Lord's supper.

III. The attention given to religious training in the family.

IV. Any unusual tokens of the Divine favour.

V. Any hopeful indications of spiritual life among the young people; together with THEIR interest in the work of the Church.

VI. Hindrances to the cause of Christ; together with

VII. The observance of the Lord's day.

From the information received, the Committee are enabled to present to the Assembly the following facts:

1. With regard (a) to the Support of the Gospel at home and abroad, there is indicated, generally, a fair degree of liberality; (b) while the part taken by the people in Sabbath school, in the prayer-meeting, and in many other departments of Christian work, affords to this Court reasons for sincere thanksgiving. It is true, as some reports affirm, that neither in liberality, nor in personal service, is the Church putting forth nearly her full strength, yet it must also be acknowledged with gratitude, that there do exist good grounds for encouragement, both in the amount of funds contributed, and of personal exertion rendered towards the advancement of Christ's Kingdom.

2. The Attendance upon Ordinances is generally said to be "good," and "encouraging," with some exceptional cases, however, where this attendance is said to be anything but gratifying either as regards numbers or regularity. These instances are very distressing; and the one consolation in connection with them is that they are largely exceptional.

3. In like manner with the Observance of the Lord's Supper. It is well spoken of, whether as regards the great respect paid to the ordinance, the numbers who avail themselves of the privilege, or the attendance of the members upon its administration. Here again, as in every other department of the Church's life, there exist causes of regret. These arise principally from such dread of profaning the ordinance by personal unworthiness as to prevent many, who seem to love and serve their Saviour with all sincerity, from participating in this precious commemoration of His dying love. The best remedy seems to be, the affectionate leading of these timorous souls into their full standing as partakers of all the blessings Jesus purchased for the least as much as for the greatest of His disciples.

FAMILY TRAINING.

Perhaps the most perplexing subject in its details is that of "Religious Training in the Family." Here the complaint is very grievous. The Report of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa says:—

"Although one of the most important duties devolving upon Christian people, it appears to be grievously neglected; indeed, as one report says, 'it is most unsatisfactory.' The frequency with which the reports speak of 'neglect,' or a 'desire to shift the responsibility to the Sabbath school,' 'the partial character of the work done,' and 'the small number of bright and honourable exceptions,' lead to the fear that in the neglect to press the duty of family religion and responsibility the Church is sowing seeds of trouble for the future."

Again, the Report of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston says:—"With regard to Christian nurture in the family, while in a few cases it is faithfully and satisfactorily attended to, in very many—perhaps a majority or nearly so—there is sad and serious neglect." Then, after quoting some expressions of regret from Sessions and Presbyteries, the report proceeds: "These quotations, without assuming the tone of alarmists or dealing with the subject in any spirit but that of fidelity to truth and duty, are sufficient to awaken profound anxiety and alarm."

In the Report of the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, we find the following:—"Judging from statements made in the returns, your Committee fear that spiritual life, as manifested in Family Religion, is by no means what it ought to be, and is not, we fear, in many congregations what it once was in the Presbyterian Church. It is evident that the Church needs to give more fully, as in other days, its testimony in favour of this divine institution as one, the proper regard for which has such a grand influence, both upon the Church and nation."

The Report from the Synod of Hamilton and London concludes its well-balanced estimate of this subject with the reflection that

"(1) There is a general expression of fear or regret that the training of the family in the truth and duties of religion is not carried out to such an extent as it should be;

"(2) There is manifestly room for improvement with respect to this in many quarters. The future, both of the Church and the country, depends perhaps more on this than on any other human agency, and every effort should be made to keep the minds of our people alive to the importance of this work."

"To refer this training of the young exclusively to the Sabbath-school is to destroy both the school and the family."

Such is one aspect of this important duty presented by the reports. Alongside of it are the exceptional cases, in which the work is most thoroughly and efficiently attended to. In one sessional report from Prince Edward Island, it is happily stated that "in a congregation of some extent there is not a single family in which there is not distinct religious family training." And there are others reported which may be ranked as coming well up to this.

desecrations

In looking at this subject in all its features, the Assembly's Committee are willing to give to Sabbath-school training a more important and influential place as auxiliary to the efforts of parents and guardians than many of the reports seem to allow. When it becomes a mere substitute there is no doubt it must be accompanied by the most fatal results, and there are, the Committee grieve to think, many careless parents who, in their total disregard of a most solemn duty, do so use it. But the subject is involved in difficulty, and there does exist some diversity of opinion with regard to it. There are some who entertain hopes, which to them appear well-founded, that there exists much more of religious training in the family than at first sight appears. A large percentage of this teaching, it may even be allowed, is connected with and perhaps based upon Sabbath-school methods of instruction. To those of whom we speak that is no objection. The Sabbath-school is hailed and heartily used as a coadjutor of much value; and in their minds the parent and teacher are happily joined in instilling religious truth into the minds of the young.

To others, again, the present state of religious training—or, as they say, the want of such teaching—presents a subject for grave alarm.

The Committee, therefore, content themselves with expressing a desire that sessions will give such attention to this important interest as will ere long relieve the Church of much of its present concern.

ANY UNUSUAL TOKENS OF THE DIVINE BLESSING.

In several congregations there have been distinct and well-marked revivals of God's work; notably in that of Chatham, Harwich, Thamesville, and Amherstburgh, in the Presbytery of Chatham, Ont. In several congregations in Cape Breton, and in two in Prince Edward Island, i.e., in Zion Church and Prince Street Church, Charlottetown, although their names are not given in the Synod's reports.

It is a matter of deep and sincere thanksgiving to this Venerable Court to know, that in answer to special prayer, and by the diligent use of the varied means placed at the Church's disposal, God in His infinite love has been pleased to vouchsafe these several seasons of blessing to his people, whereby, as is reported, "many have been added to the membership of the Church, while the spiritual life of the people has been greatly quickened."

That God may vouchsafe a large and fuller blessing of His Spirit's grace throughout the length and breadth of our Church, already so greatly favoured, is your Committee's fervent prayer.

FURTHER REASONS FOR BELIEVING THAT THE CAUSE OF RELIGION IS PROSPERING.

Under this head the Committee afforded the most ample scope for information of any and every kind which congregations might deem useful or profitable to be given. No such information has been advanced.

It may be that there is none to give; in which case the Assembly must rest satisfied with the assurance, or at least the hope derivable from other sources, that whilst the Church is pursuing the even tenor of her way, it is without noise, and as one report says, "without parade and without notice from the world." If her progress is steady, as the reports would indicate, "there is nothing openly to alarm a hostile world."

"While the Church congratulates herself on her prosperity, the world is not lamenting the great inroads that are being made upon it."

HOPEFUL INDICATIONS AMONG THE YOUNG.

These are many. In their attendance on the ordinances of the Church, the Sabbath school, the Bible class, the prayer meeting, the bulk of which is oftentimes largely made up of these, their interest in evangelistic services, in the psalmody of the Church, in using means to liquidate Church debt, as well as in the numbers that every year find their way to the Lord's table, there is abundant reason for gratitude.

As an offset, however, we meet also with the complaint, in many places, of the indifference of the young people, the enervating influence of a fashionable frivolity, into whose vortex many of our youth are being carried, together with the want of a thorough Christian training.

It is undeniable that these drawbacks do exist. They always will. The sunshine and the shadow lie side by side. Yet looking at this interesting subject from every point of view, the Committee are persuaded that there is hope derived from the interest taken by the youth of our Christian people in the Church's work and mission upon earth.

HINDRANCES.

Among the hindrances and oppositions to the advance of the Gospel the Committee rejoice to know that intemperance, although still prevailing to some extent and losing none of its power where it does exist, is, however, decidedly on the wane.

Perhaps the greatest enemy the Gospel has to contend against is the "spirit of worldliness." The reports all speak of it, placing it in the foreground in its two forms, the "desire of wealth and the desire of pleasure." It is justly said, "When the anxiety of a Christian is expended on how to find amusement or how to join in the world's pleasure, without altogether breaking with Christ, then there is need both of more light and more life." Among those who enter into particulars are mentioned such as the providing of amusements by the Church.

A third point, pressed very keenly by the Report from Hamilton and London, is the "detailed accounts of crimes and immoralities given in the newspapers of the day." This "daily leaven of immorality" introduced into our homes, this "daily story of crime" is declared—and properly—to be inimical to the just claims of the Gospel on the heart and lives of the people.

The last point, whatever value the Assembly may be pleased to place upon it, is one which must needs be mentioned, viz.: the "Want of the Bible in our common schools."

The Lord's day appears to be everywhere well observed by our own people. Among its occasional desecrations is visiting from house to house, disturbing thereby the leisure as well as the profitable meditation of the people on that day. But there are often bitter complainings of the public desecration of the Sabbath by railway companies carrying on their traffic, "often disturbing our congregations during the time of worship." To submit to this without protest seems to the Committee homologating their practices, and teaching by implication, as one report says, "that the supreme and eternal law of God must yield whenever it comes in the way of a merely worldly business."

SUMMARY.

In conclusion, in taking a survey of the information placed at their disposal, the Committee are of opinion that over all the field the cause of religion is prospering. Contributions for the support of congregational work, for our Home and Foreign Missions, are this year advancing, and that notwithstanding the serious difficulties which still remain outside.

The work of the Church in Sabbath-schools, prayer-meetings and other departments, is being carried forward with a commendable zeal and efficiency.

Ordinances are well attended. The people are still thirsting for the Word, and continue with unabated desire waiting upon the Lord in His house. The Lord's supper commands the interest of His people.

Family training is attended to in some instances with the old zeal, although this is the point on which the Committee feel the deepest concern, and would commend most heartily to the continued care and interest of this Venerable House.

Revivals of religion have occurred in several of our congregations, refreshing the Lord's heritage when it was weary, and conveying gifts of unsearchable grace to many who appeared to be "without God and having no hope."

Evangelistic services, under the charge of the minister and kirk sessions of the congregations, have been held in several of our churches with most favourable results.

In the numbers of our youth who are coming forward to fill the places of their parents and of the generation that is passing away, in the work of the Church, and who are also taking their places at the table of the Lord, we have good hope for the Church's future.

The obstacles and hindrances in our way really proceed from the old sources, the "World, the Flesh, and the Devil," and are to be met with the old weapons. Their forms may change, and they may vary in their modes of assault, but the "cares of this life, the deceitfulness of riches, and the lust of other things" have from the beginning "choked the good seed."

The Sabbath, by our people at least, is reported as well observed.

From these returns this Venerable Court will draw its own conclusion.

This report breathes the spirit of sincere thanksgiving for the abundant manifestation of God's grace to us as a Church during the year, and of great hopefulness for the future. Receiving His gifts in the spirit of a sober thankfulness, never doubting His grace or power, but with a sense of great shortcoming, and humbling ourselves before Him on account of our own manifold weaknesses and sins, may we not enter anew upon our work, assured that He who has guided His Church and prospered His cause in the past beyond our best expectations, will continue to "bless and comfort Zion until He make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Lord."

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. Your Committee recommend that the attention of parents and sessions be again earnestly and affectionately called to the important subject of religious training in the family;

2. That sessions be enjoined to send full and prompt replies to the Clerks of their various Presbyteries; and

3. That each Presbytery be requested to hold a conference during the year on the state of religion within its bounds.

All which is respectfully submitted.

Convener.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUND OF THE LATE CANADA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The Committee on the Widows' and Orphans' Fund of the late Canada Presbyterian Church beg to report as follows:

1. The Treasurer's books and accounts have been duly audited, and all the securities belonging to the Fund have been examined. The accounts and all the securities, have been found correct and in proper order.

2. Six Annuityants have been added to the roll since the date of the last Report, so that at present the number is 45.

3. During the past year the collection usually taken up for this Fund, and the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund jointly, was by direction of the Assembly taken up for the latter Fund only. Several congregations, however, voluntarily contributed to this Fund, and had they not done so, the Committee would now have been under the necessity of reporting a decrease in the amount at the credit of the Fund.

4. Last year the General Assembly instructed the Committees on the different Funds to prepare a scheme for their amalgamation, and to present this year a draft Act for that purpose, but as no specific directions were given as to calling together the different Committees, nothing has as yet been accomplished.

5. The following statement shows the present state of the Fund:—

Invested in Municipal Debentures	$25000 00
" " Mortgages	15360 00
Cash and Temporary Investments	13501 60

REPORT OF THE MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUND, PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, LOWER PROVINCES.

The Trustees of the Presbyterian Ministers' Widows' and Orphans' Fund of the Presbyterian Church of the Lower Provinces, beg leave to report as follows:—

From Dividends and Interest	$1585 06
Members' dues	780 00
Donations	121 99
Fines	13 23

$2500 28

The total payments have been:—

To 8 widows	@ $150 00	$1200 00
To 1 widow	" 112 50	112 50
To 4 orphans	" 20 00	80 00
To 3 orphans	" 16 00	48 00

leaving a balance of $1060.78 to the credit of the Capital Fund.

From this statement it will be seen, that the amount of annuities paid during the past year has been greater than on the previous by $262. This, however, is entirely owing to the increased amount allowed under the new regulations adopted last year, the number of widows and orphans upon the fund being the same. It will also be seen, on the other hand, that the amount received for members' dues is less than in previous years, the amount being $780 against $1054 in 1878. The principal reason of this is the lowering of our rates last year, but it is partly owing to the fact, that fewer members have paid their rates this year, the number being 49 against 56, the previous year. The balance added to the capital fund is about the same as for some years previous, but it is to be noted that in the receipts this year there is a sum of $963.59 for interest and bonus on three paid up shares in the N.S. Building Society. This represents interest accumulating during eleven years. The total amount in fund is $23,239.61 of which $23,095.63 is invested, and the balance of $143.98 is cash in the Treasurer's hand. To this may be added interest accrued but not yet paid over, on shares in the N.S. Building Society still held by the Trustees, which will make the total funds about $25,000.

The number of widows and orphans receiving annuity is the same as last year, but the Rev. John Stewart having died on the 4th May last, his widow will receive annuity from the 1st July next.

The Trustees have again had under consideration the subject of amalgamation with the other funds of the Church. In their report for the year 1877, they presented their views on the rules proposed for the management of the new fund, stating objections and suggesting amendments. Their views did not meet the approval of the Committee to which the subject was referred, and the new rules were adopted by the General Assembly in 1878. These regulations the Trustees did not consider just to those who were upon the fund. Those who had not contributed, though for years members of Synod, were put in the position of having the same right in the capital fund of $25,000, as those by whose contributions it had been accumulated. In every case of this kind, known to the Trustees, where a body of men of all ages have been taken upon such a fund, some contribution to the capital, as an equivalent for the omission of part payments has been made. They thought that the least that could be asked was, that they should be placed in the same position as those hereafter ordained, who are required to pay at the rate of $8, $10, or $12, according to age, up to fifty, any above that age to be the subject of special arrangement, and in the case of those not commencing to pay at ordination, they were required to pay all arrears, with a small sum in addition. The Committee however agreed that those members of the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, who had not been contributing, should be received, irrespective of age, on the same terms as those who had been contributing, and without requiring any contribution on account of arrears.

The Assembly at their meeting in 1878, adopted the regulations proposed by the Committee, and in deference to their wishes the Trustees prepared for amalgamation. Being an incorporated board, they took legal advice as to the steps that might be necessary or advisable to accomplish it legally. But on the Secretary corresponding with Dr. Reid, he learned that there were objections in the Upper Provinces to amalgamation.

During the past year, from the distance separating those having charge of the different funds, it was found impossible to carry out the instructions of last General Assembly, to confer with them on the subject. But the Secretary commenced a correspondence with Dr. Reid only to find that the same difficulty in the way of amalgamation existed as last year. The Trustees have carefully considered the whole subject, and submitted the matter to a meeting of those interested in the fund. They resolved to request the early attention of the Assembly to the matter, and if there be no prospect of immediate amalgamation, they agreed respectfully to request that the Assembly would grant permission to negotiate with those connected with the other fund in the Maritime Provinces, for the union of these two funds. Our fund is suffering from the uncertainty in which matters are, and we feel the importance of the question being decided without any further delay. Independent of this, the Trustees feel it their duty to represent to the General Assembly that there is among those interested in this fund a strong feeling in favour of this smaller amalgamation. At all events they earnestly request that the matter be no longer kept in suspense.

All which is respectfully submitted.

GEORGE PATTERSON,

Secretary.

THE MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUND, LATE SYNOD
OF THE MARITIME PROVINCES IN CONNECTION WITH THE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND, IN ACCOUNT WITH GEO. MITCHELL, Treasurer.

Beyond the Treasurer's Account your Committee have little to add. They would, however, earnestly direct the attention of the Assembly to the necessity of coming to an immediate decision as to whether the several Widows' and Orphans' funds are to be amalgamated or not. The usefulness of this fund is being seriously impaired by the present uncertain position.

After so many years of waiting, if difficulties still exist, these difficulties must surely be insuperable if earnest effort has been made to remove them.

If the amalgamation of all the funds is impracticable, your Committee feel that it is most desirable that the separate funds now existing in the Maritime Provinces should be amalgamated.

Mixed up as the ministers and congregations of the old divisions are now becoming, it is impossible to say on which fund any new applicant has a right to be enrolled, and both Committees have lately had much difficulty on this point.

Your Committee request the advice and direction of the Assembly in the case of the Rev. John McLean of Kempt and Walton, whose application to be enrolled on the fund your Committee found difficulty in acceding to. Mr. McLean did not make application to be admitted on the fund until after he had been inducted two years and had fallen into bad health; and his case is also one of those doubtful as to the fund to which he should apply.

Your Committee believe that Mr. McLean is not blamable in the matter of delay, and recommend to the Assembly that permission be granted to the Committee to admit Mr. McLean to the fund on his paying the usual dues from the date of his induction.

Respectfully submitted.

JAMES J. BREMNER,
Convener.

The above list contains twenty-four names, of which four appear for the first time, viz.: those of Mr. James Dick, Mr. Wm. Forrest, Mr. Alex. Kennedy and Mr. James Adams. Dr. Barrie, Dr. Willis and Mr. Adams have been removed by death; and, since the accounts for the year were closed, the names of Dr. Wm. Fraser and Mr. Wm. Hancock have been added to the list of beneficiaries—the number at this date being twenty-four.

The amount paid to annuitants is largely in excess of the amount paid during the previous year—$5339.70 against $4582.75—an increase of $756.95. It will be remembered, however, that last year fourteen annuities of $250 were reduced ten per cent., while this year all annuities are paid in full. But for the reduction, the expenditure in annuities reported last year would have been nearly $5,000, and the present year would have shewn an increase of about $400 arising from additions made to the number of annuitants.

The income and expenditure for the year are:—

I. INCOME.

Contributions from Congregations (including $125 from Widows' Fund),
Bequests, etc.....	$4176 39
Interest on Capital.....	310 00
Rates paid by Ministers.....	1145 00

II. EXPENDITURE.

Paid in Annuities.....	$5339 70
Printing and Postages, etc. of Convener.....	25 60
Proportion of Salary of Agent.....	175 00
" " General expenses.....	125 00
	$5665 30

The expenditure being $33.91 in excess of income. The balance is this year $17.46, that of last year having been $51.37.

The income now reported shows a decrease of $68.15 on that of last year. The Committee believe there will be a general feeling of disappointment that there is not a large increase. In view of the Assembly's recommendation that the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund should, for the year, as far as possible, receive the exclusive benefit of the contributions usually given to the two beneficiary schemes of the Church. The increase, however, on the income available for current expenditure is not inconsiderable. Last year the Committee reported the investment of over $1,000 from congregations (including some donations not designed to be added to capital) is $4126.39—an increase of over $700. There is also an increase of $175.45 in the amount received from Ministers' Rates. Adding increase of interest ($30) the total increase, apart from bequests, is over $900. It is so far satisfactory that the income has almost sufficed for the payment, in full, of the annuities, many of which had to be reduced last year ten per cent., and would have been further reduced but for the balance on hand when the year began. But the Committee are disappointed in the hope, which they entertained almost to the close of the financial year, of paying the amount kept back last year.

The Committee look forward with no little anxiety. They see that a reduction of the larger annuities will be inevitable, unless the income of the current year is considerably larger than that now reported. Several applications will be presented to the Assembly, and probably the number of beneficiaries may, during the year, be increased to thirty. To meet their claims, and the Committee's proportion of Agent's salary and general expenses, will require not less than $6,500, it may be near $7,000. This amount can be easily raised, if ministers and congregations do their duty in relation to the Fund. The Committee count upon the Assembly's making all its legitimate influence to bear upon ministers and congregations; and they have no doubt, if due respect is paid to the Assembly's authority, our fears in regard to the future will be disappointed. It is to the Assembly's action that the great improvement of the last two years is to be ascribed; and much more improvement will result from the unflinching instance of its appeals to ministers and people.

That the Committee have good reason to believe that the amount required for the current year is within reasonable expectation, will be evident, they think, from what follows:—

1. In reference to the Ministers' Rates, the Committee trust that a due consideration of their responsibility as charged with meeting claims which they cannot meet unless ministers respect the authority of the Assembly and obey its injunctions, will exhort them to again urging attention to the regulation passed in 1877, making claim to benefit from the Fund conditional on the payment to the Fund annually of one half per cent. of professional income. The increase above reported ($175.45) of the amount received from Ministers' Rates is encouraging; but the Committee, however unwilling, must say to the Assembly that, not the chief, but the one cause of their difficulty in maintaining the payment of the maximum of $250 is the backwardness of ministers in the payment of the rate. Of the 450 (or more) ministers of the Western Section of the Church, only 295 have, up to May 2nd, paid at least one year's rate of the three that are now due. During the three years of the operation of the Assembly's regulation, the rate has yielded $3017.96, about $2500 less than a fair estimate founded on the amount of stipend shown in the Returns. The Committee have had under serious consideration modifications of the regulation in reference to the rate, which have been suggested as fitted to lead to the general payment of it. It has been suggested: 1st. That, as ministers who have (speaking comparatively) large stipends are not entitled to larger annuities in consideration of their larger payments, such ministers should not be required to pay beyond a certain maximum rate, say $8; 2nd. That, inasmuch as the Fund is sustained only partially by the rate, the total forfeiture of benefit from the Fund seems such an unduly heavy penalty for non-payment of the rate, that the Assembly would probably shrink from inflicting it; and that, therefore, the forfeiture should be made only partial—ministers who choose not to pay the rate, being entitled to receive only two-thirds, or three-fourths, or any such proportion as might be determined on as equitable, of the amount which they would otherwise be entitled to. In regard to these modifications, the Committee are not so much of one mind as to warrant the recommendation of their adoption. They think it right, however, to refer to them, leaving it to brethren who think their adoption to be desirable, to initiate the proper course to secure it. Finding, in their consideration of the subject, that much can be said on both sides in reference to the alterations suggested, they cannot renounce the hope that, until the regulation is modified by the same authority that imposed it, our ministers will more generally indicate their sense of their obligation to be exemplary in their respects to the sacraments and the exhortations of the Assembly. And they feel confident that with even $2,000 from the rate, which is little compared with what they are warranted to expect, and with no diminution of Congregational Contributions, the income of the current year will be fully sufficient.

2. In reference to Congregational Contributions to the Fund, the Committee hope that they will not be less than those now reported. It appears that, though the recommendation of last Assembly that the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund should, for the year, as far as possible, get the exclusive benefit of the contributions usually given to the two beneficiary schemes, has been very generally attended to, the Committee on the Widows' and Orphans' Fund have been able not only to meet all claims, but to make further addition to their capital. The Committee, therefore, venture to suggest that the same recommendation should be issued by the present Assembly; or, that, if such a recommendation is considered objectionable, congregations be specially called to have in view the state of the two Funds, and to contribute to them accordingly.

The Committee have had under consideration the subject of the amalgamation of the Funds of the two Sections of the Church. With all due respect, they submit that any amalgamation, involving the putting of the two Funds under one management, is at present not only undesirable, but impracticable. They believe, however, that the administration of the two Funds in accordance with the same regulations is highly desirable, and that, therefore, the regulations should be, if necessary, so modified as to accord with the capabilities of both Funds. And further, they believe that it is in accordance with the law of Christ that a more prosperous condition of either of the Funds should equally benefit the other.

In reference to the annuity, the Committee have so much, if at all, to say, that the annuity of $250 to the Eastern Section, changing the plan of the adoption of this Report. Owing to not much reduction of the annuity, the two Section Funds, including of a Special Committee, and the rate, and in

In reference to the conflict of opinion between the two Sections on the subject of minimum annuity, the Committee desire that it should be well understood that their difficulty has respect, not so much, if at all, to the adoption of a minimum of $200, but to the reduction of the maximum annuity of $250 which they have been giving for several years. Should it appear that the views of the Eastern Section are to be preferred, the Committee will bow to the decision of the Assembly in changing the present regulation on the subject. Any addition to their expenditure resulting from the adoption of a minimum of $200 would be comparatively trifling—only $120 on the list given in this Report. On the other hand, the fixing of the maximum at $200 would reduce their expenditure by not much short of $1,000. At the same time, they must say that they feel strongly that the reduction of the annuities of some twenty ministers—some of them very needy—from $250 to $200, would not be creditable to the Church. With a view to the termination of the difference between the two Sections, as well as to the submitting to the Church of any proposals in the interest of the Fund, including the modifications above referred to, the Committee would suggest the appointment of a Special Committee of the Assembly, with instructions to confer with the Conveners of the two Committees, and to recommend such action as might probably result in the more general payment of the rate, and in the increase of the capability of the Funds of both Sections of the Church.

Before closing, the Committee think it right to state that one of the beneficiaries—Mr. Kennedy—has signified his intention to return his payments as regularly as his circumstances permit, and that his first half-yearly payment of $125 is included in the income above reported.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE AGED AND INFIRM MINISTERS' FUND IN THE EASTERN SECTION, FOR THE YEAR ENDING MAY 1st, 1880.

The Committee on the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund for the Eastern Section of the Church have to report as follows:—

1. One venerable father upon the Fund, the Rev. John Stewart, of New Glasgow, has been removed by death. Mr. Stewart was the first person placed upon the Fund.

2. It has been agreed to increase the annuity to the Rev. John I. Baxter to $200. Mr. Baxter has hitherto received only $100 a year.

3. The income of the Fund from May 1st, 1879, to May 1st, 1880, was as follows:—

Collections from Congregations	$765 84
Ministers' Rates	412 07
Interest	216 77
Dividends	74 20
Bequest	75 00
	$1613 87

4. The expenditure during the same period was as follows:—

MORRIN COLLEGE, QUEBEC.

This institution was founded on a bequest of little over $45,000 made for that purpose by the late Dr. Morrin of Quebec, and opened in November, 1862. In the Founder's deed of gift it is stated that the object of the said donation is to provide the means of Education for youth generally, but especially for those who may devote themselves to the ministry of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

The Governors are the Rev. John Cook, D.D., LL.D., by the appointment of the Founder, First Principal; William Walker, Esq., James G. Ross, Esq., Andrew Thompson, Esq., David A. Ross, Esq., Dr. Rowland, Charles F. Smith, Esq., the Rev. W. B. Clark, William Cook, Esq., John Gibb, Esq.

At present there are only four Professors—The Principal, who is Professor of Divinity and Church History, a Professor of Classics and Hebrew, a Professor of Mathematics and Natural Philosophy, and a Professor of Modern Languages. The classes of Logic, Mental and Moral Philosophy, and English Literature, are divided among the Principal and Professors.

The only bursaries to aid needy, and encourage deserving students in this College, have hitherto been given by the congregation of St. Andrew's Church, Quebec, except some small amounts sent by ministers formerly students of the Institution.

The College is affiliated in the first degree to McGill University, in which, after completing their curriculum in Arts in Morrin, several students have from year to year, graduated creditably.

Occasionally there is a fair attendance of students taking partial courses of study, but regular students, looking forward to a degree, seldom number more than from 10 to 12, and there are generally from four to five studying for the Church.

Last session three students graduated, and one passed the Intermediate Examinations in McGill University. Four were studying with a view to the Church.

It cannot be said that the work done by this institution is very extensive, and yet, when regard is had to the limited means at its disposal, the small, and it is to be feared diminishing, Protestant population in Quebec and the neighbourhood, the few opportunities there are in this part of the country for acquiring a fair elementary, not to say a classical and mathematical, education, preparatory to entering such an institution, and the absence of all encouragement in the shape of scholarships or medals, something has been accomplished by this College in a humble way for the promotion of the higher education.

It is to be hoped that generous benefactors may yet be found, to follow Dr. Morrin's example, so as to render this College, at no distant day, more extensively useful than its scanty means have hitherto permitted it to be.

No aid has hitherto been received from the Church, not that it has not been greatly needed, but that the authorities of the College have hitherto thought right to give way to institutions having more pressing claims. As, however, Morrin College may prove the nucleus of an important Protestant institution, in the midst of a population largely Roman Catholic, it might, perhaps, be well, that it should now share, to some extent, in the liberality of the Church.

GEORGE WEIR,

Secretary-Treasurer, Morrin College.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON STATISTICS, 1879-80.

Your Committee would begin their report by expressing gratification with the action of last General Assembly in agreeing to the recommendation that the columns for cents be omitted from the schedule for Finances, and that all amounts less than fifty cents be not reckoned, and that those greater than fifty cents be regarded as one dollar. In consequence of this considerable space has been saved, and opportunity allowed for introducing other items of information which have been excluded since the returns began to be printed on same sheet—a course which your Committee had been obliged to adopt, a few years ago, from motives of economy. This year the information collected is more extensive than for some time past, although there are some matters which should still be introduced and which will, no doubt, suggest themselves to the Committee that may be in charge of this business another year. One or two of the columns in the schedules for last year may be dropped, either permanently or for a time, and space for the others thus afforded.

Reports have been received from 813 congregations, as nearly as can be ascertained, for in several instances, notwithstanding the injunction of the Assembly and specific directions contained in the blank forms issued both to congregations and stations and Presbyteries, when two or more congregations constitute a pastoral charge, reports are combined instead of each being given separately. For the same reason there is some uncertainty as to the number of congregations not reporting, but we take it that there are 106 such, the greatest number being in the Presbytery of London, in which thirteen out of forty-eight, or nearly one-fourth, send no report. It may be assumed then that only about seven-eighths of the congregations belonging to the Presbyterian Church in Canada have responded to the call of the Assembly, through their Committee, for statistical information, representing, as may be, nine-tenths of the entire strength of the Body.

The entire number of pastoral charges, settled and vacant, is 740, and of ministers, 659, some of whom have retired but still maintain their connection with the congregations to which they have ministered, for a longer or shorter period, in the name and through the grace of Jesus Christ.

The number of vacancies, when summed up, amounts to ninety-five. The discrepancy between this number and that of pastoral charges and ministers is accounted for, to some extent, by the fact that in some of the former there are more ministers than one. A discrepancy, however, not so easily explained satisfactorily, presents itself between the number of vacancies reported in the Statistical Returns, and that in the Scheme of the Committee on the Distribution of Probationers for the current quarter, which gives only eighteen for the Western Section of the Church, whereas the number should be fifty-six.

Only three Presbyteries in the Synod of the Maritime Provinces report Mission Stations, of which there are seventeen; in the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa two Presbyteries report eleven, of which seven are in Quebec and four in Ottawa, those in Lanark and Renfrew being grouped; in the Synod of Toronto and Kingston there are forty-two, of these eleven being in Kingston Presbytery, thirteen in Barrie, five each in Lindsay and Owen Sound, four in Peterboro', three in Guelph, and one in Saugeen; and in the Synod of Hamilton and London, twelve, namely, six in Chatham, two each in Hamilton and Bruce, and one each in Stratford and Huron; the whole number, as returned, amounting to eighty-two. Your Committee apprehend that this will not agree with the Report of the Home Mission Committee, affording another illustration of the want of attention on the part of Presbyteries to the injunctions of this Assembly to Presbyteries, congregations and mission stations.

The regular charges of the 659 ministers whose names stand on the Rolls of Presbyteries comprise 1,350 churches or stations, thus giving to each more than two upon an average; but in the Presbyteries of Halifax, Prince Edward Island, and Miramichi, the average is about three to each minister, and that proportion holds nearly good for the whole Synod in which they are situated, while in that of Toronto and Kingston it is nearly two to one.

One hundred and forty-two churches or stations have been formed, and are being wrought, which are not under regular ministerial oversight, nearly one-half of these lying in the Synod of the Maritime Provinces—twenty of them in the Presbytery of Miramichi, and eighteen in that of Prince Edward Island. It is to be hoped that all of these—may it not be expected that most of them?—will become organized congregations, if they are not so already, and each one by itself, or more than one in union, will be so prospered, through the blessing from on high, as to have their own teachers duly settled over them. Nor should the energy, zeal and faithfulness be passed over in silence of those ministers who, in addition to their proper work among their own flocks, visit these stations that they may break the bread of life to souls.

The number of families reported is 63,843, giving a population of upwards of 300,000; and the number of single persons, not connected with families in the congregations in which they worship, is 5,909. Away from home, followed, it may be, by the prayers of parents, they keep up their attendance on the means of grace.

The number of communicants on the rolls of kirk sessions is given as 107,871, of whom the greatest number is in the Synod of Toronto and Kingston; or taking Presbyteries, that of Toronto stands first in this respect; Hamilton, second; Guelph, third; Montreal, fourth; and Pictou, fifth.

To the membership of the Church 10,748 persons have been added during the year, and 7,129 removed by death, change of abode, and other causes, showing an increase, as far as can be determined from these figures, of 3,619.

Baptism has been administered to 9,837 persons, a few of these being adults, and, therefore, able personally to take upon themselves the vows and obligations of this initiatory rite of the New Testament Church.

All acknowledge the importance and scriptural authority of the ruling eldership and the influence it exercises for the prosperity of the Kingdom of Christ. In the 740 pastoral charges appearing in the Statistical Tables there are 4,135 men who have been called and ordained to this work—men, it may be presumed, of intelligence and piety, and who, while they acknowledge the honour, feel, also, the responsibility of the office to which they have been set apart, and who, by their prayers and counsels, give strength and encouragement to those who labour in word and doctrine, or exercise care and watchfulness over the flocks of which the Holy Ghost has made them overseers, if destitute of settled pastors.

The weekly prayer-meetings, in the different congregations in which they are kept up, are attended by 35,315 persons, young and old, who avail themselves of the opportunity afforded of breaking in upon the bustle and business of the week to hold an hour of communion with the God of all grace and with those whose hearts He has touched, and whom He has taken unto His family.

Those receiving instruction in the Sabbath school and Bible class, in which there is such a suitable field for the exercise of the gift of teaching and for instilling the most precious knowledge—that of Jesus Christ as the Lamb of God who has taken away the sin of the world—amount to 83,295, about four-fifths of the number of communicants. These are under the instruction of 8,574 teachers, thus giving to each one an average of less than ten, but more than nine scholars.

Sitting accommodation is provided in the churches for 273,420 worshippers, but the columns in which these entries have been made are very imperfectly filled,—leading to the conclusion that sessions do not take much interest in the capacity of the church edifices in which they attend the ordinances of grace.

In all our congregations there are only 283 Missionary Associations, other means being employed to call forth the liberality of the people for the support and extension of the Gospel Kingdom in our own land, with its rapidly increasing population, and in other regions, such as Formosa, in which the Word is working with so much power; and India, with its many millions whose gods are legions, and in the islands of the South, where martyr blood has been shed, and men of courage and faith have been raised up to take the place of those who have fallen.

Congregations provide 383 manse and seventy-nine rented houses for their pastors, with one which cannot be decided whether it is a manse or rented house, the answer to the question being simply "yes," but no indication which. Eleven manse and twenty-six churches have been built during the year, while in three or four instances manse and church are reported as having been repaired, bought or rebuilt.

Passing now from the Statistical to the Financial Returns, we ascertain that $539,794 have been promised "from all sources" as stipend, of which $494,656 were promised by congregations alone the balance coming from other quarters; and $486,242 were paid by congregations alone.

Adding the figures in the column for "arrears," they sum up to $19,100. In one Presbytery, with fourteen pastoral charges and eleven ministers, the arrears are returned as $2,830; in another, with twenty pastoral charges and twenty ministers, they are $1,232; in another, with twenty ministers, and in which there is no vacant congregation, they are $1,862; in another, with twenty-one charges and twenty ministers, they are $1,113; and in another, with twenty-eight charges and twenty-three ministers, they are $1,013. In all the other cases they fall below $1,000. Only five Presbyteries—do they not deserve honourable mention?—those, namely, of Brockville, Whitby, Lindsay, Paris, and Maitland, report no arrears. In one case they are as low as $10; in two others they are less than $100. In the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, with its 151 ministers, the arrears sum up to $8,489; in that of Montreal and Ottawa, with its 122 ministers, they are $2,009; in that of Toronto and Kingston, with its 184 ministers, they are $4,937; and in that of Hamilton and London, with its 180 ministers, they are $2,958; and in Manitoba they are $707.

Your Committee must, however, state that the entries in all the columns of the Financial Statement we have mentioned have been very carelessly or imperfectly made in most of the Presbyteries. In some cases the columns for stipend promised from all sources, and by congregation alone, are left blank, while the one for stipend paid is filled. In other cases the reverse takes place. The Convener applied to one Presbytery Clerk in whose report an omission of this kind occurred, thinking it was by oversight it had been made, asking to have it supplied, but received as reply that it could not be a matter of much interest what was promised in the instances to which attention was called. where one would expect entries. In a great many instances it is blank where the stipend paid is not equal to the stipend promised. Your Committee have not made any corrections in such cases, but dealt with the figures just as they received them from Presbytery Clerks.

The expenditure on churches or manse during the year has been $350,771, but the entries do not allow of our stating how much was spent upon the one and how much upon the other; and $928,198 have been laid out upon strictly congregational purposes, being $13,167 more than for the previous year, and speaking well for the religious liberality of our congregations in a season of very great commercial depression.

The total contributions to the schemes of the Church amount to $138,816, of which $11,939 have been raised by Sabbath schools—a falling off of more than $600 on the year 1878-79—or an average of fourteen cents to each scholar. Last year the average was sixteen. The contributions to each of the schemes were as follow:—College Funds, ordinary and special, $35,682; Home Mission Fund, $44,806, or $18,232 in excess of the amount for the previous year; Foreign Mission Fund, $22,972, an addition of more than $1,000; French Evangelization, $13,274, an increase of about $400; Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund, $4,818; Widows' and Orphans' Fund, $2,847; General Assembly Expense Fund, $3,825; and Synod and Presbytery Funds, $5,682.

To this there have to be added $70,082 for religious and benevolent purposes not otherwise specified, giving the total income for all purposes as $1,162,154—or an increase of $51,774 over last year.

It is highly gratifying to your Committee to be able to make such a statement as this. It must be highly gratifying to this Assembly to hear it. It must be creditable to our people to be, to this extent, honouring the Lord with their substance. It must be encouraging to those who, whether by more ordinary or special efforts, have been endeavouring to prevail on the people to cast of their gifts into the Lord's treasury. It must show that God did not close His ear against the prayers made to Him from pulpit and from closet, in Presbytery and in Committee, that He would move the hearts of those whom He was blessing in His Providence to abound in the grace of liberality. And it must call us to acknowledge that "the Lord has been mindful of us," and to anticipate that "He will bless us still."

The Presbytery of Toronto heads the list with the largest income for all purposes, the amount being $137,876; Montreal comes second, with $108,549; the third is that of Hamilton, namely, $80,375; the fourth that of London, namely, $53,155; the fifth that of Paris, $50,657; and the sixth, Guelph, $49,661.

Your Committee have prepared a Table shewing the average contributions from each Presbytery per family and communicant to Stipend paid, to the Schemes of the Church, and to All Purposes.

* Nearly.

From this it will be seen that the first place must be given to the Presbytery of Newfoundland, with its four pastoral charges, and three ministers, and only three of these charges reporting. It deserves to be mentioned here that these three reporting congregations have raised at the rate of $17 per family, and $11.10 per communicant for Stipend; $6.61 per family, and $4.27 per communicant, for the Schemes of the Church, and $62.96 per family, and $40.68 per communicant for all purposes. If many have done well has not she excelled them all? We need not give the relative standing of other Presbyteries, as this can be learned by consulting the Table.

It is to be regretted that Presbyteries have not seen it to be their duty to insist upon returns from all the congregations and stations in their bounds. Had this been done, and had your Committee been able to present a full report, the position of our Church would have appeared much more favourable in all respects. In all probability her membership is considerably above 120,000, and her income for all objects upwards of $1,300,000.

Returns have been received from three congregations—Chesley, Griersville and Valleyfield—too late to be embodied in this Report.

In preparing this Report your Committee have kept the returns from mission stations by themselves. Only seventeen Presbyteries report such stations, and the number they give, as already stated, is 82. In most instances they are very incomplete, although it is evident that full returns might be procured, for there are Presbyteries by whom they have been given. These seventeen Presbyteries report that there are 127 stations in regular connection, and 87 not so; that there are 2,267 families, and 88 single persons enjoying religious privileges; that there are 2,687 communicants on the roll, 168 having been added and 425 removed in the course of the year; baptism has been administered to 146; the number of elders is 68, and of other office-bearers 86; 586 attend the weekly meetings for prayer; 1,113 are receiving instruction in the Sabbath school from 138 teachers; Sabbath school libraries contain 1,425 volumes, and there is sitting accommodation for 4,484. Only one Missionary Association is reported; four mansees are possessed; one manse and one church have been built in the year.

The addition of the column headed "Stipend promised from all sources" gives only $1,858, while the stipend promised by congregation alone makes $3,998, and the stipend paid by congregation alone is $9,624,—an illustration of the want of care, or of the oversight, which must be charged upon some Presbyteries. The arrears due on stipend are $1,163; the amount expended on church or manse, $2,142, and the total contributions for home purposes were $6,356. Twenty-nine dollars ($29) were raised for College Funds; $142 for Home Missions; $106 for French Evangelization; $46 for Foreign Missions; $10 by Sabbath schools for missionary purposes; $14 for the Fund for Aged and Infirm Ministers; nothing for the Widows' and Orphans' Fund; $25 for the General Assembly Expense Fund; $22 for the Synod and Presbytery Funds; $388 for the Schemes of the Church; $132 for religious and benevolent purposes; and $13,399 for all purposes.

In conclusion your Committee recommend:

First. That it be an injunction to Presbyteries to send in their Statistical and Financial Returns, with full entries in all the columns, at the earliest date in their power.

Second. That Presbyteries be enjoined to deal with those congregations in their bounds that are in arrears of stipend, at their first meeting after receiving the printed minutes of Assembly, and that they report their diligence in the matter to their respective Synods, and that these report to the Assembly at its next meeting.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

! The money raised by S. S. should be added to the missions to which they are given, and in summing up that column, should be left out; e.g., Whitby congregation gets no credit for French and little for Foreign. Their Sab. Sc. ($38) was given to these objects. These should be corrected by another year.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PRESERVATION OF ARCHIVES.

The Committee have to report that, in obedience to the instructions of last General Assembly, they have taken steps to collect such documents and works as may seem calculated to throw light on the early history of the Presbyterian Church throughout the Dominion. For this purpose a circular was issued, with directions in regard to the persons to whom documents, etc., should be sent; and in response thereto several books and other papers have been deposited. The places selected as depositories are Halifax Presbyterian College, Montreal Presbyterian College, Queen's College, and Knox College; and the persons to whom all papers and documents are requested to be sent are Dr. MacGregor, Professor Campbell, Principal Grant, Dr. Gregg, Mr. H. S. McCollum, St. Catharines, and the Convener of this Committee.

It is of very great importance that anyone possessing documents bearing on the history of Presbyterianism in this land should secure their safety by transmitting them to any of the persons named above.

Your Committee desire to express the great loss which has been experienced in the prosecution of this work by the death of Professor Mackerras, one of their members, and they recommend that Professor J. B. Mowat be appointed to take his place; also, that Professor Bryce and Professor Hart be added to the Committee.

They also recommend that the members of the Maritime Provinces be formed into a sub-committee, with Dr. G. Patterson as Convener.

JOHN GRAY,
 Convener.

MONTREAL, June, 1880.

The list of documents deposited in the several Colleges has not been handed in, except in regard to those in the Halifax Presbyterian College.

REPORT ON "THE PRESBYTERIAN RECORD."

Owing to the absence of the Managing Editor last year on business of the Church, no detailed report was submitted to the General Assembly. This report, consequently covers a period of two years.

The average circulation of the Record during that time has been 32,947 per month. At this date it is 33,251. The highest point reached was in 1876, namely, 33,372; the lowest was in 1879, namely, 32,402. The following table shews the number taken in the several Provinces in 1876 and 1880, respectively. The net decrease, 2,837, is almost entirely confined to the Maritime Provinces.

PROVINCES.	Average, 1876.	Average, 1880.	Increase.	Decrease.
Nova Scotia.....	7,900	4,635		3,265
New Brunswick.....	2,048	1,910		138
Prince Edward Island.....	1,497	1,079		418
Newfoundland.....	329	304		24
Quebec.....	3,341	3,127		214
Ontario.....	20,488	21,171	683
Manitoba.....	220	591	371
British Columbia.....	142	118		24
British and Foreign.....	157	271	114
Total.....	36,043	33,206	1,222	4,059

The number of copies going to Manitoba this year is more than double the number in 1876, owing, in some degree, to the action of the Presbytery in recommending the Record to the notice of the congregations within its bounds. Similar action taken by all the Presbyteries would tend to increase the circulation very materially, and this is manifestly desirable, inasmuch as the number of families belonging to the Church is still more than double the number of copies of the Record in circulation.

In March, 1879, the office of publication was removed to larger and more convenient premises, at No. 260 St. James Street, Montreal. This change has been found advantageous. Commencing with January, 1880, the Record was brought out in a new form—somewhat enlarged, and printed from new type on a better quality of paper than formerly. This change seems to have met with the general approval of the subscribers. The alterations referred to entailed a considerable additional expenditure, but in no year has the outlay exceeded the income. It is estimated that, after paying all expenses, there will be at the end of the current year a balance of about $1,600, nearly the amount of the reserve fund reported to the General Assembly in 1878. Believing that the Record has now attained a position which may be safely called self-supporting, the Committee agreed to appropriate the sum of one thousand dollars to the Home Mission Fund of the Church, dividing the same betwixt the Eastern and Western Sections in proportion to the number of copies of the Record sent to these Sections respectively, and that the remaining balance of $400 be retained as a reserve fund, or be employed as the Committee may see fit in the furtherance of the interests of the publication, and subject to the approval of the General Assembly.

ADDRESS TO HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please Your Majesty:

We, Ministers and Elders representing the congregations of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, now convened in General Assembly, crave permission to renew the assurance of our loyal and dutiful attachment to both the Throne and the person of your Majesty.

We congratulate Your Majesty on the fact that the troubles issuing in war, which have recently disturbed your Majesty's South African Colonies, have been followed by a peace which promises to secure the prosperity and happiness of Your Majesty's subjects in that portion of the Empire. We further cherish the hope that the recent events in Afghanistan may at length lead to the permanent security of Your Majesty's Indian Empire.

We are thankful to Almighty God for the propitious seed-time which He has been pleased to vouchsafe to the United Kingdom, and we fervently pray that the promise of a bountiful harvest thus given may in due time be fulfilled, that so prosperity may return to our fellow-subjects in our beloved fatherland.

We desire to express to Your Majesty the great pleasure which we derive from the continued residence in Canada of Your Majesty's illustrious daughter, the Consort of His Excellency the Governor-General. We shall ever regard the presence of Her Royal Highness amongst us as a signal token of Your Majesty's sincere desire for the advancement and well-being of our country.

We pray Almighty God that Your Majesty may be spared yet many years to rule over the vast dominions with whose destinies Your Majesty's Government has been so long and beneficently identified. We also pray that the choicest of heaven's blessings, both temporal and spiritual, may evermore rest upon Your Majesty, and upon every member of the Royal House.

In name and by appointment of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

ADDRESS TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE RIGHT HONOURABLE SIR JOHN DOUGLAS SUTHERLAND CAMPBELL, MARQUIS OF LORNE, P.C., ETC., ETC., GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF CANADA.

May it please Your Excellency:

We, Ministers and Elders representing the congregations of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, now convened in General Assembly, desire to assure Your Excellency of our unaltered attachment to Her Majesty's person and Government, as well also to express the high esteem in which we hold Your Excellency's person and character, and the confidence with which we regard Your Excellency's administration of the affairs of this Dominion.

In common with our Canadian fellow-subjects we heartily rejoice that the Dominion is favoured with the presence, in the Vice-regal home, of Your Excellency's illustrious Consort. That God may greatly bless Your Excellency and Her Royal Highness, not only while representing our revered Queen in Canada, but throughout a long and prosperous life, is, and will continue to be, our fervent prayer.

In name and by authority of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

* 2700 * In the comparative Statement of last year the receipts for Foreign Missions were from the people, and excluded sums received from other sources, consequently the receipts in the Statement did not correspond with the whole receipts as given in the account. It has therefore been judged preferable to give this year the receipts from all sources for Foreign Missions, both for 1878-9 and for 1879-80, as has been done respecting the other schemes, so that the Statement can be checked by the account. The decrease in receipts for Foreign Missions arises chiefly from the fact that in the year 1878-9, $1914.56 were drawn from the Reserve Fund, and this year the increase in "Dayspring" fund is accounted for in part by the fact that $619.04 have been provided from the same source.

FINANCE REPORT, TORONTO SECTION, 1879-80.

The accounts herewith presented will shew the condition of the several Schemes at the close of our last financial year. It is gratifying to know that in most cases there has been an increase in the receipts, especially in the case of the Home Mission Fund, the large debt on which has now been removed. The following is a comparative statement of the principal Schemes of the Church as compared with those of the preceding year :—

those of the preceding year :—	1878-79.	1879-80.
Colleges	$8,677 12	$9,249 04
Foreign Missions	21,815 39	22,471 59
Home Missions	29,698 34	46,699 77
Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund	3,648 39	4,051 89
Widows' Fund	4,448 63	1,351 08
Assembly Fund	3,233 40	3,253 09

The above figures include collections, donations and legacies.

The above figures include collections, donations and legacies.

As the reports of the several Committees on the different schemes will bring before the Assembly the state of the Funds, it is not considered necessary here to refer more particularly to them. But on the subject of the Assembly Fund some remarks may be made. The total receipts for the Fund have been $3,463.09; of this the amount of $3,248.48 has come from congregations, and $210 from the publishers of the Book of Concerns. The balance against the Fund is $1,874.33. Were the charges on publishers of the Book of Concerns strictly connected with the business of the General Assembly, the amount sought for from the Synod would be quite sufficient. But frequently considerable sums, which are not sought for from the Synod, are charged to the Assembly Fund, which is thus kept from being self-sufficient. From libraries would be quite sufficient. As an example, reference might be made to the amount charged this year to the Fund on account of the Hymn Book. It is hoped, however, that this may be refunded eventually. It has to be noticed, also, that some congregations, from year to year, neglect making any remittance on account of the Assembly Fund. Some congregations in our cities have never made any contribution since the union in 1875. It is recommended that the Assembly enjoin on all congregations to attend to this matter, and require Presbyteries, to see that all the congregations in their bounds duly remit for this object. In some Presbyteries the matter is attended to systematically; were all to do so the amount required could be easily obtained.

The accounts which follow have been examined and certified by the Honourable John McMurrich and John L. Blaikie, Esquire.
